To the Honorable Judges of the Circuit Court of the

Your orator, the United States of America, by and under the direction of Attorney General of the thereupon your orator complains of said defendants respectively and shows unto your Honors:

I.

That the complainant is now and was until the dates and times herein mentioned, the owner of the following described lands and premises, situate in the County of Linn, State and District of Oregon, and had the full legal title thereto at all said dates and times prior to the ninth (9th) day of July, 1902, and had the full legal [8] title to a portion of said lands as hereinafter shown up until August twelfth (12th) 1902, which said lands were, until the times herein mentioned, part of the public domain of the United States of America, and are particularly bounded and described as follows: The southeast quarter (SE. $\frac{1}{4}$), the northeast quarter (NE. $\frac{1}{4}$), and the southwest quarter (SW. $\frac{1}{4}$) section twenty-six (26) township fourteen (14) south, range two (2) east of the Willamette meridian; the east half of the east half and the west half of the northwest quarter and the west half of the southwest quarter (E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. $\frac{1}{2}$, W. $\frac{1}{2}$ NW. $\frac{1}{4}$, W. $\frac{1}{2}$ SW. $\frac{1}{4}$) section ten (10), township fourteen south (14 S) range three (3) east of the Willamette meridian, and the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter (SW. $\frac{1}{4}$ SW. $\frac{1}{4}$), south half of the southwest quarter (S. $\frac{1}{2}$ SW. $\frac{1}{4}$), northwest quarter of the southwest quarter (NW. $\frac{1}{4}$ SW. $\frac{1}{4}$), north half of the northeast quarter (N. $\frac{1}{2}$ NE. $\frac{1}{4}$), southeast quarter of northeast quarter (SE. $\frac{1}{4}$ NE. $\frac{1}{4}$) and the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter (NE. $\frac{1}{4}$ SE. $\frac{1}{4}$) of section eleven (11), and the west half of the west half (W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. $\frac{1}{2}$) of section twelve (12) and the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section seventeen (17), township fourteen (14) south, range three (3) east of the Willamette meridian; and the west half of the northeast quarter (W. $\frac{1}{2}$ NE. $\frac{1}{4}$), northeast quarter of the northeast quarter (NE. $\frac{1}{4}$ NE. $\frac{1}{4}$), south half of the southeast quarter (S. $\frac{1}{2}$ SE. $\frac{1}{4}$) and lots three (3) and four (4) section eighteen (18), and east half of the southwest quarter (E. $\frac{1}{2}$ SW. $\frac{1}{4}$), south half of southeast quarter (S. $\frac{1}{2}$ SE. $\frac{1}{4}$) of section twenty (20), and the northwest quarter (NW. $\frac{1}{4}$), west half of southwest quarter (W. $\frac{1}{2}$ SW. $\frac{1}{4}$), northeast quarter southwest quarter (NE. $\frac{1}{4}$ of SW. $\frac{1}{4}$), northwest quarter of southeast quarter (NW. $\frac{1}{4}$ SE. $\frac{1}{4}$), west half of northeast quarter (W. $\frac{1}{2}$ NE. $\frac{1}{4}$), southeast quarter of the northeast quarter (SE. $\frac{1}{4}$ NE. $\frac{1}{4}$), and the northeast quarter southeast quarter (NE. $\frac{1}{4}$ of SE. $\frac{1}{4}$) of section twenty-two (22); and the east half of the northwest quarter (E. $\frac{1}{2}$ NW. $\frac{1}{4}$), southwest quarter of northwest quarter (SW. $\frac{1}{4}$ NW. $\frac{1}{4}$) and southwest quarter northeast quarter (SW. $\frac{1}{4}$ NE. $\frac{1}{4}$) of section [9] twenty-four (24) and northwest quarter of northwest quarter (NW. $\frac{1}{4}$ NW. $\frac{1}{4}$) of section twenty-seven (27) and west half of northeast quarter (W. $\frac{1}{2}$ of NE. $\frac{1}{4}$), northeast quarter of northeast quarter (NE. $\frac{1}{4}$ NE. $\frac{1}{4}$) northwest quarter (NW. $\frac{1}{4}$), north half of southeast quarter (N. $\frac{1}{2}$ SE. $\frac{1}{4}$), and the north half of the southwest quarter (N. $\frac{1}{2}$ SW. $\frac{1}{4}$) of section twenty-eight (28), in township fourteen (14) south, range four (4) east of the Willamette meridian.

II.

That from and after the twelfth day of August, 1902, the complainant still continued to be, and is

Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John O. Thompson should solicit and procure persons to make applications and entries, together with and in addition to certain of themselves upon the lands above described, under the Act of Congress of June third (3d) 1878, providing for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and in Washington Territory, at the United States Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, and that the said O. Kribs, C. A. Smith, Charles J. Swenson, or some of them, and that as soon as said applicants should be permitted to enter said lands so to be filed upon by him or her and a certificate should issue to such applicant, showing that such applicant had been permitted to enter said lands so filed upon and had made payment in full therefor, as required by law, then such applicant would thereupon and thereafter execute and deliver to the said defendants Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith and Charles J. Swenson or some of them, a warranty deed, conveying said lands to the said Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith or Charles J. Swenson or some of them, and the said defendants O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John O. Thompson should promise each of said applicants upon behalf of themselves and said defendants Frederick A. V.

That thereafter, on and between the eighth (8th) day of May, 1900, and the nineteenth (19th) day of July, 1900, pursuant to said unlawful conspiracy and agreement, hereinafter set forth, the defendants O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. VI.

Your orator further shows unto your Honors and alleges: That pursuant to said unlawful conspiracy and agreement each of said applicants to purchase and enter timber lands, mentioned and described in the last preceding paragraph of this Bill, with the exception of the defendants O. Judd Mealey and John A. Thompson, prior to making [13] and filing his or her application to purchase and enter said lands, made and entered into a contract and agreement with the said defendants O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, whereby each of said applicants promised and agreed to purchase and enter said lands for the use and benefit of the defendants Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith and Charles J. Swenson whom the said O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson then and there represented and acted for, and each of said applicants further agreed that upon being permitted to enter and purchase the lands so applied for to thereupon and thereafter transfer, convey and set over said lands by warranty deed to the said Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith and Charles J. Swenson, or some of them, and the said defendants O. Judd Mealey, and John A. Thompson, prior to making their said applications and entries, hereinbefore mentioned, each entered into an agreement with the said defendants C. A. Smith and Frederick A. Kribs, in and by which the said O. Judd Mealey and John A. Thompson each promised and agreed, upon being permitted to enter said lands so applied for and filed upon by him, to transfer, convey and set over said lands by warranty deed to the said defendants Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith or Charles J. Swenson; and in consideration of the foregoing agreements made by such applicants except the said O. Judd Mealey and John A. Thompson, the said O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson promised and agreed to pay to each of said applicants the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) and pay all the expenses of filing and making final proof thereon, together with the purchase price of the lands applied for by each of said applicants; and the said defendant Frederick A. Kribs promised and agreed to pay all the expenses of filing and making final proof, together with the purchase price of the lands included in the respective applications and entries of the said O. Judd Mealey, and John A. Thompson.

And your orator further shows unto your Honors and alleges: That each of said applicants hereinbefore mentioned and described and upon the dates hereinbefore set forth, filed a written statement in duplicate which is hereinbefore designated as "Timber [14] and Stone Sworn Statement," in which said written statement each of said applicants designated by legal subdivision the particular tract of land he or she desired to purchase, and set forth that the same was unfit for cultivation and valuable chiefly for its timber; that it was uninhabited, contained no mining or other improvements, nor, as such applicant verily believed, any valuable deposit of gold, silver, cinnabar, copper or coal, and that such applicant had made no other application under said Act, and that he or she did not apply to purchase the land above described on speculation, but in good faith to appropriate it to his or her own exclusive use and benefit, and that he or she had not directly or indirectly made any agreement in any way or manner with any person or persons whomsoever, by which the title which he or she might acquire from the Government of the United States should inure to the benefit of any persons except himself or herself, which said statement of each of said applicants was verified by the oath of the respective applicants before the Register or Receiver of the said Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, or before some other officer authorized by law to administer such oath.

Your orator further shows unto your Honors and alleged: That upon the filing of said statements, as hereinbefore set forth, the Register of the said United States Land Office, at Roseburg, Oregon, posted a notice of each of said applicants, as required by law, and furnished each of said applicants a copy of such notice for publication, and the said defendants O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson pursuant to said unlawful conspiracy and agreement hereinbefore mentioned, caused each of said notices to be duly and regularly published in a newspaper, as required by law, and after the expiration of such application the said defendants O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson furnished to the Register of said Roseburg Land Office satisfactory evidence that said notice of the application of each of said applicants had been duly published in an newspaper, as required by law, and procured each of said applicants to furnish satisfactory evidence to said Register that the said land included in each of said applications [15] was unfit for cultivation and valuable chiefly for its timber, and that said land was unoccupied and without improvements either mining or agricultural, and that it apparently contained no valuable deposit of gold, silver, cinnabar, copper or coal; and upon the submission of said evidence and proof so furnished and offered, and notwithstanding the facts as hereinbefore set forth, the officers of the said United States Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, being ignorant thereof, and having no means of knowing or ascertaining the same, did receive from each of said applicants the sum of $400.00 as payment for the lands described in said respective applications, under the said act of Congress of June third (3d), 1878, at the rate of $2.50 per acre, and permitted each of said applicants to enter the lands described in his or her respective applications, and issued to each of said applicants a certificate to the effect that such applicant had purchased the land described therein and had made payment in full therefor, as required by law, which said entries, payments and certificates were permitted, made and issued on the dates and in the manner following, to wit:

Final Certificate Number 8510, Richard F. Malone, October ninth (9th), 1900;

Final Certificate Number 8516, William J. Lawrence, October ninth (9th), 1900;

Final Certificate Number 8508, Alexander Gould, October ninth (9th), 1900;

Final Certificate Number 8511, John J. Gilliland, October ninth (9th), 1900;

Final Certificate Number 8512, Louis Maynard, October ninth (9th), 1900;

Final Certificate Number 8419, O. Judd Mealey, October ninth (9th), 1900;

Final Certificate Number 8446, Joseph O. Mickalson, August twenty-seventh (27th), 1900;

Final Certificate Number 8517, James W. Rozell, October ninth (9th), 1900;

Final Certificate Number 8445, John Thomas Parker, August twenty-seventh (27th), 1900;

Final Certificate Number 8444, Samuel D. Pickens, August twenty-seventh (27th), 1900;

Final Certificate Number 8509, Sidney H. Scanland, October ninth (9th), 1900;

Final Certificate Number 8447, Joseph H. Steingrandt, August twenty-seventh (27th), 1900;

Final Certificate Number 8422, John A. Thompson, August sixteenth (16th), 1900;

Final Certificate Number 8513, Cornelius N. Tut-hill, October ninth (9th), 1900;

Final Certificate Number 8522, R. C. Watkins, October ninth (9th), 1900; [16]

Final Certificate Number 8443, Charles Wiley, August twenty-seventh (27th), 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8416, Fred Wodtli, August sixteenth (16th), 1900; and Final Certificate No. 8442, William W. Billings, August twenty-seventh (27th), 1911.

VII.

And your orator further shows unto your Honors that pursuant to said unlawful conspiracy to defraud the United States out of its said lands as aforesaid and pursuant to said unlawful agreements entered into by the said defendants O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, with each of said applicants prior to making and filing applications for the purchase of the lands hereinbefore described, the said O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, at the time each of said applicants made proof before the officers of the United States Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, as aforesaid, paid and advanced all the expenses and fees of each of said applicants and their respective witnesses, and paid, advanced and furnished the purchase money for the lands included in the application of each of said applicants except that the expenses, fees and purchase price of the lands included in the applications of the said O. Judd Mealey and John A. Thompson were paid by the defendant Frederick A. Kribs, and in truth and in fact the said Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith, and Charles J. Swenson furnished and advanced all the moneys with which the fees, expenses and purchase moneys of the said applicants upon their said respective applications and entries, were paid; and thereupon each of said applicants executed and delivered to the defendant Frederick A. Kribs a warranty deed purporting to transfer, convey and set over unto the said defendant, Frederick A. Kribs, the title to the lands included in described in their respective applications and entries; and in each of said deeds the applicants who were married were joined by their respective wives or husbands.

VIII.

And your orator further shows unto your Honors and alleges, that each of the applications and entries hereinbefore mentioned were made by the respective applicants and entrymen and entrywoman [17] as agents of and for the use and benefit of the said defendants C. A. Smith, Frederick A. Kribs and Charles J. Swenson.

IX.

And your orator further shows unto your Honors and alleges: That thereafter the land officers of said United States Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, transmitted to the General Land Office the papers and testimony relating to each of said applications, and thereafter, notwithstanding the facts hereinbefore mentioned and set forth, the President of the United States and the officers of the Department of the Interior and the General Land Office of the United States of America, being ignorant thereof and having no means of ascertaining the same, did on the ninth (9th) day of July, 1902, and the twelfth (12th) day of August, 1902, respectively, issue to each of said applicants to purchase and enter timber lands as hereinbefore set forth, a patent purporting to convey to the respective applicants the land described in their respective applications.

X.

And your orator further avers that the false and fraudulent representations made by the defendants, as hereinbefore set forth, were all made with the intent to deceive and defraud the United States out of the use of, title to and possession of the lands hereinbefore described, and that your complainant relied upon said false and fraudulent representations so made as aforesaid, and by reason of such false and fraudulent representations and unlawful and corrupt practices of the said defendants, all of said patents hereinbefore mentioned and described are void and ought to be cancelled and annulled and held for naught.

XI.

And your orator further shows unto your Honors, that all of said lands patented to the defendants as hereinbefore set forth, were applied for, entered and filed upon by each of said defendants for the use and benefit of the defendants Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith, and Charles J. Swenson and that before said lands were patented as aforesaid, to the respective defendants, each of said defendants conveyed the lands respectively patented to him or her, to the defendant [18] Frederick A. Kribs and hereinbefore alleged, and that the said defendant Frederick A. Kribs and his wife executed, acknowledged and delivered to the defendants C. A. Smith, on the twenty-fourth (24) day of October, 1904, a deed which purported to convey to the said C. A. Smith a three-quarter (3/4) undivided interest in and to the said lands patented as hereinbefore set forth and on the twenty-eighth (28th) day of December, 1904, the defendant Frederick A. Kribs and his wife executed, acknowledged and delivered to the defendant Charles J. Swenson a deed, which purported to convey to the said Charles J. Swenson a one-quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) undivided interest in and to all of the lands patented to the respective defendants as hereinbefore set forth.

And your orator further charges and avers that in each and every instance, and as to each and every party in this paragraph and above mentioned, he took and received said respective title deeds with full notice of the fraud so perpetrated upon your orator as alleged in this Bill of Complaint and without having paid or given any consideration therefor except that the said defendants Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith and Charles J. Swenson paid and advanced all the fees and expenses of the respective applicants to purchase and enter said lands and paid the purchase money received by the Government of the United States therefor, and paid to each of such applicants the sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) and further paid the said defendants O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and J. A. Thompson certain sums of money, the amounts of which are unknown to your orator, for soliciting and procuring said persons to apply for an enter and file upon said lands; all of which said payments were made under agreements made with the respective persons prior to the time at which said applications and entries were made; and said deeds were executed, acknowledged and delivered, taken and received, respectively by the said defendants as mentioned hereinbefore in this Bill of Complaint for the purpose of effecting the objects and purposes of said unlawful conspiracy hereinbefore described, and each of such purchases and deeds is void in equity, and should be so declared [19] in favor of the United States and any purchases or pretended purchases, or incumbrances or liens, or pretended incumbrances or apparent liens alleged to be existing in law or in equity thereon, upon such lands or any portion thereof, should be declared fraudulent by the decree of this Honorable Court.

Forasmuch, therefore, as the complainant has been so as above alleged, cheated and defrauded out of its valuable lands and is remediless at and by the strict rules of the common law and is only relievable in a court of equity wherein such matters are fully cognizable and relievable, and to the end that the said defendants mentioned in the title to this Bill of Complaint and each of them may full, true, direct and certain answers make according to the best of their knowledge, information and belief to all and singular the matters and charges aforesaid, but not on oath, their answer on oath being hereby expressly waived, your orator prays as follows: that the said defendants mentioned in the title to this Bill of Complaint may be held adjudged and decreed to have defrauded the complainant of the lands and each and every description thereof hereinbefore set forth as patented by complainant to them or either of them; and that by reason of such frauds the patents issued to them or either of them or to others in their behalf, be declared void, and as such be held for naught and set aside and the said land restored to the public domain of complainant; and that the defendants and each of them be held to pay into the treasury of complainant all such reasonable sums of money as it may be found necessary to lay out and expend in and about discovering and establishing the fraud, so as hereinbefore set forth and charged, and that this complainant may have all such further relief in the premises as may be conformable to equity and good conscience and as such seem proper to this Honorable Court. May it please your Honors to grant unto the complainant the Writ of Subpoena issuing out of and under the seal of this Honorable Court to be directed to the said defendants mentioned in the title to this Bill of Complaint, commanding them and each of them by a certain day and under a certain penalty therein to be inserted to be and [20] appear before this Honorable Court, and then and there to answer the premises and further to stand to and abide such order as shall be agreeable to equity and good conscience, and your orator will ever pray.

Filed July 27, 1908. G. H. Marsh, Clerk U. S. Circuit Court, District of Oregon. [41]

And afterwards, to wit, on the 5th day of September, 1908, there was duly filed in said court a plea of Frederick A. Kribs et al., to the Bill of Complaint, in words and figures as follows, to wit: [42]

[Joint and Several Plea of Frederick A. Kribs et al. to Complaint.]

(Title of Court and Cause.)

The joint and several plea of Frederick A. Kribs, O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey, John A. Thompson (in the bill called J. A. Thompson), Richard F. Malone, John J. Gilliland, Louis Maynard, Joseph O. Michaelson, James W. Rozell, John Thomas Parker, Samuel D. Pickens, Sidney H. Scanland, Joseph H. Steingrandt, Richard D. Watkinds and Charles Wiley, defendants to the bill of complaint of the complainant.

These defendants, by protestation, not confessing or acknowledging all or any part of the matters and things in said bill of complaint contained to be true, in manner and form as the same are therein set forth, for plea nevertheless to said bill aver and say that on or about the 31st day of May, A. D. 1906, a corporation was duly organized and created under the general laws of the State of Minnesota by the name of Linn and Lane Timber Company, which said corporation by virtue of its charter and the general laws of said State of Minnesota, has at all times [43] had, and it now has, power and authority to buy, hold and sell timber and other lands and tenements in the United States of America, and to conduct forestry, mining and agricultural operations on the same, and which said corporation has at all times had, and it now has, its principal place of business at the City of Minneapolis in said State of Minnesota, and it has at all times, had, and it now has, officers and directors who reside at said City of Minneapolis. That on or about the 25th day of June, A. D. 1906, said corporation executed, acknowledged and caused to be filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State for said State of Oregon, a power of attorney wherein and whereby Frederick A. Kribs, a citizen of the United States, and a citizen and resident of said State of Oregon, was constituted and appointed its attorney in fact and agent, with such power and authority that lawful and valid service of all writs, processes or summons in any action, suit, or proceeding against said corporation in any of the Courts of said State of Oregon, or in any Court of the United States in said State of Oregon, might and could thenceforth at all times be made upon said corporation by service thereof upon said Kribs as such attorney in fact and agent. That on said 25th day of June, 1906, said corporation was authorized to engage in business within said State of Oregon, in accordance with the provisions of an Act of the Legislative Assembly of said State, approved February 16, 1903, entitled "An Act to Provide for the Licensing of Domestic Corporations and Foreign Corporations, etc." and said corporation has ever since said date been authorized, and it is now authorized, to buy, hold and sell timber and other lands and tenements in said State of Oregon, and ever since said date the said Frederick A. Kribs has continued to be, and he now is, the attorney in fact and agent of said corporation, for the purpose [44] and with the power and authority aforesaid; and ever since said date the said Frederick A. Kribs has resided, and he now resides, at the city of Portland, in said State, and his place of business has ever since said date been, and it now is, at Number 330 Chamber of Commerce Building, in said City of Portland.

These defendants further aver and say that on and prior to the 4th day of June, A. D. 1906, by virtue of divers mesne deeds and conveyances from the several entrymen in said bill of complaint named, Charles A. Smith became and was seized and possessed of the undivided three-fourths, and Charles J. Swanson of the undivided one-fourth of all the right, title, interest and estate which complainant granted in and to the lands described in said bill of complaint to the several entrymen in said bill named by the several patents in said bill mentioned and described; that while respectively so seized and possessed of said right, title, interest and estate in said land, the said Charles A. Smith, by a deed dated the 4th day of June, A. D. 1906, and duly executed by himself and Johanna A. Smith, his wife, and the said Charles J. Swanson, by a deed dated the 28th day of May, A. D. 1907, and duly executed by himself and Christine Swanson, his wife (which said deeds are recorded in the office of the Recorder of Conveyances for the County of Linn, in said State of Oregon), granted, bargained, sold and conveyed to the said Linn and Lane Timber Company all the right, title, interest and estate in and to all the lands described in said bill of which said Charles A. Smith and said Charles J. Swanson were then so respectively seized and possessed; that both said deeds were executed and delivered to said company a long time before the said bill of complaint was filed, to wit, before the 29th day of May, A. D. 1907, and the said Linn and Lane Timber Company has ever since been, and it now is, by virtue of said deeds, the owner [45] of all the right, title, interest and estate which complainant granted to the several entrymen named in said bill of complaint by the several patents in said bill mentioned and described, and that ever since said 29th day of May, 1907, said company has claimed, and it now claims, to be seized of an estate in fee simple, absolute, in and to all said lands by virtue of the patents and deeds aforesaid. That by reason of the right, title, interest and estate in and to said lands so acquired, held and claimed by said company, it, the said Linn and Lane Timber Company, is an indispensable party defendant herein, and for as much as the complainant has not made said company a party to said bill of complaint, said bill is deficient to answer the purposes of complete justice.

All of which matters and things these defendants do aver to be true and plead the same in abatement of complainant's said bill, and pray judgment of the Court whether they shall be compelled to further answer said bill, and pray to be hence dismissed with costs.

siding—the following proceedings were had in said cause, to wit: [48]

[Order Granting Fifteen Days Within Which to entitled cause coming on to be heard upon the motion plea herein alleging that the Linn & Lane Timber Company, a corporation, claims some right, title or interest in and to the subject matter of this suit and is an indispensable party herein, and the said John

McCourt representing that complainant desires to amend his said bill or file a supplemental bill herein bringing in said Linn & Lane Timber Company as a party [49] defendant but without admitting any of the allegations of said plea of said defendants herein to be true, except that conveyances have been placed of record in Linn County, Oregon, since the commencement of this suit purporting to convey the said lands in controversy herein to the said Linn & Lane Timber Company;

And it further appearing to the Court that the application of said complainants shall be allowed in order that whatever rights the said Linn & Lane Timber Company has in said lands, if any, may be litigated in this suit.

Therefore, it is ordered that complainant have fifteen days from this date within which to serve and file an amended or supplemental bill herein as may be determined upon by it.

VI.

Your orator further shows unto your Honors and alleges: That pursuant to said unlawful conspiracy and agreement each of said applicants to purchase and enter timber lands, mentioned and described in the last preceding paragraph of this Bill, with the exception of the defendants O. Judd Mealey and John A. Thompson, prior to [69] making and filing his or her application to purchase and enter said lands made and entered into a contract and agreement with the said defendants O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey, and John A. Thompson, whereby each of said applicants promised and agreed to purchase and enter said lands for the use and benefit of the defendants Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith, and Charles J. Swanson, whom the said O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson then and there represented and acted for, and each of said applicants further agreed that upon being permitted to enter and purchase the lands so applied for to thereupon and thereafter transfer, convey and set over said lands by warranty deed to the said Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith and Charles J. Swanson or some of them, and the said defendants O. Judd Mealey, and John A. Thompson, prior to making their said applications and entries, hereinbefore mentioned, each entered into an agreement with the said defendants, C. A. Smith and Frederick A. Kribs, in and by which the said O. Judd Mealey and John A. Thompson each promised and agreed, upon being permitted to enter said lands so applied for and filed upon by him, to transfer, convey and set over said lands by warranty deed to the said defendants Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith, or Charles J. Swanson; and in consideration of the foregoing agreements made by such applicants except the said O. Judd Mealey and John A. Thompson, the said O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, promised and agreed to pay each of said applicants the sum of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars, and pay all the expenses of filing and making final proof thereon, together with the purchase price of the lands applied for by each of said applicants; and the said defendant Frederick A. Kribs promised and agreed to pay all the expenses of filing and making final proof, together with the purchase [70] price of the lands included in the respective applications and entries of the said O. Judd Mealey and John A. Thompson.

And your orator further shows unto your Honors and alleges: That each of said applicants hereinbefore mentioned and described and upon the dates hereinbefore set forth, filed a written statement in duplicate which is hereinbefore set forth, filed a written statement in duplicate which is hereinbefore designated as "Timber and Stone Sworn Statement," in which said written statements each of said applicants designated by legal subdivision the particular tract of land he or she desired to purchase, and set forth that the same was unfit for cultivation and valuable chiefly for its timber; that it was uninhabited, containing no mining or other improvements, nor, as such applicant verily believed, any valuable deposit of gold, silver, cinnabar, copper or coal, and that such applicant had made no other application under said Act, and that he or she did not apply to purchase the land above described on speculation, but in good faith to appropriate it of his or her own exclusive use and benefit, and that he or she had not directly or indirectly made any agreement in any way or manner with any person or persons whomsoever, by which the title which he or she might acquire from the Government of the United States should inure to the benefit of any person except himself or herself, which said statement of each of said applicants was verified by the oath of the respective applicants before the Register or Receiver of the said Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, or before some other officer authorized by law to administer such oath.

Your orator further shows unto your Honors and alleges: That upon the filing of said statements, as hereinbefore [71] set forth, the register of the said United States Land Office, at Roseburg, Oregon, posted a notice of each of said applications, as required by law, furnished each of said applicants a copy of such notice for publication and the said defendants O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, pursuant to said unlawful conspiracy and agreement hereinbefore mentioned, caused each of said notices to be duly and regularly published in a newspaper, as required by law, and after the expiration of such publication the said defendants O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey, and John A. Thompson, furnished to the Register of said Roseburg Land Office satisfactory evidence that said notice of the application of each of said applicants had been duly published in a newspaper, as required by law, and procured each of said applicants to furnish satisfactory evidence to said Register that the said land included in each of said applications was unfit for cultivation and valuable chiefly for its timber, and that said land was unoccupied and without improvements either mining or agricultural, and that it apparently contained no valuable deposit of gold, silver, cinnabar, copper or coal; and upon the submission of said evidence and proof so furnished and offered, and notwithstanding the facts as hereinbefore set forth, the officers of the said United States Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, being ignorant thereof and having no means of knowing or ascertaining the same, did receive from each of said applicants the sum of $400.00 as payment for the lands described in said respective applications, under the said Act of Congress of June 3d, 1878, at the rate of $2.50 per acre, and permitted each of said applicants to enter the lands described in his or her respective applications, and issued to each of said applicants a certificate to the effect that such applicant had purchased [72] the land described therein and had made payment in full therefor, as required by law, which said entries, payments and certificates were permitted, made and issued on the cates and in the manner following, to wit:

Final Certificate No. 8510, Richard F. Malone, October 9th, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8516, William J. Lawrence, October 9th, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8508, Alexander Gould, October 9th, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8511, John J. Gilliland, October 9th, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8512, Louis Maynard, October 9, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8419, O. Judd Mealey, October 9, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8446, Joseph O. Mikalson, August 27th, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8517, James W. Rozell, October 9, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8445, John Thomas Parker, August 27th, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8444, Samuel D. Pickens, August 27, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8509, Sidney H. Scanland, October 9th, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8447, Joseph H. Steingrandt, August 27th, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8422, John A. Thompson, August 16th, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8513, Cornelius N. Tuthill, October 9th, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 9522, R. C. Watkins, October 9, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8443, Charles Wiley, August 27, 1900;

Final Certificate No. 8442, William W. Billings, August 27th, 1900;

And your orator further shows unto your Honors that pursuant to said unlawful conspiracy to defraud the United States out of its said lands as aforesaid and pursuant to said unlawful agreements entered into by the said defendants O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey, and John A. Thompson, with each of said applicants prior to making and filing applications for the purchase of the lands hereinbefore described, the said O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, at the time each of said applicants made proof before the officers of the United States Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, as aforesaid, paid and advanced all the expenses and fees of each of said applicants and their respective witnesses, and paid, advanced and furnished the purchase money for the lands included in the application fo each of said applicants except [73] that the expense, fees and purchase price of the lands included in the applications of the said O. Judd Mealey and John A. Thompson were paid by the defendant Frederick A. Kribs and in truth and in fact the said Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith and Charles J. Swanson, furnished and advanced all the moneys with which the fees, expenses and purchase moneys of the said applicants upon their said respective applications and entries, were paid; and thereupon each of said applicants executed and delivered to the defendant Frederick A. Kribs a warranty deed, purporting to transfer, convey and set over unto the said defendant, Frederick A. Kribs, the title to the lands included and described in their respective applications and entries; and in each of said deeds the applicants who were married were joined by their respective wives or husbands.

VIII.

And your orator further shows unto your Honors and alleges, that each of the applications and entries hereinbefore mentioned were made by the respective applicants and entrymen and entrywomen as agents of and for the use and benefit of the said defendants C. S. Smith, Frederick A. Kribs and Charles A. Swanson, and also that each and every of the statements and representations made by the respective applicants and entrymen and entrywomen aforesaid, in each of their respective applications, and in each of their respective final proofs, hereinbefore mentioned and referred to, was and were false, fraudulent and untrue, by reason and because of the facts hereinbefore set forth and alleged; and by reason and because of the facts that each legal subdivision of the particular tract of land which he or she desired to purchase, and described in his or her application, and in his or her final proof, was not [74] unfit for cultivation, and was not valuable chiefly for timber, and such applicant did not verily believe that the same contained no valuable deposits of gold, silver, cinnabar, copper or coal, and in truth and in fact such applicant had made other applications under said Act, and he or she did apply to purchase the lands above described on speculation and not in good faith and not to appropriate them to his or her own exclusive use and benefit, and he or she had directly or indirectly made an agreement in some way and manner with some person or persons, by which the title which he or she might acquire from the Government of the United States should inure to the benefit of some person except himself or herself, and in truth and in fact the oath of each of the respective applicants to their respective applications and their respective final proofs was wilfully and corruptly false and perjured, as the said applicant and the other defendants in this case then and there well knew, to wit, at the time of the making of said false representations and statements in said applications and in said final proofs, and at the time of making their respective oaths.

IX.

And your orator further avers that the said false and fraudulent representations aforesaid were each and all of them made by the defendants herein with the intent to deceive and defraud the United States out of the use of, title to and possession of the lands hereinbefore described; and that your complainant and its officers empowered to act in the premises being ignorant of the falsity thereof, and having no means of ascertaining the [75] same, relied thereon and were induced thereby to and did, on the 9th day of July, 1902, and the 12th day of August, 1902, respectively, issue to each of said applicants to purchase and enter timber lands as hereinbefore set forth, a patent purporting to convey to the respective applicants the land described in said application and proof to the applicant who applied therefor as aforesaid.

X.

And your orator further avers that by reason of such false and fraudulent representations and unlawful and corrupt practices of the said defendants, all of said patents hereinbefore mentioned and described are void and ought to be cancelled and annulled and held for naught.

XI.

And your orator further shows unto your Honors, that all of said lands patented to the defendants as hereinbefore set forth, were applied for, entered and filed upon by each of said defendants for the use and benefit of the defendants Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith, and Charles J. Swanson, and that before said lands were patented as aforesaid, to the respective defendants, each of said defendants conveyed the lands respectively patented to him or her, to the defendant Frederick A. Kribs as hereinbefore alleged, and that the said defendant Frederick A. Kribs and his wife executed, acknowledged and delivered to the defendant C. A. Smith, on the 24th day of October, 1904, a deed which purported to convey to the said C. A. Smith a three-quarter undivided interest in and to the said lands patented as hereinbefore set forth and on the 28th day of December, 1904, the defendant Frederick A. Kribs and his wife executed, acknowledged and delivered to the defendant Charles J. Swanson, a deed [76] which purported to convey to the said Charles J. Swanson, a one-quarter undivided interest in and to all of the lands patented to the respective defendants as hereinbefore set forth.

And your orator further charges and avers that in each and every instance, and as to each and every party in this paragraph as above mentioned, he took and received said respective title deeds with full notice of the fraud so perpetrated upon your orator as alleged in this Bill of Complaint and without having paid or given any consideration therefor except that the said defendants Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith and Charles J. Swanson, paid and advanced all the fees and expenses of the respective applicants to purchase and enter said lands and paid the purchase money received by the Government of the United States therefor, and paid to each of such applicants the sum of Fifty (50.00) Dollars and further paid the said defendants O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and J. A. Thompson certain sums of money, the amounts of which are unknown to your orator for soliciting and procuring said persons to apply for and enter and file upon said lands; all of which said payments were made under agreements made with the respective persons prior to the time at which said applications and entries were made; and said deeds were executed, acknowledged and delivered, taken and received, respectively, by the said defendants as mentioned hereinbefore in this Bill of Complaint for the purpose of effecting the objects and purposes of said unlawful conspiracy hereinbefore described, to prevent the United States from recovering said lands and that each of such conveyances and deeds and pretended purchases is void in equity and should be so declared in favor of the United States. And each of [77] such purchases and deeds is void in equity, and should be so declared in favor of the United States and any purchases or pretended purchases, or encumbrances, or liens, or pretended encumbrances or apparent liens alleged to be existing in law or in equity thereon, upon such lands or any portion thereof, should be declared fraudulent by the decree of this Honorable Court.

XII.

That thereafter the said defendant, C. A. Smith, intending further to defraud and deceive this complainant and to corruptly and fraudulently prevent complainant from recovering said lands hereinbefore described complied with the forms of the laws of the State of Minnesota relating to the organization of private corporations and on or about the 24th day of May, 1906, caused to be filed a certificate of the articles of incorporation in the office of the Secretary of State in and for said State of Minnesota. That said articles, or certificate of incorporation was executed by the said C. A. Smith, his wife Johanna A. Smith, and his son Vernon Smith, as incorporators, and it was stated in the said articles of incorporation that the name by which the corporation sought to be organized should be known, should be Linn & Lane Timber Company.

That thereafter the said defendant, C. A. Smith, complied with the forms of the laws of the State of Minnesota necessary to authorize the said Linn & Lane Timber Company, to transact business as a corporation in the State of Minnesota. That the purpose of the formation of said corporation was to form a holding company for lands in the State of Oregon owned or claimed by the said defendant C. A. Smith. That your orator is informed and believes that all stock [78] of said corporation, if any was ever issued, to persons other than the said C. A. Smith, was and is held for the use and benefit of the said defendant, C. A. Smith. That said corporation is named in the title of this amended bill as a defendant herein.

That thereafter the defendant, C. A. Smith, for the purpose, among others, of fraudulently and corruptly preventing complainant from recovering the lands hereinbefore described on or about the 25th day of June, 1906, caused to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon, a certified copy of the articles and certificate of incorporation of said Linn & Lane Timber Company, together with what purported to be the appointment of the defendant, F. A. Kribs as attorney in fact of said corporation in and for the State of Oregon; and ever since said time that the said defendants C. A. Smith and F. A. Kribs, have and do now pretend that the said defendant, F. A. Kribs, was and is such attorney in fact in and for the State of Oregon, of said Linn & Lane Timber Company.

XIII.

That thereafter, on or about the 9th day of September, 1908, the defendant, C. A. Smith, caused to be filed for record with the Recorder of Conveyances for Linn County, Oregon, two certain deeds purporting to have been executed by Charles J. Swanson, and Christina Swanson, his wife, and the said C. A. Smith and Johanna A. Smith, his wife, bearing dates, respectively, the 28th day of May, 1907, and the 4th day of June, 1906, each purporting to convey to the defendant, Linn & Lane Timber Company, the lands hereinbefore described. And your orator further avers and alleges that said deed of the said Charles J. Swanson, and his [79] said wife, Christina Swanson, was made and executed to the said Linn & Lane Timber Company without consideration and with full knowledge upon the part of said corporation of the fraudulent practice hereinbefore set forth and for the use and benefit of the said defendant, C. A. Smith, and for the corrupt and fraudulent purpose of preventing your complainant from recovering said land and that the said deed of the said defendant, C. A. Smith and Johanna A. Smith, his wife, was executed to the said defendant Linn & Lane Timber Company for the corrupt and fraudulent purpose of preventing complainant from recovering said lands and without consideration paid therefor, and with full knowledge upon the part of said corporation of the fraudulent practice hereinbefore set forth and for the use and benefit of the said defendant C. A. Smith, and that said deed was not executed at the date which it bears upon its face, but was executed by the said defendant, C. A. Smith and Johanna A. Smith, his wife, long after the commencement of this suit and shortly prior to the time the same was offered for record as aforesaid, and that your orator had no knowledge or notice of said deeds of the said Charles J. Swanson, and his wife, Christina Swanson, and the said C. A. Smith and Johanna A. Smith, his wife, until after the same were offered for record as aforesaid, and the existence of the same was concealed from your orator up until the time they were offered for record as aforesaid, for the corrupt and fraudulent purpose of preventing complainant from recovering said lands, and your orator had no means of discovering the existence of said last mentioned deeds until they were so offered for recording.

XIV.

And your orator further avers that the false and fraudulent representations and corrupt and unconscionable [80] practices made and engaged in by the defendants as hereinbefore set forth, were all made with the intent and for the purpose of deceiving and defrauding the United States out of the use of, title to, and possession of, the lands hereinbefore described, and that your complainant relied upon said false and fraudulent representations so made as aforesaid, and by reason of such false and fraudulent representations and unlawful and corrupt practices of the said defendants, all of said patents hereinbefore mentioned and described are void and ought to be canceled and annulled and held for naught, and any and every purchase or pretended purchase or encumbrance or lien or pretended encumbrance or apparent lien alleged by defendants or any of them to be existing at law or in equity upon the lands hereinbefore described or any portion thereof should be declared void by the decree of this Honorable Court.

XV.

Your orator further shows unto your Honors that immediately prior to the commencement of this suit your orator caused diligent search and inquiry to be made for the purpose of ascertaining the existence of any and all right, title and interest in any manner asserted or claimed in or to any of said lands, together with the names of any and all parties so asserting or claiming the same, and particularly those claiming to have the legal title thereto, by succession from the aforesaid original patentees, or otherwise, for the purpose of setting forth any and all such alleged right, title and interest in the original bill of complaint herein, and making all persons and corporations claiming or asserting the same, parties defendant to this suit. [81]

And in that behalf your orator caused inquiries to be made of all persons known to your orator who would be likely to possess any information upon the subject aforesaid, and caused diligent and accurate search to be made of the public records of Linn

County, Oregon, wherein all of said lands are situated (and being the only public records known to your orator to contain any information upon said subject), including the registry records of said county pertaining to mortgages, deeds and other conveyances, and the records of the assessor's and sheriff's offices of said county concerning the assessment of said lands and the payment of taxes thereon.

That such search and inquiry did not reveal any right, title or interest in or to any of said lands, in favor of, or claimed or asserted by, said Linn and Lane Timber Company, nor the existence of said Linn and Lane Timber Company; on the contrary, said search and inquiry disclosed that the defendants alleged in complainant's original bill of complaint to be claiming certain interests and estates in said lands were the only persons asserting or claiming any right, title or interest in or to any of said lands, and further disclosed that they, the said original defendants, had continuously asserted such claims subsequent to the time said alleged deeds of conveyance to said Linn and Lane Timber Company purport to have been executed, and down to and until the time of the filing of the original bill of complaint herein, that is to say, the registry records of said county disclosed that the legal title to all of said lands was in the aforesaid alleged grantors of said Linn [82] and Lane Timber Company, and the records of the assessor's and sheriff's offices of said county disclosed that all of said lands were assessed in the names of, and the taxes assessed thereupon were paid by, said alleged grantors of said Linn and Lane Timber Company; and said inquiries made by and on behalf of your orator as aforesaid revealed the fact to be, and your orator alleges, that all of the lands described in this amended bill of complaint now are, and at all times have been, unoccupied, and none of said lands have ever been in the actual occupation or possession of any person or corporation, or at all.

And your orator says that if said Linn and Lane Timber Company ever acquired any alleged right, title or interest in or to any of said lands, it has at all times thereafter until September 9, 1908, permitted the public records of said Linn County to show that its alleged grantors held the legal title to all of said lands, and has at all times permitted all of said lands to be assessed in the names of its aforesaid grantors, and has further permitted said records to show that the taxes assessed upon all of said lands were paid by its aforesaid alleged grantors; and your orator further says that one of the said alleged grantors of said Linn and Lane Timber Company, to wit, C. A. Smith, in whose name a large part of said lands have been assessed and taxes thereon paid as aforesaid, was one of the incorporators of said Linn and Lane Timber Company as aforesaid, and at all times has been and still is the President thereof.

By reason of the premises your orator was kept in ignorance of any and all pretended rights and interests of said Linn and Lane Timber Company in or to any of said [83] lands, until apprised thereof by the filing of that certain plea interposed herein on the 5th day of September, 1908, by certain of the original defendants herein, whereby the aforesaid alleged rights and interests of said Linn and Lane Timber Company are set forth; and further by reason of the premises your orator was induced to believe, and at all times until apprised to the contrary as aforesaid did believe, that no right, title or interest of any kind or nature was asserted or claimed by any person or corporation other than as set forth in the original bill of complaint herein.

FORASMUCH, THEREFORE, as you orator is without adequate remedy in the premises, except in a court of equity where such matters are properly relievable, and to the end, therefore, that your orator may have that relief which may be obtained in a court of equity and in this court having jurisdiction thereof under the aforesaid facts as alleged, and that the defendants and each of them may answer the premises and show, if he or she can, why your complainant should not have the relief herein prayed for;

Your orator prays and requests of Your Honors to grant unto your complainant a writ of subpoena to be directed to said defendant, Linn and Lane Timber Company, and to such defendants as have not yet been served with process herein and each of them, commanding him or her at a day certain, and under a penalty therein to be limited to personally appear before this Honorable Court then and there well, true and direct and perfect answer make to all and singular the premises, but not under oath or affirmation, the benefit whereof is hereby expressly waived, and to stand, perform and abide by such order and decree as may be made against them in the premises [84] as to your Honors shall seem meet and agreeable in equity and at the defendants herein that have been heretofore served with process or have heretofore appeared herein shall make like answer at a day certain to be named by your Honors under like conditions, that your complainant may have such further and other relief in the premises as the nature of the circumstances may require and particularly that your orator may have a decree canceling and annulling and setting aside all liens and encumbrances and pretended liens and encumbrances upon said lands, and divesting the defendants, and each of them, of and from all right, title, estate in law or equity and of all claim or interest of whatsoever kind or nature that they or any of them may assert thereto, and in and about the premises may make such further orders or decree as may be meet and agreeable to equity, and that your complainant may have its costs in this suit, and recover such damages and penalties herein as to your Honors and circumstances may seem to warrant and as may seem meet and agreeable to equity.

Notice of Appearance. Filed December 29, 1908.
G. H. Marsh, Clerk U. S. Circuit Court, District of Oregon. [95]

And afterwards, to wit, on the 29th day of January, 1909, there was duly filed in said court an Answer of C. A. Smith et al. to the Amended Bill of Complaint, in words and figures as follows, to wit: [96]

[Joint and Several Answers of Charles A. Smith et al. to Amended Bill.]

(Title of Court and Cause.)

The joint and several answers of Charles A. Smith, Charles J. Swanson and Frederick A. Kribs, defendants, to the amended bill of complaint of the United States of America, the complainant.

These defendants respectively now and at all times hereafter saving and reserving to themselves all and all manner of benefit of exception or otherwise that can or may be had or taken to the many errors, uncertainties and imperfections in the said amended bill of complaint contained, for answer thereto, or to so much thereof as these defendants are advised it is material or necessary for them to make answer to, answering say:

FIRST. These defendants respectively deny that Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith, Charles J. Swanson, O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey, John A. Thompson, or any of them, either together with other persons or otherwise, ever entered into a conspiracy or agreement to defraud the complainant out of the title to the lands described in the amended bill, or any of said lands. And these defendants respectively say it is not true that is was ever understood or agreed between the [97] persons named in this paragraph, or any of them, that O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, or any of them, should solicit or procure any person to make application for or entry on any of said land under any Act of Congress or otherwise; or that said O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, or any of them, should procure or obtain from any person filing on any of said lands any agreement or promise that the title which such person might acquire from the complainant should inure to the benefit of Frederick A. Kribs, or C. A. Smith, or Charles J. Swanson; or that any person after filing on any of said lands and receiving certificate that he had been permitted to file thereon, should or would execute or deliver to Frederick A. Kribs, or C. A. Smith, or Charles J. Swanson, any deed or other conveyance of any of said lands; or that O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, or any of them, should promise any person to pay any expense of filing, or of making final proof on any of said lands, or the price required to be paid to the complainant for any of said lands, or any part of such expense or purchase price.

SECOND. These defendants respectively have no reason to doubt, and therefore believe, that applications to enter and purchase the several tracts of land described in the amended bill, under the Act of Congress in said bill referred to, were made by the several entrymen in said amended bill named, at the United States Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, at or about the times in said amended bill stated, and that each application was verified by the oath of the person making such application, and filed on the date mentioned in the amended bill, and that each application was for the land in that behalf described in said amended bill, except that the land applied for by O. Judd Mealey was in Range 2 East, and the land applied for by Joseph Steingrandt was in Section 10, Township 14 South, Range 3 East.

THIRD. These defendants respectively do not know and cannot set forth as to their or either of their belief or otherwise whether or not it is alleged or is the fact that O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A.

Thompson, or any of them, solicited or procured any of said entrymen to make any of the aforesaid applications to purchase and enter [98] said lands, and therefore leave the complainant to make such proof thereof as it shall be able to produce.

FOURTH. These defendants respectively say it is not true that any of said applicants, prior to making or filing his application to purchase or enter said land, made a contract or agreement with O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, or any of them, whereby such applicant promised or agreed to purchase or enter said lands, or any part of the same, for the use or benefit of Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith, or Charles J. Swanson; or that O. Judd Mealey or John A. Thompson, prior to making or filing his said application agreed to transfer, convey or set over any of said land, to Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith, or Charles J. Swanson, or entered into any agreement with Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith or Charles J. Swanson to transfer, or convey, or set over any of said lands to said Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith or Charles J. Swanson. And these defendants respectively say it not true that prior to the making or filing of said applications, Frederick A. Kribs promised to pay any expense of filing, or of making final proof, or the purchase price on or for any of the lands entered by O. Judd Mealey or John A. Thompson.

FIFTH. These defendants respectively do not know and cannot set forth as to their or either of their belief or otherwise whether or not it is alleged or is the fact that O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey or

John A. Thompson promised or agreed to pay any of said applicants the sum of $50, or any other sum, or the expense of filing or of making final proof on any of said lands, or the purchase price, for any of said lands, or any part of such expense or purchase price, and these defendants therefore leave the complainant to make such proof thereof as it shall be able to produce.

SIXTH. These defendants respectively have no reason to doubt, and therefore believe that the Timber and Stone Sworn Statements mentioned in the amended bill, contained and set forth, respectively, the several matters which in that behalf are in said amended bill specified, but for greater certainty these defendants crave leave to refer to said statements when produced. [99]

SEVENTH. These defendants respectively have no reason to doubt, and therefore believe, that upon filing the aforesaid statements, the Register of said United States Land Office posted a notice of each application as required by law, and furnished each applicant a copy of such notice for publication in a newspaper as required by law, and that satisfactory evidence that said notices had been so published in a newspaper was furnished to said Register, and that the applicants, respectively, furnished satisfactory evidence to said Register that the land covered by his application or entry was unfit for cultivation and valuable chiefly for timber, and that it was unoccupied and without improvement, either mining or agricultural, and that it apparently contained no valuable deposits of gold, silver, cinnebar, copper or coal; and that upon submission of such proof the officers of said Land Office received from each applicant $400 as payment for the land described in the application of such applicant at the rate of $2.50 per acre, and permitted each applicant to enter the land described in his application, and issued to each applicant a certificate of purchase, as stated in said amended bill, but for greater certainty as to said final proofs and certificates of purchase these defendants crave leave to refer to the same when produced.

EIGHTH. These defendants respectively do not know and cannot set forth as to their or either of their belief or otherwise whether or not it is alleged or is the fact that O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey or John A. Thompson caused any of the notices referred to in the foregoing paragraph (except the notices furnished to O. Judd Mealey and John A. Thompson) to be published in a newspaper, or furnished to the Register of said Land Office evidence that any of said notices (except the notices furnished to said Mealey and Thompson), had been published in a newspaper, or procured any of the applicants to furnish any evidence to said Register, and these defendants therefore leave the complainant to make such proof thereof as it shall be able to produce.

NINTH. These defendants respectively say that defendant Frederick A. Kribs resided in the State of Oregon during the years 1900 to 1903, both inclusive, and that during this period he was engaged in buying and selling timber lands situated in the States of Oregon and [100] California, and that during said period defendant Charles A. Smith resided in the City of Minneapolis, in the State of Minnesota; that on or about the first day of January, 1900, it was agreed between said Kribs and Smith that said Kribs might from time to time submit to said Smith lists of timber lands in said Oregon and California, acquired or bargained for by him, the said Kribs, together with information concerning the timber on such lands, and the price paid or bargained to be paid for the same by said Kribs, and that said Smith might thereupon purchase the lands so submitted at the price paid or bargained to be paid for the same by said Kribs, with a reasonable amount per acre added to such price, which amount to be added was thereafter fixed and agreed upon by said Kribs and Smith to be the sum of twenty-seven and one-half cents per acre; that said agreement was modified on the 21st day of December, 1901, so that the price to be paid by said Smith thereafter under said agreement was to be fifty cents per acre in addition to the price paid or bargained to be paid by said Kribs for such lands, and said agreement was again modified on the 5th day of December, 1902, so that the price to be paid by said Smith under said agreement during the following twelve months was to be thirty cents per acre in addition to the price paid or bargained to be paid by said Kribs for such lands; that said Smith being a large purchaser of timber lands in said States during said period, it was considered that if it should be generally known in any locality that said Smith was purchasing timber lands in such locality such knowledge would tend to unduly advance prices, and with a view of acquiring timber lands at a reasonable price, it was further understood and agreed between said Kribs and Smith, that the latter might designate persons other than himself in whose name title might be taken to such lands as said Smith might purchase pursuant to said agreement.

TENTH. These defendants respectively say that between the 17th day of April and the 13th day of October, 1900, said Frederick A. Kribs purchased from the entrymen named in the amended bill, respectively, at the price of $4.75 per acre, the land for which said entrymen had theretofore respectively made and filed the timber and stone sworn statements described in the amended bill, and for said consideration then paid to said entrymen, they respectively conveyed [101] to said Kribs, the wives of the married entrymen joining, the lands covered by their respective entries, and said conveyances were in each instance by deed in which the entrymen covenanted that he was seized in fee simple and that he would warrant and defend the premises conveyed against all lawful claims whatsoever. These defendants respectively say that thereafter the said Frederick A. Kribs offered the lands so conveyed to him to said C. A. Smith in accordance with the aforesaid agreement between them, and said Smith accepted said lands, and paid for the same $4.75 per acre, and twenty-seven and one-half cents per acre additional, in accordance with the said agreement, which was then the fair and full value of said lands, and having so accepted said lands and paid for the same, said Smith, in accordance with the said agreement, directed an undivided one-fourth interest in said lands to be conveyed to Charles J. Swanson, and the remaining three-fourths interest to himself, and in accordance with such direction said Kribs and his wife executed and delivered to said Smith a deed, conveying to him an undivided three-fourths interest in said lands, and also executed and delivered to said Swanson a deed conveying to him an undivided one-fourth interest in said lands, and in each said deeds said Kribs covenanted that he was seized in fee simple of said lands, and had good right to sell and convey the same, and that he would warrant and defend the same against all persons lawfully claiming or to claim the whole or any part thereof.

ELEVENTH. These defendants respectively say that they, respectively, had no notice or knowledge of any of the alleged conspiracies, frauds, or irregularities complained of in the amended bill prior to the commencement of this suit, and that each in accepting and paying for each deed, executed and delivered to him as stated in the foregoing paragraph, acted in good faith, believing that the grantor in such deed could then rightfully and lawfully sell and convey the lands covered by such deed.

TWELFTH. These defendants respectively do not know and cannot set forth as to their or either of their belief or otherwise whether or not it is alleged or is the fact that any statement or representation [102] in any of the applications or final proofs referred to in the amended bill was false, or fraudulent, or untrue, or made with intent to deceive or defraud the complainant out of the use of, or title to, or possession of, any of said lands, and these defendants therefore leave complainant to make such proof thereof as it may be able to produce.

THIRTEENTH. These defendants respectively deny that any of the applications or entries referred to in the amended bill of complaint was made by any of said applicants and entrymen as agent of, or for the use or benefit of, any of these defendants.

FOURTEENTH. These defendants respectively believe that on the 9th day of July, 1902, complainant issued a patent to each of the following named applicants, to wit: O. Judd Mealey, Joseph O. Mikalson, John Thomas Parker, Samuel D. Pickens, Joseph H. Steingrandt, John A. Thompson, Charles Wiley and William W. Billings, and that on the 12th day of August, 1902, complainant issued a patent to each of the other said applicants, and that complainant thereby granted and conveyed to each applicant the land covered by his said application and entry.

FIFTEENTH. These defendants respectively say it is not true that any of the deeds hereinbefore referred to was without consideration, or that any of these defendants paid or advanced to any of said entrymen any fee or expense, or any of the purchase money paid to the complainant, or any other sum, except that said Kribs paid said entrymen the consideration for their deeds to him as hereinbefore stated. And these defendants respectively say it is not true that any deed hereinbefore referred to was given to prevent complainant from recovering any of the lands described in the amended bill.

SIXTEENTH. These defendants respectively say that on or about the 31st day of May, 1906, defendant, the Linn and Lane Timber Company, was duly organized as a corporation under the general laws of the State of Minnesota, and its certificate of incorporation was executed by Charles A. Smith, Johanna A. Smith, and John Lind, and was recorded in the office of the Secretary of State for the said State of Minnesota on May 24, 1906, but said certificate was not executed by [103] Vernon Smith. And these defendants respectively say that said company was not organized for any purpose except as stated in said certificate of incorporation in the following words, to wit: "To buy, hold and sell timber lands and tenements in the United States of America and to conduct forestry, mining and agricultural operations on the same; to carry on logging operations, and buy, sell, store and transport logs and other forest products for itself and others; to build and operate mills for the manufacture of lumber and other wood and forest products; to construct and operate dams, sluices, ditches, flumes, chutes, booms, tramways and other appliances for irrigation and for carrying on the mining, agricultural, logging and manufacturing operations of the corporation; to develop electric energy and other power for the operation of its works and the transportation of its products and for sale."

SEVENTEENTH. These defendants respectively say it is not true that said Linn and Lane Timber Company was organized by C. A. Smith or any other person with intent to defraud or deceive complainant, or to prevent complainant from recovering any of the lands described in the amended bill.

EIGHTEENTH. These defendants respectively say that on or about the 25th day of June, 1906, the said Linn and Lane Timber Company caused to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State for the State of Oregon a certified copy of its said certificate of incorporation, and a power of attorney constituting and appointing Frederick A. Kribs as its attorney in fact and agent in and for the State of Oregon, but these defendants respectively say it is not true that C. A. Smith or any other person caused such certified copy or such power of attorney to be filed in said office for the purpose of preventing complainant from recovering any of the lands described in said amended bill.

NINETEENTH. These defendants respectively admit that since said certificate and power of attorney were so filed in the office of the Secretary of State for said State of Oregon, C. A. Smith and F. A. Kribs have pretended and claimed that said Kribs has been and is attorney in [104] fact in and for said State of Oregon for said company.

TWENTIETH. These defendants respectively say that said Linn and Lane Timber Company was organized with a capital stock of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of one hundred dollars each; that on the 4th day of June, 1906, defendant Charles A. Smith and Johanna A. Smith, his wife, executed and acknowledged three certain deeds in which said Company was named as grantee, all dated on said day; that one of said deeds was for the lands described in the amended bill and certain other lands in Linn County, Oregon, and is one of the deeds referred to in paragraph XIII of the amended bill; that one of said three deeds was for certain lands in Lane County, Oregon, then owned by said Smith, and one was for certain lands in Douglass County, Oregon, then also owned by said Smith; that at a meeting of the board of directors of said Company, held at the City of Minneapolis, in the State of Minnesota, on the 9th day of June, 1906, said Charles A. Smith offered to convey to said Company the lands described in said three deeds and to accept as a consideration for such conveyance the said capital stock of said company, which offer was on said day, and at said meeting accepted by said company, and pursuant thereto said three deeds were on said date delivered by said Charles A. Smith to said company, and the said capital stock of said company was at the same time issued by said company in accordance with directions given by said Charles A. Smith, as follows: One share thereof to Johanna A. Smith, one share thereof to John Lind, and nine hundred and ninety-eight shares thereof to said Charles A. Smith; that in order to perfect the title to the lands which said Smith agreed to convey to said company for said stock, said Smith, on May 28, 1907, procured Charles J. Swanson and Christine Swanson, his wife, to execute and deliver to said company the deed from them referred to in said paragraph XIII of the amended bill; and these defendants respectively say that said company purchased the lands described in the said amended bill at the time and in the manner and for the consideration aforesaid, in good faith, believing that Charles A. Smith and Charles J. Swanson were then well and lawfully seized of [105] said lands in fee simple and could rightfully and lawfully convey the same to said company, and said company had then no notice or knowledge whatsoever of any claim in or to any of said lands on the part of the complainant.

TWENTY-FIRST. These defendants respectively admit that the aforesaid two deeds from Charles A. Smith and Charles J. Swanson, the same being the deeds referred to in paragraph XIII of the amended bill, were filed for record in the office of the Recorder of Conveyances for Linn County, Oregon, on September 9th, 1908, but deny that they were so filed by Charles A. Smith.

TWENTY-SECOND. These defendants respectively say that it is not true that either of the deeds referred to in the next foregoing paragraph was without consideration, or that any of these defendants or said company had notice or knowledge of any of the alleged conspiracies, frauds or irregularities complained of in the amended bill, or that either of the two deeds last above referred to was for the use or benefit of Charles A. Smith, or that either of said two deeds was executed for the purpose of preventing complainant from recovering said lands, or any part of the same, or that said deed from Charles A. Smith was executed on any other date than the date on which it purports to have been executed.

TWENTY-THIRD. These defendants respectively say that they do not know and cannot state as of their or either of their belief or otherwise whether or not it is alleged or is the fact that the complainant did not know of the existence of the deeds referred to in paragraph XIII of the amended bill, until the same were offered for record, or that complainant had no means of discovering the existence of said deeds until they were offered for record, or that complainant prior to the commencement of the suit caused any search or inquiry to be made to ascertain who had some right, title, or interest in or to any of the aforesaid lands, and therefore leave complainant to make such proof thereof as it may be able to produce.

TWENTY-FOURTH. These defendants respectively say that it is not true that all the capital stock of said Linn and Lane Timber Company [106] has been or is held for the use or benefit of defendant Charles A. Smith, or that said Smith has at all times been or is the president of said company, but, on the contrary, that the facts respecting said matters are as follows: On February 15th, 1908, said Smith sold and transferred fifteen shares of said stock to Charles J. Johnson, of the City of Minneapolis, who has since been and now is the owner of the same. On February 14th, 1908, said Smith transferred three hundred shares of said stock to the Swedish-American National Bank of Minneapolis to secure promissory notes and other obligations given by him to said Bank, amounting in the aggregate to upwards of $350,000. On February 15th, 1908, said Smith transferred ten shares of said stock to Charles J. Swanson of Fridley, Minnesota, to secure a promissory note for $5,000 made by said Smith, and said Swanson has since held and now holds said ten shares as such security. On October 31, 1908, said Smith transferred to said Swedish-American National Bank additional two hundred and ten shares of said stock, two hundred and eight of which direct to said Bank, and one each to B. F. Nelson and C. C. Wyman in trust for said Bank, to further secure his, the said Smith's, aforesaid promissory notes and other obligations to said Bank. On said October 31, 1908, said Charles J. Johnson transferred his aforesaid fifteen shares to said Swedish-American National Bank to secure promissory notes and other obligations given by him to said Bank, amounting to upwards of $50,000. Said Swedish-American National Bank held the five hundred and ten shares transferred to it as hereinbefore stated until on or about the first day of December, 1908, at which time it sold, transferred and assigned to the Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis the aforesaid promissory notes and other obligations held by it against said Smith and Johnson, and the said shares of stock held as security for the same, and the said Northwestern National Bank has since held, and now holds, said five hundred and twenty-five shares of the stock of said company as security for said promissory notes and other obligations of said Smith and Johnson, and there is now unpaid on said promissory notes and other obligations more than $250,000.

TWENTY-FIFTH. These defendants respectively aver that if the [107] complainant ever had any cause of action or suit for or concerning any of the matters in said amended bill mentioned, which these defendants respectively do in no sort admit, the complainant had full cognizance of all matters and things constituting such cause of action prior to the first day of March, 1905, and complainant is guilty of gross laches in not bringing suit upon such cause of action before the lands described in the amended bill were conveyed to defendant, the Linn and Lane Timber Company, and pray that because of such laches complainant be not awarded any relief in this suit, and that its said amended bill be dismissed.

TWENTY-SIXTH. These defendants respectively are informed and believe that William J. Lawrence left heirs who are now living and within the jurisdiction of this court, but the names and places of residence of such heirs are unknown to these defendants respectively; and these defendants respectively say that they are advised and believe that said heirs are necessary and indispensable parties to this suit, and pray that said amended bill be dismissed because said heirs have not been made parties to the same.

TWENTY-SEVENTH. Defendants Charles A. Smith and Charles J. Swanson, respectively, aver that this suit was not commenced against them, or either of them, until more than six years after the date of the issuance of the patents to O. Judd Mealey, Joseph O. Mikalson, John Thomas Parker, Samuel D. Pickens, Joseph H. Steingrandt, John A. Thompson, Charles Wiley and William W. Billings, described in the amended bill; and said Charles A. Smith and Charles J. Swanson, respectively, claim the benefit of an Act of Congress respecting the limitation of suits by the United States to vacate and set aside patents, approved March 3, 1891, and entitled "An Act to amend Section Eight of an Act approved March third, 1891, entitled An Act to repeal timber culture laws and for other purposes," in bar of the complainant's said bill and all the relief sought by the complainant in this suit, as to the several patents referred to in this paragraph, and as to any and all of the lands for which said patents were issued; and said Charles A. Smith and Charles J. Swanson, respectively, pray that they, [108] respectively, may have the benefit of said Act as if they had severally and formally pleaded the same.

And these defendants respectively deny all and all manner of unlawful combinations and confederacy wherewith they are charged by said amended bill; without this, there is any other matter, cause or thing in said amended bill of complaint contained material to, and not herein and hereby well and sufficiently answered, confessed, traversed, and avoided or denied, is true to the knowledge or belief of these defendants, all which matters and things these defendants respectively are ready and willing to aver, maintain and prove as this Honorable Court shall direct; and humbly pray to be hence dismissed with their reasonable costs and charges in this behalf most wrongfully sustained.

Filed January 29, 1909. G. H. Marsh, Clerk
United States Circuit Court, District of Oregon.
[109]

And afterwards, to wit, on the 29th day of January, 1909, there was duly filed in said court an Answer of the Linn and Lane Timber Company to the Amended Bill of Complaint, in words and figures as follows, to wit: [110]

[Answer of Linn & Lane Timber Co. to Amended Bill.]

(Title of Court and Cause.)

The answer of Linn and Lane Timber Company, one of the defendants, to the amended bill of complaint of the United States of America, the complainant.

This defendant, now and at all times hereafter saving and reserving to itself all and all manner of benefit of exception or otherwise that can or may be had or taken to the many errors, uncertainties and imperfections in the said amended bill of complaint contained, for answer thereto, or to so much thereof as this defendant is advised it is material or necessary for it to make answer to, answering says:

FIRST. This defendant avers that if the complainant ever had any cause of suit or action against this defendant for or in respect of the several allegations and complaints in complainant's said amended bill contained, or any of them, the same accrued to the complainant upwards of six years before the filing of the bill of complaint in this suit against this de-defendant, or the suing out process thereon against [111] this defendant; and that the bill of complaint in this suit against this defendant was not filed, nor was the process thereon against this defendant issued within six years after the date of the issuance of the several patents, which complainant in its said amended bill prays to have annulled and set aside; and this defendant claims the benefit of an Act of Congress respecting the limitation of suits by the United States to vacate and annul patents, approved March 3, 1891, and entitled "An Act to amend section eight of an Act approved March third, 1891, entitled An Act to repeal timber culture laws and for other purposes," in bar of the complainant's said bill and all the relief sought by the complainant in this suit; and this defendant prays that it may have the same benefit from said Act as if it had formally pleaded the same.

SECOND. This defendant, insisting on its aforesaid defense, denies that Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith, Charles J. Swanson, O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey, John A. Thompson, or any of them, either together with other persons or otherwise, ever entered into a conspiracy or agreement to defraud the complainant out of the title to the lands described in the amended bill, or any of said lands. And this defendant says it is not true that it was ever understood or agreed between the persons named in this paragraph, or any of them, that O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, or any of them, should solicit or procure any person to make application for or entry on any of said land under any Act of Congress or otherwise; or that said O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, or any of them, should procure or obtain from any person filing on any of said lands any agreement or promise that the title which such person might acquire from the complainant should inure to the benefit of Frederick A. Kribs, or C. A. Smith, or Charles J. Swanson; or that any person after filing on any of said lands and receiving certificate that he had been permitted to file thereon, should or would execute or deliver to Frederick A. Kribs, or C. A. Smith, or Charles J. Swanson, any deed or other conveyance of any of said lands; or that O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, or any of them, should promise any person to pay any expense of filing. [112] or of making final proof on any of said lands, or the price required to be paid to the complainant for any of said lands, or any part of such expense or purchase price.

THIRD. This defendant has no reason to doubt, and therefore believes, that applications to enter and purchase the several tracts of land described in the amended bill, under the Act of Congress in said bill referred to, were made by the several entrymen in said amended bill named, at the United States Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, at or about the times in said amended bill stated, and that each application was verified by the oath of the person making such application, and filed on the date mentioned in the amended bill, and that each application was for the land in that behalf described in said amended bill, except that the land applied for by O. Judd Mealey was in Range 2 East, and the land applied for by Joseph Steingrandt was in Section 10, Township 14 South, Range 3 East.

FOURTH. This defendant does not know and cannot set forth as to its belief or otherwise whether or not it is alleged or is the fact that O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, or any of them, solicited or procured any of said entrymen to make any of the aforesaid applications to purchase and enter said lands, and therefore leaves the complainant to make such proof thereof as it shall be able to produce.

FIFTH. This defendant says it is not true that any of said applicants, prior to making or filing his application to purchase or enter said land, made a contract or agreement with O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey and John A. Thompson, or any of them, whereby such applicant promised or agreed to purchase or enter said lands, or any part of the same, for the use or benefit of Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith, or Charles J. Swanson; or that O. Judd Mealey or John A. Thompson, prior to making or filing his said application agreed to transfer, convey or set over any of said land, to Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith, or Charles J. Swanson, or entered into any agreement with Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith or Charles J. Swanson to transfer, or convey, or set over, any of said lands to said Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith or Charles J. Swanson. And this defendant says it is not true that prior to the [113] making or filing of said applications, Frederick A. Kribs promised to pay any expense of filing, or of making final proof, or the purchase price on or for any of the lands entered by O. Judd Mealey or John A. Thompson.

SIXTH. This defendant does not know and cannot set forth as to its belief or otherwise whether or not it is alleged or is the fact that O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey or John A. Thompson promised or agreed to pay any of said applicants the sum of $50, or any other sum, or the expense of filing or of making final proof on any of said lands, or the purchase price for any of said lands, or any part of such expense or purchase price, and defendant therefore leaves the complainant to make such proof thereof as it shall be able to produce.

SEVENTH. This defendant has no reason to doubt, and therefore believes that the Timber and Stone Sworn Statements mentioned in the amended bill, contained and set forth, respectively, the several matters which in that behalf are in said amended bill specified, but for greater certainty this defendant craves leave to refer to said statements when produced.

EIGHTH. This defendant has no reason to doubt, and therefore believes, that upon filing the sforesaid statements, the Register of said United States Land Office posted a notice of each application as required by law, and furnished each applicant a copy of such notice for publication in a newspaper as required by law, and that satisfactory evidence that said notices had been so published in a newspaper was furnished to said Register, and that the applicants, respectively, furnished satisfactory evidence to said Register that the land covered by his application or entry was unfit for cultivation and valuable chiefly for timber, and that it was unoccupied and without improvement, either mining or agricultural, and that it apparently contained no valuable deposits of gold, silver, cinnebar, copper or coal; and that upon submission of such proof the officers of said Land Office received from each applicant $400 as payment for the land described in the application of such applicant at the rate of $2.50 per acre, and permitted each applicant to enter the land described in his [114] application, and issued to each applicant a certificate of purchase, as stated in said amended bill, but for greater certainty as to said final proofs and certificates of purchase this defendant craves leave to refer to the same when produced.

NINTH. This defendant does not know and cannot set forth as to its belief or otherwise whether or not it is alleged or is the fact that O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey or John A. Thompson caused any of the notices referred to in the foregoing paragraph (except the notices furnished to O. Judd Mealey and John A. Thompson) to be published in a newspaper, or furnished to the Register of said Land Office evidence that any of said notices (except the notices furnished to said Mealey and Thompson), had been published in a newspaper, or procured any of the applicants to furnish any evidence to said Register, and defendant therefore leaves the complainant to make such proof thereof as it shall be able to produce.

TENTH. This defendant is informed and believes that defendant Frederick A. Kribs resided in the State of Oregon during the years 1900 to 1903, both inclusive, and that during this period, he was engaged in buying and selling timber lands situated in the States of Oregon and California, and that during said period defendant Charles A. Smith resided in the City of Minneapolis, in the State of Minnesota; that on or about the first day of January, 1900, it was agreed between said Kribs and Smith that said Kribs might from time to time submit to said Smith lists of timber lands in said Oregon and California, acquired or bargained for by him, the said Kribs, together with information concerning the timber on such lands, and the price paid or bargained to be paid for the same by said Kribs, and that said Smith might thereupon purchase the lands so submitted at the price paid or bargained to be paid for the same by said Kribs, with a reasonable amount per acre added to such price, which amount to be added was thereafter fixed and agreed upon by said Kribs and Smith to be the sum of twenty-seven and one-half cents per acre; that said agreement was modified on the 21st day of December, 1901, so that the price to be paid by said Smith thereafter under said agreement was to be fifty cents per acre in addition to [115] the price paid or bargained to be paid by said Kribs for such lands, and said agreement was again modified on the 5th day of December, 1902, so that the price to be paid by said Smith under said agreement during the following twelve months was to be thirty cents per acre in addition to the price paid or bargained to be paid by said Kribs for such lands; that said Smith being a large purchaser of timber lands in said States during said period, it was considered that if it should be generally known in any locality that said Smith was purchasing timber lands in such locality such knowledge would tend to unduly advance prices, and with a view of acquiring timber lands at a reasonable price, it was further understood and agreed between said Kribs and Smith, that the latter might designate persons other than himself in whose names title might be taken to such lands as said Smith might purchase pursuant to said agreement.

ELEVENTH. This defendant is informed and believes that between the 17th day of April and the 13th day of October, 1900, said Frederick A. Kribs purchased from the entrymen named in the amended bill, respectively, at the price of $4.75 per acre, the land for which said entrymen had theretofore respectively made and filed the timber and stone sworn statements described in the amended bill, and for said consideration then paid to said entrymen, they respectively conveyed to said Kribs, the wives of the married entrymen joining, the lands covered by their respective entries, and said conveyances were in each instance by deed in which the entrymen covenanted that he was seized in fee simple and that he would warrant and defend the premises conveyed against all lawful claims whatsoever. This defendant is informed and believes that thereafter the said Frederick A. Kribs offered the lands so conveyed to him to said C. A. Smith in accordance with the aforesaid agreement between them, and said Smith accepted said lands, and paid for the same $4.75 per acre, and twenty-seven and one-half cents per acre additional, in accordance with the said agreement, which was then the fair and full value of said lands, and having so accepted said lands and paid for the same, said Smith, in accordance with the said agreement, directed an undivided one-fourth interest in said lands to be conveyed to Charles J. Swanson, and the remaining [116] three-fourths interest to himself, and in accordance with such direction said Kribs and his wife executed and delivered to said Smith a deed, conveying to him an undivided three-fourths interest in said lands, and also executed and delivered to said Swanson a deed conveying to him an undivided one-fourth interest in said lands, and in each said deeds said Kribs covenanted that he was seized in fee simple of said lands, and had good right to sell and convey the same and that he would warrant and defend the same against all persons lawfully claiming or to claim the whole or any part thereof.

TWELFTH. This defendant is informed and believes that Frederick A. Kribs, Charles A. Smith and Charles J. Swanson, respectively, had no notice or knowledge of any of the alleged conspiracies, frauds, or irregularities complained of in the amended bill prior to the commencement of this suit, and that each in accepting and paying for each deed, executed and delivered to him as stated in the foregoing paragraph, acted in good faith, believing that the grantor in such deed could then rightfully and lawfully sell and convey the lands covered by such deed.

THIRTEENTH. This defendant does not know and cannot set forth as to its belief or otherwise whether or not it is alleged or is the fact that any statement or representation in any of the applications or final proofs referred to in the amended bill was false, or fraudulent, or untrue, or made with intent to deceive or defraud the complainant out of the use of, or title to, or possession of, any of said lands, and this defendant therefore leaves complainant to make such proof thereof as it may be able to produce.

FOURTEENTH. This defendant denies that any of the applications or entries referred to in the amended bill of complaint was made by any of said applicants and entrymen as agent of, or for the use or benefit of C. A. Smith, Frederick A. Kribs or Charles J. Swanson.

FIFTEENTH. This defendant believes that on the 9th day of July, 1902, complainant issued a patent to each of the following named applicants, to wit: O. Judd Mealey, Joseph O. Mikalson, John Thomas Parker, Samuel D. Pickens, Joseph H. Steingrandt, John A. Thompson, Charles Wiley and William W. Billings, and that on the 12th [117] day of August, 1902, complainant issued a patent to each of the other said applicants, and that complainant thereby granted and conveyed to each applicant the land covered by his said application and entry.

SIXTEENTH. This defendant says it is not true that any of the deeds hereinbefore referred to was without consideration, or that Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith, or Charles J. Swanson, paid or advanced to any of said entrymen any fee or expense, or any of the purchase money paid to the complainant, or any other sum, except that said Kribs paid said entrymen the consideration for their deeds to him as hereinbefore stated. And this defendant says it is not true that any deed hereinbefore referred to was given to prevent complainant from recovering any of the lands described in the amended bill.

SEVENTEENTH. This defendant says that on or about the 31st day of May, 1906, it was duly organized as a corporation under the general laws of the State of Minnesota, and its certificate of incorporation was executed by Charles A. Smith, Johanna A. Smith, and John Lind, and was recorded in the office of the Secretary of State for said State of Minnesota on May 24, 1906, but said certificate was not executed by Vernon Smith. And this defendant says that it was not organized for any purpose except as stated in said certificate of incorporation in the following words, to wit: "To buy, hold and sell timber lands and tenements in the United States of America and to conduct forestry, mining and agricultural operations on the same; to carry on logging operations, and buy, sell, store and transport logs and other forest products for itself and others; to build and operate mills for the manufacture of lumber and other wood and forest products; to construct and operate dams, sluices, ditches, flumes, chutes, booms, tramways and other appliances for irrigation and for carrying on the mining, agricultural, logging and manufacturing operations of the corporation; to develop electric energy and other power for the operation of its works and the transportation of its products and for sale."

EIGHTEENTH. This defendant says it is not true that it was organized by C. A. Smith or any other person with intent to defraud or deceive complainant, or to prevent complainant from recovering any [118] of the lands described in the amended bill.

NINETEENTH. This defendant says that on or about the 25th day of June, 1906, it caused to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State for the State of Oregon a certified copy of its said certificate of incorporation, and a power of attorney constituting and appointing Frederick A. Kribs as its attorney in fact and agent in and for the State of Oregon, but this defendant says it is not true that C. A. Smith or any other person caused such certified copy or such power of attorney to be filed in said office for the purpose of preventing complainant from recovering any of the lands described in said amended bill.

TWENTIETH. This defendant admits that since said certificate and power of attorney were so filed in the office of the Secretary of State for said State of Oregon, C. A. Smith and F. A. Kribs have pretended and claimed that said Kribs has been and is attorney in fact in and for said State of Oregon for this defendant.

TWENTY-FIRST. This defendant says that it was organized with a capital stock of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of one hundred dollars each; that on the 4th day of June, 1906, defendant Charles A. Smith and Johanna A. Smith, his wife, executed and acknowledged three certain deeds in which this defendant was named as grantee, all dated on said day; that one of said deeds was for the lands described in the amended bill and certain other lands in Linn County, Oregon, and is one of the deeds referred to in paragraph XIII of the amended bill; that one of said three deeds was for certain lands in Lane County, Oregon, then owned by said Smith, and one was for certain lands in Douglass County, Oregon, then also owned by said Smith; that at a meeting of the board of directors of this defendant, held at the City of Minneapolis in the State of Minnesota, on the 9th day of June, 1906, said Charles A. Smith offered to convey to this defendant the lands described in said three deeds and to accept as a consideration for such conveyance the said capital stock of this defendant, which offer was on said day, and at said meeting accepted by this defendant, and pursuant thereto said three deeds were on said date delivered by said [119] Charles A. Smith to this defendant and the said capital stock of this defendant was at the same time issued by this defendant in accordance with directions given by said Charles A. Smith, as follows: One share thereof to Johanna A. Smith, one share thereof to John Lind, and nine hundred and ninety-eight shares thereof to said Charles A. Smith; that in order to perfect the title to the lands which said Smith agreed to convey to this defendant for said stock, said Smith, on May 28, 1907, procured Charles J. Swanson and Christine Swanson, his wife, to execute and deliver to this defendant the deed from them referred to in said paragraph XIII of the amended bill; and this defendant says that it purchased the lands described in said amended bill at the time and in the manner and for the consideration aforesaid, in good faith, believing that Charles A. Smith and Charles J. Swanson were then well and lawfully seized of said lands in fee simple and could rightfully and lawfully convey the same to this defendant, and this defendant had then no notice or knowledge whatsoever of any claim in or to any of said lands on the part of the complainant.

TWENTY-SECOND. This defendant admits that the aforesaid two deeds from Charles A. Smith and Charles J. Swanson, the same being the deeds referred to in paragraph XIII of the amended bill, were filed for record in the office of the Recorder of Conveyances for Linn County, Oregon, on September 9th, 1908, but denies that they were so filed by Charles A. Smith.

TWENTY-THIRD. This defendant says it is not true that either of the deeds referred to in the next foregoing paragraph was without consideration, or that this defendant had notice or knowledge of any of the alleged conspiracies, frauds or irregularities complained of in the amended bill, or that either of the two deeds last above referred to was for the use or benefit of Charles A. Smith, or that either of said two deeds was executed for the purpose of preventing complainant from recovering said lands, or any part of the same, or that said deed from Charles A. Smith was executed on any other date than the date on which is purports to have been executed.

TWENTY-FOURTH. This defendant says that it does not know and [120] cannot state as to its belief or otherwise whether or not it is alleged or is the fact that the complainant did not know of the existence of the deeds referred to in paragraph XIII of the amended bill, until the same were offered for record, or that complainant had no means of discovering the existence of said deeds until they were offered for record, or that complainant prior to the commencement of the suit caused any search or inquiry to be made to ascertain who had some right, title, or interest in or to any of the aforesaid lands, and therefore leaves complainant to make such proof thereof as it may be able to produce.

TWENTY-FIFTH. This defendant says that it is not true that all the capital stock of this defendant has been or is held for the use or benefit of defendant Charles A. Smith, or that said Smith has at all times been or is the president of this defendant, but on the contrary that the facts respecting said matters are as follows: On February 15th, 1908, said Smith sold and transferred fifteen shares of said stock to Charles J. Johnson, of the city of Minneapolis, who has since been and now is the owner of the same. On February 14th, 1908, said Smith transferred three hundred shares of said stock to the Swedish-American National Bank of Minneapolis to secure promissory notes and other obligations given by him to said bank, amounting in the aggregate to upwards of $350,000. On February 15th, 1908, said Smith transferred ten shares of said stock to Charles J. Swanson of Fridley, Minnesota, to secure a promissory note for $5,000 made by said Smith, and said Swanson has since held and now holds said ten shares as such security. On October 31, 1908, said Smith transferred to said Swedish-American National Bank additional two hundred and ten shares of said stock, two hundred and eight of which direct to said Bank, and one each to B. F. Nelson and C. C. Wyman in trust for said Bank, to further secure his, the said Smith's, aforesaid promissory notes and other obligations to said Bank. On said October 31, 1908, said Charles J. Johnson transferred his aforesaid fifteen shares to said Swedish-American National Bank to secure promissory notes and other obligations given by him to said Bank, amounting to upwards of $50,000. Said Swedish-American National Bank held the five hundred and ten shares [121] transferred to it as hereinbefore stated until on or about the first day of December, 1908, at which time it sold, assigned, and transferred to the Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis the aforesaid promissory notes and other obligations held by it against said Smith and Johnson, and the said shares of stock held as security for the same, and the said Northwestern National Bank has since held, and now holds, said five hundred and twenty-five shares of the stock of this defendant as security for said promissory notes and other obligations of said Smith and Johnson, and there is now unpaid on said promissory notes and other obligations more that $250,000.

TWENTY-SIXTH. This defendant avers that the complainant ever had any cause of action or suit for or concerning any of the matters in said amended bill mentioned, which this defendant does in no sort admit, the complainant had full cognizance of all matters and things constituting such cause of action prior to the first day of March, 1905, and complainant is guilty of gross laches in not bringing suit upon such cause of action before the lands described in the amended bill were conveyed to this defendant and prays that because of such laches complainant be not awarded any relief in this suit, and that its said amended bill be dismissed.

TWENTY-SEVENTH. This defendant is informed and believes that William J. Lawrence left heirs who are now living and within the jurisdiction of this court, but the names and places of residence of such heirs are unknown to this defendant: and this defendant says that it is advised and believes that said heirs are necessary and indispensable parties to this suit, and prays that said amended bill be dismissed because said heirs have not been made parties to the same.

And this defendant denies all and all manner of unlawful combinations and confederacy wherewith it is charged by said amended bill: without this, there is any other matter, cause or thing in said amended bill of complaint contained material to, and not herein and hereby well and sufficiently answered, confessed, traversed, and avoided or denied, is true to the knowledge or belief of this defendant. [122] all which matters and things this defendant is ready and willing to aver maintain and prove as this Honorable Court shall direct; and humbly prays to be hence dismissed with its reasonable costs and charges in this behalf most wrongfully sustained.

Replication to Answer of Linn and Lane Timber Co. Filed July 30, 1909. G. H. Marsh, Clerk United States Circuit Court, District of Oregon.
[129]

And afterwards, to wit, on Friday, the 18th day of February, 1910, the same being the 117th judicial day of the regular October, 1909, term of said court—Present, the Honorable ROBERT S. BEAN, United States District Judge presiding—the following proceedings were had in said cause, to wit: [130]

[Order Setting Cause for Final Hearing.]

(Title of Court and Cause.)

Now, at this day, on motion of Mr. John McCourt, United States Attorney, IT IS ORDERED that this cause be, and the same is hereby, set for final hearing on Monday, April 18, 1910. [131]

And afterwards, to wit, on the 18th day of April, 1910, there was duly filed in said court objections to proposed amendment to to Bill of Complaint, in words and figures as follows, to wit: [132]

[Objections of Charles A. Smith et al. to Proposed Amendment to Amended Bill.]

(Title of Court and Cause.)

Defendants Charles A. Smith, Charles J. Swanson, and the Linn and Lane Timber Company, jointly and severally, object to the proposed amendment to the amended bill of complaint on the following grounds:

1. It does not appear that the notice of the motion for leave to amend, which is prescribed by Equity Rule 29 in case of amendment of a bill after replication has been given to the other defendants in the suit who would be affected if the amendment was made.

2. It does not appear that the proposed amendment is not made for the purpose of veration or delay or that the matter of the proposed amendment is material, and could not with reasonable diligence have been sooner introduced into the Bill as required by Equity Rule 29.

3. The proposed amendment would not remedy the want of equity appearing on the face of the Bill.

4. The proposed amendment would enlarge complainant's case and change the character and quality of the relief.

5. The subject matter of the proposed amendment, if material, is in the nature of a cause of action at law, not within jurisdiction of equity.

6. The proposed amendment would render the Bill maltifarious. [133]

7. The proposed amendment contains the following impertinent matter: "Said lands are now of the reasonable value of Two Hundred Forty-four Thousand ($244,000.00) Dollars."

8. The entire proposed amendment is impertinent matter, because the value of the land at the time of the issuance of the final receiver's receipts less the amount then received by the complainant, would be the measure of damages not the value of the land at any subsequent date.

9. The proposed amendment would require new answers.

Dated April 18th, 1910.

I, John McCourt, being first duly sworn, say that I am United States Attorney for the District of Oregon and that the proposed amendment to the bill of complaint herein offered by me as United States Attorney, on or about the 18th day of February, 1910, is not and was not made for the purpose of vexation or delay and the same is material and relevant in this cause, and could not have been by affiant or by complainant, by reasonable diligence, sooner introduced into the bill; that complainant has had due notice of said proposed amendment, and by the allowance thereof will not be prejudiced in any way; that said amendment is offered in furtherance of justice and to prevent a multiplicity of suit.

Timber Company, by Mr. John Lind, Mr. A. Ueland, and Mr. John N. Gearin, of counsel; defendant Frederick A. Kribs, by Mr. A. H. Tanner, of counsel, defendants O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey, J. A. Thompson, Richard F. Malone, John J. Gilliland, Louis Maynard, Joseph O. Mickalson, James W. Rozell, John Thomas Parker, Sydney H. Scanland, Richard D. Watkinds, and Charles Wiley, by Mr. Percy R. Kelly of counsel; and defendants Samuel D. Pickens, Joseph H. Steingrandt and Alexander Gould by Mr. Louis H. Tarpley of counsel. Whereupon, said plaintiff moves the Court for leave to amend its bill of complaint herein. And the Court having heard the arguments of Mr. John McCourt, United States Attorney, and of Mr. A. Ueland, and Mr. John Lind, of counsel for defendants, will advise thereof. [138]

And afterwards, to wit, on Tuesday, the 19th day of April, 1910, the same being the 8th judicial day of the regular April, 1910, term of said court—Present, the Honorable ROBERT S. BEAN, United States District Judge presiding—the following proceedings were had in said cause, to wit: [139]

[Order Allowing Pro Forma Motion to Amend Bill.]

(Title of Court and Cause.)

Comes now the United States of America by John McCourt, United States Attorney for the District of Oregon, and by leave of the Court first had and obtained, amends its will of complaint herein by adding a paragraph thereto designated as Paragraph No. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$, and therein alleges as follows:

10 $\frac{1}{2}$.

That at the time of the issuance of said patents to and for said lands as aforesaid, the same were of the reasonable value of One Hundred Thirty-six Thousand ($136,000.00) Dollars, and said lands are now of the reasonable value of Two Hundred Forty-four Thousand ($244,000.00) Dollars, and by reason of the fraudulent practices and representations of the defendants, by which complainant was wrongfully induced to issue patents for said lands as hereinbefore alleged, complainant was and is damaged in a sum of money equal to the full value of said lands, and complainant will be entitled to recover said sum herein in the event it shall for any reason be impossible or inequitable for the Court to decree a cancellation of said patents as hereinafter prayed.

[Joint and Several Answers of Linn & Lane Timber Co. et al. to Amendment of Bill.]

(Title of Court and Cause.)

The joint and several answers of Linn and Lane Timber Company, Charles A. Smith, Charles J. Swanson, and Frederick A. Kribs, defendants, to the matter contained in the amendment to the bill of complaint filed April 21, 1910:

These defendants, respectively, now and at all times hereafter saving to themselves all and all manner of benefit of exception, or otherwise, that can or may be had or taken to the many errors, uncertainties and imperfections in the said amendment contained, and hereby expressly saving and reserving an exception to the order permitting said amendment to be made, severally answering the averments in said amendment contained say as follows:

1. These defendants, respectively, deny that the value of the land described in the amended bill of complaint, at the time of the issuance of the patents therein described, or at any time prior thereto, was the sum of one hundred thirty-six thousand dollars, or any other or greater sum than thirteen [144] thousand six hundred sixty-eight dollars; and these defendants, respectively, deny that said lands are now of the reasonable value of two hundred forty-four thousand dollars, or of any other or greater value than twenty-seven thousand two hundred dollars, and these defendants respectively deny that the complaint is, or has ever been, damaged in any sum or amount whatsoever by reason of the issuance of said patents, or any of them, or by reason of any matter or things whatsoever in said bill contained; and these defendants respectively deny that the complainant is, or will be, entitled to recover any sum or amount whatsoever against either or any of these defendants.

2. These defendants, respectively, by leave of Court first obtained, further answering the bill of complaint, say that soon after said entries were made, information was lodged in complainant's Department of the Interior, charging that all said entries were fraudulent and void; that an order was thereupon made by said Department directing patents not to issue on said entries; that said Department thereupon instituted and for a period of more than two years carried on an examination of all matters pertaining to the alleged frauds in said entries; that much evidence was adduced in said examination, and in and by said examination and evidence the matters and things in the amended bill complained of were brought before the Secretary of said Department for his decision; that being fully informed in the premises said Secretary thereupon in and by Department Letter L. R. R. Div. 932-1902, dated May 17th, 1902, and directed to the Commissioner of the General Land Office decided and determined that all said entries were lawfully made and valid and that patents should be issued on the same; that said patents were [145] thereupon issued, and the same are the patents described in the bill of complaint. And these defendants respectively say that all said matters having been so examined, heard and decided by complainant's said Secretary of the Interior, complainant is and ought to be barred from maintaining its said bill of complaint in this court and that said bill should be dismissed.

Gearin, of counsel, and defendant Frederick A. Kribs by Mr. Albert H. Tanner of counsel. Whereupon, the final hearing of this cause is resumed. And the Court having heard the arguments of counsel, will advise thereof. Whereupon, IT IS ORDERED that said plaintiff be, and it is hereby, allowed ten days from this date within which to file a brief herein, and IT IS ORDERED that the plaintiff be, and is hereby, allowed to file an amendment to its amended bill of complaint. [154]

And afterwards, to wit, on the 6th day of August, 1910, there was duly filed in said court an Amendment to Bill of Complaint, in words and figures as follows, to wit: [155]

[Amendment (Filed August 6, 1910) to Bill of Complaint.]

(Title of Court and Cause.)

Now comes John McCourt, United States Attorney for the District of Oregon, and by leave of Court first had and obtained in the above-entitled cause, hereby amends the bill of complaint herein by adding thereto paragraph 9 $\frac{1}{2}$, as follows:

9 $\frac{1}{2}$.

And your orator further shows unto your Honors and alleges, that by reason of the facts hereinbefore stated, a fraud has been perpetrated on the complainant and it has been deprived of the legal title to the land hereinbefore described, contrary to law and good conscience, and that the officers of the United States Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, and of the Department of the Interior and the General Land Office of the United States, and the President of the United States, had no knowledge of the facts as hereinbefore set out, and did not discover such facts until a long time after the issuance of such patents, and by the exercise of reasonable diligence could not have [156] discovered these facts any sooner; that after certificates upon final proof were issued by the United States Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, as hereinbefore set forth, and during the years 1900, 1901 and 1902, and prior to the issuance of patents as hereinbefore set forth for the lands hereinbefore described, the defendants Frederick A. Kribs, C. A. Smith, O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey, George F. Mealey, J. A. Thompson, and other persons acting for them and in their behalf, secured the respective entrymen and entrywomen hereinbefore named each to execute and subscribe affidavits and depositions in which it was falsely set forth and represented, in effect, to complainant, that each of said entrymen and entrywomen respectively had entered the land in good faith, to appropriate it to his or her own exclusive use and benefit, and that he or she had not, prior to making said entry, directly or indirectly made any agreement in any way or manner, with any person or persons whomsoever, by which the title which he or she might acquire from the Government of the United States should inure to the benefit of any person except himself or herself, and that he or she did not apply to purchase the land included in the respective entries on speculation; and thereby, and by means of said false and fraudulent final proofs as hereinbefore set forth made by said entrymen and entrywomen respectively, and by means of affidavits of like tenor and effect subscribed by the defendants Frederick A. Kribs, O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey, George F. Mealey, J. A. Thompson, and other persons secured by them to make like affidavits, all of which were filed in the General Land Office of the United States prior to the issuance of said patents, issuance of said patents was procured and said [157] false and fraudulent representations were concealed from the complainant and complainant did not ascertain that a gross fraud had been perpetrated upon it, or that said representations of said entrymen and entrywomen, and of and in behalf of said defendants who were not entrymen, were false and fraudulent and untrue, until January, 1905, at which time complainant was conducting a vigorous investigation of charges of violations of the Public Land Laws, in Portland, Oregon, when a large number of said entrymen and entrywomen, together with the defendants Frederick A. Kribs, O. Judd Mealey, Will Mealey, George F. Mealey and J. A. Thompson, and also other persons who had acted with them in the transactions hereinbefore set forth, disclosed to complainant that the Timber and Stone Land entries hereinbefore set forth and described were false and fraudulent as hereinbefore set forth; that prior to said January, 1905, complainant had no means or opportunity of ascertaining the false and fraudulent representations that had been made to it relative to said Timber and Stone land entries hereinbefore set forth, and of the fraud that had been perpetrated upon it relative thereto, by reason of the concealment of said fraud by the defendants as aforesaid.

The foregoing amendment is submitted in the above form by consent of opposing counsel, who do not require that a new formal amended bill of complaint be filed.

JOHN McCOURT.

United States Attorney for Oregon.

[Testimony and Exhibits Taken and Introduced Before the Court.]

Portland, Oregon, Tuesday, April 26, 1910,
10 A. M.

(Title of Court and Cause.)

[Certain Offers in Evidence, etc.]

Mr. McCOURT.—If the Court please, in this case there are 17 entries involved. I think we can do away with the necessity of putting in all of the original papers. I may be able to use a sort of tabulated statement I have here, similar to one put in in the other cases. This will do away with the original timber and stone filing papers. However, I desire to put in the fraudulent reports, similar to the ones offered in the other case.

Mr. UELAND.—May it please the Court, the defendants, Linn & Lane Timber Company, C. A. Smith and C. J. Swanson each object to the introduction of any testimony or evidence on the part of the complainants on the ground that it appears on the face of the bill that suit is barred by the Act of March 3, 1891.

Objection overruled; exception saved.

Mr. McCOURT.—We would like to have it appear in the record the dates on which the different parties filed in groups, so as to group the matter. Then there are three or four other entries that we want to show, in order to check up the amount of money paid by Kribs; for instance, the entries of Oliver Erickson, Jasper Keeney, Zillah Keeney, Antonio Steingrandt and William R. Mealey. We want to offer these entries for the purpose of checking [166] up the amounts of the money that was paid, and in connection with the testimony we will show that they were similar entries, so as to show the payments of Mr. Kribs, one of the defendants. That land is not included in the suit, but was taken at the same time, as we claim, under similar circumstances, and Mr. Kribs paid the Land Office fees the same date, and these entries go to make up the entire check.

Mr. UELAND.—Can't you show that orally? We will not object to that being oral when the time comes, if it will simplify the record.

Mr. McCOURT.—I think it will be simpler to put it in at once with the promise that we will supplement it by proof.

COURT.—Suppose you take the final papers and read the data from that.

Mr. McCOURT.—That is, perhaps, more satisfactory.

COURT.—Without putting the papers in evidence and it can then be checked up with the bill to see whether they compare or not.

Mr. McCOURT.—We will read the right into the record from the original. [167]

Mr. McCOURT.—There is some data that I wish to read in as I go along; for instance, the names of the proof witnesses.

Mr. UELAND.—I would suggest that you have in the bill Range 4. If you care to amend that in the bill, we have no objections.

Mr. McCOURT.—It may be understood that the bill is amended to conform to the facts.

COURT.—Very well.

Mealey.

Final Certificate No. 8513, dated October 9, 1900.

Jasper H. Keeney, Sweet Home, Linn County, Oregon.

Mr. UELAND.—We object as not being involved in the case.

COURT.—You explained a moment ago you expect to connect it with the case?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, I will connect it up.

Objection overruled; exception saved.

Mr. McCOURT.—(Continues Jasper H. Keeney entry:)

Timber & Stone Sworn Statement No. 1147.

Covering E. $\frac{1}{2}$ of NW. $\frac{1}{4}$, E. $\frac{1}{2}$ of SW. $\frac{1}{4}$, Sec.
29, T. 14 S. R. 4 E.

Dated July 12, 1900.

Final proof, October 9, 1900.

Proof witnesses—I am unable to see their names and will omit.

Final Certificate No. 8514, dated Oct. 9, 1900.

The land embraced in the latter entry is not involved in this suit, but the record of the entry is offered in evidence in order to connect up the payments made for the land by the defendant Kribs, and the Government will show that [171] the entry was made under similar circumstances to those here-inbefore offered in evidence.

And now, if the counsel will permit us, I wish to offer for the same purpose that we offered the last entry, the record of the entry of William R. Mealey; entry of Oliver Errickson; George W. Pickens, Andrew Wiley and Zillah Keeney. We don't appear to have the original papers, but we have the books of the Land Office to show the same matters.

Mr. LIND.—Wouldn't your purpose be served by simply showing that those entries, if such be the fact, were made at the same time; final proof made at the same time—just that statement. If you make that statement into the record, we will not contradict it.

Mr. McCOURT.—Then we may have the record show that William R. Mealey, Antonio Steingrandt made entry on May 22, 1900.

Mr. UELAND.—Isn't that another date from those you have in?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, but the proof date is the same. The record will show that the proof date of said William R. Mealey and Antonio Steingrandt is August 16, 1900.

Mr. UELAND.—That is also a different date from the others, except Thompson.

Mr. McCOURT.—Thompson and O. J. Mealey made proof on that same date. Oliver Errickson, George W. Pickens and Andrew Wiley made entry June 14, 1900, and all of the last mentioned persons made proof on August 27, 1900. Zillah Keeney made entry July 12, 1900, and proof October 9, 1900.

That all of the last-mentioned entries embraced lands in the vicinity of the other lands upon which proof was [172] made upon the same days, respectively, as the proofs in the last-mentioned entries.

Mr. UELAND.—You know that to be a fact?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, I have it right here.

Now, if the Court please, I would like to have the record show the amounts of the purchase price and fees upon each of the entries, which we intend to follow by check of the identical amount given by Mr. Kribs.

COURT.—As shown by the Land Office records?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, shown by the Land Office record. [173]

Mr. McCOURT.—August 16, 1900, Certificate No. 8419, O. J. Mealey, purchase price $400, fees $10.49; Certificate No. 8420, Antonio Steingrandt, $400, purchase price, fees, $10.56; Certificate No. 8421, William R. Mealey, purchase price $400, fees $10.48; Certificate 8422, John A. Thompson, purchase price $400, fees $10.51. Total, $1,642.04.

You didn't give me that check, did you, Mr. Tanner?

Mr. TANNER.—Which is that?

Mr. McCOURT.—$1,642.04.

Mr. TANNER.—Yes, I gave you that. No, that is the one I could not find.

Mr. McCOURT.—It will be admitted by counsel, I assume, that Mr. Krib's check for $1,642.04—

Mr. LIND.—Let that stand until after recess.

Mr. McCOURT.—All right. At any rate, when we get that certificate, or that bank statement, that should go in in this case as well as in the other case to show those payments.

Mr. LIND.—Well, we will admit if it is the fact. We can probably ascertain at the noon recess.

Mr. McCOURT.—Very well. August 27, 1900, Certificate 8440, Andrew Wiley, purchase price, $400, fees $10.48. Certificate 8441, Oliver Erickson, purchase price $402.03, fees, $10.54. Certificate 8442, William W. Billings, purchase price $400, fees $10.52. Certificate 8443, Charles Wiley, purchase price $400, fees $10.45. Certificate 8444, Samuel D. Pickens, purchase price $400, fees $10.47. Certificate 8445, John T. Parker, purchase price $400, fees $10.55. Certificate 8446, Joseph O. Mickalson, purchase price $400, fees $10.49. [174] Certificate 8447, Joseph H. Steingrandt, purchase price $400, fees $10.48. Certificate 8448, George W. Pickens, purchase price $400, fees $10.45. Total, $3,696.46.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer in evidence check of Fred A. Kribs upon the First National Bank of Roseburg, dated August 27, 1900, payable to J. H. Booth or bearer, for $3,696.46, endorsed by J. H. Booth. It may be offered without further identification?

Mr. LIND.—No objection.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 1."

Mr. McCOURT.—October 9, 1900, Certificate No. 8508, Alexander Gould, purchase price $400, fees $10.55. Certificate 8509, Sydney Scanland, purchase price $400, fees $10.51. Certificate 8510, Richard F. Malone, purchase price $400, fees $10.45. Certificate 8511, John J. Gilliland, purchase price $400, fees $10.51. Certificate 8512, Louis Maynard, purchase price $400, fees $10.54. Certificate 8513, Cornelius N. Tuthill, purchase price $450.58, fees

$10.52. Certificate 8514, Jasper H. Keeney, purchase price $400, fees $10.49. Certificate 8515, Zillah Keeney, purchase price $400, fees $10.57. Certificate 8516, William J. Lawrence, purchase price $400, fees $10.45. Certificate 8517, James W. Rozell, purchase price $400, fees $10.51. Total $4,155.68.

Mr. McCOURT.—I now offer in evidence the memorandum of check of Fred A. Kribs dated October 10, 1900, First National Bank of Roseburg, Oregon, Paid Land Office for ten claims, and containing written across the face: "C.O.P. in C.A.S. acct."; also the words "On new bank [175] ledger" and "on Bank's acct.," $4,155.68. Marked "paid October 10, 1900."

Marked "Government's Exhibit 2."

Mr. McCOURT.—I should have stated the mark of paid upon this other check (Government's Exhibit 1), that it shows upon its face, "paid September 1, 1900."

Mr. UELAND.—It does not look like Mr. Krib's signature.

Mr. LIND.—Well, it is a memorandum check anyway. He furnished the money apparently, whether he signed that slip or not. No objection to it.

Mr. McCOURT.—I presume it will be conceded that "C.A.S." upon the check is in Mr. Kribs' handwriting, and that it indicates C. A. Smith.

Mr. LIND.—No. That is in pencil, you know. It was evidently made at a later date. It is a memorandum. I cannot make any concession in regard to it. We know nothing about it. Mr. Kribs will explain that.

Mr. McCOURT.—I thought possibly you would, because Mr. Kribs testified in another case that C. A. S. meant C. A. Smith.

Mr. LIND.—Well, he possibly will testify then. But I know nothing about this memorandum.

Mr. McCOURT.—October 17, 1900. Certificate 8522, Richard C. Watkins, purchase price $400, fees $10.61. And in connection with the latter entry, we offer in evidence memorandum check upon the First National Bank of Roseburg, Oregon, dated October 17, 1900, on which are the words: “Paid Land Office on Richard C. Watkins, $410.61. Charge Fred A. Kribs,” and having on the face of the same the further words [176] “C.O.P. C.A.S. deal. Also on Roseburg Bank acct.,” and the further words “New Bank Ledger,” marked “Paid” on the face, “October 17, 1900.”

Mr. UELAND.—Whose memorandum check do you claim it to be—the bank’s memorandum?

Mr. McCOURT.—I have an idea the bank.

Mr. UELAND.—I think it must be the bank’s memorandum.

COURT.—Is it admitted that Kribs’ signature is to that writing?

Mr. McCOURT.—No, I don’t claim it is. This was given me by Mr. Kribs. It is charged to his account, presumably.

COURT.—That is a memorandum the bank made?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes. But I received it from Mr. Kribs’ possession, and the bank books show it charged to his account.

COURT.—This is the memorandum of the bank made when it paid it out, and then returned to Kribs, I suppose.

Mr. UELAND.—Very evidently.

Mr. McCOURT.—Except the matter I read extraneous to the check itself, part of which I know to be Mr. Kribs' handwriting, part somebody else's.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 3."

Mr. UELAND.—We don't want it to go into the record that it is Mr. Kribs' memorandum, because we do not know it is, and we do not think it is.

COURT.—I understand you are not admitting anything. It is the bank's memorandum. That is all.

Mr. UELAND.—It is very evidently a memorandum the bank has made for paying out money without [177] regular checks, such as they do.

Mr. McCOURT.—They don't do it, though, without the depositor tells them to.

Mr. UELAND.—Probably not, no.

Mr. McCOURT.—I now offer in evidence reports of E. D. Stratford, special agent of the General Land Office, designated Report of Fraudulent Claim or entry in the following cases, each of which contains the affidavit of the claimant as follows: [178]

Mr. UELAND.—I want to enter an objection to that. Each of the defendants that we represent objects to that evidence on the ground that it is irrelevant and immaterial to any issues raised upon the pleadings, and has no tendency to prove any of the charges of fraud in the original entries, charged in the bill.

COURT.—Very well. The objection will be overruled, and the evidence admitted.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 4."

Mr. McCOURT.—John J. Gilliland.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 5."

Mr. McCOURT.—William J. Lawrence.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 6."

Mr. McCOURT.—Richard F. Malone.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 7."

Mr. LIND.—In that case there is a special report covering all of the entries in the suit.

Mr. McCOURT.—That is what I am trying to get at. I see that 16 is the number of an answer.

Mr. LIND.—The number of the paragraph of the special agent's report.

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, I see. This letter report containing general report, covering all the claims involved in this suit.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 7."

Mr. McCOURT.—Louis Maynard.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 8."

Mr. McCOURT.—Joseph O. Mickalson.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 9."

Mr. McCOURT.—Thomas Parker.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 10." [179]

Mr. McCOURT.—Samuel D. Pickens.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 11."

Mr. McCOURT.—J. W. Rozell.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 12."

Mr. McCOURT.—Sydney Scanland.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 13."

Mr. McCOURT.—Joseph H. Steingrandt.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 14."

Mr. McCOURT.—Cornelius N. Tuthill.

Marked “Government’s Exhibit 15.”

Mr. McCOURT.—Richard C. Watkins.

Marked “Government’s Exhibit 16.”

Mr. McCOURT.—Charles Wiley.

Marked “Government’s Exhibit 17.”

Mr. McCOURT.—John A. Thompson.

Marked “Government’s Exhibit 18.”

Mr. McCOURT.—O. J. Mealey.

Marked “Government’s Exhibit 19.”

Mr. McCOURT.—Alexander Gould.

Marked “Gov. Exhibit 20.”

Mr. McCOURT.—In the latter report there is no affidavit of claimant. [180]

[Testimony of Fred Wodtli, for the Government.]

FRED WODTLI, a witness called on behalf of the Government, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Where do you live, Mr. Wodtli?

A. At Foster.

Q. Linn County, Oregon? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you lived there?

A. The 10th of this month it was 15 years.

Q. Do you know John Thompson?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Judd Mealey—O. Judd Mealey?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will R. Mealey? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know Fred Kribs? A. Yes.

Q. When did you first become acquainted with

(Testimony of Fred Wodtli.)

Mr. Kribs? A. I think it was in 1900.

Q. Do you know what time in 1900?

A. It was in the spring.

Q. How long have you known O. Judd Mealey and Will R. Mealey and Thompson?

A. I have known them for 12 or 13 years.

Q. How near to you have they lived during that time?

A. Before they moved, when they lived up in the hills, why, it was about 6 or 7 miles. I think it was nearer seven miles than six.

Q. They moved. Where did they move to?

A. Well, first they moved—the Mealey brothers moved to Foster first, and then after awhile, Mr. Thompson he move to Sweet Home.

Q. How long ago was that? [181]

A. I couldn't give you the dates on that.

Q. Was that before 1900? A. No.

Q. Since that time?

A. It was since that time.

Q. Had you known them intimately prior to and including up to 1900?

A. Oh, just like a neighborhood is—they know each other, befriend each other, friendly.

Q. Now, you spoke of knowing Fred Kribs. Where did you meet him first?

A. The first time I seen him it was when he came down from the hills, and I went home from church.

Q. Who was with him? A. Mr. McKinley.

Q. Do you remember what month that was in?

A. I believe it was in April.

(Testimony of Fred Wodtli.)

Q. 1900? A. Yes.

Q. You say he had been up in the hills. What hills do you refer to? A. Above Foster.

Q. Are you acquainted with the vicinity in which the timber lands are that are involved in this case—14-2, 3, and 4, some? A. Some.

Q. Well, was it from that neighborhood he came?

A. I met him at Sweet Home, but I understood he was up in that vicinity.

Q. Do you live right at Sweet Home yourself?
[182]

A. Me? No, I live in Foster.

Q. Now, subsequent to that, or after that some little time did you know of Kribs' being up there?

A. No. I have not seen him after that till, oh, it was a long time—years after.

Q. Well, now, did you know at that time, say April or May, 1900, the financial condition of John A. Thompson, William R. Mealey and O. Judd Mealey, or either of them?

Mr. LIND.—That is objected to as immaterial in this case.

COURT.—What do you expect to show? What do you claim for this?

Mr. McCOURT.—Well, I expect to show that they were in no position to carry on timber operations of considerable magnitude, which they did a little later engage in.

COURT.—You expect to show that subsequently they did engage in such operations?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes.

(Testimony of Fred Wodtli.)

COURT.—Very well. Upon that theory I will admit the testimony.

A. Why, they have always paid their debts when they dealt with me, and of course they knew my affairs as well as I did theirs, that we none of us was wealthy.

Q. Well, what I mean is, did they have any property or money?

A. Oh, they had hill ranches. That is all I knew.

Q. Did you know of Frederick Kribs and C. A. Smith and one or two other gentlemen, going into that timber there about the 22d or 23d or 24th of May, 1900? A. Only by hearsay.

Q. You did not know it yourself personally?
[183]

A. No. No, I have not seen none of them, but I heard it at the time.

Mr. McCOURT.—That is all. I will ask the witness when he heard that. When did you hear that?

Mr. LIND.—They did; you know. It was a notorious fact.

Mr. McCOURT.—I want to show it was about that date in May. I do not care what date in May.

Mr. LIND.—The record shows it was the latter part of May.

Mr. McCOURT.—Very well. That is all.

Mr. LIND.—No questions.

Witness excused.

Mr. McCOURT.—I may want to recall this witness a little later.

Mr. LIND.—Let me ask the District Attorney

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

whether the last witness is the same person of that name who made an entry referred to in evidence.

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes. Yes, the same man.

Mr. LIND.—And the Government, I believe, has dismissed the suit as against him?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes. The record shows that he paid his own money for the land. [184]

[Testimony of William W. Billings, for the Government.]

WILLIAM W. BILLINGS, a witness called on behalf of the Government, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Where do you live, Mr. Billings?

A. About one mile from Foster.

Q. In Linn County, Oregon? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How old a man are you, Mr. Billings?

A. Past 70.

Q. Past 70? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you lived up there in the vicinity of Foster?

A. In the place that I am in now, less than one year.

Q. Well, in that neighborhood?

A. In that neighborhood, about 20 years, I would think.

Q. Do you know O. Judd Mealey? Do you know Judd Mealey? A. I do, sir.

Q. William R. Mealey? A. Yes, sir.

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

Q. John A. Thompson? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you known those men?

A. I have known those men for about 17 or 18 years—maybe 20. I cannot tell exactly.

Q. What has been your business up there, Mr. Billings? A. My business?

Q. Yes. A. Ranching—small farmer.

Q. Have a small ranch up there?

A. Yes, sir, I did.

Q. Do you know Fred A. Kribs?

A. I have seen the gentleman once in my life only. [185]

Q. Where was that, Mr. Billings?

A. At Roseburg.

Q. When? What year was that?

A. I would think about '90.

Q. 1900? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And where did you see him at that time, Mr. Billings?

A. In the anteroom next to the office at the courtroom, across the corridor from where we made entry on our lands.

Q. In the same building?

A. In the same building; yes, sir.

Q. Were you introduced to him in that anteroom? A. No, sir.

Q. Have any conversation with him there?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did not. Who else was present there in that anteroom?

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

A. One of the Mealey boys, and I don't know but two.

Q. Anybody else?

A. If there was they were strangers to me.

Q. You didn't know anybody else there?

A. No, sir. No, sir.

Q. What was your business at Roseburg at that time?

A. I think it was on my entry, but I am not certain. I am a little mixed in being to Roseburg twice, and still I know that I was at Roseburg twice, but I cannot remember incidents.

Q. You don't recall whether that was the time when you made entry or when you made proof?

A. Sir?

Q. You don't know whether that was the time you made entry or the time you made proof?

A. I do not; but I think it was the time I made entry. There was some trouble in the entry of the land was the reason of it. The land that I had gone there to [186] enter interfered with another man's rights, some way.

Q. And what was the purpose of going out there in that anteroom then?

A. To straighten this up—to straighten this tangle in the land affairs up.

Q. Did Mr. Kribs assist in straightening the matter up?

A. They changed my numbers in a measure.

Q. You took a different quarter than you went there to take?

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

A. Yes, sir. Not a different quarter. No, excuse me. I took a different eighty. I held one eighty that I started to make my entry on.

Q. Do you recall what the trouble was with the other eighty?

A. I don't know. I think they claimed it belonged to the Northern Pacific.

Q. Well, now, prior to the time you had gone down there to enter, who suggested to you that you make an entry in the first place?

Mr. LIND.—Wait a moment. That is leading. This witness does not appear to be—

COURT.—State what occurred—how you came down to make the entry.

Q. You may state how you came to make an entry of lands down there in Linn County.

A. I knew that the boys in that vicinity were making entries on land. I was a very poor man. There was $50 in it for me, which would help my family out. That is what I understood. So I went to Mr. Thompson myself,—my nearest neighbor—and asked him to make an entry on the land—asked him to put me onto a piece of land, if he could do so. He says: “Maybe I can later on,” [187] and it was some time before he did.

Q. Now, what were you to do for the $50?

A. Sir?

Q. What were you to do for the $50?

Mr. LIND.—I wish counsel would limit it to the conversation, not inferences. What was the talk between this witness and Thompson?

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

Mr. McCOURT.—Very well. I beg your pardon. I am trying to get along too fast.

Q. Well, when did Mr. Thompson and you next talk about it, how long before you entered?

A. I should say it was about two weeks later that he told me that he would go up and show me a piece of land in the mountains.

Q. What else did he say about it?

A. Nothing that I know of. We just appointed the day to go.

Q. Well, what had he said to you before then, when he talked to you the first time, as to what the arrangement would be?

A. Nothing at all, only that he would put me onto land eventually, he thought.

Q. And what was he to get for that? What conversation did you have as to what he was to get and what you were to do?

A. We had no conversation about it whatever.

Q. Well, then, what did you do?

A. Why, I went to Roseburg with him, made an entry on said land, and after I had proved up, received $50.

Q. Who paid your expenses to Roseburg each time? A. The Mr. Mealey's. [188]

Q. What connection did the Mr. Mealey's have with Mr. Thompson?

A. I could not tell you sir. They were in some kind of partnership in the arrangement.

Q. And do you know who attended to publishing the notice of final proof?

A. I don't remember now, sir.

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

Q. Who informed you when it was time to go to Roseburg to make proof?

A. I think it was the Mealeys.

Q. What sort of conveyance did you take to get to Roseburg?

A. Took our own team as far as Lebanon. From there by rail.

Q. Who else were in the party?

A. Mr. Wiley, his son, who will be on the witness-stand. Mr. Parker, I believe, was with me; George Pickens; Samuel Pickens; Joseph Steingrandt. It seems as though there was one or two others, but I don't remember.

Q. State whether or not those parties were with you when you first went up there? A. Sir?

Q. When you went to enter, were the same parties along? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long were you in Roseburg before you made proof?

A. I could not tell you. It was only a short time.

Q. Did anybody go along with you and give you any instructions as to how to make proof?

Mr. LIND.—Now, that is leading and improper. It is objected to for that reason.

Mr. McCOURT.—Well, I don't know but that was a leading question.

Q. Just tell what was done after you landed from the train [189] in Roseburg until you had made proof,—finished the transaction.

A. I cannot do it, sir. My memory is not good enough. I just remember that we went, after I had got my papers fixed out, that we went into a room, into a little small space, like a prisoner's box, something, and there we held up our hands. I am quite deaf, and we held up our hands, and the man read over something so rapidly that I could not get one word of it. I don't know what it was. We all held up our hands, all together.

Q. Then what did you do?

A. Filed out of the room; went back to quarters, and from there home.

Q. Now, then, who was there besides you men that were making proof?

A. No one was in there except the officers of the Land Office; the officers of the Land Office, the other side of this railing, that railed us off.

Q. Did either of the Mr. Mealeys or Mr. Thompson accompany you to the Land Office when you went there?

A. They went to the Land Office with us.

Q. Where were they when you were making this proof, holding up your hands and being sworn?

A. I could not tell you. I couldn't tell you.

Q. Were any questions read to you?

A. We were in the building. That is all I know.

Q. Were any questions read to you? I say were any questions read to you?

A. I don't think. If there were I don't remember.

Q. Did you answer any? How is that?

A. If there were any questions asked us, I don't [190] remember it.

Q. Now, when you filed out, where did you go?

A. Sir?

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

Q. When you went out of the Land Office, where did you go? A. To the hotel.

Q. What occurred there, if anything? Did anything occur there?

A. Excuse me, I cannot hear.

Q. I say did anything occur there in relation to the transaction? A. No, sir.

Q. You mentioned getting $50. When did you get that? A. After I had made out the deed.

Q. When did you make the deed?

A. About—oh, it might have been two or three weeks later. Yes, it was more than that. It was more than that. It was some little time later.

Q. Well, did you make any other papers in regard to the land?

A. Yes. There was a mortgage made before the deed.

Q. Where did you make that mortgage?

A. I cannot tell you, for I don't remember it. I think it was made before Mr. Buck of Sweet Home, but I am not positive. He was a man that I made out papers before frequently.

Q. When did you get the $50, when you signed the mortgage, or when you signed the deed?

A. No, sir. When I transferred the deed to Mr. Mealey.

Q. Whom did you mortgage the land to?

A. Well, that I could not tell you now.

Q. Whom did you deed it to?

A. I don't know who the deed run to even, now.

[191]

Q. Did you know at that time?

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

A. I did at that time, yes, sir. But it is 10 years ago, and my memory is rather faulty.

Q. Did you know Mr. Kribs in the transaction?

A. Only just that he was overlooking these papers of mine. I was told that it was Mr. Kribs afterwards. I had no acquaintance with him whatever, but as we were changing these papers around, he gave some word to the Mealey boys about it.

Q. Did you have anything to do with that at all?

A. Nothing at all, no, sir.

Q. Did you ever know a man by the name of John H. Shupe? A. No, sir.

Q. Do you have any recollection of going into a lawyer's office or some kind of an office near the Land Office after you made the proof, and signing that mortgage?

A. Never did. No, sir, I didn't.

Q. Now, Mr. Billings, how long before you made your filing if at all, was it that you had your understanding with the Mealey boys and Thompson, that you were to receive the $50?

A. I understood that before I ever entered the land, sir.

Mr. LIND.—Wait a moment. That is putting words in the mouth of the witness that are not in testimony. The witness has specifically testified that he only had a conversation with Mr. Thompson. I object to it as leading, improper and suggestive.

COURT.—The witness has not referred to any conversation he had with the Mealey boys at all. He said he understood he was to get $50, but he has not disclosed from where he got the information. [192]

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

Q. Well, I will ask him—just tell the Court about that $50, in your own way, all about it, Mr. Billings.

A. About the $50?

Q. Yes.

Q. Why, I simply received the $50 after I returned the deed to Mr. Mealey. That was all there was about it, and as for the understanding before, I never heard Mr. Mealeys or Mr. Thompson say that they would give me $50 if I would enter the land. It was just merely understood by all the men of the country that there was $50 in it if we took land.

Q. Well, now, what did you say to Thompson when you went to see him? A. Sir?

Q. What did you say to Thompson when you went to see him?

A. There was nothing said about the money whatever.

Q. What did you say?

A. Why, I asked him merely to put me upon a piece of land. And he told me—he says: “I don’t know.” He says, “Maybe I can eventually.” Probably hadn’t the land—run out—didn’t know where he could locate me at the time. It was three or four weeks before he did locate me.

Q. What was that understanding in the community there as to what should be done to earn the $50?

Mr. LIND.—One moment. That is objected to as incompetent, irrelevant, and leading.

Mr. McCOURT.—If the Court please, in this case, the defense is, or will be, that it was generally understood among entrymen, or that is among the people, that they could [193] take up a timber claim, and that they could go and sell it to Mealeys and Thompson and get $50 for it. Now, I want to show, first, what that understanding was, if there was such an understanding, and the fact that it was circulated by the Mealey boys among this little community, consisting of a few people only, who were very poor, who would jump at the chance to earn $50; and that these people came to the Mealey boys—the Mealey boys knowing that they understood, when they came to them, that if they did locate them, that they located them upon condition that the land be deeded to the Mealey boys, and I take it that such an arrangement is not a legal one,—where the advertisement is given out for the purpose of getting those fellows to come in there, and they show when they get there, that they have heard this little report that the Mealeys put out, then they come there, and the Mealeys put up all the expenses, handle the people really as mere instruments, in taking more than 160 acres of land, to wit, 1760 acre tracts in this case for the same people to wit: Fred A. Kribs, C. A. Smith Lumber Company, or C. A. Smith perhaps, and the other defendants involved in this case. I want to get that out fully. It, by leaving a part of it out, might be a legitimate arrangement.

Mr. LIND.—Your Honor, it would be manifestly unfair to the defendants in this case, to have such rumors go into the record, if there were any. Now, as a matter of fact, the conditions were very different as the testimony will disclose, and as it has already disclosed, in the reports before your Honor. [194] There was a general scurry among claimants, the

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

Northern Pacific Company was locating land, these settlers had been there a great many years, the Mealeys had helped in the surveys, and they were familiar with the lands. These old settlers wanted to get a piece of timber land.

Mr. McCOURT.—No, they did not. They wanted to get $50.

Mr. LIND.—I grant that the money end was what they had in view. That is not true of all of them. It is true of some of them. The Mealeys were the ones who were familiar with them—helped the Government survey, cruised the land, and they went and got them to locate them. The Mealey boys did and Thompson did locate them, raised the money and subsequently the entries were shown. And when it came to that part of the transaction, I think it will become very apparent to the Court that some of these mountaineers perhaps were displeased somewhat, got the short end of the bargain. But I object to any evidence except facts. That we want to get. We want every scrap of fact.

COURT.—I think the circumstances under which these people made their filings, or made their entries, what prompted them to make them is competent in this case for the purpose of tending to show that the original transaction had its inception in fraud. If these people entered this land for the purpose of conveying the title to someone else, then it was not a bona fide entry, and would be fraudulent as far as they were concerned. Therefore, I suppose it is competent in the case for the Government to show the rumors or reports in the [195] community that induced these people to act for the purpose of determining their attitude in the matter, and what they were attempting to do. I suppose the Government has a right to show what motives or understanding or influences operated upon these people—whether it was an honest desire to get this land for themselves, or to be a mere conduit, through which the title should pass to somebody else, and they receive the $50. For this reason the Government has a right to examine this witness upon that question.

Whereupon recess was taken until 2 P. M. [196]

Portland, Oregon, April 26, 1910, 2 P. M.

WILLIAM W. BILLINGS, resumes the stand.

Direct Examination (Continued).

Q. (Read.)

Mr. LIND.—That, I believe, was objected to as leading, and as assuming a state of facts of a rumor in the community which is not shown to have been current.

COURT.—The objection is overruled.

A. Well, the sale of the land—I sold the land for $50.00.

Q. You spoke of an understanding in the community there. What was that understanding as to what you should do in order to get the $50?

A. Deed them the land.

Q. Who?

A. Well, I don't know who I deeded it to, sir. I don't know who I deeded it to, now.

Q. I understand, but who was it the understanding that the land was to be deeded to, there in the community?

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

A. Who was it that it should be deeded to? I don't know. I don't know whether there was any understanding. Mr. Kribs, I suppose, was the man that it was going to—all supposed that it was going to him. These others were mere locators.

Q. Well, who were these others with whom you had to have the transaction?

A. Mr. Mealey, Mr. Thompson.

Q. Do you recall, Mr. Billings, having made an affidavit at the house of Fred Wodtli some time later, in regard to that claim? A. I do.

Q. State the circumstances under which that was made, and under which you went to Wodtli's house.
[197]

Mr. UELAND.—Will you please fix that time, Mr. District Attorney?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, I will fix it.

A. I don't know, but I think it was Mr. Mealey's.

Mr. UELAND.—Just wait a minute.

COURT.—Just wait a minute.

Q. Do you remember about the date that was?

A. I do not.

Mr. UELAND.—Fix it in your question. That will be satisfactory.

Mr. McCOURT.—Well, let me get the date then. The affidavit I speak of purports to have been made on the 7th day of November, 1901.

Mr. UELAND.—The defendants we represent object to that as immaterial, and as not tending to prove any of the averments in the bill as to fraud in the original entry.

COURT.—The objection will be overruled. That,

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

I understand, is the report of the Special Agent, that was introduced in evidence.

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, your Honor.

Q. Now, state the circumstances, Mr. Billings, under which you went to Wodtli's house to sign that affidavit, or make it, and what occurred there.

A. I received word, I think it was through the Mealey's, but I am not certain, to put in an appearance there, at this time that you mention, I suppose, and did.

Q. Go ahead and state what occurred when you got there.

A. We stood around the yard for two hours or more, I think, before I was called, and when I went in I gave in my evidence, as you have it there, as you have it in writing now.

Q. Who was there when you went into the house to give your evidence? [198]

A. I don't know those officers, sir. I never did know them.

Q. How many persons were there?

A. No one except the officers and Mr. Wodtli's—part of Mr. Wodtli's family. There was two officers. I don't know who they were.

Q. Two went in at the same time you did?

A. Sir?

Q. You say there were two officers?

A. No, no. There were two officers in there—I don't know who they were—and the stenographer.

Q. Do you recall, Mr. Billings, stating at that time that you had paid John Thompson $40 or $50 for locating you?

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

A. I don't remember anything about it, no, sir.

Q. Don't remember that? A. No.

Q. Do you remember anything about stating the amount that you had received for the land?

A. I think it was $650—maybe $700.

Q. Do you recall now why you made that statement? A. Through questions.

Q. What? A. Through being questioned.

Q. Well, have you received any such sum for the land? A. I had not.

Q. I will ask you if Mr. Mealey—Mr. Judd Mealey, Mr. William Mealey, and Mr. Thompson, were there at that time at the Wodtli's house?

A. I don't think Mr. Thompson was there; as near as I remember he was not.

Q. What about the Mealey brothers?

A. Both the Mealey brothers were there.

Q. Did you and the other persons there at that time have [199] any conference with the Mealeys before you went into the room to make the affidavit?

A. No, sir, I did not.

Q. How many other persons were there at that time?

A. Well, I would say there were about 20.

Q. Can you name them? A. No, I cannot.

Q. Did you receive any compensation for making that affidavit, Mr. Billings?

A. About $3.00, I believe; $3.00 or $4.00 at the outside.

Q. Who paid that to you?

A. That was just for my board and day's labor. I think William R. Mealey paid it to me. He gave it to me. He says, "That will do for your day's board."

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer in evidence a mortgage bearing date the 27th day of August, 1900, William W. Billings to Frederick A. Kribs, purporting to secure a note for $600, payable ninety days after date, covering the land included in Mr. Billings' entry.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 21."

Mr. McCOURT.—I now offer in evidence a deed of William W. Billings and Sarah R. Billings, his wife, to Frederick Kribs, for the same land, bearing date the 1st day of September, 1900.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 22."

Mr. McCOURT.—Both of the last instruments offered being certified copies of the public records of said mortgage and deed, of Linn County.

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. LIND.)

Mr. Billings, you spoke about an [200] understanding in the neighborhood. Who spoke to you about the matter, if you recall?

A. I couldn't tell you, sir. It was generally spoken of among the people there. I could not tell you where I first heard it.

Q. What was that that was generally spoken of among the people?

A. Well, if we would take this land that we could receive $50 for it; if we would take this land and deed it over, we could receive $50 for it. If we didn't take it, it lay there intact, and nobody got anything for it in the country of the poorer class.

Q. You said you heard something about Kribs buying land. When did you first hear of that?

(Testimony of William W. Billings.)

A. I don't know. It was something about that same time.

Q. Well, about the time you made your proof?

A. No, about the time that we were taking this land.

Q. Well, did you agree to sell it to Kribs?

A. We were to sell it to anybody that would buy it, yes, sir.

Q. But you never agreed to sell to Kribs?

A. I never did at that time, no, sir.

Q. Did you agree to sell to anybody until you made your deed?

A. No, sir. But I knew I would have to, because I could not pay out on the land.

Q. And you were willing to?

A. I was willing to, yes, sir.

Q. If you had not sold, you would probably have lost it on the mortgage?

A. I certainly would have done so.

Q. Did you know how much the land would cost at the Government price? [201] A. $250.

Q. How much an acre?

A. No, I am mistaken. It was $2.50 an acre.

Q. And how many acres in your entry?

A. 160 acres.

Q. That would be $400? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Besides the fees?

A. Yes, sir. From all I was worth in the world, I could not have raised that $400.

Q. And still you wanted the benefit of your land right? A. Certainly.

Witness excused. [202]

[Testimony of John T. Parker, for the Government.]

JOHN T. PARKER, a witness called on behalf of the Government, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Where do you live, Mr. Parker?

A. Well, sir, I don't live anywhere, particularly.

Q. Where were you living in 1900?

A. I was living up in Sweet Home.

Q. Right at Sweet Home?

A. Yes, right at Sweet Home?

Q. And how long had you been living there at that time? A. Oh, about five or six years.

Q. Do you know William R. and Judd Mealey?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know John Thompson?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you know them at that time?

A. Oh, yes.

Q. Did you know Frederick Kribs at that time?

A. No, sir.

Q. When did you first meet him?

A. Well, the first time I seen Mr. Kribs, he was pointed out to me on the train and they said it was Mr. Kribs. That is all I knew about it.

Q. Where were you going, when you saw him on the train? A. I was going to Roseburg.

Q. For what purpose?

A. I don't remember now whether it was to file on the land, or whether it was to prove up,—I couldn't say—one or the other. [203]

(Testimony of John T. Parker.)

Q. Who pointed him out to you?

A. Well, now, I am not able to answer that question.

Q. Was William R. or Judd Mealey on the train at that time?

A. Yes, sir; I think they was both on.

Q. Do you remember the incident of Frederick A. Kribs and C. A. Smith coming out there to Foster or Sweet Home in the latter part of May, 1900, to look at timber?

A. No, sir. I never heard of Mr. Smith.

Q. Didn't know him at all? A. No, sir.

Q. You took up a timber claim up there, didn't you? A. Yes.

Q. Sometime in 1900? A. Yes.

Q. Please tell the Court the circumstances leading up to your taking the claim, the different steps that you took in it as it progressed.

A. I would hate to undertake to tell all the steps.

Q. Well, tell all you can think of.

A. Well, I don't know—it has been so long ago, I don't remember very much about it. I know that I went out there and took up a claim, and that is about all.

Q. Whom did you see before you went out to take it up?

A. I don't know. I seen several men.

Q. Well, did you see John A. Thompson or Judd or Will Mealey?

A. I saw William Mealey. He went out in the timber with us.

Q. Well, did you have any conversation with Mr.

(Testimony of John T. Parker.)

Mealey, or either of the Mr. Mealeys, or Mr. Thompson, relative to taking up the claim, before you went to take it up?

A. Oh, no; only just simply I told them I wanted to go with them when they went out to take up a timber claim.

Q. And what led you to go and tell them that?

A. Well, because I wanted a timber claim.

[204]

Q. Well, you went out to see the claim with them?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Which of the Mealey boys went to see the claim? A. William.

Q. And what did you do after you saw the claim?

A. Went back home.

Q. Well, how long after that was it before you went to Roseburg?

A. I couldn't say. I don't remember much about that. I don't know just how long it was.

Q. Well, about how long?

A. I thought it was fourteen months; but I heard since I come to Portland it was only about fourteen weeks.

Q. Well, but you went to Roseburg twice, didn't you?

A. Yes, sir. Oh, you mean before we went to file?

Q. Yes, when you went to file.

A. I suppose it was about ten days—something like that.

Q. Well, now, how did you get to Roseburg?

A. Well, I went part of the way by land, and the other part by railroad.

(Testimony of John T. Parker.)

Q. And what part did you go by team?

A. We went—let's see. When we went to file we went to Lebanon by team, and then from there to Albany and back on the train.

Q. Whose team did you take to Lebanon?

A. Well, for myself I went on the stage, on the United States mail stage.

Q. Who was in the party, when you got on the train, that you went in?

A. Well, as near as I remember, there was William and Judd Mealey, and Mr. Billings and Joe Steingrandt, and I [205] don't remember now whether Mr. Mickalson got on the train that we did or not.

Q. Mr. Who?

A. Mr. Mickalson. But there was Charlie Wiley and Andrew Wiley and myself and Mr. Billings and Joe Steingrandt, if I remember right.

Q. Quite a number of you? A. Yes.

Q. And how long did you stay in Roseburg?

A. Well, we got to Roseburg some time in the night, and we left there the next evening, I think, or the next morning. Stayed over night, I believe, though. I would not be certain about that.

Q. What did you do during the day you were there?

A. Well, I would hate to tell that.

Q. Well, did you go to the Land Office?

A. Yes.

Q. That is all I want to know. I don't care what else you did.

(Testimony of John T. Parker.)

A. Yes, went to the Land Office. Went to saloons a good many times.

Q. Well, did you go to the Land Office?

A. Well, we went to the Land Office, I think, about nine o'clock in the morning, if I remember right, and there was quite a crowd there, and we had to wait. I think it was afternoon, if I remember right.

Q. Did you file on the land while you were there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How did you secure the numbers of the land upon which you made your filing, and whom from?

A. From William Mealey.

Q. Who paid your expenses on that trip? [206]

A. Well, now, that is a pretty hard question for me to answer.

Q. Well, did you pay them?

A. No, I didn't pay them myself.

Q. Did you have anything to do with publishing the notice of when you should make proof?

A. No.

Q. Who attended to that?

A. I couldn't say.

Q. How is that? A. I couldn't tell you.

Q. Who, if anybody, informed you when it was time to make proof?

A. Well, I think Mr. Mealey.

Q. Which one of the Mealeys?

A. William.

Q. William? A. Yes.

Q. Well, after you were notified that it was time to make proof, what was the next? What was the proceeding then?

(Testimony of John T. Parker.)

A. The proceeding then was to go to Roseburg and prove up.

Q. Did the same party go that had gone with you on the filing trip? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were the Mealey boys along, and Mr. Thompson?

A. Yes, I think so, yes. I think they were there.

Q. How long did you stay in Roseburg that time?

A. Well, I think we got there along in the morning, and we come back the same evening—I think we did—the same night.

Q. Well, describe what you did in making proof, now, how it was done, and who officiated at it, and all about it.

A. You mean who we proved up before?

Q. Yes, and how you went in there, whether you went in one at a time or a dozen at a time, or how you did it. [207]

A. Well, I went in one at a time. I proved up before a lady—I don't know who it was.

Q. Did the other gentlemen who went up with you all go to the Land Office at the same time you did? A. Oh, I think so, yes.

Q. They were there waiting to make their proof?

A. Yes.

Q. Where were the Mealey boys and Thompson during this episode?

A. I don't think—I don't remember whether Mr. Thompson was with us on that trip or not. I couldn't say.

Q. After you had made your proof, what did you do? A. I went home as quick as possible.

(Testimony of John T. Parker.)

Q. Well, did you go anywhere after you left the Land Office?

A. Oh, yes, went back to the hotel.

Q. Did you go into any office or little room anywhere? A. Yes, I think we went into a room.

Q. Who was in that room?

A. Well, Mr. William Mealey, if I remember right, and another gentleman,—a lawyer or something; I don't know what.

Q. Was Fred Kribs there?

A. No, sir, I didn't see Mr. Kribs.

Q. Didn't see Mr. Kribs? A. No, sir.

Q. Do you remember what this lawyer's name was? A. No, I do not, no.

Q. Was that in the same building in which you had made proof? A. Yes, I think so.

Q. What did you do in this lawyer's office?

A. Well, I signed the deed to the land.

Q. How long would that be after you had made proof?

A. Well, I don't know just how long it was. Not long.

Q. You walked right out of the Land Office into this other [208] office, didn't you?

A. I think so, yes.

Q. And when you signed the deed, what did you receive, if anything? A. I received $50.

Q. Who paid it to you?

A. William Mealey paid me the money.

Q. How did he pay it—by check or cash?

A. He just handed me the money.

(Testimony of John T. Parker.)

Q. In the presence of the lawyer?

A. Well, I could not say now as to that. I don't think so.

Q. Were there any of the others there, of your neighbors, in there at the same time you went in to make your deed? A. No, sir.

Q. Where did you go when you got your deed made? Did you wait around there for the others or go away?

A. I went right down back to the hotel.

Q. Who paid your hotel bill?

A. I couldn't tell you.

Q. Don't know? A. No.

Q. Did you come on back home then?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Before you went to see the Mealey boys about taking a claim, had anyone talked to you, or had you heard anyone talking about the amount of money that you might receive for taking a claim?

A. Yes, I heard several people talking about it?

Q. Who?

A. Well, I couldn't tell who they was. A good many come up from here, and a good many came up from Salem, [209] to take timber claims, and myself and Mr. Wiley talked between ourselves most about it. And he says, "What is the use of us sitting here and all these people coming in, inquiring here and taking up all this land, and we get nothing out of it"? He says, "We just as well have $50 as to wait here till it is all gone, and get nothing." I says, "Very well, the first time I see the Mealey boys I will tell them I want a claim." And he says, "All right." That is about all there was to it. When they got ready to go into the timber, they let us know, and we went with the crowd.

Q. What was it understood that you were to do in order to get the $50?

Mr. LIND.—Now, wait a moment. That is not a proper question.

Mr. McCOURT.—I withdraw that now, just a moment. I will change the form.

Q. What was it reported that you would have to do in order to get the $50?

A. Well, it was reported that we would have to take up the claim, and file on it, and prove up on it, and get a patent before we could sell it to anybody.

Q. What were you to do to get the $50?

A. What did I do?

Q. What was the $50 to be for?

A. Well, I suppose it was to be for the claim. I don't know.

Q. Now, that report was the occasion for your going to see the Mealey boys? Do you recall, some year or so later—I will direct your attention to the date, 11th day of November, 1901, appearing at the house of Fred [210] Wodtli in connection with that claim?

A. Yes, sir. I don't know what time in the month it was.

Q. What caused you to go there?

A. Well, I was sent for to come there.

Q. Who sent for you?

A. The Mealey boys, I suppose. I don't know.

(Testimony of John T. Parker.)

Q. What occurred when you got there, and who was there?

A. Well, I don't remember who was there. There was some officers there.

Q. How is that?

A. There was some officers there.

Q. How long did you remain there?

A. Oh, two or three hours, I suppose; something like that.

Q. And what did you do while there?

A. I made out an affidavit for the land.

Q. Did you have any conversation with anybody in relation to the affidavit you were to make, before making the same?

A. Yes. I and William Mealey talked about it as we went down from Foster down to the house.

Mr. LIND.—I could not hear the witness. What was your answer?

A. I say, Mr. William Mealey and I talked about it on the road down from Foster, down to Mr. Wodtli's.

Q. How far was it from Foster to Mr. Wodtli's?

A. Oh, I suppose it was about half a mile.

Q. Did Mr. Mealey discuss with you what answers you should make in your affidavit?

A. Yes, he told me how to answer the questions.

Q. Did he have a form of affidavit with him?

A. No.

Q. What did he say they would ask you about?

[211]

A. Well, he said they would ask me where I got the money, and how I got the money to prove up.

(Testimony of John T. Parker.)

Q. Do you know who you deeded the land to?

A. No, sir, I do not.

Q. How is that? A. No.

Q. Did Mr. Mealey make any statement to you as to what you should say in regard to a location fee? A. Yes.

Q. What did he tell you?

A. He told me to tell them that I paid $50 for locating me.

Q. You hadn't paid any $50 location fee, had you? A. No, I hadn't paid anything.

Q. What did he tell you to say in regard to the amount of money you had received for the land, if you remember?

A. That I had sold stock, cattle, and horses and hogs.

COURT.—Speak a little louder.

Q. Speak a little louder.

A. That I sold cattle and horses and hogs to pay for the land.

Mr. LIND.—I can't hear one word of that.

COURT.—Speak a little louder. The Governor can't hear it.

A. I say, he said to tell them I had sold stock to pay for—to get the $400—cattle and horses and hogs.

Q. What did he tell you to say as to the amount you had received for the land when you sold it?

A. There was nothing said about that; nothing said about that.

(Testimony of John T. Parker.)

Q. Do you recall answering the special agent there [212] that you had received $840 for the land?

A. I don't think so. I don't think I was ever asked that question. Not that I remember of.

Q. Did you see Mr. Kribs at all in relation to deeding your land? A. No, sir.

Q. I notice in your affidavit here you answer that it was a Seattle man you sold those hogs to. Did Mr. Mealey tell you to tell that? A. No.

Q. That was your own?

A. That was my own.

Q. You sign with a mark, don't you, Mr. Parker?

A. Yes, sir. Yes, that is all right. (Speaking of mark on paper.)

Q. I notice upon this affidavit that there is a party by the name of J. Van Zante appears as a witness, together with William R. Mealey, to your mark. Do you remember any such person being there? A. No, I don't remember.

Q. How many men were there in the room where you gave the affidavit?

A. I don't remember now.

Q. Was there more than one?

A. Yes, there was more than one.

Q. More than two?

A. Yes, I think there were three or four, anyway.

Q. Was Mr. Mealey in there when you gave your affidavit? A. I think so, yes.

Q. Which Mr. Mealey?

(Testimony of John T. Parker.)

A. I think William was there in the room somewhere. [213]

Q. (Mr. McCOURT.) I offer the deed in evidence in connection with this entry. The deed is the 27th day of August, 1900.

COURT.—Was there any mortgage in this case?

Mr. McCOURT.—No mortgage, apparently.

The deed is marked "Government's Exhibit 23."

Q. Was there any lady there when you took that affidavit? A. No.

Q. Running the typewriter?

A. The typewriter, that is all.

Q. Did you know who she was?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know now? A. No, sir.

Q. What, if anything, did you receive when you gave that affidavit?

A. I didn't receive anything, that I remember of.

· Corss-examination.

(Questions by Mr. LIND.)

Mr. Parker, when you and Will Mealey were going over to the place where you made this affidavit, were you talking seriously or joshing?

A. Well, I don't know; we was just laughing and talking.

Q. Well, isn't it a fact, that you said between you, back and forth, that if this special agent went to asking any funny questions, you would give him funny answers? A. That is what he said.

Q. How?

A. That is what he said. He told me just what

(Testimony of John T. Parker.)

questions they would ask me, and what I should say. [214]

Q. Well, you suggested it yourself that you would handle them? A. No, sir.

Q. Didn't you say to Will Mealey that if he went so asking funny questions, you would answer him in the same strain, or words to that effect?

A. Well, I might have said if they went to asking questions that they had no right to ask, I might answer them.

Q. Now, did you understand in that conversation that Will Mealey wanted you to swear to any falsehoods?

A. Well, I don't—no, not particularly, no; I don't know as he did.

Q. No, I suppose not. You say you made your deed at Roseburg? A. How is that?

Q. You made your deed, after you had made your final proof at Roseburg? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who spoke to you about making that deed?

A. Well, sir, I don't remember now.

Q. Wasn't it Will Mealey?

A. I think so, yes.

Q. What did he say to you?

A. Why, he said that I could come and sign the deed now.

Q. Didn't he tell you that money to pay for the land had been raised either by deed or mortgage?

A. I don't remember whether there was anything said about a mortgage or not. I don't remember. I don't think so.

(Testimony of John T. Parker.)

Q. You know some of them raised the money by giving a [215] mortgage?

A. Yes, I know some of them did.

Q. And some of them sold right on the spot?

A. Yes.

Q. Had Will Mealey ever said one word to you about selling, or about a deed, before that time?

A. No, sir; no.

Q. Had anybody else? A. No; no.

Q. Now, who is Wiley? You said you and Wiley had a talk about using your timber claim rights.

A. That is an old gentleman that I had known for years, but he is dead now.

Q. He is dead now? A. Yes.

Q. Did he also take a claim?

A. Yes, he went right along with the crowd.

Q. How long was that before you went to see Mealey?

A. Oh, we talked about that for a month or two.

Q. What was your object? Why did you talk about it?

A. Well, I didn't have any much idea of taking up a timber claim for a long time. I didn't know whether I would be doing something wrong or not, or whether it was all right. And him and I talked it over, and he says, "The Government gets its money for the land." "Well then," I says, "I reckon we won't be doing anything wrong if we take up a claim."

Q. You didn't intend to do anything wrong?

A. No, sir. If I had, I wouldn't have taken up the claim.

(Testimony of John T. Parker.)

Q. No.

A. If I thought I was swindling the Government, out of anything. But I supposed when it got its money, the price, that that settled it. [216]

Q. And you felt that you could make some profit on it for yourself? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you had never exercised your right, and everybody was taking claims, and you wanted to get in yourself, and get a claim?

A. That is it exactly; because they was going every day right out from under our nose. We sat there till all the good timber was gone before we ever made an effort—people coming in from the east and taking it up.

Redirect Examination.

Q. Didn't Mr. Mealey also tell you not to answer any more than you could help when you were before that special agent? A. No, sir.

Q. Say just as little as you could get through with?

A. I don't think he ever said anything about that at all. I don't remember, if he did.

Q. You were not married at that time, were you?

A. No, sir.

Witness excused. [217]

[Testimony of William J. Lawrence, for the Government.]

A. Well, all I can tell about it, everybody was taking a timber claim, and I wanted one too, and I went and got it, the same as the rest.

Q. Whom did you go to see about it?

A. John Thompson.

Q. What conversation occurred between you and Mr. Thompson relative to it?

A. Well, I asked him if there was any chance for me to get located on a timber claim, and he told me he didn't know—he would see, and as soon as there was an opening, why, he would give me a show.

Q. Well, what occurred afterwards?

A. Well, afterwards we went up and got located, and went from there to the Land Office.

Q. Did you have any conversation with Mr. Thompson about what there would be in taking the timber claim?

A. I think we stayed all night. Next morning went in to the Land Office. Then, after we filed on the land, why, I think we crossed the street and signed some mortgages or something, signed something—I don't know what it was—I think that is what it was.

Q. Well, when you got the mortgage signed, what transpired?

A. Well, we stayed all night that night, and went home the next day.

Q. What did you receive upon signing your mortgage? A. I didn't receive anything.

Q. You didn't? Well, how long was it before you received some money?

(Testimony of William J. Lawrence.)

A. How long was it?

Q. Yes.

A. It was after it was sold—after I made final proof.

Q. Well, how long after final proof?

A. I think it was about a week—something like that.

Q. And whom did you sell to?

A. Well, I never knew till just the other day.

Q. Who told you the other day?

A. That gentleman right there beside of you showed [220] me the papers.

Q. Whom did you think you were selling to?

A. Well, I didn't know, nor I wasn't caring who I sold.

Q. Why didn't you care?

A. Why, it didn't make any difference to me.

Q. How much money did you get?

A. I got $50.

Q. How much money did you understand you were going to get when you made the entry?

Q. What? A. I don't know.

(Testimony of William J. Lawrence.)

Q. Who was conducting the business of leading men up to receive $50?

A. I never asked them.

Q. Why did you go to Judd Mealey, or the Mealey boys and Thompson? A. Why didn't I?

Q. Why did you go to them?

A. I never went to the Mealey boys. I went to Thompson.

Q. Went to Thompson?

A. I went to him to get located.

Q. You understood that Thompson and the Mealey boys were the people who were making it possible to get this $50? A. Of course.

Q. Yes. And they were the people you looked to for the [221] money?

A. Well, I know I got it through them, by going at it that way, of course.

Q. Yes. You understood that before you made the filing? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who paid your expenses to Roseburg when you first went? A. Why, the Mealey boys.

Q. And when you went the second time?

A. The Mealey boys.

Q. Were you out a single cent of money on the claim in any way? A. I was out no money; no.

Q. Did you understand, when you entered upon the transaction, that you would not be out any money?

A. Well, that was the talk. I didn't understand it. That is what the rest of them all said.

Q. Well, if you had thought you were going to be out any money, would you have undertaken it at all?

(Testimony of William J. Lawrence.)

A. I don't think I would.

Q. What were you doing at that time?

A. Ranching.

Q. Did you own a ranch?

A. No, sir, I didn't own anything.

Q. Didn't own anything. Which of the Mealey boys was it paid you that money?

A. I don't remember which one it was, but I think it was William. I don't know.

Q. Did you sign any note there at Roseburg when you made that mortgage?

A. Not that I know of.

A. At home, at Sweet Home.

Q. Did you receive any money there at that time of any kind? A. No, sir.

A. Yes, I do now, since I seen it—$700, I think it is.

Q. Well, had you borrowed any $700 from anybody? A. Had I?

Q. Yes, at that time.

A. Not that I know of.

Q. Did you know the purpose of the mortgage that you were giving?

A. I didn't know I was giving one.

Q. You didn't?

A. I never knew anything about that mortgage till I seen [223] it the other day here.

Q. What did you think you were doing over there in that office? What is your recollection that you were there for, leaving out the fact you have seen this mortgage?

A. Just following the bunch, doing as they done.

Q. Who was directing the bunch?

A. William Mealey.

Q. Why were you following them?

A. Well, that is where we was directed to go. I was just following the crowd.

Q. I call your attention to an original instrument, which appears to be a mortgage from you to F. A.

(Testimony of William J. Lawrence.)

Kribs for $700, covering the land embraced in your entry, purporting to have been made the 9th day of October, 1900; also original note described in the mortgage; and ask you if that is your signature upon the mortgage. A. Yes, that is mine.

Q. How about your signature upon the original note? A. I don't remember that.

Q. Isn't that your signature?

A. Of course that is mine.

Q. Yes, you signed that name there.

A. I don't know whether I wrote that name or not. It is just like I would write it, if I wrote it. I surely did.

Q. Well, didn't you deliver that mortgage and that note to William J. Burns a few years ago? Do you remember anything about that?

A. I don't remember. I don't remember anything about the mortgage at all.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer it in evidence in connection with the witness' testimony. [224]

Mr. LIND.—No objection.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 24."

Q. How long after you got back was it that you signed the deed?

A. Oh, I don't remember just how many days. I think, though, it was about a week or ten days—something like that.

Q. At your home?

A. At the home I had rented, where I resided.

Q. Who brought the deed there for you to sign?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Do you remember going before a man by the name of Buck, to sign it?

(Testimony of William J. Lawrence.)

A. Yes, that is where we went to sign it.

Q. Who else was there signing deeds at that time?

A. I don't remember of anybody.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer the deed in evidence.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 25."

COURT.—What is the date of it?

Mr. McCOURT.—The date of it is October 15th; filed for record the 20th of October, 1900.

COURT.—Is the deed to Kribs?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, deed to Kribs.

Q. Do you remember, about November, 1901, appearing at Fred Wodtli's house?

A. No, never appeared at Fred Wodtli's house.

Q. Where did you go?

A. Hans Wodtli's—Fred Wodtli's father's.

Q. Who notified you to go there?

A. Why, Mr. Mickalson came down and told me—the [225] postmaster there at Sweet Home—came by my place on horseback, and told me there was some kind of an official up there, and they wanted us to go up, and I got on my horse and went up with him.

Q. Who was there when you arrived?

A. Oh, I don't remember. There was eight or ten people there. I think Mr. Parker was there, W. Billings, the Mealey boys and John Thompson, Sam Pickens and myself. That is all I remember. I think there was a few more there.

Q. Did you have any conversation with either of the Mr. Mealeys before signing the affidavit or instrument that you did sign? A. No, sir.

(Testimony of William J. Lawrence.)

Q. Who was in the room where you went in to sign it?

A. Well, there was a couple of men and a lady.

Q. Did they ask you questions?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you gave your answers?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was there any writing done upon the instrument with ink at the time?

A. You mean the statement or affidavit?

Q. Yes. A. Not that I know of.

Q. Did you read it over after it was taken out of the typewriting machine?

A. I believe I did. I don't remember for sure whether I did or not. It seems to me like they showed it to me.

Q. Did you sign it right up? How long did you stay there after it was completed and pulled out of the machine?

A. Oh, I think about half a hour, maybe.

Q. Did you stay in the room there?

A. No. [226]

Q. Did you go right out of the room?

A. Oh, not right away. I was probably in the room five minutes maybe.

Q. Did you know the name of the Government agent that was there? A. No, sir.

Q. Was he an old man? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How about the other man that was there—was he older or younger?

A. Younger, I think. I am not positive. I think one old man and one middle-aged man, I think. It might have been a young man.

Q. And the elderly gentleman, did he write anything in the instrument before you signed it, while you were there? A. Not that I know of.

Q. Would you have noticed it if he had?

A. It looks like I would.

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. LIND.)

Do you remember what occurred at Roseburg the second time you were there, at the time you made the final proof? Do you remember the details of what was done?

A. All I remember is going and making my proof, and going across the street to that other building.

Q. And signing some papers at the other building?

A. I signed some papers in there, yes, but I don't know what they was.

Q. Well, now, did you know at the time?

A. Did I know at the time? [227]

Q. Yes, at the time you signed the paper, did you know what it was you signed? A. No.

Q. What did you think it was?

A. Well, I didn't know. I thought maybe it was something in connection with making the proof. I didn't know.

Q. When did you first find out that you had signed the mortgage?

A. Well, Andy Nichols told me something about it a year ago, and I never knew it for a fact until I seen it the other day.

Q. Well, as a matter of fact, didn't you know at the time that you had signed a mortgage, but after its return, you forgot all about it?

(Testimony of William J. Lawrence.)

A. Well, I cannot remember anything about it.

Q. Did you know what the Government price of your quarter section was? A. No.

Q. How? A. No, I didn't know.

Q. Didn't you know how much money it would take to prove up on a claim? A. No.

Q. Didn't you hear anybody say? A. No.

Q. Did you inquire of anybody? A. No.

Q. Do you know now?

A. Why, since I have been in court here, I heard them say $400, but I don't know.

Q. Well, do you know any more about it than you did then? A. Well, no, I don't. [228]

Q. Well, didn't you know just as much about it then as you do now? A. (Witness laughs.)

Q. Now, really, this is a serious matter. Didn't you know that it took about $400 besides expenses, to prove up on a piece of land at that time, under the Timber and Stone Act? A. Didn't I know it?

Q. Yes.

A. Why, I knew it would cost something but I didn't know what it was.

Q. Well, where did you figure that something was coming from, if not from your mortgage or deed?

A. Well, I supposed it would be furnished.

Q. Furnished by whom?

A. I don't know.

Q. Did't you understand that the Mealey boys were raising the money to make those final proofs for the whole bunch of you?

(Testimony of William J. Lawrence.)

A. Well, I didn't know whether it was their money or not, or whose it was.

Q. No, but you understood that they were raising the money for all of you to make final proof with?

A. Oh, certainly, certainly.

Q. And wasn't that why you gave the mortgage?

A. Well, I suppose there wouldn't have been any other way to have gotten it.

Q. No, I don't either. And you knew that at the time, didn't you?

A. Well, I had ought to know it. [229]

Q. Well, didn't you think that was the way at the time?
A. I don't remember whether I did or not.

Redirect Examination.

Q. You didn't inquire into any of the details surrounding this transaction at all, did you?

A. No, sir.

Q. You understood that the Mealey boys were taking care of all those matters?

A. They did the rest of them, and I thought they would me, and I didn't ask any questions—I just followed the crowd.

Q. Whom do you refer to as the crowd?

A. Why, the rest of the boys—Mr. Billings, Mr. Pickens—

Q. All the fellows from up there in your part of the country?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. That were making proof at that same time?

A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examination.

Q. Now, you have been before Mr. Burns?

(Testimony of William J. Lawrence.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. The special agent of the Government?

A. Yes.

Q. When the Grand Jury was in session here?

A. I don't know anything about the Grand Jury. I was down here before Burns.

Q. Well, didn't Mr. Burns tell you about the Grand Jury? A. No, sir.

Q. Where did you have your conferences with Mr. Burns?

A. I believe it was in the Portland Hotel.

Q. How?

A. I think it was up in a room in the Portland Hotel. I am not certain.

Q. He had a number of conversations with you, didn't he? [230] A. No, sir, he did not.

Q. How many? A. One.

Q. How long did that last?

A. Well, it lasted till he got tired of cussing.

Q. It lasted till he got tired of cussing?

A. Yes.

Q. What did he cuss for?

A. Because he felt like it, I guess.

Q. Well, did he cuss you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did he try to make you do?

A. I don't know as he tried to make me do anything; but because I couldn't answer it, he told me I was a damn liar.

Q. Did you lie to him?

A. Not that I know of. I don't think so.

Q. How long did he keep you here?

A. I think I was in there about fifteen minutes—something like that.

(Testimony of William J. Lawrence.)

Q. But how long were you kept in the city?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Well, you have an idea—several days or weeks?

A. I don't think it was any longer than a week.

Q. Kept by the United States Deputy Marshal, were you not?

A. Yes, sir. I was subpoenaed down here on a subpoena, I think it was.

Q. Don't you remember that the Grand Jury was in session at that time, grinding out indictments for alleged land frauds?

A. Yes, I do, yes.

Q. Well, now, you were considerably frightened then, were you not, by Mr. Burns and others? [231]

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Don't you think you would be a little more frank to-day? A. What is it?

Q. Don't you think you would be a little more open to-day, a little more frank if you had not had to undergo that ordeal before?

A. Why, I suppose I would.

Redirect Examination.

Q. You haven't told anything that wasn't the truth, have you, as you did understand it?

A. You say I haven't told anything?

Q. Yes. I say you haven't told any untruths to-day, have you?

A. Well, I may, but I don't know if I have.

Q. You are trying to tell the truth?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Nobody has been frightening you around here,

(Testimony of William J. Lawrence.)

since you have been here this week, has there?

A. No. I ain't been scared a bit.

Q. Where did you go when you first landed in Portland here when you came down to see Mr. Burns, or came down to the Grand Jury? Whose house did you go to?

A. Well, I don't know. I had never been in Portland before, and I just went any old place.

Q. Who looked after you?

A. Nobody that I know of.

Q. Didn't the Mealey boys come along with you people at that time?

A. I believe they were here all right.

Q. And didn't they ask you to go and see Fred Kribs?

A. Not that I remember of.

Q. What? A. Not that I remember of.

[232]

Q. Well, who was it told you to go up to Kribs' house?

Mr. LIND.—Now, counsel knows just as well as I do, that that is an improper question. I dislike very much to object to the District Attorney's course of procedure, but I must.

Mr. McCOURT.—Well, I might have objected to your questions. They were not entirely proper in this connection, I think. I want to show that if there was any coercion, anywhere, or persuasion, that it was being used on the other side just the same.

COURT.—I do not think it a material inquiry in this case. He has testified in this case as he understands it now. There is no evidence here of what he told Burns or anything of that kind.

(Testimony of William J. Lawrence.)

Q. Notwithstanding Mr. Burns was harsh with you, you didn't tell him anything different from what you have told here to-day?

A. Not that I know of.

Witness excused. [233]

[Testimony of Cornelius Tuthill, for the Government.]

CORNELIUS TUTHILL, a witness called on behalf of the Government, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Where do you live, Mr. Tuthill?

A. Live at Salem.

Q. Did you ever live up in Linn County?

A. Yes; I lived there 25 years.

Q. How long? A. Since 1883.

Q. Were you living up there in 1900?

A. Yes. No, I was in Seattle in 1900.

Q. You were in Seattle in 1900? A. Yes.

Q. Were you up there in the Sweet Home country along in May and June of 1900?

A. I ain't been to Sweet Home for, I guess, about 8 years, I guess. I sold out.

Q. Did you take a timber claim up there in that country in 1900?

A. Well, somewheres about that time; about 10 years ago, pretty near.

Q. Tell the Court now how it was you came to take that timber claim. A. What say?

(Testimony of Cornelius Tuthill.)

Q. Tell us how you came to take that timber claim.

A. Well, as far as I know, I was interested in the matter when Judd Mealey come to me, wanted to know if I would take a claim. I supposed it was all right, and I said yes. He offered to furnish me the money for a certain length of time, and he said they would pay all expenses [234] to advertise it, and to prove up; that is, to pay my expenses to Roseburg and back. But I didn't understand it exactly, and I remember about going from Lebanon—I mean from Albany, to Roseburg, to file on it, and then that—I guess it was 60 days, wasn't it, after that, you prove up; then I went up the second time with them from Sweet Home. There were two loads of men. I don't know who they was—I forget now—but I got a statement here that I gave Mr. Heney quite awhile ago, and it speaks all about it. Well, then, when I went to Roseburg, I stood on the floor, I supposed, all right as a witness, that I should have it for my own benefit, and I supposed it was all right. And after we got through, they took me into a room by myself. And I didn't know—I wanted to look at the papers—I think I signed two papers, and I didn't see them at all. They wouldn't let me look at them at all. I signed the papers and went out.

Q. Did they give you anything when you got in that room? A. Beg pardon?

Q. Did you get any money?

A. No, I didn't. Yes, I didn't have the money myself, only what the boys gave me.

Q. What did they give you?

(Testimony of Cornelius Tuthill.)

A. All I got was $50 out of it, but I didn't understand the $50 at all. I supposed I was to get a deed for the land, and I would give them a mortgage. That is what I supposed I was to get, but I didn't get either. And all they give me was $50. I swore on the floor it was for my own benefit, that I was to have the use of that land till I could sell it any time, and pay the mortgage off. That is what I understand. [235]

Q. And they took it right away from you?

A. Yes. I signed the papers, and I tell you I didn't know the man at all, I guess; he is a great big-headed fellow, and kind of short, thick—thick-set.

Q. Have you ever seen him since?

A. No, never seen him since.

Q. What?

A. I have never seen him since. And I never saw the papers; never saw the deed, nor nothing else.

Q. Did he have some whiskers down here just a little ways? A. I think so, yes.

Q. Have a moustache?

A. Yes, I think he did. Well, he had a great big head on him,—bigger than three of mine, I guess.

Q. Had you been living up there at Sweet Home at that time?

A. Yes, sir. Yes, I was up at Sweet Home. I ought to have seen the papers before I signed them. That is where I fooled myself, I suppose. That was when I proved up, and give it all away.

Q. Who paid all your expenses and all the money that it took? A. They paid the expenses.

Q. Who were "they"?

(Testimony of Cornelius Tuthill.)

A. Well, Judd Mealey, I suppose, and Bill Mealey, both of them.

Q. Did you ever go to see any of the land?

A. Yes. They took me on the land. It was up near Bull Mountain, I think, above Sweet Home. I see the land.

Q. Now, how long was that after you had proven up that you went into this room there—this little room?

A. After I had—before I took the land?

Q. No, after you had made your proof there, when you swore [236] before the officer, how long was it before you went out and signed that deed and mortgage, or those two papers?

A. Well, it might have been 60 days, the time allotted, you know, you have to advertise.

Q. You don't understand me.

A. It first for 30 days, don't you?

Q. Yes. You don't understand me. I say, how long was it after you were in the Land Office down there, the last time you were there, before you went out and signed these two papers?

A. Oh, it wasn't long—just long enough to stand up in a row, and tell them it was for our own benefit. We had to swear that in first, and then they took each one apart.

Q. Now, how long after that was it you went out in the little room?

A. Oh, a little while; just maybe 20 minutes; it might be 20—a short time.

Q. Was either of the Mealey boys in this room?

A. One of them I saw. I believe Judd took me

(Testimony of Cornelius Tuthill.)

in where that man was—Judd Mealey.

Q. You are sure you signed two papers there that time?

A. I think there is two, if not three; but I know I signed my name two or three times—three times. They said it was all right, that they could catch the train and get out—“We have got to get back as quick as we can,”—and, of course, he says, “It is all right. You needn’t be afraid at all. The paper is all right.” But I never saw them only what I signed—never saw the paper afterward.

Q. Well, now, do you remember about a year later after you [237] signed that paper, having to sign some other paper about it up there at Wodtli’s house?

A. Where is that?

Q. Up at Wodtli’s house.

A. I guess so. No, I don’t think I signed any only at Roseburg.

Q. Well, do you remember the crowd going up to Wodtli’s—up to Hans Wodtli’s?

A. Oh, yes, I remember that. Yes, I remember that.

Q. Let us hear about that now.

A. I am glad you spoke about that.

Q. Yes. Well, how did that happen?

A. Well, they brought us down there, and they had a big sheet of paper before them, and us boys looked at it, and they wanted us to tell what to say, and, of course—

Q. Well, what did they tell you to say?

A. Well, we went over to this here Wodtli’s, and there was a couple of lawyers, I suppose there was, from Washington, and one of them personally spoke pretty lively; and I believe—yes, Judd sat right by me, and says, “If you don’t think of all of it, just let me know, and I will tell you.” That is the way it was, and they signed the paper.

(Testimony of Cornelius Tuthill.)

Q. Did you answer any of the questions yourself?

A. Yes, I answered all I could—about all I could remember. I forget the questions now. It has been so long ago. [238]

Q. How long did you stay there at Wodtli’s?

A. Well, I believe we went down in the afternoon. We talked the matter over, and I think it was in the morning—think we took one meal; it might have been in the afternoon. Might have been supper; had a pretty good meal; they paid for our supper, 25 cents. Give me $5.00 and I guess give the rest $5.00 apiece. I saw a few get the $5.00.

Q. Which ones did you see get any $5.00?

A. Well, I think it was Sam Pickens, and one of the Wiley boys. I seen three or four. I didn’t notice any particular ones; we was all going to get $5.00. Got a pretty good dinner first, or supper, anyhow.

Q. And gave you $5.00 besides, and answered the questions for you? A. Yes.

Mr. LIND.—I couldn’t hear the witness very distinctly, but I heard nothing indicating such an answer as you suggested.

Mr. McCOURT.—He answered that a few minutes ago.

Mr. LIND.—What did he say?

Mr. McCOURT.—He said Judd Mealey sat beside him, and said when you don't understand, I will answer for you, something of that kind.

(Testimony of Cornelius Tuthill.)

Q. Now, before—did I understand you that Mealey, Judd Mealey, come to see you about the claim, or you went to him?

A. He come to me, and offered to loan me the money.

Q. Did he make—what statement did he make, if any, regarding the sale of the land?

A. No, I never offered—made any bargain at all. I supposed I was to get the claim myself.

Q. You did?

A. Yes, I supposed it was mine. [239]

Q. Do you remember—do you remember being down here in 1904? A. Beg pardon?

Q. Do you remember being down here in 1904, at the Grand Jury?

A. I think it was at the time. It has been quite a while.

Q. Or 1905. And do you remember making a statement before Mr. Burns?

A. Yes, I remember a statement I made here. I made a statement at Portland here.

Q. How?

A. I made a statement here at Portland before Burns, the first time I come down here.

Q. You saw Mr. Burns? How many times were you down?

A. Well, this makes the third time I have been down here. I made a statement here for—

Q. Well, now, I will ask you if that is your signature, Mr. Tuthill?

(Testimony of Cornelius Tuthill.)

A. Yes, that is my signature.

Q. I will ask you if you remember telling Mr. Burns this? A. Yes.

Q. "I reside about ten miles southwest of Albany in Linn County, Oregon." I will state the date of this affidavit is the 10th of January, 1905. And you further said, "In the early part of 1900, I was approached by W. J. Mealey who wanted me to take a timber claim"? A. Yes.

Q. "And said he would pay all expenses and furnish the money, and give me $50.00."

A. Yes.

Q. Do you remember telling Mr. Burns that?

A. I remember that, but I didn't understand the $50.00 I [240] spoke about.

Q. What?

A. I remember stating $50.00, but I didn't understand what it meant. I supposed I was going to get the claim anyhow; I supposed I was—pay $50.00 for the mortgage.

Q. You thought you would get the claim and $50.00?

A. Yes, I was to pay him—I didn't understand it. Supposed I was to get it for the claim, and give my mortgage—that I would pay—that is I understood—

Q. Oh, you did understand that he said you were going to get $50.00? A. Certainly.

Q. Oh, he did say, then? A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. LIND.)

Mr. Tuthill, did you say that Judd Mealey answered some questions for you at Wodtli's?

(Testimony of Cornelius Tuthill.)

A. Beg pardon?

Q. Did you say that Mr. Mealey answered some questions for you at Wodtli's?

A. No, no, I don't think he asked any questions.

Q. How? A. I don't understand you.

Q. Didn't you say to the District Attorney that Judd Mealey answered some questions for you at Wodtli's house?

A. No, I don't think he did. No, I don't remember his asking any questions.

Q. It would take him a good while to answer questions for anybody—wouldn't it?

A. I don't remember it.

Q. Did anybody answer any questions for you when you were talking, and when that young woman was writing? A. Ask any questions? [241]

Q. Did anybody answer any questions for you?

A. Oh, I don't remember. I remember the questions, but I don't remember what now. I don't understand you exactly. I am a little hard—better come closer so I don't make no mistake. I want to be understood. I want to be understood—so I can hear you.

Q. Yes. You remember going to Wodtli's house?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did you do there? A. Wodtli's?

Q. At Wodtli's.

A. Well, we went before these two men; there was one man questioned us, and another lady at a typewriter and put it all down.

Q. Just like the stenographer sitting here?

(Testimony of Cornelius Tuthill.)

A. Yes, she—

Q. Who answered the questions?

A. Well, I don't know; I don't know his name. There was two men, but I don't know the man's name.

Q. Well, he asked you the questions, didn't he?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you answer them? A. Yes.

Q. Did anybody else answer for you?

A. No, only once or twice; Mealey told me what to say once in a while, if I might forget, he would tell me what to say.

Q. But he told you right, didn't he?

A. No, no—well, pretty near. I could not tell about it.

Q. Do you remember anything that he told you about?

A. No, I don't remember it now.

Q. He told you the description of the land, probably?

A. Oh, told the description of the land, when I went to look at it, at Bull Mountain. That is all I know. He took [242] me up to the claim, and told me about it—all I know about it.

Q. What did you go up to that claim for?

A. To locate—he said he would locate me, and wanted me to go look at it.

Q. What did you want to locate it for?

A. What?

Q. What did you want to locate it for?

A. I could not locate myself. I wanted, if I could make anything to help, for my own benefit. If I could make a thousand or fifteen hundred, might as well have it as not. There was to be a mortgage. I supposed I was—

(Testimony of Cornelius Tuthill.)

Q. He told you about a mortgage, or deed, did he?

A. I was to give him a mortgage, I understood.

Q. For the money that it would take. You knew it would take money to pay Uncle Sam?

A. Of course, $450.00. I supposed I was going to get the money and take up the land, and give him a mortgage. I would get a deed.

Q. You would get a patent?

A. A patent. I was to have it, I supposed, six years. I understood six years I was to have the land. I was to pay that mortgage off in that time, even before six years if I wanted. That is what I understood.

Q. When did you find out differently?

A. I found out differently after I filed—on these papers, and found of the others what I had done. That is all. Got it from others—I never saw the papers.

Q. Didn't you sign—you signed a deed for this land?

A. I signed two papers, I supposed at the time I proved up. I thought—the papers I never saw.

Q. How old a man are you? [243]

A. In my 68th year.

Q. Are you hard of hearing?

A. A little in one ear; yes, sir.

Q. Forgetful? A. Beg pardon?

Q. Have you become forgetful?

A. Yes, sir, forgetful, some things, yes.

(Testimony of Cornelius Tuthill.)

Q. Pretty hard for you to remember business transactions, eight or ten years ago?

A. Yes, it is. I am in my 68th year now.

Q. 68th. It is pretty hard to remember—

A. Yes, it is.

Q. —what Burns and Heney told you?

A. Yes, it is now, so long a time.

Q. You were pretty badly frightened, were you not?

A. I tell you all I can and be honest as far as I can. That is all I know about it.

Q. Do you remember whether the Mealey's told you how much money it would take to prove up and pay the expenses?

A. Why, it was his house, I believe.

Q. How?

A. It was his house. He told me up where he lived.

Q. But how much—did he tell you how much it would take?

A. Well, I know—he didn't exactly tell. Said it would take $450.00—$2.50 an acre to prove up on it, and then he would pay the expenses back and forth to Roseburg.

Q. How much did he figure his expenses would be?

A. Well, it would have been $25.00 he paid out besides the $50.00.

Q. $125.00?

A. Well, I got $50.00; I suppose his expenses for me was $25.00.

Q. But did he say anything about the expenses for [244] locating you?

(Testimony of Cornelius Tuthill.)

A. No, no, not exactly. I don't remember. No, didn't say nothing about expenses at all. Not to me, he didn't.

Q. How?

A. He didn't say anything to me about paying expenses.

Q. Do you remember now whether he told you how much money he would lend you or get for you?

A. Well, there was not—to take up the land. $2.50 an acre, isn't it?

Q. How? A. $2.50 an acre, isn't it?

Redirect Examination.

Q. Before you talked to Mr. Burns had you received any communication from Mr. Mealey?

A. Well, I did. I was out on the place. I did. The other side of Jefferson. He sent me a letter.

Q. Do you know his handwriting? Know it was from him? A. Yes, I knew his handwriting.

Q. I hand you a letter and ask you if that is the letter you mean?

A. Yes, that is his writing, yes.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer the letter.

Mr. LIND.—This is objected to as immaterial and irrelevant, and certainly incompetent at this time or in this connection.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer the letter for the purpose of showing the effort made by the defendants, especially the defendants Mealey, to influence, or rather to frighten the witness out of telling the truth.

Mr. LIND.—What is the date of the letter?

Mr. McCOURT.—The date of the letter is Decem-

(Testimony of Cornelius Tuthill.)

ber 20, 1904. [245]

Mr. LIND.—That, your Honor, is long after the patents were issued and evidently written at the time there were some proceedings here in Portland. Now, it is purely immaterial and irrelevant. You can't impeach this witness or clarify any of his testimony by it. If you choose to use other witnesses—if the Mealeys were on the stand and testified inconsistent with that, it would be proper on cross-examination. At this time it is surely irrelevant.

Mr. McCOURT.—I withdraw the letter and have it marked for identification.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 26 for Identification."

Q. I offer a copy of the deed dated the 9th day of October, 1900, covering the land embraced in his entry. Deed from Cornelius M. Tuthill to F. A. Kribs.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 27."

COURT.—No mortgage with this?

Mr. McCOURT.—Apparently not. There was none of record so I don't know whether there was one or not.

Q. Were you a married man at that time?

A. Married—no.

Q. What other property did you own at the time you made the filing?

Objected to as immaterial.

Mr. McCOURT.—I ask the privilege of asking it as redirect.

COURT.—What is the purpose? To show he had no money?

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

Mr. McCOURT.—I don't know but what he has said so already.

Witness excused. [246]

[Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt, for the Government.]

J. A. STEINGRANDT, a witness called on behalf of the Government, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Where do you live, Mr. Steingrandt?

A. Eight miles east of Foster.

Q. Do you know William R. and Judd Mealey?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you known them?

A. For the last 25 years.

Q. And Mr. John A. Thompson?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know Frederick A. Kribs?

A. No, sir.

Q. Never met Mr. Kribs?

A. No, sir. If I have I never knew him.

Q. You took a timber claim up there in Linn County, and one of the claims involved in this litigation. Will you kindly state to the Court the circumstances leading up to the taking of it, the conversations you had regarding it and follow it right along in successive steps.

A. Why, I don't know as I can remember all of it.

Q. No, we don't expect you to.

A. Why, I took up a timber claim there, I can't remember just the time that it was, and I had heard of other people taking up timber claims. I come to the conclusion that I would take up one myself. I went to the Mealey brothers and spoke to them about it, to see if they could locate me, and they said they would see later on, the timber was pretty well taken up at that time. I think it must have been about a week, I guess, before I heard from them. [247] They told me they had found a claim that I could take up, and I think it must have been about five or six days, I guess maybe longer, afterwards, when we went up to see the claim. They took me over the land and showed me the corners, showed me the timber, and I should judge it was about ten days before we went down—before I went down to file on it.

Q. Who was in the party when you went up to look at the timber? A. How is that?

Q. Who was there in the party when you went up to look at the timber?

A. Why, the two Mealey brothers, and Samuel E. Pickens, George Pickens, Thom Parker, Joe Mickalson, Charles Wiley and Oliver Erickson, Frank Steingrandt, as near as I can remember.

Q. How far was that from where you lived at that time to the timber?

A. I judge about seven miles.

Q. How long had the Mealey boys been engaged in filing persons on timber claims at the time you applied to be located?

A. Oh, I could not tell you just how long. It was quite a while.

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

Q. What do you mean by "quite a while"? How many months?

A. Oh, five or six months, maybe, might have been a year.

Q. How did you get up to this timber claim, walk or ride? A. Yes, I walked up.

Q. All of the party walk up?

A. Yes, sir. [248]

Q. And how far was it from Mealey's house?

A. About seven miles, I think.

Q. Well, now, when you went to Roseburg, did the entire party go to Roseburg? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you got down—who paid your expenses to Roseburg the first time?

A. I don't know who paid my expenses.

Q. Did you pay it? A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know who paid for advertising the notice of your final proof? A. No, sir.

Q. Well, what did you do next about that claim, after you returned from Roseburg? Who called your attention to it again? A. Me taking it?

Q. No, who called your attention to making proof? Who told you it was time to go and make proof?

A. Why, it was advertised in the Brownsville paper.

Q. Did you take the paper at that time?

A. Well, I did at the time, yes.

Q. Well, did you go down alone when you went down to prove up? A. No, sir.

Q. Who went along?

A. Why, I could not just remember who all.

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

Q. All those same people?

A. I think all the same people that was with me up there, I think was along.

Q. How did you go from the Foster country there down to the railroad? [249]

A. Why, we came down—I forget now whether the Mealey brothers drove their own team or a special team hired from Sweet Home. I don't remember. Come down to Sweet Home.

Q. Did you go around and engage passage with them or did they come and tell you when to be ready to go?

A. Why, the date was in the paper, when it was time to prove up and that date stated that, when to start, so we would get there on time.

Q. How did you find out the Mealey's rig was going? A. How? What? How is that?

Q. When did you find out the Mealey's rig was going and that you were to go in it?

A. They sent word to me and told me they were ready.

Q. And where did you take the train?

A. Lebanon.

Q. Well, when you got down to Roseburg, what occurred?

A. Why, we went to breakfast when we got down. We got in at twenty minutes to five.

Q. In the morning? A. In the morning.

Q. What occurred later in the day, in relation to this claim?

A. I think we went to the Land Office.

Q. Who went to the Land Office?

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

A. All of us that was connected in the gang.

Q. Was either of the Mealey boys along?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many of them?

A. I think there was one of them, or both of them.

I don't remember which.

Q. Was John A. Thompson there? [250]

A. No, I don't think he was.

Q. You don't think he was there. Did they go up to the land office with you? A. Yes.

Q. Well, what occurred when you got into the land office?

A. Why, we made final proof, there, before the land agent.

Q. Well, did you have any conversation with the Mealey boys prior to going in there to make proof?

A. No, sir.

Q. As to what you should swear to?

A. No, sir.

Q. You didn't. Or at any other time?

A. No, sir.

Q. Well, when you had made your final proof, what did you do?

A. Why, I think I went to the hotel, as near as I can remember.

Q. What occurred there?

A. I think it was a hotel where we went. I would not say for sure.

Q. Well, what occurred there, wherever it was you went to?

A. Why, we signed—I signed the mortgage for the security of the land.

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

Q. How much of a mortgage did you sign?

A. I could not tell you that. I don't know.

Q. How much money did you get?

A. I didn't get any.

Q. And was your wife up there?

A. How is that?

Q. Was your wife up there? A. No, sir.

Q. Were you married then? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who was present when you signed the mortgage?

A. Why, I think there was two persons there present. [251]

Q. Who were they?

A. I think one of the Mealey brothers was one and another man there. I don't remember who he was.

Q. Do you know a man by the name of John Shupe? A. No, sir.

Q. Don't know Mr. Shupe? Do you know who you made the mortgage to? A. No, sir.

Q. How long after you made the mortgage was it before you made the deed?

A. Why, I didn't see the deed for about a couple of weeks, I guess, or more.

Q. Who brought it to you?

A. A man by the name of Buck, and William R. Mealey.

Q. Did you go right home from—

A. Yes, sir.

Q. All the party go right home?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Well, when you got—when you made the deed,

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

what occurred?

A. Why, nothing that I know of.

Q. Well, did you get any money?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How much?

A. We got $50.00 at present. I got $75.00 afterwards.

Q. When did you get the $75.00?

A. About three or four months after, I think. I got about $125.00 altogether.

Q. How was that $75.00 paid?

A. How is that?

Q. How was that $75.00 paid to you?

A. In gold.

Q. Who paid it to you? A. Mr. Mealey.

Q. And where did he pay it to you?

A. At home. [252]

Q. How did he pay you the $50.00—what kind of money? A. In gold coin.

Q. Who was present? A. Mr. Buck.

Q. Who was present when he paid you the $75.00?

A. Nobody.

Q. Which Mealey paid it to you?

A. Mr. William Mealey.

Q. Where, whose house? A. Mine.

Q. Was your wife present? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember the day of the week that was? A. No, sir, I don't.

Q. Do you remember being down here in 1905?

A. Well, I was down here once. I don't remember what time it was.

Q. Yes. Did you tell anybody at that time that you received any $75.00 after you got the $50.00?

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

A. No, sir.

Q. Didn't you tell them that you only got $50.00?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Didn't you talk to Mr. Rabb here last Fall—last March—about a month ago, about this same thing?

A. Who?

Q. About a year ago?

A. No, sir, I don't know.

Q. Out there by Foster, this gentleman here?

A. I don't remember of ever meeting the gentleman.

Q. Talking to him out on the road there, near your place?

A. No, sir, I don't. If I ever saw him I don't remember him.

Q. Don't you remember talking to a Government agent about [253] a year ago, about this case?

A. No, sir, I don't remember him.

Q. You don't. You were driving in a buggy, or wagon, and you had somebody driving with you—Mr. Rabb had a driver?

A. No, sir, I don't remember.

Q. You don't? A. No, sir.

Q. In which you stated to him that you made your filing with the understanding that you would receive $50.00 for your right and that you had no other understanding or agreement, and that $50.00 was what you were paid?

A. If I did I don't remember it.

Q. You don't? A. No, sir, I do not.

Q. Well, how does it come, now, that you didn't say anything about the $75.00 to Mr. Burns and you didn't say anything about the $75.00 to Mr. Rabb?

A. Why, I didn't think that was any—

Mr. UELAND.—We object to that question.

Mr. McCOURT.—Wait until I finish that question.

Q. And for the first time you now talk about $75.00 that you received after the $50.00.

Mr. UELAND.—We object to that question because it assumes facts that do not appear in evidence. There is no disclosure in the evidence that this is the first time that he has stated so and so. The question assumes a state of facts that is not present.

COURT.—He just answered he never said it at any other time, if I understand his testimony. He said he never made that statement before. [254]

Mr. UELAND.—I didn't so understand.

Mr. McCOURT.—Read that question to the witness.

(Question read as follows: Well, how does it come, now, that you didn't say anything about the $75.00 to Mr. Burns and you didn't say anything about the $75.00 to Mr. Rabb, and for the first time you now talk about $75.00 that you received after the $50.00?)

A. I didn't think it any importance to anybody else about what I got.

Q. You didn't? A. No, sir.

Q. You were asked particularly about that very thing, weren't you? A. Yes.

Q. You remember talking to that man (indicating Mr. Good), just two or three days ago, about that same matter? A. Yes, sir.

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

Q. And he asked you about that matter of the payment? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you never said a thing to him about any $75.00?

A. (Addressing Mr. Good.) You asked me if I got $50.00, didn't you, or something that way, how much money I got. What was it I told you?

Mr. GOOD.—Fifty dollars, if I remember.

A. Well, I didn't think it was any use for me to tell him how much more I got afterward. I don't know what I got it for.

Q. Now, when you went to talk about this claim to Mr. Mealey how much did he tell you?

A. That I was to get?

Q. Yes. A. Fifty dollars. [255]

Mr. UELAND.—Just wait a minute. I want the counsel to fix that time.

Q. That was before you filed on the claim at all?

A. How is that?

Q. That was before you filed on the claim at all?

A. No, sir.

Q. When was that? A. Afterwards.

Q. Do you remember in this statement that you made before Mr. Burns, on January 13, 1905, you and Louis Maynard and Joseph W. Rozell being present, making a joint statement that you "heard that the Mealey boys were locating men on timber claims and paying $50.00 apiece. We called on the Mealey's and asked if we could get in on the deal. They informed us we could. We made our filings at Roseburg office and when time came to make final proof we again went to Roseburg and proved up, but didn't pay any of the final proof money, being told by the Mealey's that it was all attended to. After making final proof we, Louis Maynard and J. H. Steingrandt"—well, that is Steingrandt—oh, you are Steingrandt—"mortgaged the land to Fred A. Kribs or through his agents, so far as we recollect. A short time afterward we signed deeds transferring the land to Kribs or his agent, and after signing these deeds were paid $50.00 each for our part in the transaction."

A. Well, he never asked me such questions.

Q. Didn't you tell Mr. Burns— A. No, sir.

Q. —in the presence of these gentlemen that Mr. Mealey—or that you took the claim with the understanding that Mr. Mealey was to get the claim and you was to get $50.00? A. No, sir. [256]

Q. You didn't? A. No, sir.

Q. Do you remember about a year after you had deeded this land being at Wodtli's house there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who requested you to appear there?

A. I was notified by Mr. Thompson to go down. Said they wanted to see me. A man wanted to see me. I didn't know what he wanted to see me for.

Q. What happened when you got there?

A. He had some papers wanted me to sign.

Q. Were they already made out?

A. Well, no, they were typewritten while I was there.

Q. Who was in the place when you got inside?

A. Why, there was two men there and a lady running the type.

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

Q. How long had you been outside there before you went in?

A. I went right straight from Foster down there. Didn't have only just a minute or two to stop there, because the stage was pretty near there and he had to take the stage to get out.

Q. Did you have a talk with William Mealey before you went in to answer those questions?

A. No, sir.

Q. You didn't? Did you know at that time to whom you had deeded your land?

A. No, sir, I didn't.

Q. Nor to whom you had mortgaged it?

A. No, sir, I didn't.

Q. Did you know how much you had mortgaged it for? A. No, sir, I didn't. [257]

Q. Did you know how much you had sold it for?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you get your $75.00 after you made your affidavit down there?

A. I could not remember if I did or not.

Q. Wasn't that $75.00 you were talking about the consideration you got for taking a homestead?

A. For taking a homestead?

Q. Yes. Which was also deeded to the Mealey brothers?

A. It might have been, but I don't remember.

Q. You did take a homestead?

A. Yes, sir, I did.

Q. And you did deed it to them?

A. No, sir, I didn't.

Q. Or to somebody in their interest?

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

A. I sold them part of it. Yes, sir, I sold them part of it.

Q. What did you get for that?

A. $3.50 per acre.

Q. And how many acres did you sell them?

A. Eighty acres.

Q. Did you get it all at once? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Well, then, the $75.00 you were talking about could not be part of that, could it?

A. I sold them, I think, forty acres or more afterward, all but my improvements, and I don't remember that I got all of this or not. I don't think I did.

Q. What is your best recollection, now, about this $75.00 business, whether or not it was a part of your homestead purchase price, instead of this?

A. It might have been, but I don't remember. Might have been, but I don't remember. [258]

Q. Well, when you got down there to Wodtli's, do you remember being asked this question: "How much, if anything, did you pay him for his service in locating you?" Wait, I will ask you the question immediately before that.

"Q. Who, if anyone, located you on this land or showed it to you? A. Mr. William Mealey. Q. How much, if anything, did you pay him for his service? A. $50.00."

A. I don't remember what his location fee was.

Q. Did you pay him any location fee?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You did? How did you pay it?

A. I don't just remember now.

Q. Did you remember then?

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

A. Yes, I think I did. I don't remember now what it was.

Q. Did you ever tell anybody before that there was a location fee, except this man at Wodtli's house? A. No, sir, I don't think I did.

Q. How were you going to pay a location fee of $50.00 if you were only going to get $50.00 for your claim?

A. Well, I don't remember now how that was. There might have been such a thing somebody else pay the location fee, but I don't remember it.

Q. $50.00 was all you was going to get?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you were not to be out a cent of money, of any kind, were you? A. No.

Q. Do you remember this question being asked you and answering it: "What did position have you made of the land since you obtained your final certificate? A. Sold it to F. A. Kribs for $840.00."

A. I don't remember it. [259]

Q. What is that?

A. I don't remember it.

Q. Did you answer any question that way at that time? A. I don't remember. I—

Q. What?

A. I don't remember if I did. I never received any $440.00.

Q. $840.00? A. $840.00.

Q. "Do you know Mr. Kribs personally? A. I got acquainted with him while I was in Roseburg, at the time I filed on the timber claim."

A. I never knowed Mr. Kribs in my life.

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

Q. You didn't?

A. No, sir, just as sure as I am sitting right here.

Q. Question again. "Did you meet Mr. Kribs there then and make the sale with him personally, or did Mr. Thompson arrange the sale for you? A. I seen Mr. Kribs personally. Q. Did you agree on the price which you was to receive and that Mr. Kribs was to have the land? A. Yes, sir."

A. I don't know anything about it.

Q. Well, did you answer that question that way?

A. I don't remember it.

Q. Was Mr. William Mealey in the room while you were?

A. Yes, sir, I think he was. One of the Mealey brothers.

Q. Were they giving you any instructions?

A. No, sir.

Q. As to how you should answer?

A. No, sir.

Q. "Q. Did you borrow any of the money with which you paid the Government for this land? If so, how much and of whom? A. $600.00 of Mr. Kribs."

A. I never borrowed any money of Mr. Kribs.

Q. Or of anybody else? A. No, sir. [260]

Q. "How much money was paid you by Mr. Mealey? A. $240.00, being the balance over the $600.00 which was due on the mortgage."

A. I don't know nothing about it.

Q. Did you answer that question that way?

A. No, sir, I don't think I did.

Q. Did you tell that Special Agent you received $240.00?

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

A. I don't think I did. If I did I don't remember it.

Q. What is your recollection now as to the amount of money you did receive for the use of your right upon that land? A. Fifty dollars.

Q. Well, do you wish to—do you wish us to understand now that you got $75.00 in addition to that?

A. Well, I don't know whether that was in addition to that or not.

Q. What was the circumstances under which you received any $75.00?

A. Why, the Mealey brothers and I done dealings times before that in different things, and I thought to myself, there might be sich a thing he was helping me out because I was a poor man, that much money, being I hadn't received enough for the claim.

COURT.—What did he say when he gave you the $75.00?

A. He said, "Here is $75.00 I will let you have, if it will do you any good." Never told me what for.

COURT.—You didn't ask him?

A. No, sir.

COURT.—Just took the $75.00?

A. No, sir, I just took the money. If he wanted to give it to me. [261]

Q. How near was that to the time at which those affidavits were made? A. I don't remember.

Q. Wasn't it about the time you came down here before the grand jury? A. No, sir.

Q. About four years ago?

A. No, sir, I had my own money to pay my way down here that time.

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

Mr. McCOURT.—I want to put in evidence the mortgage Steingrandt and wife to Fred A. Kribs, dated Augus 27, 1900.

Marked “Government’s Exhibit 28.”

Mr. McCOURT.—I also want to put in evidence the deed of Steingrandt and wife to F. A. Kribs, bearing date the 1st day of September, 1900.

Marked “Government’s Exhibit No. 29.”

Q. There was a matter I started to refer to, but I didn’t have the papers. The other day, up there in the office of the United States Attorney, Mr. Good—W. G. Good and Mr. Bruce Kester being present, and yourself, a few days ago, April 21, do you remember being there at that time?

A. Yes, sir, I do.

Q. And talking with them about this case?

A. Yes, sir, he asked me some questions about it and I answered it.

Q. Don’t you remember saying to Mr. Good there at that time, in the presence of Mr. Kester, that you never did any bargaining with any of them after the original talk and never expected to get more than $50.00 out of it?

A. That is right—that is what I did.

Q. And your attention was called to that Burns affidavit there, at the time, was it not? [262]

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you said that day, as you understood it stated the facts? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you recall Louis Maynard and J. W. Rozell being present at the time you made the affidavit before Mr. Burns? A. Yes, sir.

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

Q. And signing it with you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. In the presence of Mr. Burns?

A. Yes, Burns and Heney was both there.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer the Burns affidavit in connection with the witness' statement.

Mr. LIND.—It is incompetent.

COURT.—It is not competent. He can refresh his memory from it.

Mr. McCOURT.—Very well, I will withdraw the offer.

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. LIND.)

Mr. Steingrandt, how long had you known the Mealeys before you took this claim?

A. Why, I could not tell you just exactly. I have known them for the last twenty-five years, but I don't know just how far back it has been since I took the timber claim.

Q. What was your business at that time?

A. Why, just lived on a farm, on a little ranch up there.

Q. You are living on a farm?

A. Yes, sir, I am living on a farm now.

Q. Are you living on the same farm now? [263]

A. No, sir, am living on a piece of road land now I have got leased.

Q. Did you have a family? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You said you went to see Thompson, or William Mealey? A. Yes, sir.

Q. About this matter? A. Yes, sir, I did.

Q. Well, now, who did you go to see?

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

A. I think I went to the Mealey brothers, both of them.

Q. Now, I wish you would tell me just what you said to them and what they said to you.

A. Why, I went to them and asked them if they could locate me on a piece of timber claim—timber land, and they said that they could, they thought, but didn't know for sure at present. Timber land was pretty well taken up at that time. Says "If we can find," he says, "a piece of land for you," he says, he says, "Why, we will locate you," and they did.

Q. What else was said? A. How is that?

Q. Was anything else said between you?

A. No, sir.

Q. Now, you stated in answer to the District Attorney that they promised you $50.00?

A. Not at that time.

Q. When did they say anything about the $50.00?

A. That was after I had proved up.

Q. At the time you gave your deed?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, Mr. Steingrandt, didn't you kick on the price, $50.00, didn't you tell Mealey that wasn't enough for that land? A. Yes, sir. [264]

Q. Didn't you kick pretty hard, didn't you tell him that you were letting your claim go too cheap?

A. Well, I might have, I don't remember.

Q. Well, isn't that how you come to get that $75.00, not to make any stir about it?

A. How is that?

Q. Isn't that how you come to get that $75.00 later, because you kicked on the price?

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

A. Well, it might have been.

Q. Well, isn't it true? Now, we want the truth.

A. No, sir, I don't remember.

Q. Isn't it true that you kicked pretty hard and said that you would make trouble for them out among the neighbors? A. No, sir, I didn't.

Q. That there would be trouble among the neighbors? A. No, sir, I didn't.

Q. Unless they paid you a better price?

A. No, sir, I didn't. No, sir.

Q. Didn't you complain that they got more out of the claim than that, themselves?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you know how much they got for their work?

A. No, sir, I don't. I never asked them.

Q. Did you think that the Mealey brothers had the money for that mortgage?

A. No, sir, I don't know whether—

Q. Where did you think that money came from, that went to pay for your claim?

A. I could not tell you.

Q. You know you gave a mortgage?

A. Yes, sir, I did.

Q. And what was that mortgage for? [265]

A. For to secure the land for the money that was paid on it.

Q. How much was paid to the Government?

A. Why, the Government price, $2.50 per acre.

Q. Did you understand how much that would make? A. No, sir, I didn't think.

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

Q. How?

A. I think I did. I think $400.00 is what it cost, about.

Q. And the other expenses? A. Yes.

Q. And the locating fee? A. Yes.

Q. Did you figure on how the $600.00 was made up? A. No, sir, I didn't. I never did figure it.

Q. When did you first hear about the amount of that mortgage? A. How is that?

Q. When did you first learn what the amount of the mortgage would be?

A. Why, I never did learn what the mortgage.

Q. You signed it, did you not?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Didn't you look into it then?

A. No, sir, I didn't.

Q. Who was present when you signed it?

A. Why, I think Mr. Mealey, William Mealey, was present in there.

Q. Who was he in their with, if you remember?

A. I don't know who he was.

Q. A lawyer—was there a lawyer there?

A. Might have been a lawyer, might have been just a Justice of the Peace. I don't know, I am sure.

Q. A man who did the writing?

A. A man who did the writing, yes.

Q. Did you ask him any questions? [266]

A. No, sir, I did not.

Q. Did he ask you any questions?

A. No, sir, he did not.

Q. What did you think you were doing?

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

A. Well, I just thought I was signing some papers that would secure the land. I naturally supposed I was doing right.

Q. What kind of papers?

A. Why, I naturally thought it was a mortgage.

Q. Were you not curious to know how much it was for? A. No, sir.

Q. You expected to pay it some time, if you didn't sell the land, didn't you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You signed a note too, did you now?

A. I don't remember signing any note.

Q. Did Mealey ask you for a deed at that time?

A. No, sir, he didn't.

Q. Did you expect to give a deed at that time?

A. Well, I naturally supposed maybe I had to some time, when I got it.

Q. When you got what? A. The deed.

Q. You mean when you got title?

A. Yes, when I got title for my land, yes.

Q. Did you ask Mealey how he expected to raise the money on the land? A. No, sir, I didn't.

Q. What did you understand? What is your idea about it?

A. Well, sir, I could not tell you.

Q. Had you made any bargain with anybody about that land before the time you went to Roseburg to make final proof? [267]

A. No, sir, I didn't.

Q. Well, had you in your mind, indirectly?

A. No, sir, I never bargained it to anybody or made any agreement with anybody.

Q. Well, did you feel that the land was just the same as your land when you proved up?

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

A. Naturally supposed it was mine until I got my patent for it. The deed, whatever it was.

Q. You mean the regular Receiver's receipt, the duplicate, we call it?

A. Yes, the Receiver's receipt.

Q. Was that usually called duplicate?

A. Yes, the same I got for the homestead. I supposed after I got the duplicate receipt it was mine until I got title for it. My Government patent.

Q. After you got that duplicate, when you had proved up, did you feel that anybody else in the wide world had any interest in that land but you?

A. No, sir.

Redirect Examination.

Q. You knew the duplicate was issued right there while you were proving up?

A. Maybe it was, for all I know.

Q. Did you ever see it at all?

A. No, sir, I never.

Q. When you got the duplicate, what were you going to do with the land? A. What was I?

Q. Yes. A. Sell it, if I got a chance.

Q. What did you think Mealey was going to get for all his trouble?

A. I don't know. [268]

Q. Did you think he was doing it just for glory, to be good to the neighbors up there?

A. He might have got four bits for it or he might have got a thousand for it.

Q. What did you think he was going to get if you kept the land?

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

A. I could not tell you if I kept the land, except would have to raise the money to redeem the mortgage with and I could not do that.

A. You never expected to redeem the mortgage, did you? A. No, sir.

Q. You understood that that mortgage was put there just as a kind of step in the transaction, didn't you? A. Might have been.

Q. You never expected to pay it—pay any mortgage? A. No, sir.

Q. At any time. Now, isn't it a fact, Mr. Steingrandt, that before you ever went to Mealey's at all that you understood that you could take up a claim under their direction and get $50.00 for doing so, upon turning the land over to them?

A. I believe that is right.

Q. Isn't that why you went to see them?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Wasn't that why you went ahead and took up the entry? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever expect to get any more than $50.00 out of that claim? A. No, sir.

Q. And that is exactly what you got?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have that expectation before you filed? A. Yes, sir. [269]

Q. And isn't it a fact you understood the land was to go to Mealey or to whoever they directed?

A. Didn't have no understanding who the land should go to.

Q. You understood that, when you went to see them? That is what occurred?

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

A. Something like that.

Mr. LIND.—Something like what?

Q. What did you understand they were working for?

A. I don't know. I didn't understand what they were working for.

Q. What did you understand they were trying to do?

A. I cannot tell you.

Q. Was—didn't you understand they were after the lands for themselves or somebody else?

A. Yes, I understood they were taking up lands, but who they were taking it up for—naturally I supposed that were taking for themselves. Didn't know who they were dealing with.

Q. You understood that you were going to turn the land to whoever that was they were dealing with?

A. Yes.

Q. Certainly. That is all.

Recross-examination.

Q. I will ask you one more question, Mr. Steingrandt. Is this what you mean? Now, note what I say. When you went to Mealey's and asked them to file you on a claim, did you mean you wanted the profit therefrom, or the value of it? If you got $50.00, well, and if you could get more than $50.00, well and good. If not, you would be content [270] to sell the land, when you got it, for $50.00?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is the way you felt?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, when you were down here and had this talk with Mr. Burns, did Mr. Burns threaten to send you to the penitentiary?

(Testimony of J. A. Steingrandt.)

A. He told me and told Mr. Rozell that he would indict everyone of us if we didn't sign the papers and tell the truth.

Q. Have you been told substantially the same thing since you came here as a witness?

A. How is that?

Q. Have you been told the same thing again since you came here as a witness?

A. No, sir; no, sir.

Redirect Examination.

Q. You told Mr. Burns the truth, didn't you? You told Mr. Burns the truth, didn't you?

A. Why, I guess I did; I thought I did, anyhow. Witness excused. [271]

[Testimony of Richard F. Malone, for the Government.]

RICHARD F. MALONE, a witness called on behalf of the Government, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Where do you live? A. Sweet Home.

Q. How long have you lived there?

A. Born and raised there.

Q. How is that? A. Born and raised there.

Q. Were you—you were living there in 1900?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Know William R. Mealey how long?

A. Ever since I was a boy, I guess.

Q. And Judd Mealey? A. Yes, sir.

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

Q. How long have you known John A. Thompson?

A. I guess ever since have been a boy.

Q. You were up there in 1900. I think you said that already. Do you know Fred A. Kribs?

A. Well, I do now.

Q. Do you recall Mr. Kribs coming into that part of the country in the spring of 1900? A. No.

Q. You don't remember it?

A. I don't remember it?

Q. You took up a timber claim there, Mr. Malone, in 1900. Do you remember that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will you kindly state to the Court the circumstances leading up to your making a filing upon that timber claim, and any conversation that occurred in relation to the same, and follow it on by the subsequent steps in the proceedings? [272]

COURT.—Go ahead. You can answer the question.

A. How is that?

Q. Just go along and tell who you went to see about it.

A. Oh, well, I saw the Mealey boys about taking the timber claim.

Q. Which one? Both of them?

A. Well, I think I talked with both of them. I think I did.

Q. What conversation did you have with them relative to taking a claim?

A. Well, they was to furnish me the money and I was to take the claim. They was to furnish the money to prove up—to file and prove up on.

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

Q. And what else was there about it? What were they to get for furnishing the money?

A. I was to give a mortgage after I proved up, for the money that they let me have.

Q. And what did you do now?

A. Well, I went and located the land. Went to the Land Office and filed.

Q. Who was with you when you went to the Land Office to file?

A. Well, I think Mr. Lawrence, Mr. Watkinds—I don't know as I can just name all of them.

Q. Who paid your expenses to Roseburg at that time? A. I don't know.

Q. Who took you to see the land?

A. Mr. Thompson.

Q. Did you know the description of it at that time?

A. Yes, I had—I set it down. I had it on a paper at that time. I haven't got it by heart though.

Q. You set it down right there? A. Yes.

Q. Now, then, after you had filed at Roseburg, or when you went to file at Roseburg, did the same people go with you that went to see the land? [273]

A. No, Mr. Thompson did not go.

Q. He didn't go? Who went down with the party that went to Roseburg?

A. Well, I could not say now,—I have got the two trips mixed up—whether Mr. Mealey went both trips or not. He went one, but I could not say whether he went the first trip or not. I had the two trips mixed up.

Q. On the last trip was Mr. Mealey with them?

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

A. Yes, the two of them.

Q. Both the Mealeys on the last trip down there?

A. Yes.

Q. How did you ascertain it was time to go on the second trip?

A. I think we was notified by the boys when it was time to go.

Q. What boys? A. Mr. Mealey's.

Q. And what sort of conveyance did they furnish to take you down?

A. I think that a man by the name of Gould went with the rig that time.

Q. Gould—what was Gould's first name?

A. Why, we called him Eckle.

Q. Alexander was his real name?

A. I don't know. We called him Eckle.

Q. Was he taking a claim?

A. I think he did.

Q. Whose rig was he driving?

A. His, I think.

Q. Who paid for it, do you know?

A. No, I don't.

Q. And when you hit the train did you pay any fare? A. No, sir. [274]

Q. Did you pay any expenses in Roseburg?

A. No, sir.

Q. Who paid them?

A. Don't know; could not tell you.

Q. Don't know who paid them. Did you see Mr. Kribs up there? A. No, sir.

Q. What? A. No, sir.

Q. Then, you went up to the Land Office and proved up? A. Yes, sir.

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

Q. Who went with you up there?

A. Why, all the crowd that was with us went up there.

Q. Who paid your proof money?

A. Couldn't tell you.

Q. Did you see any paid for you?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know who attended to that?

A. No, sir, I don't.

Q. Who did you understand was attending to it?

A. I supposed the Mealey boys.

Q. You didn't see any money?

A. No, I saw no money.

Q. In transfer. Well, after you had proved up what occurred?

A. Well, then we come across the street and I signed a mortgage for this money that they had put up for me.

Q. How much did they put up for you?

A. I don't know what the amount was.

Q. What did you think they were putting up for you?

A. I don't know as I even asked.

Q. You didn't pay any attention to the amount of the money? A. No, I didn't.

Q. Did you figure that they were loaning you any money? A. How is that? [275]

Q. Did you figure that they were loaning you any money?

A. Well, one way; that is, they was to pay my expenses and I was to give a mortgage afterwards.

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

Q. Did you make any inquiry what your expenses had been? A. No, I didn't.

Q. Had you been to any expense?

A. Not none of my own. I hadn't put up nothing of my own.

Q. How big a mortgage did you sign?

A. I can't answer that; don't know.

Q. Did you ever pay any mortgage?

A. How is that?

Q. Did you ever pay any mortgage since then?

A. I guess I surely did when I sold my land.

Q. How much did you pay?

A. How much I paid afterward?

Q. Yes.

A. I didn't pay nothing. I turned my land over.

Q. To whom?

A. I suppose to Mr. Mealey,—made the deed out. I sold to them, rather.

Q. Who had you borrowed the money from?

A. I suppose from them; don't know.

Q. Don't know anything about that at all. Never inquired that—who made the deal?

A. No, sir, I didn't.

Q. How much did you get? A. $50.

Q. When did you first discover that you were going to get $50 for the transaction?

A. When did I first?

Q. Yes.

A. Well, I was satisfied of that before I took the claim.

Q. Sure. Did you—what satisfied you of it?

A. Well, that was the understanding, that if a man proved up [276] he would make as much as $50 out of it.

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

Q. And who would pay him the $50?

A. Well, I supposed it would be the Mealey boys.

Q. What were they going to get for this $50?

A. The land, I suppose.

Q. That was what you understood before you ever started in?

A. Well, I don't know as it was just exactly said that way. I could not word it as said that way.

Q. It wasn't worded at all, but you understood it that way?

A. Yes, I might have understood it that way, but it wasn't worded that way.

Q. Where did you—how did you get this information that they would give $50 for those claims?

A. Well, I was around town all the time and I heard everybody talking. I was there all the time.

Q. What was the talk?

A. That was the chief—that was the chief talk all over town there—everybody.

Q. When they were talking, what would they say?

A. Anybody that would take a claim could get as much as $50 for it.

Q. From the Mealey boys?

A. Yes, I suppose maybe they had people talk it.

Q. After you heard that, what did you do?

A. I talked that some.

Q. What did you say?

A. I asked about that myself. Said I guess I can get as much, maybe, as $50 out of it.

COURT.—Who? Mealey? A. Mealey.

[277]

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

COURT.—Which one?

A. Can't say which one—maybe both.

Q. When did they first talk about this mortgage business? A. That was right at the start.

Q. What?

A. Told me if I got any money I would have to give a mortgage after I proved up.

Q. When were you to turn it over and get the $50? A. How is that?

Q. How soon after you proved up were you to turn it over and get the $50?

A. Nothing said about how soon.

Q. Did you ever—did you know Fred Kribs in the transaction? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you see him down at Roseburg?

A. No, not that I know of.

Q. Now, did you get any money when you signed the mortgage at Roseburg?

A. Not that I remember of.

Q. You never borrowed any $700 in that transaction, did you? A. I never had no money.

Q. Did you sign a note?

A. I guess I did if there is a note with the mortgage. I don't remember just what I did sign. I remember about the mortgage.

Q. Who did you give the mortgage to? Who took it? Who took the papers?

A. I don't know who the mortgage was drawn up to.

Q. Where did you go to sign it?

A. It was across the street from the Land Office. I don't know whereabouts. [278]

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

Q. Were you married at that time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your wife there at Roseburg?

A. No, sir.

Q. Where was she? A. Sweet Home.

Q. How long after that—after signing the mortgage was it that you signed the deed?

A. I don't remember just how long it was.

Q. Well, what is your recollection now?

A. A short time, probably something—maybe a week. I could not say exactly.

Q. Just a few days, wasn't it?

A. Just a short time, at any rate.

Q. And who came to you to get the deed?

A. Well, I couldn't say. I could not say which one of the boys—which one of the Mealey boys. I could not say which one.

Q. What payment did he make to you at that time?

A. I know I got $50 when I signed it.

Q. Did he hand the mortgage back then?

A. I asked for it back then.

Q. And Mealey had it and gave it to you?

A. I don't know whether he gave it right then or not. If he didn't it was shortly afterwards.

Q. What?

A. I don't know whether he gave it then or not. If he didn't it was shortly afterwards. I could not say about that.

Q. Is this the mortgage that you mean? Just take it and look at it. Is that the mortgage?

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

A. Yes, sir, that is my handwriting.

Q. That is your signature? A. Yes, sir.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer that in evidence.

Marked “Government’s Exhibit 30.” [279]

COURT.—What is the date?

Mr. McCOURT.—The 9th of October.

I offer the deed in connection with it of Richard F. Malone and wife to F. A. Kribs, dated the 12th day of October, 1900, filed for record on the 15th day of October, 1900, conveying the same land embraced in the entry of the witness now on the stand.

Marked “Government’s Exhibit 31.”

Q. Do you remember after signing that deed, Mr. Malone, appearing at the residence of Wodtli in connection with your entry?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How did you come to go there?

A. Well, I was notified I was wanted there.

Q. By whom?

A. Well, I don’t know as I could tell exactly who I was notified by. I have forgotten that.

Q. Well, when you arrived there, who was there?

A. Well, Mr. Mealey; oh, there was quite a crowd there. I don’t know as I can name them.

Q. What conversation did you have with either of the Mealey boys before you went in to make your affidavit?

A. Well, I don’t know hardly what the conversation—what the conversation was.

Q. Well, now, did they give you any instruction?

A. I don’t know.

Q. You remember in that—who was there at the time? A. No, I don't.

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

Q. Who—how many were in the room?

A. In the room where I went in?

Q. Yes.

A. I could not say how many was in there; quite a few in there. [280]

Q. Entry-men? Persons who had taken lands up there in that locality? A. Yes, sir.

Q. In the room where the Special Agent was?

A. I think so.

Q. You remember whether a young lady was there running the typewriter?

A. Yes, I think there was.

Q. Do you remember being asked this question at that time: "Who, if anyone, located you and selected the land? A. Mr. John Thompson. Q. What, if anything, did you pay him for his services?

A. Yes, I paid him $50."

A. No, I could not say whether I answered that.

Q. Were you in a state of mind at that time that you would have answered it in that way?

A. I don't know whether I would or not.

Q. That wasn't the truth, at any rate, was it?

A. I hadn't paid nothing for it.

Q. And you haven't since?

A. (Witness laughs.)

Q. Did you own any property at that time?

A. I think not; I wouldn't say, however, sure; I don't think so.

Mr. LIND.—I could not hear either the question or the answer.

Mr. McCOURT.—I asked him whether he owned

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

any property or not at that time.

Mr. LIND.—What was the answer?

A. I don't think I did at that time. I am not right positive.

Q. "What disposition have you made of the land?

A. Sold it to Frederick A. Kribs for $850." Do you remember that [281] question and answer?

A. No, I don't remember that.

Q. Did you make—did you make any such answer there at that time?

A. I don't think I did.

Q. Were you asked how much you had sold your claim for?

A. I don't know whether I was or not; I don't remember it.

Q. Do you recall whether anybody told you when you were in there—when you should go in there—to make such an answer to such a question?

A. No.

Q. If it was asked you? A. No, sir.

Q. You say you never saw Mr. Kribs?

A. Not at that time.

Q. You have seen him since?

A. Saw him since, yes, sir.

Q. Lately?

A. Saw him—yes, a week or two ago.

Q. He was up there in that community, was he not? A. I just saw him when he was up there.

Q. Did he call on you and talk to you?

A. No, sir.

Q. "How much money did Mr. Mealey deliver to you in payment of the land when you gave him the deed? A. $850. Q. Why should he give you $850 for Mr. Kribs, when you already owed Mr. Kribs $700? A. $850 was what I was to get for my claim. He gave me $150 when I delivered the deed." Do you remember those questions and answers?

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

A. Don't know as I do; don't believe I remember them.

Q. That was not a fact, whoever answered it, was it? A. No, sir.

Q. I will ask you if at the time you made final proof you [282] remember besides Alex Gould being there, of John J. Gilliland being there?

A. I think he was.

Q. Jasper H. Keeney? A. Yes, sir.

Q. His wife? A. I think so.

Q. Keeney's wife? A. Yes, sir.

Q. William J. Lawrence?

A. Yes, I believe he was.

Q. Richard F. Malone?

A. That is myself.

Q. That is yourself? Louis Maynard?

A. At final proof?

Q. Yes.

A. Yes, I believe he was there then.

Q. J. W. Rozell?

A. He may have been. I would not say for sure whether I saw him or not.

Q. Sydney Scanland? A. Yes, I saw him.

Q. Cornelius Tuthill?

A. I would not say about that.

Q. The old gentleman?

A. He might have been there, but I wouldn't—

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

Q. You don't recall it?

COURT.—Mr. Malone, at the time of the examination before the Special Agent, were the questions and answers written out in your presence?

A. Well, I don't know. They might have been—part of them.

COURT.—Who asked the questions? Who asked them of you?

A. I don't know the man at all. Didn't know him.

COURT.—Was he a Special Agent—pretending to be a Special Agent? A. I think so.

COURT.—Did he have a typewriter or stenographer there? [283] A. Yes, sir.

COURT.—The questions—you don't remember whether they were all asked and answered?

A. No, I don't remember whether they was or not.

COURT.—Was it read over to you after you completed your examination?

A. Well, I could not say whether it was or not. I tell you—

COURT.—How did you come to sign it?

A. I could not tell you that. I guess I signed it, but I could not tell you how.

COURT.—Where did you get the information upon which you based your answers?

A. There, you mean?

COURT.—Yes, for that Special Agent? You say in that answer that you sold this property to Kribs for $850. Where did you get that information?

A. I don't know where I got that.

COURT.—You say you paid the locator a fee of

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

$50—agreed to pay him $50 for locating. Where did you get that information?

A. I could not tell you that, either.

COURT.—Now, you said you didn't remember that Mealey said anything to you about what your answers should be before you went into the room. Did you hear him say anything to the other people standing around there?

A. He was in the room.

COURT.—I know, but outside. Counsel asked you if he said anything to you on the outside before he went into the room, and you said "Not to me," as I remember.

A. He was talking to the others, but of course I could not tell what he said.

COURT.—You don't know what he said? [284]

A. No, I couldn't say what he said to the others.

Q. (By Mr. McCOURT.) Wasn't it commonly understood among all you entrymen there that there was a little trouble there and that you were to stand by the Mealeys on it and answer up so as to make a good report?

A. Well, there was something like that, but I couldn't say just how.

Q. Who was leading the conversation of that kind there?

A. I don't know. That is, I called them boys. The crowd of us was all talking, and I couldn't tell exactly.

Q. Was Mealey circulating among you?

A. They was there, yes, talking to us all.

Q. Isn't it a fact that Mealey gave you the amount of that deed—the consideration named in that deed—and told you to tell the agent that is what you got?

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

A. I don't know whether I told that or somebody else told that.

Q. Was Mealey there?

A. He was in there.

Q. Was he answering part of the questions for you? A. He answered some.

Q. Did he answer all of those kind of questions—

A. Could not say.

Q. —relating to figures?

A. Could not say.

Q. What did the Special Agent say when Mealey was answering the questions for you?

A. The way I see that now, after he made these papers up he handed it to them to look it over.

COURT.—Handed it to whom? A. Mealey.

[285]

COURT.—The Special Agent did it?

A. That is the way it was.

COURT.—Who was the Special Agent?

A. I don't know his name at all.

Q. That is your signature, is it not, to this affidavit? A. I believe it is.

Q. There was a younger man there than the Agent himself. Do you remember his name?

A. No, sir.

Q. A man by the name of Van Zant? What part did he take in the deal, whoever he was?

A. I could not tell you. I don't remember much about that.

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

Q. Did he ask any of the questions?

A. I could not say whether he did or not.

Q. Did he answer any of the questions?

A. Could not say.

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. LIND.)

In this conversation that you had among you before you went into the house, the question of having given a mortgage was talked over, wasn't it? I mean, at Wodtli's, before you went into the house—before you went in to see the Special Examiner? You were talking about those claims generally, were you not?

A. We was talking something about them, yes.

Q. Well, the matter of having signed the mortgage came up, didn't it? Didn't you all talk that and say that you had given a mortgage? Wasn't that understood?

A. Well, I couldn't say now whether the rest of the boys said that or not. I knew I gave a mortgage, but don't know what the rest—

Q. Wasn't the talk that that mortgage included some amount [286] for the Mealeys for locating you? Wasn't the talk there among you that there was included a certain amount in that mortgage on account of the Mealeys locating you—that they got some of the proceeds of that mortgage?

A. I could not say about that.

Q. Well, you knew that yourself, did you not?

A. I don't know as I just understand the question just right as you ask it.

Q. You knew that you had given a mortgage for

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

$600 or $700, didn't you?

A. I knew I gave a mortgage, but I didn't know how much. Didn't know what the amount of the mortgage was.

Q. Was there anything said about that in this talk that you had in the yard in front of Wodtli's house?

A. I don't know whether there was or not—about the mortgage.

Q. What was talked about there?

A. Well, we didn't know what—we didn't know what was there; didn't know what was going against. Didn't know what we was going up against. We didn't understand it.

Q. What were you told? A. How is that?

Q. What were you told? Did anybody tell you what was coming up?

A. Not only among ourselves. We was talking among ourselves.

Q. What did you talk among yourselves?

A. We was just kind of guessing—kind of guess-work what was going on.

Q. When you were doing that talking and guessing, didn't you talk that this mortgage included a certain amount for the Mealeys—for the Mealey boys? That they got something out of it for locating you? [287]

A. I don't know; I can't say about that—whether there was or not.

Q. Did you ever find out—did you know then how much the Mealeys sold the land for? You knew at that time that the Mealeys had sold the land, did you not? A. That they had sold it?

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

Q. Yes, that you had deeded?

A. That I deeded it away myself?

Q. Yes.

A. Yes, I knew I deeded it to them.

Q. You didn't sell it yourself, did you? You didn't negotiate the sale—you didn't make the sale yourself, did you? A. No, sir.

Q. Of the land. Who made it?

A. You mean, who made the sale?

Q. For you?

COURT.—Made the sale to Kribs—who sold this land?

A. Oh, to Kribs? I suppose I did, but I didn't know who I deeded it to.

Q. Well, as a matter of fact, didn't the Mealeys sell it? Don't you know that now, that they negotiated the sale? A. I suppose they did.

Q. You weren't having any talk with Kribs?

A. No.

Q. Never seen him in your life up to that time?

A. Didn't know him at that time at all.

Q. Wasn't it talked among you that the Mealeys got about $800 a quarter for the land when they turned it over—sold it to Kribs?

A. Well, I don't know; I might have heard such talk as that.

Q. Well, didn't you, as a matter of fact? Now, think [288] it over. Wasn't that talked right there?

Mr. McCOURT.—I object to that as immaterial.

COURT.—I suppose counsel wants to know how

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

the question came up; what conversation he had before he went into this room.

A. Of course, it is pretty hard for me to say what our conversation was. I don't hardly remember it.

Q. Did you ever inquire—did you ever hear it suggested what amount the Mealeys got for the land?

A. In a roundabout way, but not direct—straight.

Q. Now, what did you learn in a roundabout way? That is what I want to get at.

A. Well, I always heard $700 or $800—along there.

Q. When did you hear that? Now, we are getting along nicely. I want you to answer these questions frankly—just as you know them.

A. I had been hearing that right along, all the time, but I didn't know.

Q. Heard it from the time of the sale, didn't you?

A. Yes, but didn't know.

Q. Didn't know how much they got?

A. No.

Q. You were contented to sell as long as you got your $50? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, did you know when you went down to file on this land that the Mealeys were going to sell it for you? A. No, sir, not that way.

Q. What did you hear—what way did you know it?

A. What way did I know they was going to sell it for me?

Q. Yes.

A. Why, I didn't know was going to sell it for me at all. [289] Thought I would sell it when I proved up, maybe.

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

Q. You did think that you would sell it yourself?

A. Yes.

Q. When did you come to a different conclusion?

A. I didn't know I had come. I thought I did sell it.

Q. Why, you knew you hadn't sold it before you entered it?

A. No, not before entered, but afterwards—after I proved up.

Q. Well, you thought you sold it through the Mealeys? A. Yes.

Q. Or to the Mealeys?

A. To the Mealeys; yes, sir.

Q. Had you ever intended to sell it before that time? A. Before I proved up?

Q. Yes. A. No, sir.

Q. Had you ever bargained to sell it?

A. No, sir.

Q. Had you ever intended to sell it before you proved up? A. No, sir.

Q. Now, Mr. Malone, if somebody had come to you about the time you proved up at Roseburg and the time you gave the deed to the Mealeys, and offered you a thousand dollars for that claim, would you have taken it?

A. I might have, if I could have got rid of that mortgage.

Q. Well, you would have had the money then to pay the mortgage, wouldn't you?

A. I suppose I would.

Q. Now, what I want to get at—and I want you to tell me the absolute truth—was there anything to prevent you from selling that claim, subject to the mortgage, after you had proved up on it?

(Testimony of Richard F. Malone.)

A. Of course, I don't know as there was, myself. I don't know myself. I don't understand it well enough to know. [290]

Q. Had you said or done anything that would have prevented you from selling it?

A. Not that I know of.

Witness excused.

Whereupon proceedings adjourned until Wednesday, April 27, 1910, at 10 A. M. [291]

Portland, Ore., April 27, 1910, 10 A. M.

A. Yes, and maybe longer. I couldn't say. It has been so long ago—I didn't pay much attention to it.

Q. Well, what had you heard about them before you went to see them?

A. Well, I never heard nothing that amounted to anything.

Q. Well, what was the proposition?

A. Well, to go up into the timber and run through it.

Q. What inducements were they offering you to locate? [293] A. Nothing at all.

Q. Nothing?

A. No. Well, I wanted a claim—I wanted a timber claim.

Q. What did they say to you when you went to see them?

A. Well, they said all right—maybe they could locate me.

Q. What did they say they would do besides locating you?

A. Well, go to Roseburg and prove up.

Q. What?

A. To go to Roseburg and make final proof.

Q. Who would? A. I would.

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

Q. What would they do? A. Which?

Q. What?

A. I don't know at the time what I was going to get out of it.

Q. You don't? Well, what did you think you were going to get out of it?

A. Well, I didn't know.

Q. What? [294]

A. I didn't know then just what I would get out of it.

Q. Whom were you going to get what you were going to get out of it from?

A. I couldn't say that.

Q. What? A. I don't know.

COURT.—What did you take the claim for?

A. Why, I took my claim to sell it.

Q. Well, who was with you when you went up to look at the land?

A. Well, there was Will Wiley and George Pickens and Tom Parker and Billy—no, not Billy; he wasn't there; Bill Mealey and Oliver Erickson and

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

Joe Steingrandt.

Q. Andrew and Charles Wiley there?

A. Charles Wiley, yes.

Q. Joseph H. Steingrandt. Did they all go up in the timber the same time you did?

A. Yes, sir. And a man by the name of Mickalson too.

Q. Joseph Mickalson? A. Yes, sir.

A. Oh, it might have been a week.

Q. Well, how did you get from Foster, then, to Roseburg? [295]

A. We went through—went down by Albany, through Lebanon, that way.

Q. Who furnished the conveyance?

A. Well, sir, the Mealeys. I suppose they did.

Q. What?

A. I don't know whether they took their team or not—I couldn't say; but then they went down, I think some of us on the hack. I don't know just how we did get down now; don't just recollect whether they had a team along or not.

Q. Who paid your railway fare?

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

A. Mealeys.

Q. And your hotel bill?

A. Mealeys. I suppose they did.

Q. And when you went the second time, to make proof, who paid your expenses?

A. Everything was paid.

Q. Did you have anything to do with publishing notice of final proof? A. Which?

Q. Did you have anything to do with publishing any notice in the paper about making proof on your timber claim? A. No.

Q. What?

A. No, I had nothing to do with that at all.

Q. Who gave you the description of your land?

A. Mealeys—Bill Mealey.

Q. Did he show you over the quarter section that you took?

A. I was over, I don't know how much of it.

Q. Did you ever get onto it at all? [296]

A. Oh, yes. Yes, sir; I was onto it.

Q. What? A. Yes, I guess I was.

Q. Do you know where it is to-day?

A. No, sir, I don't suppose I could find it to-day.

Q. Never been back there since?

A. Never been back there since.

Q. Now, when you went to Roseburg, did Oliver Erickson go with you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. On the train? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Sure? A. Oliver Erickson?

Q. Yes. A. I think he did.

Q. Didn't he ride a bicycle down?

A. Well, sir, that is so. He did ride a bicycle part way all right. I don't know just where he got a bicycle on the road, some place, that is right. It is so long ago, I don't just remember everything.

Q. But he showed up there at Roseburg at the time of proof?

A. Yes, sir, he showed up there.

Q. Well, now, did all of you go to the Land Office together? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Well, after you had made proof, what did you do?

A. Well, then I went out to a lawyer's office and made out a mortgage.

Q. To whom? A. I suppose to Kribs.

Q. Well, did you know then who it was to?

A. No, I didn't. [297]

Q. Did you make any inquiry?

A. No, sir, I never inquired.

Q. Did you know how much it was for?

A. Well, I guess $600, or something—enough to pay.

Q. Well, at that time did you know?

A. No, I didn't know at the time.

Q. You made no inquiry?

A. I made no inquiry.

Q. Did you do any figuring with Mealeys to find out how much expenses they had been to?

A. No, I did not.

Q. They never told you, did they? Did they ever tell you?

A. I don't think they ever did. I never heard anything about it.

Q. Never inquired? A. Never inquired.

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

Q. What did you do after you signed the mortgage?

A. Well, after signing the mortgage we went home after a little,—went back home.

Q. Went back home? A. Yes.

Q. When did you get your $50?

A. After signing the deed to deed it over.

Q. How long was it afterwards you signed the deed?

A. I couldn't say. It wasn't a great while.

Q. About three or four days, wasn't it?

A. Probably.

Q. As soon as you had gotten home?

A. Yes, as soon as we got home, I guess, three or four days.

Q. Your wife wasn't down at Roseburg, was she?

A. No, sir. [298]

Q. Did you see Kribs at Roseburg?

A. No, sir. I didn't know him.

Q. Who paid for your land? Who paid the purchase price to the Government for the land?

A. Well, I suppose Mealeys.

Q. Now, isn't it a fact that before you went to see Mealey about filing you at all, you had heard in the community there—it was generally reported around there—that they were paying $50 for persons to locate on land?

Mr. LIND.—That is objected to as leading, and there is no evidence to which that could apply.

COURT.—He may state what he heard about that, I think.

A. I never heard anything about it. Oh, of course, I did hear, too, rumors around, you know, about $50 in it.

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

Q. Well, was that what caused you to go and see Mealeys? A. No.

Q. What?

A. No, that wasn't what caused me.

Q. Well, what caused you to go there?

A. Well, I just thought maybe I wanted a timber claim?

Q. What? A. I wanted a timber claim.

Q. You wanted a timber claim?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long did you keep that timber claim when you got it?

A. Well, I didn't keep it very long.

Q. What kind of money did Mealeys pay you in?

A. Paid me in gold.

Q. What? A. Paid the gold coin.

Q. Out there at Sweet Home?

A. Yes, sir, right there at Foster.

Q. At Foster? Do you remember being down here in [299] 1904 or 1905? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Before the Grand Jury? A. No, sir.

Q. You were subpoenaed to appear before the Grand Jury? A. Yes, sir, I was subpoenaed.

Q. You didn't go before the Grand Jury?

A. No, sir.

Q. You were taken sick and went home?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And nobody talked to you here?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did anybody talk to you after you went home

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

about this transaction?

A. No, not for—till after I had to sign up an affidavit.

Q. Whom did you sign that affidavit before?

A. Bill Mealey.

Q. Did he draw it for you?

A. I don't know whether he did or not. He brought it there to my house to sign.

Q. I show you an instrument purporting to be an affidavit made by you before William R. Mealey on February 1st, 1905, and ask you if that is your signature?

A. I guess it is. It looks like it.

Q. I will ask you if you remember making this statement in that affidavit—

Mr. LIND.—That, your Honor, is objected to as immaterial. It is subsequent to the issuance of the patents in this case. It is in 1905, isn't it?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes. It is for the purpose of refreshing the witness' memory, showing he made different statements at other times than he is making right now.

Mr. LIND.—It seems to me, your Honor, that the [300] ruling suggested on yesterday or the day before, that evidence of this character might be material under the theory suggested by District Attorney, does not reach this point. Here is an ex parte affidavit, made probably with reference to some other proceeding, after the patents had issued in this case.

COURT.—I understand the District Attorney is using it for the purpose of refreshing the witness' memory for cross-examination, not for substantive proof.

Mr. LIND.—Oh.

Q. Among other things, did you not state in that affidavit this: “He further states that some time about June of the year 1900 he decided to take a timber claim; he therefore went to the Mealey brothers and Thompson, as he knew them to be locators. He also says: ‘It was commonly known in the community that there was $50 in it clear of all expenses.’ ”

A. I don’t know anything about that.

Q. Don’t remember making that statement to Mr. Mealey? A. No.

Q. Did he make it for you?

A. I don’t know whether he did or not.

Q. Did you read the affidavit that he had you sign? A. No, I never read it at all.

Q. What? A. Never read it.

Q. You didn’t read it?

A. No, sir, I didn’t read it.

Q. And do you remember this: “William R. Mealey showed me and several other parties our claims. O. J. Mealey went with us to Roseburg when we filed and paid all expenses incidental to the trip. My notice of final [301] proof fee was also paid, and when the time came to make proof, we went to the Land Office, and after I had proved up, on the afternoon of the same day, I went before an attorney, and made a mortgage covering the land to F. A. Kribs, for, I believe, $700. Afterward the Mealey brothers or Thompson gave me $50. I do not know who paid for the land at the Land Office.” Don’t you remember any of those statements?

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

Mr. LIND.—How does that differ from his statements here?

A. I don't remember a thing about it at all.

Q. You do remember the incident of signing the document?

A. That is just about all I do remember, yes, sir.

Q. Now, then, doesn't that state the truth there, that it was commonly known in the neighborhood that there was $50 in it clear of all expenses?

A. There was no bargain made with me.

Q. I understand; but wasn't it commonly known there?

A. Well, yes, it was talked around that way.

Q. Yes? A. Yes.

Q. And that was why you went to see the Mealeys about it? A. There was no bargain made.

Q. I understand there was no bargain made; but that is why you went to see Mealeys, wasn't it?

A. Because there was $50 in it?

Q. Yes, because you heard that?

A. Well, I couldn't say.

Q. What is that? A. I couldn't say.

Q. Well, that is all you got out of it, wasn't it?

A. Yes, it is all I got out of it.

Q. Did you ever do a thing in regard to that timber claim [302] except as you were told by the Mealeys to do?

A. No, I never. They was to see that I got a buyer, you know,—do all they could to get me a buyer.

Q. They did everything. Whom did you deed the land to? A. Kribs, I suppose.

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

Q. Whom did you think you were deeding it to?

A. Kribs, I suppose it was.

Q. How did you know Kribs? Well, how did you know about Kribs?

A. I din't know a thing about him.

Q. Did you know Kribs was in the transaction at the time?

A. Well, I heard he was. That is all I know about it.

Q. How long did you hear that before you filed?

A. Well, I couldn't say.

Q. Now, do you remember, about a year after you had made the deed, of making an affidavit before a man of the name of Stratford down at Wodtli's?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who notified you to go down there?

A. I don't know just who.

Q. Well, who do you think it was?

A. I think Mealeys, though, I think.

Q. Which one of the Mealeys?

A. Well, I couldn't say which one.

Q. How did you get down there?

A. I walked down.

Q. How many people were there when you arrived?

A. I couldn't say just how many.

Q. How far did you live from Wodtli's at that time?

A. At that time I was about half a mile, I guess.

Q. Where did you go to make your statement?

[303]

A. Wodtli's.

Q. Whereabouts—in the house?

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who was in the room when you got in there?

A. Well, I found an old fellow in there with a book, and a lady there with a typewriter and another fellow sitting there with a pen in his hand.

Q. Which one of the Mealey boys was in the room?

A. I don't know whether there was either one or not at the time. I couldn't say.

Q. What kind of a conversation did you have with either one of the Mealeys before you went in there?

A. Oh, I couldn't say just what now.

Q. Did you have some conversation?

A. Well, yes, I might—I don't know.

Q. Relative to what you would have to say when you got in there?

A. No, I didn't know just till I went in there what I would have to say.

Q. You didn't? Well, now, do you remember saying this: I will ask you first if this is your signature to the affidavit of claimant in Government's Exhibit 11?

A. My name? No, sir, that ain't my name at all.

Q. You didn't write that?

A. No, sir, I didn't write that, no, sir, I didn't.

Q. Did you sign any document there at that time?

A. No, sir, no documents there at all. I didn't sign nothing at all.

Q. Did they ask you many questions?

A. Oh, yes, they asked me some questions.

Q. All right. Do you remember them asking you this question: "Did Mr. Mealey or anyone else suggest to you that you enter this land? A. No, sir.

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

Q. What did [304] you pay Mr. Mealey for his services? A. $50." Do you remember answering that? A. I couldn't say.

Q. Did you pay Mr. Mealey any $50 for locating you? A. No, sir, I didn't.

Q. Or any other sum?

A. No, sir, I didn't.

Q. Do you remember this question: "What disposition have you made of the land since you obtained the title to it? A. I sold it to Mr. Frederick A. Kribs. Q. How much did you receive for it? A. $840." Do you remember that?

A. I didn't receive any at all.

Q. Do you remember that question being asked you there?

A. It might have been. I couldn't say.

Q. Do you remembering answering any such question that way?

A. Well, no. I don't just remember anything much about that affidavit. I might have all right.

Q. Well, how could you have done it? You didn't know anything about there being any $840 in the transaction, did you? A. No, sir, I didn't.

Q. Who gave you the information if you did so answer? A. Well, I couldn't say just now.

Q. Was it Will R. or Judd Mealey?

A. No, I don't think it was.

Q. Another question, "Who did you borrow the money from to pay the Government for this land and the other expenses? A. Mr. Frederick A. Kribs.

Q. How much did you borrow? A. $600. Q. Did you have this transaction with Mr. Kribs personally, or with someone acting for him? A. Mr. Kribs personally.” Did you ever have any transaction [305] with Mr. Kribs, personally?

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

A. No, sir, I never.

Q. Did you ever have any conversation with him at all?

A. Not at all, sir; not at all. Never saw the man till I saw him here the other day—they said it was Kribs.

Q. “Q. Now, is it not a fact that you did not handle any of this $600 or of the $840 except the profit which came to you in the deal? A. No, sir, I got the $600 and paid it out myself.”

A. Well, I never done it.

Q. You didn’t pay out a cent, did you?

A. Didn’t pay out a cent.

Q. Never saw a bit of money except $50 that was paid you?

A. No, sir. That is just what I did.

Q. “How much money was paid you here at Foster at the time you delivered the deed? A. I don’t know just exactly. Q. Was it $840 or was it the difference between $840 and the amount you owed Mr. Kribs on the mortgage? A. $200 or $250.”

A. I didn’t receive no money there.

Q. Don’t you remember answering those questions now?

A. Well, I might have answered them, some of them. I might have answered some of them.

Q. You were prepared to answer anything in there that would help the transaction go through, weren’t

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

you? A. Yes—

Q. And all the rest of them were that were there at the time, weren't they?

A. To kind of clear it up, you know.

Q. Wasn't that the common talk among you there, that [306] you would go just as strong as was necessary, to make the thing go through?

A. To kind of clear it up.

Q. Well, did you think it was necessary to make all those false statements in order to clear it up?

A. No, sir; I didn't say that.

Mr. GEARIN.—He says he didn't sign that affidavit, Mr McCourt.

Mr. McCOURT.—He says he might have made them.

A. Yes, I might have made them. I couldn't swear to it.

Mr. McCOURT.—He says he was prepared to make any old statement.

Q. I wish you would look at that signature again, and see if you don't think that is your signature.

A. No, sir, that is not. I can't write that well. I ain't got education enough.

Q. Well, now, look at your signature upon your Timber and Stone Sworn Statement, here, or upon your Nonmineral affidavit, for instance, taken in the timber claim.

A. No, sir, I never wrote that.

Q. What? A. It is not my writing at all.

Q. Well, I guess you don't remember.

A. I don't know anything about that.

Q. I call your attention to your signature on the Timber and Stone Sworn Statement made upon your entry.

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

A. No, I don't remember anything about that.

Q. Well, don't you remember signing any papers when you went to Roseburg?

A. I signed a—let's see that.

Q. You signed your proof paper, didn't you?

[307] A. I think I did.

Q. Well, look at your proof paper now, and see what you think of it.

A. Is that it there?

Q. Yes. A. I might have signed it.

Q. Yes, I guess you signed it all right. You were prepared to sign anything that was offered you to sign, in the transactions, weren't you?

A. Oh, I could have signed it, I guess just as well.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer in evidence certified copy of mortgage to Frederick A. Kribs bearing date August 27, 1900, purporting to secure the sum of $600 on the land embraced in the witness' entry.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 32."

Mr. McCOURT.—Also deed to Frederick A. Kribs of the entryman and wife to the same land, bearing date September 1, 1900.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 33."

Mr. McCOURT.—There isn't any question about it, but I would like to offer the original files in his entry for the purpose of comparison of signatures.

Mr. LIND.—Oh, well, I wouldn't encumber the record.

Mr. McCOURT.—Perhaps we can admit among ourselves that he did sign the affidavit.

Mr. LIND.—I presume so.

Mr. McCOURT.—No doubt of it in the world.

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

Mr. LIND.—I presume he did, yes.

Mr. UELAND.—Here is the original deed. I think that would show.

Mr. LIND.—There is no issue on that anyway.

Mr. McCOURT.—No. The deed may go in if you [308] wish, with the original deed or with the other affidavit.

Mr. UELAND.—Mr. McCourt, suppose you let the original deed be in the record instead of the copy of deed. Then you have that for comparison, and withdraw your copy of deed.

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, I can substitute the original for the copy.

Mr. UELAND.—Yes.

The original deed substituted for copy and marked “Government’s Exhibit 33.”

Q. Which of the Mealey boys did you see when you went to talk about a timber claim?

A. Bill Mealey.

Q. Which of them went with you when you went up to the timber? A. Bill Mealey.

Q. Who went with you to Roseburg?

A. Bill Mealey, I think. When we went to file on the land. It was one or two of them boys; whether they was both along or not, I couldn’t say.

Q. You never asked anyone else to buy your land?

A. No, sir, I never.

Q. You never asked anybody else to let you have money to prove up on your land? A. No.

Q. You understood before you ever filed that they would pay all expenses and all money of all kinds?

A. Yes, that was the understanding, that they

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

was to pay the whole thing.

Q. And you also knew that they didn't have money of their own? A. Mealeys? [309]

Q. Yes.

A. They didn't have money—I suppose they could get money.

Q. What had they been doing before they started this locating business?

A. Well, they was ranching up there. They had a ranch up there.

Q. A mountain ranch?

A. A mountain ranch.

Q. How much of a ranch?

A. Oh, they had a pretty good ranch.

Q. How many acres?

A. Oh, I couldn't tell you that.

Q. What did they raise on their ranch?

A. Oh, they raised grass and stuff, kept stock there.

Q. Did you examine the deed at all that they brought to you to sign out there at the ranch?

A. No, I never. I just signed it.

Q. You made no question at that time of what they were going to pay you?

A. I don't think I did.

Q. They came right along and handed you the $50, and you signed the deed? Neither one of you said a word about it.

A. That is about the racket.

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. LIND.)

Do you remember when you signed that paper that you say Will Mealey brought to you to sign—the affidavit? This paper here?

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

A. Well, I remember him bringing something like that there. At that time I was pretty sick. I didn't pay [310] much attention to it.

Q. What was the occasion? What was going on in Portland at that time?

A. Well, I suppose Court. I don't know what else.

Q. That was the time that they had the Grand Jury in session? A. I think so.

Q. And found indictments? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And sent the marshal after settlers up in your section? A. Yes, sir, I think so.

Q. You signed that statement so that you wouldn't have to go—wasn't that it?

A. Yes, sir, I thought that would clear it up maybe.

Q. Well, didn't you understand that Burns had dictated that and sent it up for you to sign?

A. Yes, sir, I did.

Q. Did Mealey tell you so?

A. Yes, sir, Bill Mealey told me that.

Q. And he told you if you signed that paper and sent it to Burns you would not have to go down?

A. Yes, sir, that would let the thing out.

Q. As a matter of fact, you were pretty frightened?

A. Well, yes, I didn't know but maybe they were going to hang me.

Q. And you are still frightened, are you not?

A. Well, no, not so very bad.

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

Q. Not so very bad? A. No.

Q. You have had a number of conferences with the District Attorney when you came down, have you not?

A. Oh, I have been talking with some of them.
[311]

Q. Well, he has hauled you over the coals a good deal, hasn't he?

A. Well, all he told me was to tell the truth. As long as I tell the truth, I guess it is all right.

Q. Now, have you told the truth frankly?

A. Well, I aimed to.

Q. How?

A. I aimed to tell the truth.

Q. Now, I will ask you a few questions and see if you cannot refresh your memory. Do you remember the occasion when you were at Wodtli's house, when the special agent was up there, a year after—about a year after you had made your timber claim?

A. Yes.

Q. What time of the day were you there?

A. Well, sit, I don't know. It might have been along in the afternoon now; I don't know; probably it was along in the afternoon.

Q. How did you find out that you were wanted there?

A. Well, through Mealeys, and then I think it was in the papers, you know. Some way I found it out all right. I don't know just exactly how. I couldn't swear.

Q. Where did you stop when you first got to Wodtli's place?

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

A. Stopped right at the house.

Q. Did you go into the house the first thing?

A. Well, I think I did, yes. I went right in the house. I think I did—of course I don't know positive.

Q. Didn't you say a moment ago that there was quite a number of men there?

A. Oh, there was a few there. I don't know just how many.

Q. Where were they—in the house or outside?
[312]

A. Some of them was in the house, some on the outside.

Q. What were they talking about?

A. Well, sir, I couldn't say hardly now. I don't remember much about that. My memory is awful—I can't remember anything any more.

Q. Wasn't that the first time that you ever heard Kribs' name mentioned to know it?

A. Yes, I don't know but it was.

Q. Well, had you heard—now, we want to find out—had you heard Kribs' name mentioned before?

A. Well, I couldn't say.

Q. Wasn't it the talk there among the men that you had given a mortgage to Kribs, that Kribs was the man that you had given the mortgage to?

A. Yes, sir; I think so.

Q. And that it was for $600 or some such amount? A. Yes.

Q. Wasn't that talked among the men standing there at Wodtli's?

A. Yes. Yes, it was. I remember that.

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

Q. Wasn't it also talked that this land had been sold by the Mealeys to Kribs for about $800?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. $840? A. Yes.

Q. Isn't that where you got your figures?

A. Yes, it is something about there.

Q. Didn't all of them understand at that time, who were there at Wodtli's, that that was the situation? A. Well, they ought to.

Q. How?

A. I say they ought to understand it—something like that. [313]

Q. Well, that was the talk among you?

A. Yes, sir, it was. Yes, it was the talk amongst us.

Redirect Examination.

Q. Where did you get the figures when you answered that you had paid him $50 for locating you?

A. Where did I get the figures?

Q. Yes.

A. Well, I suppose they—well, I couldn't say.

Q. Where did you get the figures when you stated that you had the whole $600 mentioned in the mortgage in your own hands personally, and paid it out?

A. Where did I?

Q. Yes.

A. I don't remember anything about that.

Q. Where did you get the figures when you stated in your affidavit that you had received from $225 to $250 in cash for your land?

Mr. LIND.—The witness didn't testify that he so stated at any time.

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

Mr. McCOURT.—It was in his affidavit over his signature.

Q. Now, you say the first time you ever heard of Kribs was down there at Wodtli's?

A. I think so. I don't know.

Q. Didn't you hear of Kribs before you ever filed at all, he and C. A. Smith coming into that country there, stopping at the Mealeys?

A. Not that I recollect anything about.

Q. What?

A. I don't recollect anything about it. I didn't pay much attention to it.

Q. Wasn't it commonly talked that C. A. Smith had been [314] in there, and that he was a rich man and could buy the whole of Linn County?

A. No, I didn't know anything about that.

Q. Didn't know anything about it. Now, this affidavit that you talk about here that Mealey had, he wrote it right out there in your presence, didn't he?

A. No, sir, he didn't.

Q. Sat right down there with a pen and wrote it?

A. No, sir, he didn't.

Q. Did he have it all ready when he got there?

A. It was all ready when he got there for me to sign it.

Mr. McCOURT.—I want to offer this affidavit showing it was in Mealey's handwriting and not made by Burns.

Mr. LIND.—That is admitted.

Mr. McCOURT.—Admitted that it is in Mr. Mealey's handwriting.

Mr. LIND.—It is admitted that it is in Mr. Mea-

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

ley's handwriting.

Q. Now, nobody abused you when you were down here at Portland, did they? A. No, sir.

Q. You were ill, and they let you go right home, didn't they?

A. No, sir, we all went home—all went back. Only when I got sick, and I had to appear again—we had to be back here in 10 days—show up in 10 days.

Q. Weren't you sick when you went home?

A. No, I got sick after I got home. I was kind of sick when I left, but after I got home I got worse.

Q. And couldn't some back? [315]

A. No, sir; I couldn't come back. I got the fever.

Q. You were not in any way scared when you were making this affidavit before Mealey?

A. Well, I signed that. He said that would let us out—clear us up—something to that effect.

Q. Was Mealey scared?

A. Well, I kind of believe he was all right.

Q. You think he was scared?

A. I think he was scared—I think so.

Q. Wasn't he and all you people—when you got back up home you talked together there, and said, generally talked among you, that Kribs and these big fellows down here had bungled you out of your land, and you would just tell the truth and let them take the consequences?

A. No, I don't remember anything about that?

Q. You don't recall that? A. No, sir.

Q. Mealey was working for W. J. Burns when he went back up there, wasn't he?

(Testimony of Samuel D. Pickens.)

A. I couldn't say.

Q. What? A. I couldn't say.

Q. (Mr. UELAND.) This witness doesn't know.

Mr. McCOURT.—No, the doesn't appear to know anything much.

Q. (Recross.) Now, at the time of this talk, when the special agent was there at Wodtli's, was there anything said about a location fee being figured in for the Mealeys in this mortgage? Do you remember anything about such talk?

A. Well, I don't know whether I do. I don't know as I do.

Witness excused. [316]

[Testimony of Sydney Scanland, for the Government.]

SYDNEY SCANLAND, a witness called on behalf of the Government, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Where do you live, Mr. Scanland?

A. In the vicinity of Foster.

Q. What? A. In the vicinity of Foster.

Q. How long have you lived there?

A. Ten years ago this spring.

Q. What is your business? A. Laborer.

Q. Where did you live before you moved into the Sweet Home country?

A. Oh, I had lived down about ten miles this side of there for a couple of years; and then I have been off up in the part of the country known as Big Bottom, some 12 or 15 miles the other way.

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

Q. What sort of labor do you engage in?

A. Just most anything I can get to do.

Q. What is known as common laborer?

A. Known as common laborer.

Q. How long did you know the Mealey boys—Judd Mealey and W. R. Mealey—prior to 1900?

A. Why, I didn't know them at all until along in 1900.

Q. What were you doing there in the spring of 1900 after you moved into the Sweet Home country? Whom were you working for?

A. I was working for R. C. Watkins.

Q. What doing?

A. Why, general work. Sometimes I was making boards, [317] and helping build a barn, and working in his store, and hauling freight for him.

Q. Did you know John A. Thompson?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was Thompson's business at that time?

A. In the locating business.

Q. How long had you known him before that?

A. I got acquainted with him after I moved into the neighborhood there.

Q. Do you remember taking a timber claim in there shortly after you moved in? A. Yes.

Q. How long after you moved in was it that you took this timber claim?

A. About three months.

Q. Well, whom did you see before taking the timber claim in regard to taking it?

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

A. I don't know—it was the common talk of the country there, if a man would take a timber claim he would make $50 or $100 out of it, probably; that there was parties from Brownsville and Crawfordsville had taken timber claims and realized that much out of it.

Q. Who was it understood that you could get the $50 from, or the $100?

Mr. LIND.—I object to that.

Q. Who was it said, in this common talk, that you could get this $50 or $100 from?

A. Oh, I don't remember now.

Q. Well, which of the Mealeys did you see?

A. Judd Mealey.

Q. Where did you go to see him?

A. I didn't go any place. He come along where I was at [318] work making boards, and I stopped him and asked him about it.

Q. What did he say?

A. Why, he said he would see, and let me know later on.

Q. Well, how later on did he let you know?

A. Oh, it was probably six weeks, maybe two months, I spoke to him again, and he says, "Yes, we have been up there in the mountains looking around, and found some timber land, and we can locate you."

Q. Well, what did you do then?

A. Well, we talked the matter over, and I told him I would take a claim if I could, if someone would advance the money to pay expenses, and I would give them a mortgage to secure them after the proof was made.

Q. Well, what did you do?

(Testimony of Sydney Seanland.)

A. I went in and looked at the timber claim, and then went to Roseburg and filed on it.

Q. Who was in the party when you went?

A. Went where?

Q. To Roseburg.

A. Oh. There was R. C. Watkins, Alexander Gould, Louis Maynard, and Will Rozell, John W. Lawrence, J. J. Gilliland.

Q. Malone? Was Keeney there? A. Yes.

Q. Jasper H. Keeney and his wife?

A. Jasper H. Keeney and his wife.

Q. Was old man Tuthill along?

A. I don't remember seeing him on that trip.

Q. Who paid your expenses on the trip?

A. Why, Mealeys, I presume they furnished the money to pay the expenses. [319]

Q. Did they give you the money to pay them with? A. No.

Q. Who paid your hotel bill, or did you have any?

A. Yes, we had a hotel bill. We eat while we was there.

Q. Well, when did you next hear of the claim, hear anything regarding it?

A. The next thing I seen was the advertisement in the paper—Brownsville paper, I think it was at the time.

Q. And what happened then?

A. I made note of the date when proof would be made, and we all went to Roseburg again.

Q. Whom did you go with?

A. I went with the same crowd I did before, about.

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

Q. Who looked after you?

A. Why Mealeys furnished the teams.

Q. Who furnished the tickets?

A. They did.

Q. Well, when you got to Roseburg, what did you do?

A. Stood around town awhile till the Land Office opened up, and we went in and made our proof.

Q. Well, when you had got up to the Land Office, was Mealey there?

A. When we went to make proof, yes, sir.

Q. Which of the Mealey boys were there?

A. They were both there at that time.

Q. Both there? Thompson there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. All the rest of these men you have mentioned there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. After you had made proof, what did you do?

A. Came down out of the Land Office, and was around on the street awhile, and they come to me and told me [320] there was a man there that would buy our claims.

Q. And who did they say the man was?

A. I don't remember now that they said at all who the man was.

Q. What did you do then after you heard that?

A. We went into the same attorney's office there and made out a deed.

Q. To whom?

A. Made out the deed to Frederick A. Kribs.

Q. Did you see Kribs there? A. No, sir.

Q. When did you first learn that you had made a deed to Frederick A. Kribs?

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

A. Right then. I read the deed over and saw his name on it, seen that I was transferring it to him.

Q. How much money did you get?

A. I got $50 above all expenses.

Q. You hadn't been at any expense?

A. They had paid the expenses for me. I had borrowed the money from them or had made arrangements they should pay the expenses, and I would secure them with a mortgage if I didn't sell.

Q. And you did sell right away?

A. Yes, I did sell right away.

Q. Before Mealey ever came up there to see you, it was commonly reported in the neighborhood that there would be $50 in the transaction, wasn't it?

A. No, there was nothing definite about it. It might be that much, and it might be more.

Q. How is that?

A. There might be that much, and there might be more. We had the privilege of holding the land if we wanted [321] to,—giving a mortgage and holding it. If we could raise the money to pay the mortgage we could hold the land indefinitely.

Q. How indefinitely did you hold yours?

A. I didn't hold it a great while.

Q. Two or three hours? A. Probably.

Q. Did you ever see the final certificate for the land? A. The patent?

Q. The paper that was issued the day you made proof.

A. Why, I think so. I think it was given to me.

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

Q. Oh, you think it was. Did you pay any money there? A. No, sir.

Q. Was the money paid the day you were there?

A. Why, I presume it was.

Q. Did you see any paid?

A. No, I didn't see any paid.

Q. Don't you know it was not paid until a day or two later by Kribs?

A. No, I don't know it. [322]

Q. Didn't—Judd Mealey was there, wasn't he?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And Will Mealey? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Didn't you hear Mealey tell, or rather nod his head to the Land Office man when it came time for you to make payment of the money?

A. Not that I know of; I don't remember of it.

Q. Didn't you notice him as each of you went up to the counter there, Mealey standing there and nodding his head to the Land Office officials inside of the counter? A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. You didn't see any money passed while you were there? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you give any money? A. I did not.

Q. Did you ever try to raise your money anywhere else? A. No.

Q. Did you ever inquire of Mealey how much he paid out for you?

A. No, I didn't inquire anything about what it was. I knew about what it was.

Q. Knew about what it was. About what was it?

A. I knew it was $400 to be paid, Register and Receiver's fees and our expenses. Kind of kept run of it in my head, going back and forward on those trips, and the location fee was all to be included.

Q. When you started to sell to Kribs how much did you agree to sell to him for?

A. I think it was $800.

Q. $800? A. I think so.

Q. And you knew your expenses were only about $450? [323]

A. Expenses was more than that.

Q. Well, how much more than that?

A. Well, I couldn't tell you just now.

Q. There was $400 for the land? A. Yes.

Q. There was two trips to Roseburg for you?

A. Yes.

Q. And a trip to the— A. Timber.

Q. To see the timber? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That would not be more than $100, would it?

A. No, I don't suppose it would, hardly.

Q. And you knew your deed said $850, which would be $350 coming to you?

A. Oh, what the price—the consideration—the number of dollars put in a deed don't have anything to do with the amount of money.

Q. You just said $850?

A. That was marked on the deed. You see deeds made for only a dollar—the consideration named in it, and several dollars' worth of property changes hands.

Q. Did they give any reason for putting $850 in it? A. No, sir.

Q. What? A. No, sir.

Q. How much were you selling your land for?

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

A. I was getting $50 above all expenses.

Q. Yes, and you didn't find out what the expenses were? A. No, I didn't.

Q. And you didn't care? A. Didn't care.

Q. No. Didn't it seem strange that this man Kribs, strange man you never saw before—having you sign for $850 and paying you $50 for it only?

A. No, I didn't give it any particular thought.

[324]

Q. How many more of you got $50 there that day?

A. I don't know.

Q. You were down here in 1904, too—five, weren't you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember talking to Mr. Burns about this transaction?

A. Yes, I remember getting cursed by Mr. Burns.

Q. Yes. Who were present? Who else was present when you were getting cursed?

A. Mr. Watkinds.

Q. Yes, and Mr. Wiley? A. Who?

Q. Charles Wiley?

A. I don't remember his being present—might have been. I don't think he was when we was getting the cursing.

Q. Well, you didn't tell any lies there, did you?

A. I don't think so.

Q. Well, I will ask you now if that is your signature there on that affidavit?

A. That affidavit don't cut much ice.

Q. Well, we will see whether it don't cut much ice now.

A. I didn't read it over at the time and I think

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

Mr. Burns just fixed it up to suit himself.

Q. That is the affidavit, isn't it, that you signed?

A. I think so.

Q. I will ask you if you remember making this statement: "Sometime in 1900 we learned that the Mealey boys were locating people on timber claims"—this affidavit being signed by yourself, Richard Watkinds and Wiley—Charles Wiley—"and we asked them to locate us. They told us there would be $50 in it." Did you make that statement to Mr. Burns? A. Yes. [325]

Q. Did they tell you there would be $50 in it?

A. Said there might be $50 or might be more.

Q. Yes, and what were you going to do for the $50?

A. Why, file and make proof on a timber claim.

Q. And what were they going to get for the $50?

A. I don't know what they was going to get.

Q. What did you think they was going to get when you started into it? A. I didn't know.

Q. Didn't you know they were going to get the land? A. No, I didn't.

Q. What did you suppose they were putting you on that land for and paying you all your expenses and giving you $50?

A. Well, they was to get the location fees out of it.

Q. From whom?

A. The people we sold the land to.

Q. Who sold the land to who?

A. If I sold the land to anyone else, to Kribs or to anybody. They give me the privilege of selling the land.

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

Q. Were they talking about Kribs at that time?

A. No, I don't think the name was mentioned at all that I remember of, but I had the privilege of selling the land myself.

Q. Did you try to sell to anybody?

A. Not at that time.

Q. Did you ever see Mr. Kribs at the time you did sell it? A. No, sir.

Q. Who did you think he was?

A. I suppose he was a human being.

Q. Did you know where he was from?

A. No, sir.

Q. Who paid you the $50?

A. Judd Mealey. [326]

Q. That was the $50 you thought you were going to get all the time, wasn't it?

A. I presume it was. I didn't know but maybe I would get more.

Q. Did you try to get more?

A. I hadn't then. Didn't try to get more until after I had made proof and then they came on and I decided to take the $50 and not bother with it any more.

Q. Did you dicker with them about the $50?

A. No.

Q. Went right with the crowd to that office and signed the deed, didn't you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And signed it right up without any question about it at all? A. Yes.

Q. And took your $50? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you paid right there in Roseburg?

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

A. Paid in Roseburg.

Q. Now, then, do you remember about a year after that signing going up to Wodtli's house and signing another instrument? A. Yes.

Q. Who notified you to go there?

A. I don't remember now who did notify me.

Q. Who do you think it was?

A. I don't know who that was; I suppose some one come in and said a Special Agent was up there.

Q. What did he say the Special Agent had to do with you? A. (Witness shrugs.)

Q. You say you don't know what he had to do with you? [327] A. I don't remember now.

Q. When you got to Wodtli's house what time of day was it?

A. I think it was in the afternoon.

Q. Was anyone else there?

A. Why, there was quite a number around.

Q. Were they that same crowd of fellows who had gone to Roseburg with you?

A. Some of the same ones, not all of them.

Q. And some others, weren't there?

A. I don't remember now.

Q. All men living around in your community there? A. Neighbors around there.

Q. Was Judd and Will Mealey there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was John Lawrence there?

A. I don't remember now whether he was or not.

Q. What conversation did you have with the Mealeys before you went into the room to give your affidavit?

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

A. I don't remember that I had any.

Q. Well, you were all talking together there outside—you and the Mealey boys?

A. Usually a crowd of men together talk.

Q. And you were all talking about the matter of making those instruments?

A. Probably were.

Q. Yes, and what you would have to say when you got in there and what questions you would be asked?

A. Probably.

Q. And how you should answer?

A. I don't know about that. We got some of the information from Mr. Stratford—how we should answer questions.

Q. What did Mr. Stratford tell you? [328]

A. Well, he would ask the questions in a way that would imply the answers that he wanted.

Q. And you would just answer then that way? That is your signature there, is it?

A. That looks kind of familiar.

Q. Was Will Mealey in the room while Stratford was asking you questions?

A. I don't remember whether he was or not.

Q. What is your best recollection about that?

A. Well, I said I didn't remember whether he was or not. Now that is all—

Q. Might have been in there?

A. He might have been, and he might not.

Q. Did you get your inspiration from Mr. Stratford when he asked you this question: "How much, if anything, did you pay him for his services? A. $50." That is referring to being located by William

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

Mealey? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Mr. Stratford answer that question for you?

A. Kind of implied it. He would ask a question and if a man was a little slow in answering, he would make a suggestion.

Q. He was the man that mentioned the $50?

A. I think he was.

Q. Well, now, I will ask you if he gave you inspiration about this: "How did it happen that you sold the land so soon after having made your final proof? A. A gentleman met me on the street and asked me if I had been making proof on a timber claim. I told him I had. He asked me if I would sell it and I told him providing I could make more out of it by selling it than handling the timber myself, and he offered me $850 for it, and thinking that was more than I [329] could realize out of it at the present time, I took him up at his offer." Did Stratford give you inspiration on that?

A. I think not.

Q. Who did?

A. I don't know. I could not say as to that.

Q. "Who was the gentleman you referred to?"

A. I could not say. I didn't ask the man his name." Did Stratford inspire that answer?

A. No.

Q. Who did? A. I answered that correct.

Q. It was. Now, you did meet a gentleman on the street?

A. I didn't ask him his name. The question was asked me who I sold to—decided to—made out the papers or the transfer made to—transacted the business with. I remember his asking me that question and I told him I didn't know the man's name.

Q. You didn't know the man's name that wrote the deed? A. No.

Q. You never had a word with him about selling the timber land—timber claim, or anything else, did you? A. No, Mealey came to me.

Q. You were taken there by Mealey and the deed was already made for your signature when you got there?

A. I don't know whether it was already made or made after I got in there.

Q. Well, you had nothing to do with directing its making? A. No, I didn't draw it up.

Q. And that man had nothing to do with the timber land transaction at all, so far as his conversation is concerned?

A. I don't know about that. [330]

Q. Did you see Kribs there? A. No, sir.

Q. Who inspired this answer: "Who, if anyone, furnished you with the money or any part thereof with which you paid the Government for this land and the expenses incident to this entry? A. No one."

A. I don't remember.

Q. What is that? A. I don't remember.

Q. You remember answering that question?

A. No, I don't.

Q. How is it you can remember these others and can't remember that one?

A. A man can't quite remember everything.

(Testimony of Sydney Sealand.)

Q. Well, I will ask you if you remember this?

A. Yes.

Q. "Did you take the money with you to Roseburg to pay for this land when you went there? A. I did."

A. In one sense of the word, I did.

Q. How much money did you take to Roseburg there when you went down?

A. I didn't carry it in my own pocket, but I had made arrangements with others to pay the bills.

Q. And who did you make the arrangements with? A. The Mealey brothers.

Q. Did you mean to mislead the Government agent there when you answered that "I did"?

A. No.

Q. Did you have in mind the mental reservation that Mealey carried the money down there and that was you carrying it?

A. I don't quite understand your question.

Q. Did you have that mental reservation that you are talking about now—the idea in your head that really it was [331] you carrying it when Mealey carried it?

A. Why, yes. If I borrow money of a man it doesn't matter whether I carry it or not. If he is going to pay the bill for me—if I make arrangements for him to pay a bill for me it don't matter whether I carry the money or not. If I make arrangements with him and offer him security it is really my money—if I offer a man security and he agrees to furnish the money.

Q. Is it? A. The way I look at it.

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

Q. If he carries it in his pocket that is the same as if you carry it in your pocket?

A. If he carries it and pays my bills and I have made arrangements to secure him, it is the same as my money.

Q. But it is you carrying—

A. I didn't particularly carry it.

Q. Well, you told the man you did?

A. Maybe I did.

Q. Well, you remember you did, don't you?

A. No, I don't remember it.

Q. "Was the money paid for the land paid you in cash or by check? A. Paid in cash." That is true, was it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. "How much cash was actually passed to you at the time the sale was consummated?"

A. $50.

Q. "$850." Who answered that, now? How did you happen to answer that?

A. I think Stratford kind of insinuated that some way or another.

Q. Isn't it a fact you got your instructions to answer that [332] from the same place you are getting instructions to answer questions right here now? A. No, sir.

Q. The same parties? A. No, sir.

Q. I say, isn't that a fact? A. No, sir.

Q. Didn't you?

Mr. UELAND.—This is not a reflection on the attorneys?

Mr. McCOURT.—No, I am not reflecting on the attorneys. I am getting back behind the attorneys.

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

Q. Didn't you attempt to tell Mr. Rabb here two or three days ago that you got your money—or thought you would make arrangements to get your money from Sterling, Illinois, somewhere?

A. Yes, sir, I thought I would get the money there to pay off this mortgage.

Q. How is that?

A. I told him I thought I would get the money there to pay off the mortgage and hold the land.

Q. You did. When did you think that?

A. Just before we made proof there, and when I got down to Roseburg I changed my plan.

Q. The next time you talked with Mr. Rabb you forgot it was Sterling and told him it was Kertzner, Illinois.

A. I never told him any such name as that; beg your pardon. Mr. Rabb come to my place about a year ago and I told him I would not make any statement; didn't have to. If I made another statement it would be in court. He said I didn't have to make any statement. What I said would never be written down. He asked me questions and sometimes I gave him evasive answers and he would go ahead anyhow. He would ask questions and write. He got a lot of stuff wrote. [333] I don't know what he wrote. He didn't read it over and I never signed it.

Q. He didn't ask you to sign it?

A. I would not have if he did.

Q. Told you he would not let you sign any such statement, didn't he?

A. I don't remember that. He said it would never come up in court—the statement. What I said to him would never be brought up in court.

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

Q. What did he say, now?

A. He said it wouldn't be brought up in court.

Q. Didn't he come to see you for the very purpose, as he told you, of ascertaining what evidence the Government would be able to secure in this very case?

A. I don't remember now whether he did or not.

Q. And didn't you tell him that you just recently given Mr. Jamison authority to appear for you in this case—given him a power of attorney to appear for you in this case?

A. I don't remember telling him.

Q. Wasn't it this case that you were talking about right then and there? A. Might have been.

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. LIND.)

Have you ever had any conversation with myself with regard to this claim or any other matter?

A. No, sir.

Q. We never had a word of conversation in our lives, have we? A. No, sir.

Q. Have you ever talked with my associate?
[334] A. No, sir.

Q. Judge Ueland—this gentleman to my left?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you ever talked with Senator Gearin on the subject? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever have any conversation with any one of us three? A. No, sir.

Q. Has anyone on the part of the defense told you or asked you in regard to your testimony in this case?

A. No, sir.

(Testimony of Sydney Scanland.)

Q. Did you come under subpoena issued by the Government, served on you by a Government officer to testify now? A. Yes, sir.

Witness excused. [335]

[Proceedings Had April 28, 1910, 2 P. M.]

Portland, Oregon, April 28, 1910, 2 P. M.

Mr. McCOURT.—I don't know whether I have done so heretofore, but I wish to request of counsel that they furnish us, or let the defendant Kribs furnish us with the cancelled checks, evidencing payments made by him, to either O. J. Mealey or Will R. Mealey, or both of them, or to John A. Thompson.

Mr. LIND.—Between what dates?

Mr. McCOURT.—Between the 17th day of April, 1900, and the 1st day of November, 1902.

Mr. LIND.—Yes, you made that request, and I communicated it to Mr. Kribs.

Mr. McCOURT.—And also to any of the defendant entrymen mentioned in this suit, between those dates.

Mr. TANNER.—I will take it up with Mr. Kribs and see if he has got them.

Mr. McCOURT.—I have concluded, if the Court please, that that is all the witnesses we shall have at the present time, and ask the privilege of calling Mr. Puter later, and of taking of such depositions as the case may suggest after Mr. Puter's testimony is in, which we will agree upon with counsel, if there will be any. There may not be any depositions. It may be that Mr. Puter's evidence will not measure up to what I expect, and I may have to go to some other source to get the information I require.

Mr. UELAND.—Mr. District Attorney, would it not be just as well to understand at this time whether, as to the testimony which shall not be taken in court on either side, it would not be better to take it orally before some examiner to be appointed by the Court instead of in the form of depositions? [336]

Mr. McCOURT.—I desire to take it orally. I meant the interrogatories to be propounded orally.

Mr. UELAND.—All right.

Mr. McCOURT.—That it be taken before an examiner rather than a mere deposition. I wish to be represented.

Mr. GEARIN.—Yes, both sides will.

Mr. TANNER.—Before the Court passes on those letters the Court has in reserve, I would like to submit some authorities.

COURT.—I made some examination during the noon recess and I am satisfied that the privilege extends to documents notwithstanding the fact that they were voluntarily delivered by the attorney to some third person. I think Mr. Wigmore lays down that rule.

Mr. TANNER.—There is an authority I have squarely on the point.

COURT.—Mr. Wigmore says that does not relieve the question of privilege at all. An attorney cannot voluntarily deliver a documentary communication from his client and thus make it competent testimony. But it does say if surreptitiously taken it may be competent. I do not understand the force of that rule, but that is what he states the rule to be. In this case it appears to have been voluntarily delivered.

Mr. McCOURT.—I am not prepared to say in this case we got them surreptitiously. If Mr. Tanner will concede I got them that way, I will take advantage of it.

COURT.—That may be excluded from the record as testimony in the case then.

(The papers marked “Government’s Exhibit 68” excluded from the record.)

Mr. McCOURT.—It is understood of course that when we get those bank statements from Roseburg we may put them in.

Mr. LIND.—Oh, yes, yes. [337]

I wish also the Stratford check offered in the other case. We may offer it in this case later when properly identified in that one.

Marked “Gov. Ex. 66” for identification. [338]

Mr. McCOURT.—We would like to be furnished with the correspondence between Mr. Smith and Mr. Kribs from April, 1900, following, relative to the entries in this case.

Also the original contract or a duplicate of it, between Mr. Kribs and Mr. Smith entered into about January, 1900, relative to the purchase of lands in Oregon.

Mr. UELAND.—We have been informed by our clients that they had no written contract between Mr. Smith and Mr. Kribs during that period, and relating to the lands in question here, and we have no such contract.

Mr. McCOURT.—Mr. Kribs testified in some case here that he did have a written contract.

Mr. LIND.—He did later on; not at the time. My recollection is it was about the 31st of December, 1900, that there was a written contract—sometime in December, 1900.

Mr. UELAND.—1901.

Mr. LIND.—My associate's recollection is better than mine on that point.

Mr. McCOURT.—There are some checks that I wish to call for. I will call for them generally as checks to O. J. and Judd Mealey or the Mealey brothers or either of them, or to John A. Thompson, from April 17, 1900, to and including December, 1902. All checks of Mr. Kribs to these parties during that time.

Now, then, will it be admitted without the necessity of my calling witnesses, that there were commencing in February, 1901, up to and after the issuance of patents, certain payments made to Pierce Mays or to the firm of Carey and Mays, and the firm of Mitchell and Tanner—sums of money aggregating $50 per claim to the firm of Carey and Mays, and Pierce Mays, and $25 per claim to Mitchell and Tanner upon the [339] land embraced in this case, for the purpose of facilitating the passage of the entries to patent.

Mr. LIND.—We will look into the matter and at two o'clock will be advised as to facts in regard to the matter, and if the facts are as you state, we will so agree subject, of course, to all objections as to competency and materiality.

Mr. McCOURT.—I want to include in these payments a payment of $100 or more to John Van Zant in connection with the Mitchell and Tanner payment.

Now, there is certificate from the Roseburg Bank being prepared. That will be used in this case.

Mr. LIND.—That will be admitted.

Recess taken until 2 P. M. [340]

Mr. McCOURT.—Have you the correspondence?

Mr. UELAND.—We have no correspondence.

Mr. McCOURT.—If the Court please, Mr. Tanner has furnished me correspondence from Mr. Kribs, the earliest date of which is December 31, 1902, with the statement that no prior correspondence can be found.

Mr. TANNER.—That is his information to me. I told him to get everything he had on the subject. That was what he furnished. He thinks previous letters have been mislaid, or destroyed, if there were any.

Mr. McCOURT.—Without putting any of this correspondence into the record, I think it may be stated that none of the correspondence mentioned refers to the lands in this case. There is some reference in one or two of the letters to Mr. Puter and possibly incidentally, one tract of land involved in case 3320 is mentioned. I should like to have the record show the letters were offered.

COURT.—Do you want them copied into the record?

Mr. GEARIN.—They are wholly immaterial.

Mr. McCOURT.—The only materiality they have is showing the frequency with which correspondence passed between the parties and the completeness with which they were advising each other of the transactions occurring between them.

Mr. UELAND.—I would suggest that counsel keep it and if he finds anything with any bearing upon this case, that he introduce it.

Mr. McCOURT.—Very well; I will do that.

Now, the checks from Mr. Kribs to Mr. Mealey.

Mr. LIND.—I was unable to find Mr. Kribs during the noon recess.

Mr. McCOURT.—The Government offers to prove that in [341] the year 1901 prior to the issuance of patents in this case, Mr. Kribs entered into an agreement with the firm of Mitchell and Tanner to secure their services in expediting the lands in question to patent, together with other lands. And pursuant to that agreement Mr. Kribs, by his check of October 15, 1901, paid to Mitchell and Tanner $600 as a retainer in the matter mentioned, $100 of the sum to be used to cover the expenses of John Van Zant in assisting and procuring affidavits from entrymen. And later, on June 14, 1902, pursuant to arrangement with Mitchell and Tanner, Fred A. Kribs paid Mitchell and Tanner the sum of $1,000. Both of the checks mentioned being drawn upon the First National Bank of Roseburg. And also on the 14th day of February, 1902, Fred A. Kribs in connection with the same matter paid Mitchell and Tanner by check on the same bank the sum of $500. That other payments were made to Mitchell and Tanner in the same connection upon the Merchants' National Bank of Portland, Oregon.

Mr. TANNER.—Those don't relate to those lands alone. There are other transactions.

Mr. McCOURT.—They related to this and 3320 and possibly others, possibly the Pillsbury matter. In connection with the offer mentioned the Government's counsel offers in evidence checks mentioned. This offer is made for the purpose of showing that the several payments were made out of the account of Fred A. Kribs in the First National Bank of Roseburg, Oregon, which was, up to the date of these checks, wholly made up of drafts and money furnished by C. A. Smith.

Mr. UELAND.—The defendants represented by us object to this offer on the grounds; first, that it is irrelevant, in that it does not tend to prove any of the charges of fraud [342] contained in the bill. And, second, that it is immaterial in that it does not tend to prove the fraud as a ground for cancelling the patents in question.

COURT.—I understand the charge in this case is that Smith was a party to the original conspiracy, and that the conspiracy was for the purpose of defrauding the United States out of these lands; therefore there has been evidence offered by the Government tending, or at least claiming, to show that state of facts, connecting Smith through his agent or representative, with the original entry of these lands, and with final proof, and in taking over the tract from the entrymen. Now, the title didn't pass from the Government until the patents were issued, and whatever was done by these people from the time of entry down to the time of the issuance of patent, I suppose would be competent for some purpose, provided they can be connected back to the original transaction. Of course, if Mr. Smith bought the land from the original entrymen in good faith and found some question about the title and then employed attorneys to straighten the matter out, it would not be evidence that he was a party to the original conspiracy, but if there is other evidence tending to connect him with the original conspiracy, I suppose the Government is entitled to show it. At least that would be the ruling in an equity suit. That is, that the Government is entitled to the benefit of the record.

I shall, therefore, overrule the objection and let the testimony the Government offers come in.

Exception saved.

Mr. McCOURT.—I understand that counsel will admit the facts to be as I have stated. Therefore, it is in evidence subject to the objection which you made and you will make [343] no question as to the further identification of the checks.

Mr. UELAND.—Subject to the objection and the saving of the exception, the defendants will admit the facts to be as stated in the offer, save only that the payments were not made wholly concerning the obtaining of patents to the lands involved in this suit, but covered the subject matter of obtaining patents to other lands. The amount to be paid to the attorneys for obtaining patents in this suit being $25 for each claim.

Mr. McCOURT.—That is as I understood it, but Mr. Tanner corrected me and I did not want to make the statement.

Mr. TANNER.—My recollection of the agreements I had with Mr. Kribs at the time was that there was no agreement about so much a claim, but a retaining fee of $500 and $500 more when the patents issued.

There were other payments relating to lieu selections and other matters having no connection whatever.

COURT.—I suppose the important feature from the Government's standpoint is to show that Kribs was using Smith's money for purposes of this kind, and the amount used is not material.

Mr. UELAND.—I would like to have stricken out my statement of $25 a claim.

COURT.—It is not important. That may be stricken out.

Check of February 14, 1902, marked "Government's Exhibit 56."

Check of June 14, 1902, marked "Government's Exhibit 57."

Check of October 15, 1901, marked "Government's Exhibit 58."

Mr. McCOURT.—I further offer to show that Mr. Kribs on September 19, 1900, out of his bank account in the First [344] National Bank of Roseburg, the funds of which were furnished by the defendant C. A. Smith, paid to Joseph T. Bridges, Register of the U. S. Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, the sum of $1500 by check dated September 19, 1900, in favor of Mr. Bridges and endorsed by him. I don't need to repeat that matter of checking up or periodical accounting.

Mr. LIND.—That is objected to as irrelevant, immaterial and not bearing upon any issue in this case.

COURT.—Do you claim that has reference to the lands involved in the present case?

Mr. McCOURT.—Well, I don't know. It was given before the proofs were made in over half of the entries in this case. * * *

COURT.—I don't understand just what connection this transaction can have with the case now under consideration without some evidence explaining it in some way.

Mr. McCOURT.—Well, if the Court please, I will withdraw the offer of that check, with the privilege of offering it later if I can offer some evidence along with it that will make it competent.

COURT.—Very well.

Mr. McCOURT.—It is agreed that the register of the Revere House at Albany shows that Fred A. Kribs, wife and two sons were registered at said hotel April 1, 1900, and on Monday, April 2, 1900, S. A. D. Puter registered at said hotel.

The register of said Revere House further shows registered there on Sunday, May 20, 1900, C. A. Smith, H. H. Davis, S. A. D. Puter, F. A. Kribs, all in the handwriting of Mr. Kribs. On said date said register further shows present at said hotel William R. Mealey of Foster, Oregon. [345] The register of the Revere House shows registered at said hotel Sunday, November 3, 1901, J. Van Zant, Portland—that he arrived and took lodging. Monday, November 4th, the register of said hotel shows registered at said hotel E. D. Stratford, Roseburg, Oregon—arrived at noon or near noon. On Saturday, November 9, 1901, the register of said Revere House shows registered there E. D. Stratford, Roseburg, Oregon, "S" (Supper). Assigned Room 29. O. J. Mealey, Foster, Oregon, supper—arrived at supper time; assigned room 28. J. Van Zant, Portland, arrived supper time, assigned Room 28.

It is agreed between counsel that the record of registry at the McClallan House, Roseburg, as appearing in the case of U. S. vs. Nils O. Werner et al., No. 3320, may be considered as the record in this case as follows:

Extract from testimony of O. A. McClallan, in No. 3320, the witness having been requested to examine the register for the month of April, 1900.

“The first entry is on the 13th day of April. Mr. Kribs, wife and two children arrived to supper in the evening, left on the 21st day of April at breakfast.

“Q. (By Mr. McCOURT.) Read the entire entry.

“A. And McMullen supper, lodging and breakfast $1.50; total paid $36.60.

Q. I note in that same entry under the column “house” the designation “Mac” opposite the entry which you have just read.

A. They also have an annex at the hotel there and this is to show that he had room No. 1 in the main hotel, what is called the Mc House—the McClallan House. Some entries were made that way. Here is one. Room, 44 in the Van [346] Houghton House. All the entries are not made that way, but some of them were at that time.

Q. The next entry.

A. On the 25th day of April he was there. Kribs and boy had Room 1. Phone ninety cents, fifty cents, $1.20, $.50, $.50, $.95. Laundry 90 cents. Left on the 30th day of April, after lodging. Forwarded $12.50—the bill was not paid at that time. The next entry is on the 28th day of April, Room 1, McClallan House. Kribs, Mrs. and boy. Arrived to supper.

Left on April 30th after lodging, total amount $5.00, forward.

The next entry is on the 1st of May, 1900, Room 1, McClallan House, Kribs and Fred. Forwarded $17.50; phone $5.45, drayage 50 cents, left the 22d day of May after supper. Total amount $112.90, marked paid.

That $112.90 also includes another entry here for the 1st day of May, 1900, Mrs. Kribs and Bud. Here is an entry on the 11th day of May, B. and K. Left, returned on the 14th day of May, phone 80 cents, laundry 35 and 30 cents. Left on the 22d day of May after supper; total amount paid $112.90. That entry, I would judge, means that they left at breakfast on the 11th day of May—Kribs left—"K," I notice it now, 11th day of May Kribs left. The next entry is on the 1st day of June. Occupied Room 1. F. A. Kribs arrived for lodging, left on the 4th day of June after supper. Total amount paid $4.50. On the 5th day of June, 1900, F. A. Kribs occupied Room 1. Came for lodging. One extra meal. Left on the 6th day of June; total amount paid $2. 7th day of July, 1900, F. A. Kribs and family Room 1, arrived for lodging. Express 70 cents, McMullen account. Laundry 25 cents. Davis and D., $11.00. Now, there are four or five accounts here right in a row. The accounts are transferred. Left on the 31st day of July after lodging. Total amount paid $159.15." [347]

Mr. McCOURT.—Register further shows on September 29, 1900, F. A. Kribs and family, Room 1. Left the 14th of November, 1900.

Mr. LIND.—The book of entry shows he paid for a room.

Mr. McCOURT.—The book entry is as follows: September 29, 1900, Room 1. F. A. Kribs and family. Left the 14th of November, 1900, after lunch, R. L. $11.45, forward. There is a charge to McMullen and “one” $3.55, laundry 55 cents; 14th of November, stamps 10 cents, food $11.45.

What I am trying to get at is to show that Mr. Kribs was there during the time these proofs were made.

Mr. LIND.—He will state it if you call him, and if you don't we probably will.

Mr. McCOURT.—The second line shows 10th of December charge, $34.40 forward. He registers that date. The next line shows the 9th of December—arrived the 9th. Room 1; F. A. Kribs and family, left the 31st of December, 1900, $80.00 paid. The room book does not show Mr. Kribs at the hotel after the latter date down to the 16th day of February, 1901, that being the last in the book.

Whereupon proceedings herein were adjourned until Thursday, April 28, 1910, at 10 A. M. [348]

[Proceedings Had April 28, 1910, 10 A. M.]

Portland, Oregon, Thursday, April 28, 1910,

10 A. M.

Mr. McCOURT.—I would like to have the record show that the Court may consider the original C. A. Smith deed, purporting to have been made June 4, 1900, together with the accompanying deeds in case U. S. vs. Nils O. Werner et al., No. 3320, in this case for the purpose of comparison and determining the fact when they were made.

COURT.—Is the land involved in this case described in these?

Mr. McCOURT.—In that deed; yes.

Deed C. A. Smith marked “Government’s Exhibit 59.”

Deed J. E. Holmberg and wife to Charles A. Smith, dated October 26, 1906, marked “Government’s Exhibit 60.”

Deed Charles J. Swanson and wife to Linn and Lane Timber Co., May 28, 1907, marked “Government’s Exhibit 61.”

Deed Charles L. Trabert and wife to C. A. Smith. October 23, 1906, marked “Government’s Exhibit 62.”

Deed Nils O. Werner and wife to L. & L. T. Co., August 15, 1907, marked “Government’s Exhibit 65.”

[349]

COURT.—So far as these letters are concerned (correspondence between Mr. Kribs and Mr. Tanner) I think you had better offer them and the Court will reserve the ruling.

Mr. McCOURT.—They can be marked as one exhibit at the present time.

Correspondence marked “Government’s Exhibit 68.”

Appeals from the United States Circuit Court for the District of Oregon.

(Testimony of O. A. Archibald.)

Q. Those slips that are attached—what are they?

A. They are the deposit slips or tags made at the time the entry was—the time when the credit was given.

Q. They are originals?

A. They are originals, yes, sir. [354]

Q. I note, Mr. Archibald, that the account of O. J. Mealey was opened apparently on October 3, 1900. Had Mr. Mealey had any account there previously?

A. I think not, not a check account that I remember of. There was perhaps.

Q. What other account had he had there?

A. I think previous to that it was perhaps certificate of deposit that he had there.

Q. How many? More than one?

A. I think there were two.

Mr. LIND.—That was O. J. Mealey you spoke of now, was it?

A. Just let me refer to the original deposit slip—shows for which. Perhaps both of them had maybe, O. J. and W. R.

Q. It shows what?

A. If you will allow me to inspect that deposit slip, I can tell you. Now, the W. R. please, W. R. Mealey. O. J. had one certificate.

Q. Each one had a certificate?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Prior to the date of this? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I don't know just the date of them, perhaps not more than one.

(Testimony of O. A. Archibald.)

Q. You have a record of your certificates?

A. It is in the office.

Q. I will have it here in a minute.

Mr. LIND.—If you want to show that, why don't you ask him? If you want to show anything about those certificates, how much they were and when they were deposited—

Mr. McCOURT.—The account itself shows. I am going to introduce the account. [355]

Q. I notice the account of O. J. Mealey was also opened on October 3, 1900. I will ask you whether or not he had a check account there previous to that date? A. I think not.

Q. Did he have any other account there previous to that date?

A. No. I don't think so excepting the certificate of deposit that you mentioned.

Q. I notice that the account of John A. Thompson was opened there on December 20, 1900. Did he have any account there previous to that date?

A. I think not. Possibly he might have had, but I don't think there was one previous to that.

Q. Well, have you examined your books to see?

A. I examined the records from the commencement of 1900.

Q. And didn't find any account prior to that time?

A. Found nothing, no. Didn't find any account.

Q. Did he have any certificate of deposit or other sort of account there, savings account or anything? A. I think not.

(Testimony of O. A. Archibald.)

Q. Prior to the time that he opened the account mentioned? A. No. No, sir.

Q. The account of O. J. Mealey and William R. Mealey, I notice opened in March 4, 1903. Did those gentlemen have any account there prior to that time, any joint account? A. No, sir.

Q. Is that a transcript of your bills receivable book which I hand you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Does that contain a correct list of notes given your bank by the Mealey brothers? [356]

A. I think it does all of them. I don't think there was any of them skipped. We examined the record very carefully. We have the record here.

Q. By reference to your certificate register, can you tell when those certificates of deposit mentioned were issued to O. J. Mealey and W. R. Mealey respectively?

A. Yes, sir; I can. September 26, 1900.

Q. Give the amounts to each one of them.

A. No. 143,078 was for $840.67 to W. R. Mealey and was paid.

Mr. LIND.—Give that amount again.

A. $840.67. That certificate was paid 10/3/1900.

Mr. LIND.—What does that mean?

A. It means October 3, 1900. And No. 143,079, the following certificate was for $875.66 to O. J. Mealey. It was paid or cancelled in October 2, 1900.

COURT.—When was it issued?

A. Issued September 26, 1900—the date of issue.

Q. Now, Mr. Archibald, do you recall generally the source from which the moneys that went into the account of Mr. O. J. Mealey, the account of William R. Mealey and John A. Thompson, came?

(Testimony of O. A. Archibald.)

Mr. LIND.—One moment. We do not object to any evidence that shows facts specifically, but this question is too broad. We object to it as utterly incompetent—do you recollect generally?

COURT.—If he knows the source from which these deposits came, he may state the fact.

Q. Yes. Well, do you know the source, Mr. Archibald? A. Which—those two deposits?

Q. Yes, and the balance of the account of Mr. Mealey and [357] Mr. Thompson?

A. The majority of them perhaps consisted at that time of checks on the First National Bank of Roseburg.

Q. Drawn by whom?

A. Drawn by Mr. Kribs.

Q. Frederick A. Kribs? A. Yes, sir.

Mr. LIND.—One moment. Are you speaking about the two certificates of deposit now, made in September?

A. I have no means of determining what they consisted of except by referring to the remittance register of that date, and we have not those remittance registers of that date, as far back as that. December, 1901, I think, is as far back as we have the remittance registers. They were wet in a fire that we had. The vault was overcrowded, and they have been destroyed, those have.

Q. Where did you clear Roseburg checks deposited at your bank at that time?

(Testimony of O. A. Archibald.)

A. At that time, through Ladd & Bush, I think mostly.

Q. Well, you just recalled that fact, did you not, a few minutes ago?

A. Well, after I investigated the register there and the remittance registers on Portland. At the time I was subpoenaed here, I was under the impression that we cleared them through Portland entirely, but since I remember they were cleared through Ladd and Bush of Salem, I think at that time. Possibly some might have been sent direct to Roseburg, there is a possibility. Where we was not very well acquainted with the drawer of the check, or the payee—something of that kind, we might have taken it for collection and forwarded it direct, at their request, to gain time or something of that kind. [358]

Mr. LIND.—I wish to state to the District Attorney we do now want to appear in an attitude of objecting to any of this. Now, if you claim any payments were made by Kribs to the Mealeys or Thompson, on account of these lands, we say yes there were. And if you will, as I suggested on yesterday submit to us a statement of the amounts and dates, and such, we will check it up and concede it. We do not wish to put the Government to the inconvenience of getting at things in a roundabout way, when they can be ascertained so readily. There is no issue on this.

Mr. McCOURT.—They cannot be ascertained readily unless we can find out what they are. We had to get this man here and the books to find out what they were. We brought the man here with his remittance books on Portland, because we were advised he cleared through Portland, so we could check the accounts from the Mealey account back into the Kribs account. I cannot tell what is a Kribs check until we get those remittance books, except by surmise. There are a number of these deposits which we trace a like amount or a substantially alike amount into Mr. Kribs' account. But unless you are prepared to say from our statement that they were the same checks, we could not do it without getting these books. That is the reason we are here. Now, we find the man has not brought us the remittance register of the right bank.

Mr. LIND.—Well, now, there is going to be no trouble about that.

Mr. McCOURT.—We are going to be able to furnish now, I think, after we get a statement from this witness, [359] in regard to the matter.

Q. Was your bank in 1900 charging any exchange on checks on outside banks that were deposited with you? A. Yes; some, yes.

Q. What amount usually?

A. On the coast points here it was usually five cents a hundred and an additional five cents perhaps for the fractional part of a hundred.

Q. And did you always make the charge?

A. Not when the checks didn't cost us anything, we did not charge the depositors. We only charged where we were charged.

(Testimony of O. A. Archibald.)

Mr. McCOURT.—I will state the purpose of that question is, some checks that were apparently drawn by Mr. Kribs, when deposited in this Mealey account, are twenty or forty or fifty cents off the amount, and this exchange matter will account for that.

A. As a rule, the original slip there would show if there was any exchange charged on a check, so you can check that from that.

Q. The deposit slip?

A. Yes, sir, the deposit slip.

Q. It also shows if the depositor took some money in cash at the time or some other check?

A. Yes, as a rule. I always make the tag that way. Some tellers have a different method of it. Some put it down just as short as possible.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer in evidence these transcripts of the account, with the original.

Marked "Government's Exhibits 69, 70, 71, 72 and 73."

A. Mr. McCourt, there is a portion of that are the [360] original leaves from the ledgers. You better modify your offer there so we can obtain possession of those later on.

Mr. McCOURT.—All right. I will do that.

Mr. LIND.—Mr. McCourt, does that sheet belong—that bunch? A. No.

Mr. McCOURT.—This transcript of bills receivable showing notes given to the bank. For money they had to borrow.

Mr. LIND.—There is no objection to these except their bulk. We only object to them as irrelevant and immaterial.

(Testimony of O. A. Archibald.)

COURT.—They may be admitted then subject to that objection.

Mr. McCOURT.—I note that in the accounts of J. A. Thompson and O. J. Mealey and William R. Mealey part of the exhibits which I am offering are the original sheets from the bank ledgers. I ask the privilege later on to substitute copies for those originals.

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. LIND.)

Taking the account of J. A. Thompson, I observe that there appears to his credit an item of $940 on September 20, 1900, on the ledger account.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is that the same as the certificate of deposit or is that another, or is that an open account deposited?

A. That is an open account, I think. That is the credit with which the account was opened, wasn't it? [361]

Q. Yes. Oh, December 20th.

A. December 20th. That is the credit with which the account was opened.

Q. Then there are various deposits apparently, and also checks drawn against this account?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Until there is a balance struck on July 11, 1901, when he appears to have checked out and closed the account.

(Testimony of O. A. Archibald.)

A. Checked out? Yes.

Q. That is a correct view of it?

A. I think so. All accounts are sometimes closed for awhile and then they reopen again later on.

Q. Then an account appears to have been opened again on October 29—the same year probably. Is that the same year?

A. This is where the account opened?

Q. Yes. A. October 25, 1901, you say?

Q. October 25. A. 1901?

Q. Yes.

A. Opened with a deposit of $200. There are no checks drawn against that until October 29; that is, the first check was cashed on that day.

Q. Then there is an account continued from October 25, 1901? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Until what time?

A. Let's see. Well, he checked the last check that closed the account again May 13, 1903. [362]

Q. 1903?

A. Let me see. Hold on. Yes. Yes, 1903, I think. Here the checks continue over here, you see, and the $50 check seems to close that account out.

Q. What date was it closed?

A. May 13. That is, at that time.

Q. May 13, 1903?

A. Yes. Then it was opened again. You see, we went into a different system of ledger on June 30, 1903, and he didn't open an account under that new system until July 6, at which time he deposited $79.90.

(Testimony of O. A. Archibald.)

Q. Then the account continues from July, 1903, until what date?

A. This original brings it down, well, you have the account here of 1907, at which time it was balanced. Mr. Thompson had made an overdraft of $105.08. He covered it on August 20. I think he has had an account since then, of course, but he didn't have that. It was not called for.

Q. A new account. I wanted to make these dates plain to laymen. During this period between November, between 1900 and 1904 and '05, was Thompson a borrower at your bank?

A. Yes, sir, sometimes. There is a list of them there.

COURT.—Speak a little louder.

A. Yes, there is a list of the amounts in which he was either a borrower or endorser.

Q. Referring to "Government's Exhibit 73," I will ask you whether this indicates that the Mealeys and Thompson were borrowers of your bank at the time and dates stated in that exhibit?

A. It does. [363]

Q. When amounts were borrowed by either or any of them, as indicated, were those amounts covered in to their credit account on the ledger?

A. I think usually they took credit for them. They had the privilege of taking the cash or a credit. As a rule, I think they credited them to their account—perhaps not always.

Q. Do you recall making those loans personally to any of them?

(Testimony of O. A. Archibald.)

A. I think Mr. Langdon, the President of the bank at that time, made the loans to them.

Q. Do you recall negotiating any of those loans to them or having any conversation with any of them as to the object for which that money was borrowed?

A. What is the last date on that page?

Q. The last date on this?

A. That is the date of the note.

Q. October 28, 1904.

A. To whom was it?

Q. A loan to Eli Ramer and J. A. Thompson.

A. How much?

Q. $300.

A. Possibly I negotiated that loan.

Q. Do you know what the loan was for—purported to be for?

Objected to as immaterial, and it would be a self-serving declaration.

Mr. LIND.—Not at all.

COURT.—I suppose they have a right to explain these exhibits.

Q. Which name is first there?

Q. I will place the exhibit in your hands, and now ask you. [364]

A. That was a loan to Mr. Ramer upon which Mr. Thompson was security.

Q. For Mr. Ramer?

A. Yes, that three hundred. And I think Mr. Ramer took the cash for it very likely. Yes.

Q. Now, have you any recollection of any of the other items?

A. Nothing only as the records show.

(Testimony of O. A. Archibald.)

Q. You had no conversation with either of the Mealeys or Thompson in respect to any other item than the one you have testified to?

A. Not that I remember of. I think Mr. Langdon negotiated most of those loans.

COURT.—Speak a little louder.

A. I think Mr. Langdon, the President of the bank negotiated the loans. Mr. Langdon negotiated the loans principally at that time.

Q. Do you recollect meeting the Mealey's and Thompson when they made the original deposits, when they first opened the account in your bank?

A. Yes. Yes, I think perhaps I received the deposits from them.

Q. Do you remember whether the Mealeys told you what those moneys were for?

A. No, sir. We didn't make a rule of asking customers.

Q. Well, I didn't ask you that. I simply wanted to find out.

A. No. They might have, but I have no recollection.

Q. Have you any recollection with regard to Thompson, whether he made any statement as to how the money was derived? [365] A. No, sir.

Q. Do you have any recollection in what form the deposit came, whether it was a check or a draft?

A. Usually a check.

(Testimony of O. A. Archibald.)

COURT.—Would the deposit slip show?

A. It shows a great many of them.

COURT.—Get the deposit slip then, and look at that.

A. Some of them, the first one. Do you wish the first one?

Q. The first one.

A. No, I couldn't say as to that.

Q. In Mr. Thompson's case?

A. I didn't make that entry.

Q. Who made that entry?

A. Mr. Irvin, second assistant.

Q. Nothing to indicate? A. That first one.

Q. Nothing to indicate whether it is cash or check?

A. No. This one I know what that is. That is an outside check, because we charged an exchange on it. There was thirty cents deducted.

Q. Now, referring to ledger account of William R. Mealey, the first item of deposit which appears to have been October 3, 1900, of $840.17, that is the proceeds—that is his certificate of deposit?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Which he previously held? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And that is true in regard to O. J. Mealey also?

A. Yes, sir. Is there a deduction at the bottom on that tag? Something, for at that time we were using revenue stamps, and I think you will find one of them the certificate was for fifty cents more. He took fifty cents worth of revenue stamps—we had to [366] use revenue stamps on checks and deeds and all such things, as that, and the bank dispensed those.

(Testimony of O. A. Archibald.)

Mr. UELAND.—What is meant by “C. D.”?

A. C. D., certificate of deposit. It is a short abbreviation for certificate of deposit.

Redirect Examination.

Q. These transcripts showing the names in the second column, what do those names indicate?

A. Well, when a man drew a check, draws a check, and numbers it, we simply put the number down, and where the number was not distinct, or something of that kind, we wrote the name in.

COURT.—What name?

A. The name of the payee of the check. Now, we find some of them, Mr. Thompson’s, the names are all in, I think, because he didn’t number his checks.

Mr. LIND.—What was the last statement? I could not hear that.

A. I say Mr. Thompson’s account, you will find the names of the payees of the check, the first payee, the name is inserted there. It is written on the ledger. But where a man numbered his checks, we kept his checks by number.

Q. Now, Mr. Archibald, when you go home, will you refer to your books there, your remittance books, upon Ladd & Bush, if you have them back as far as 1900, and run them down to, say, October, 1902, and send us a transcript or statement of the outside checks that made up the accounts of Mr. Thompson, O. J. Mealey and William R. Mealey?

(Testimony of O. A. Archibald.)

A. I will try to, but I am pretty positive that there is no remittance books to go back of this first to Portland remittance book. [367]

Q. What was the reason for that? Explain that.

A. Well, I think it was in August, two years ago, the roof or the upper story of our bank building burned off entirely. And we have a double vault, and the upper vault is not steel-lined; it is brick and cement; and things that were stored in there drew dampness and were badly molded—papers that were stored back. We were crowded for vault room, and there were a great many of those books that were outside.

Mr. LIND.—You do not propose to charge that to the defendants?

Mr. McCOURT.—No, I wanted to explain the reason we might not be able to make that as definite as possible.

Q. Some of the records were destroyed—burned up?

A. Yes, sir. They were burned afterward. They were not burned there, but they were soaked with water.

Witness excused. [368]

[Proceedings Had May 4, 1910, 9:30 A. M.]

Portland, Oregon, May 4, 1910, 9:30 A. M.

Mr. McCOURT.—I wish to put in the record the statement of the bank account showing deposits and amounts of checks, the bank account mentioned being the account of Fred A. Kribs in the First National Bank of Roseburg, Oregon; also showing the drafts which made up the account, their dates and other material matters which are explained by the statement itself.

Mr. LIND.—There are also some references to Puter's bank account.

Mr. McCOURT.—I believe that is so. Also extracts from the account of J. H. Booth, Receiver, and showing the deposits and checks of S. A. D. Puter in the same bank, and J. H. Booth as Receiver, in the same bank. This may be considered in both cases because it covers in both cases.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 74." [369]

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

GENERAL LAND OFFICE,

Washington, D. C., November 26, 1900.

Address only the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

Mr. E. D. Stratford,

Special Agent G. L. O.,

Roseburg, Oregon.

Sir:

On February 24, 1900, your predecessor, Special Agent S. S. Mathers, reported that he had been informed by Mr. C. E. Moulton, of the Land Department of the Northern Pacific Railway Co., that large bodies of valuable land were being entered in Tp. 14 S., Rs. 2 and 3 E., in the Roseburg, Oregon, land district, at the instance of one Horace G. McKinley, of Wisconsin, who was acting in the interest of Stephen Puter of Portland, Oregon. He furnished a list of names of forty-one persons who had published notice of intention to purchase lands in said townships under the Timber and Stone Act. Subsequently criminal proceedings [373] were begun against McKinley on charges growing out of this matter. Many of those who had advertised to make final proof failed to appear at the date set, probably being deterred by the proceedings against McKinley.

The following entries were made, however, all in Tp. 14 S., R. 3 E.:

No. 8168, Stephen D. Puter,	NW $\frac{1}{4}$ Sec. 20,
“ 8169, Ira A. Pilkington,	SE $\frac{1}{4}$ “ 26

“ 8177, Harry C. Barr,	SE $\frac{1}{4}$ Sec. 14, T. 14 S., R. 2 E.

You are directed to make a thorough and searching investigation of these entries, with the view of ascertaining, in particular, exactly what connection

McKinley and Puter had with them. You will search the county records for evidences of transfer and will use every means that may [374] suggest itself to secure evidence of the fraudulent character of these entries. You will consult with the District Attorney and secure such information as he may be able to give concerning the matter. Report the facts found in each case on form 4-480.

Very respectfully,

BINGER HERMANN,

O. G.

Commissioner.”

Mr. McCOURT.—I now offer in evidence the report or letter of E. D. Stratford, Special Agent of the General Land Office bearing date December 24th, 1900.

Mr. LIND.—There are certain pencil data here. They are not offered.

Mr. McCOURT.—No, we don't offer that—they seem to be made in the Land Office.

Mr. LIND.—Then you offer the entries described in the letter only so far as they are involved in the suit.

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, at this time.

Marked “Government's Exhibit 48.”

Hon. Commissioner General Land Office,

Sir:—By your letter ‘P’ No. 1900-27963, 34263, 47747, 64733, Dated November 26th, 1900, you directed me to investigate and report on 23 timber land entries supposed to have been made at the instance of one Horace G. McKinley, acting [375] in the interest of Stephen Puter of Portland, Oregon. Acting on said instructions, I have made as thorough and searching investigation as was possible under the circumstances. I find that from the 19th day of January, 1900, to the 26th day of February, 1900, inclusive, there was filed in the Roseburg Land Office, 48, applications for timberlands under the act of June 3d, 1878, all of said lands being in Linn County, Oregon. On March 9th, 1900, one Thomas Cooper acting Land Agent of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, filed an affidavit in said Roseburg Land Office, alleging that each of said filings was not made in good faith. That applicant does not intend to appropriate the land for his own exclusive use and benefit; that filing [379] is made for speculation; that there is an expressed or implied contract or agreement for the sale of the land; that applicant never examined any part of said land; and from personal examination does not know its condition.’ Wherefore the said Thomas Cooper asked for a hearing on his said protest and that said entries be cancelled. Included in the entries protested were those named in your letter above referred to and hereinbefore mentioned and in addition thereto were included the following to wit:

Miss Mattie McDaniel,	SE. $\frac{1}{4}$, Sec. 20, Tp. 14 S., R. 3 E

Those persons whose names appear in the last-above mentioned list, failed to appear on the day set for their proof and their entries were cancelled, and the land was afterwards entered by the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. I am unable to find any evidence which in any manner connects either Horace G. McKinley or Stephen Puter with these entries in any manner, except that they perhaps received from each of the entrymen a fee for locating them on the land, showing them the corners and estimating the timber. I find by the records of Linn County, Oregon, that each of the tracts mentioned in your letter, and which I was instructed to investigate, has been transferred by deed to one John A. Willd of Minn. the consideration mentioned in each deed being the sum of $1.00. So far as I can learn the said John A. Willd has had no connection in any way with said land or any part thereof, until after it was proved up on. I think that the said McKinley and Puter received a commission on the transfer of the land from the entrymen to Willd. I have made diligent inquiry and have made my investigation as thorough and searching as I has been possible to make it under the circumstances. It will be rembered that almost a year had elapsed since this land was entered, when the matter was placed in my hands. I have used every possible means which has suggested itself to me, to get at the facts, and I have to report that I am unable to find any tangible or competent evidence of fraud in connection with these entries or any one of them. I have found the entrymen and their witnesses, when I have been able to find them, very loth to give me any information in regard to the entries. It will be rembered that these persons have been interviewed, investigated and cross-examined, [381] by Special Agents Mathers and Loomis, as well as by numerous agents and attorneys of the Northern Pacific Company. They have also been in the hands of the U. S. Attorney's office, and a number of them have been in court as witnesses in a criminal case against McKinley. They have been advised by their attorneys to keep their mouths shut and they follow this advise strictly. I have consulted frequently and fully with Hon. John

Hall, U. S. Attorney and his deputy Mr. E. Mays, as well as with Hon. F. P. Mays, attorney for the Northern Pacific Company, who had charge of the contests above mentioned, for the said Company, and all of them have informed me that they knew of no evidence of fraud connected with the entries in question, or either of them, sufficient to sustain a contest and that in their opinion a contest would entail needless expense. Mr. F. P. Mays the attorney for the Northern Pacific Company who conducted the proceedings on the part of the company which resulted in the cancellation of the 23 entries herein referred to, informed me that his company had used every possible effort to discover grounds for further contesting those entries which were not cancelled, being the ones referred to in your letter above mentioned, and that in his opinion every entry was cancelled which was fraudulent or at least which could be proved to have been fraudulent, and that he thought that the Company had "bluffed" off a number of the entrymen, who might have proved up on their land, had they not been scared out. While it may be claimed that the fact that all this land was conveyed shortly after it was entered, to one person, is evidence of fraud, yet the fact remains that each contest, if contests should be instituted, [382] would be conducted independently of all the others, and evidence of fraud in one case could not be used as evidence in another case. When it is considered that three Special Agents, including myself, the agents and attorneys of the Northern Pacific Company, who were anxious to have said entries cancelled, in order that the Company which they represented might acquire the land, and the U. S. Attorney's office, have all had these entries under investigation at different times, and that in no instance has fraud sufficient to justify a contest been discovered, it would appear to be useless to contest the entries further.

I therefore recommend that said entries and each of them be sustained and that patents issue for the land.

Very respectfully,

E. D. STRATFORD,
Special Agent G. L. O."

The charges of fraud in connection with these entries, were made by certain newspapers published in the County in which the land is situated, and I believed them serious enough to justify the suspension of said entries until I could make at least a preliminary investigation. I have now to report that I have made sufficient investigation to convince me that said charges were made without any foundation or knowledge on the part of the parties making them, and that the intention of the parties who charged fraud was more for the purpose of bringing discredit on the administration of the Land Department than that the rights and interests of the Government should be protected.

As I have not been able to find any tangible evidence of fraud having been committed in connection with said entries or any one of them, I hereby recommend that said entries be relieved from suspension and that patents issue in each case in due course.

Very respectfully,

E. D. STRATFORD,
Special Agent.”

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
GENERAL LAND OFFICE.

Washington, D. C., April 15, 1901.

Address only the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

E. D. Stratford,

Special Agent G. L. O.,
Roseburg, Oregon.

Sir:

I have a report from you dated March 9, 1901, relative to the 23 timber and stone entries in Tp. 14 S., R. 3 E., in the Roseburg, Oregon, land district, which you were directed to investigate by office letter of November 26, 1900. Also your report of the same date relative to 29 other timber and stone entries in Tp. 14 S., R's 2, 3, and 4 E. which were referred to you for investigation on January 16, 1901.

These investigations were ordered upon charges made by representatives of the Northern Pacific Railway Company, who stated that they had reason to believe that all of said entries were being made for speculative purposes under the supervision and management of one Stephen D. Puter, of Portland, Oregon, and Horace G. McKinley of Brownsville, Oregon. [388]

You state in these reports that you are unable to find any evidence which connects either McKinley or

Puter with the transaction, except that they perhaps received a fee from each of the entrymen for locating them on the land, showing them the corners and estimating the timber; that each of the tracts embraced in the entries was conveyed to one John A. Willd of Minnesota, soon after final proof was made, but that you were unable to learn that he had any connection with any of the land until he purchased the tracts, and that after making diligent inquiry and as thorough and searching investigation as possible under the circumstances, you are unable to find any tangible or competent evidence of fraud in connection with any of said entries. You say also that you have found the entrymen and their witnesses very loath to give you any information on the subject, and that you had consulted with the United States Attorney and his assistant, and with the attorney for the Northern Pacific Railway Company who had charge of contests brought by said company against some of the entries, and they were all of the opinion that no evidence of fraud in said entries could be secured sufficient to sustain a contest. In view of all the circumstances, you recommend that patents issue on the entries.

Before Special Agent Mathers turned over his work in Oregon to you he had made a partial investigation of these cases, and he reported having interviewed several parties with reference to the matter, among whom were Rufus Brum, Jennings F. Whitney and William J. Drinkard. These men filed applications to enter tracts in T. 14 S. R. 3 E., under the Timber and Stone Act, at the time [389] when the applications were filed on which the entries in question are based, but they did not appear to make final proof at the time advertised.

They stated to Mr. Mathers before the date set for final proof that McKinley had induced them to make the applications, promising to pay all expenses, and after entry was made, either to buy the land himself or to find a purchaser for it, so that the entrymen would make $40.00 or $50.00 apiece, and perhaps more, from the transaction. Shortly after these conversations McKinley was arrested at the instance of Mr. Mathers for fraud in connection with this matter, and it seems that this fact deterred these parties and a number of others from completing their entries. The entries that were made, however, in said township, were apparently all made under the same circumstances as were contemplated in these three cases. That is, the parties were induced by McKinley or Puter to make the entries, with the understanding, in each case, that the land should be sold as soon as title had been obtained thereto. In other words, the entries were made purely for speculative purposes, and not in good faith to appropriate the land to the entryman's own exclusive use and benefit.

Under the circumstances this office is not willing to pass these entries to patent until it has more conclusive evidence than has yet been shown as to the impossibility of proving their fraudulent character. Your report merely makes the general statement that you have 'made diligent inquiry, etc., and had found the entrymen and their witnesses very loath to give any information on the subject.' It does not show of whom [390] you made inquiries, nor what information was given you with relation to the matter, nor is it stated what reasons were alleged by the entrymen and their witnesses for not making a statement to you. Their refusal to do so is itself a strong indication of fraud.

You are directed to make a thorough re-investigation of this matter, and to make detailed reports showing just what efforts you have made to ascertain the facts, and exactly what information you have been able to secure.

You will call upon each of the entrymen for an affidavit, showing all the circumstances connected with his entry, at whose suggestion the entry was made, who furnished the money to pay for the same and on what conditions, what understanding he had with the party furnishing the money or with other parties, as to the use he should make of the land or the timber after he had perfected title, when he examined the land, and what means he used to identify it, etc.

You will also report the exact date when the land was sold in each case, the consideration for the transfer, the name of the transferee and the character of the instrument conveying the land. If the entrymen mortgaged the land you should state the facts concerning the mortgage shown by the county records.

In connection with these matters your attention is called to the cases of U. S. vs. Bailey et al. (17 L. D., 468), and U. S. vs. Searles et al. (19 L. D., 258), which show the construction placed by the Department upon the provisions of the Timber and Stone Act requiring that entries of this kind shall be made only for the exclusive use and benefit of the entrymen. [391]

In making investigations of alleged frauds in connection with the entry of public lands, you will bear in mind that, as an agent of this office, you have a right to call upon entrymen for a full statement of the circumstances connected with their entries. In interviewing these parties you will inform them of this fact, and that their refusal to reply to your questions will be considered an indication that the entries were not made in good faith.

Very respectfully,

BINGER HERMANN,
Commissioner."

Mr. McCOURT.—I now offer in evidence for the purpose of perfecting the record of these entries, a letter of E. D. Stratford, Special Agent of the General Land Office, to the Honorable Commissioner, dated December 28, 1901.

Roseburg, Oregon, December 28th, 1901.

Honorable Commissioner,
General Land Office,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:—

If the interests of the service will permit, I would be very greatly pleased if a transfer could be arranged which will assign me to some district east of the Rocky Mountains, for a time at least. [392]

My reasons for this request are as follows:

I now have under investigation at least 100 Timber and Stone entries, which are alleged to be fraudulent, and others are being continually added to the list. I have gathered quite a large amount of testimony which being in writing could be used by any one succeeding me equally as well as by me. A great many of these cases are practically ready to report to your office. About 75 of these cases relate to land which has been sold to Mr. Frederick A. Kribs a wealthy timber land speculator, or parties whom he represents, and many of them no doubt should be recommended for cancellation. Mr. Kribs has employed to look after his interest in these cases, Mr. A. M. Crawford, an attorney residing at Roseburg, a personal friend and next-door neighbor for a number of years, Hon. F. P. Mays, State Senator, of Portland, Oregon, and now I am in receipt of a letter from Judge A. H. Tanner, of the firm of Mitchell & Tanner, attorneys at Portland, the Senior member of the firm being Hon. John Mitchell, U. S. Senator, from Oregon, stating that his firm is also employed by Mr. Kribs and inquiring in regard to the status of the cases. Many of these entrymen are personal friends and neighbors of mine. While the above named Attorneys are gentlemen of high standing, who would not attempt to exercise any improper influence in the cases, yet I think that it can be redily seen that my request is a reasonable one, under the circumstances, and that it should not reflect against my official standing or integrity. If I should remain in charge of these cases, I shall certainly try to do my duty, without fear or favor, but I earnestly hope that an exchange can be arranged which will bring to this field a man of ability and experience, who is entirely [393] free from the influences I have mentioned. I am of the opinion that the work in my hands is in such a condition that it can be taken up by any other experienced man with but little delay and without injury to the service. The importance of these cases will be understood when it is remembered that the party or parties, now holding deeds to these lands from the original entrymen, have invested at least $100,000 in the land, and are prepared to spend a large amount to defend their titles. I would prefer, if it can be arranged to go to Oklahoma, Colorado, or New Mexico, as my boys are in school in Kansas, and I would be glad to be so located, that I could visit them and my wife who is with them, without consuming all of a 30 days' leave, in one trip, but if this cannot be arranged, I would prefer to go anywhere, under the circumstances.

Mr. E. D. Stratford,

Special Agent, G. L. O.

Roseburg, Oregon.

Sir:

I have your letter of December 28, 1901, in which you ask to be assigned to duty in some district east of the Rocky Mountains. You say that you have investigated a large number of Timber and Stone entries in Oregon. A number of these have been sold to Frederick A. Kribs, a wealthy land speculator, or to persons whom he represents, and many of them should be recommended for cancellation. Mr. Kribs has employed a number of prominent attorneys to look after his interests in these entries and the cases are of great importance, more than $100,000 being involved in the lands entered.

You say also ‘Many of the entrymen are personal friends and neighbors of mine; while the above named attorneys are gentlemen of high standing, who would not attempt to exercise any improper influence in the cases, yet I think that it can be readily seen that any [395] request is a reasonable one under the circumstances, and that it should not reflect against

You are instructed to complete the reports on all of the cases referred to which you have examined.

When your reports are received here the advisability of assigning you to duty in another district will be considered.

Very respectfully,

W. A. RICHARDS,
Assistant Commissioner."

Mr. McCOURT.—If the Court please, our records show that on March 28, 1902, the Secretary of the Interior, directed the General Land Office to transmit reports of Special Agents on the filings in controversy in this case, together with the other entries that are referred to through the entire correspondence. We haven't that direction, but we wish you would admit that there was such a direction. We will follow it up with the other matter that you request.

Mr. LIND.—My understanding is that there was an investigation by Special Agent Green, and we would be glad to have that produced. We called for it some weeks ago.

Mr. McCOURT.—We haven't found that, but I had access to the letter press copy of that report of

Mr. Green on last evening. It escaped my mind that you had called for it. [396]

Mr. LIND.—Have you the letter press copy?

Mr. McCOURT.—No, I did not request to keep the copy, but I will be pleased to put it in. I will see that you get it within the next couple days.

Mr. LIND.—Where is it?

Mr. McCOURT.—Mr. Green has it, but he will be back shortly.

Mr. LIND.—Is he still in the service?

Mr. McCOURT.—No, he has not been in the service for three or four years, but he has his own letter press copies.

It will be admitted, I presume, that that direction was given?

Mr. LIND.—Oh, yes.

Mr. McCOURT.—I now offer in evidence a letter of the Secretary of the Interior, bearing date May 17, 1902, to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, who is directed to relieve the entries from suspension.

Mr. LIND.—The entries involved in this case?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, with others.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Washington, May 17, 1902.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office.

Sir:

Your communication of April , 1902, in reply to departmental inquiry of March 28, 1902, enclosing to you the report of Special Inspector A. R. Greene, relative to a large number of supposed fraudulent entries of timber lands in the Roseburg and Oregon City land districts, [397] Oregon, has been considered in connection with the report thereon of Special Agent E. D. Stratford, which you enclose.

March 10, 1902, Mr. Green reported upon 53 entries, under the timber and stone act, in the Roseburg district, and 14 entries under the same act and 10 commuted homestead entries in the Oregon City district, all of which were made about two years ago, and of which 22 of those in the Roseburg district were sold to Frederick A. Kribs, and 31 to John A. Willd within a few days after final proof was made.

It appears that four of said entries in the Roseburg district have been patented, and of the remaining 49 all but one are included in the reports of Special Agent Stratford, and also reported upon some entries not included in Mr. Greene's report.

Mr. Green's report is general in its terms, not giving the sources of his information, nor does he submit any affidavits or evidence obtained as to said entries. He states that John A. Willd, representing a lumber company of Minnesota, had the lands cruised by one H. G. McKinley, who subsequently induced parties to locate thereon, representing to them that a mill company stood ready to take the lands off their hands when final proof had been made; that McKinley appeared in a number of cases as a witness; that a large number of said tracts were mortgaged to Kreibs on the day of the submission of final proof, or immediately thereafter, and others were deeded to him; that 28 tracts were deeded to Willd within 5 days after proof; and that in the case of the 10 commuted [398] homestead entries in the Oregon City district, the lands were all mortgaged prior to the making of final proof. This, however, your office letter states is not correct, but that said mortgages bear date after the submission of final proof, and before the date of the final certificates, the latter not having been given at the time said proof was submitted.

Attached to Mr. Greene's report are sheets containing transcripts from the records of the land offices at Roseburg and Oregon City and the office of the county recorder of Linn county, Oregon, showing the dates of the final certificates; also the dates of the mortgages and sales of the different tracts, the names of mortgagees and purchasers, and the recited consideration therefor.

He also reported, at considerable length, upon the lax and careless methods with reference to timber and stone entries, employed in the local offices in the matter of examination of witnesses, etc.

Under direction of your office, Special Agent Stratford, December 9, 1901, reported upon a list of 48 timber entries made in January and February, 1900, in the Roseburg office, from which it appears that at the time these applications to purchase were being made the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, through its agents, was examining the same body of land with a view to selecting it under some lieu land law, and on March 9, 1900, bu its agent, filed in the local land office a notice of contest against said applications, alleging that the same were not made in good faith for the exclusive use and benefit of the applicants, but for the purpose of speculation; [399] that prior to entry they had made expressed or implied agreements for the sale of the lands; that the applicants had not made personal examination of the lands to ascertain their condition, and a hearing was asked in order that said allegations might be proven.

April 18, 1901, said company filed dismissal as to 24 of said cases, and at the same time filed a relinquishment by the timber applicants for the remaining 24 entries. Thereupon the company entered the tracts for which it had filed relinquishments, and the applicants made entry of the other 24 tracts.

It also appears that while these contests were pending McKinley was arrested on a charge of subornation of perjury, in connection with said entries, at the instigation of the Northern Pacific Company, but upon said hearing before an United States Commissioner, he was discharged.

With reference to the 24 entries that were perfected by the applicants, Stratford reported that each of the entrymen, at the date of submission of proof, borrowed of Kreibs the sum of $600, with which to pay for the land and the expenses incident to entry, giving a mortgage on the land entered; that a portion of these mortgages bore the same date as the entries, and others were dated directly thereafter; and that within a very few days thereafter the entrymen sold the lands to Willd for a nominal consideration, subject to the mortgages.

Attached to Stratford's report are two or three affidavits, procured by him from entrymen, in which [400] said parties testify that they had no agreement with any one prior to making final proof with reference to a sale of the lands, but that the same were taken in good faith for the use and benefit of the entrymen; also the affidavits of McKinley and Kreibs were submitted, denying any connection with the parties or said lands prior to the taking of said mortgages and deeds.

As to this list of entries, Mr. Stratford, after detailing at length the difficulties encountered in procuring evidence of fraud in such cases, and referring to the fact that the contests begun by the Northern Pacific Company against said entries were dismissed because the company and Special Agent Mathers were unable to secure any evidence of fraud, says: 'I am frank to say that I have some reason to believe that every one of these entries were and are fraudulent, but I am just as frank to say that I don't believe I can prove it.' He therefore recommended that the investigation of said entries be closed and the lands passed to patent.

December 28, 1901, said Stratford reported upon 21 cases of timber entries, made at the Roseburg office, which had been submitted to him for investigation. He states therein that at the time the entries were made the parties were living in the county where the lands were located; that in many of the cases Kreibs, at the time of the submission of proof, loaned the entrymen the money to pay for the land, and took mortgages therefor; and that the [401] tracts were sold to him shortly thereafter, except in the case of Fred Wodtli, in which case proof was made August 16, 1900, and the sale September 24, 1900.

The only affidavits submitted, as to this list, were those of Richard F. Malone, one of said entrymen, and Frederick A. Kreibs, the purchaser of said lands. Malone states that he was located by one Thompson, for which he paid $50; that he had no agreement, either express or implied, with any one prior to making final proof, to sell the land, or the timber thereon, after he had made final proof; that one Mealey, acting for Kreibs, furnished him $700, to pay for the land and expenses of making proof, etc., for which he gave a mortgage after he had submitted his proof; that he was in debt for some town property and concluded to sell the land, and subsequently sold it, through Mealey to Kreibs for $850, receiving $150 in cash above the amount of mortgage.

Kreibs states in his affidavit, made before Special Agent Stratford, March 20, 1902, with reference to this list of lands, that some of these parties spoke to him with reference to loans; that as he did not know much about the lands he referred them to Mealey; that in learning from Mealey that the lands were good security for the money wanted, he made short-time loans thereon; that subsequently, on application of the parties to sell him the lands, he made prices on the different tracts, averaging about [402] $5 per acre, and made purchases thereof; that Mealey was not his agent, and he paid him nothing for his services; that his impression was, that Mealey made a lower price to the parties than he offered and retained the difference as compensation for his services; that the first knowledge he had of these lands was about the time the parties were to submit their proof, and that he had no agreement or understanding express or implied, with any of said parties, or any one representing them, before they made final proof, as to purchasing the same after proof.

Mr. Stratford, however, reports that 'in no case except that of Fred Wodtli does the entryman offer any reasonable cause for the sale so soon after proof, and in no other case is there offered any reason for the entry, except for pure speculation'; and he considers that the foregoing makes a good prima facie case of fraud in connection with each of said entries, except that of Wodtli, under the construction placed by the Department upon the provisions of the timber and stone act as laid down in the cases of United States v. Bailey et al. (17 L. D., 468) and United States v. Searles et al. (19 L. D., 258), to which his attention had been called by your office letter of April 15, 1901. He therefore recommends that said entries, except that of Wodtli, be held for cancellation, but says: 'I desire to say further that I have no hope that at a contest, if one should be ordered, in these cases I would be able to procure any additional testimony than that herewith offered.'

February 28, 1902, Stratford reported upon another list of 17 entries, made in the Roseburg land district, [403] which were referred to him by your office letter of November 2, 1901. In each of these cases, as appears from his report, the land was conveyed to Kreibs shortly after final proof was made; the entrymen were generally residents of the county in which the lands are located; they were persons of moderate financial circumstances, and of reputation for truth and veracity in the neighborhood in which they lived; that they had no well-defined idea of what use they would make of the lands after entry, but as the same were being rapidly taken up by the Northern Pacific Company and individuals who came in from distant states, they concluded to make entry; that they knew the lands were worth more than they would have to pay the Government therefor; and that scores of persons stood ready to purchase said lands at any time they might wish to sell, and to that extent they entered the lands as an investment and for speculation.

He also reports that in none of these cases was he able to find any evidence connecting Kreibs with the entry or entrymen prior to the submission of final proof, and he recommends that said entries be relieved from suspension and the lands go to patent. The affidavits of Arthur L. Thornton, one of said entrymen, and Kreibs were submitted.

Your office letter of April, 1902, submitting said reports of Special Agent Stratford, with accompanying testimony and papers, enters into a very full consideration and statement of the situation, as developed by the special examination had, as to all of these entries reported upon, together with the difficulties attending the establishment of fraud in this class of cases; and [404] it is stated therein that as to these entries,— if proceedings are begun looking to their cancellation, on charges that they were made for speculative purposes and in the interest of others than the entrymen, the Government can show that when the filings were made Kreibs and Willds were known to be ready to purchase timber lands in the locality where these entries were made; that the parties were located upon the lands by H. G. McKinley, who was paid by them for his services; that Stephen A. D. Puter secured options on some of the tracts when final proof was made, and in these cases the sales were made through him to Willds; that some of the entrymen borrowed the money with which to make final proof from Kreibs, and that soon after the final proofs were made the lands were all conveyed to Willds or to Kreibs.

It is also said in your letter that while these things raise a suspicion as to the bad faith of the entrymen, they do not furnish such positive evidence of fraud as will justify the cancellation of the entries under the decision of the Court in the case of United States v. Budd (144 U. S. 185), the facts being very similar.

The Department has made a careful examination of the matter of these entries, as set forth in your office letter, together with the reports of Special Inspector Greene and Special Agent Stratford, and the sworn statements of entrymen and others, on file in connection therewith, and is unable to discover any appreciable difference as to the situation in the three different lists reported on specially by Mr. Stratford, though he recommends that in two of said lists the entries be relieved from suspension and the lands passed to patent, while in the other list of 21 entries, reported on by him December 28, 1901, he recommends that all except one be held for cancellation. No evidence is submitted as to said list or referred to as obtainable, of any agreement made by the entrymen before the submission of final proof, with reference to the sale of said lands. [405] In fact, the two affidavits, as to said entries, on file, state positively that no such agreement or understanding was had with anybody, and Mr. Stratford says that he does not expect to be able to furnish any additional testimony. His recommendation as to this list seems to be based upon the showing that the parties sold the lands very soon after entry and give no 'reasonable cause for the sale so soon,' and do not offer 'any reason for the entry, except for pure speculation,' which he considers makes a good prima facie case of fraud, under departmental rulings in the cases of United States v. Bailey, and United States v. Searles, supra.

An examination of those cases, however, shows that the evidence of fraud was much stronger in each than in case of the entries under consideration herein. In the Searles case the entrymen were employed and paid for making the entries for one Montgomery. The testimony was to the effect that they never examined the lands, did not procure the final proof witnesses, or furnish the money to pay the Government for the land, and the expenses incident thereto, but that upon the submission of final proof they executed the deeds in accordance with the agreements entered into before making the applications to purchase, and received the amount promised therefor. In the Bailey case, one Lohr located the parties, and, as an inducement to have them make the entries, he, at the time of locating them, promised to buy the lands when proof had been submitted and to pay $50 more to each than any one else would pay. As to the case of one McBride, who made entry July 6, 1883, Lohr testified that he had no understanding with McBride [406] in the month of June, 1883, relative to the purchase of the land covered by his entry, other than he had with all parties whom he located; that he agreed to buy any claim located by him after the entryman had obtained title, if the latter wanted to sell, and would pay more than any one else; that he could do this because it would save an examination of the claim, and he agreed, usually, to give $50 more than any one else, which promise was made 'as an inducement for the parties to take my (his) word and knowledge, as being good as to the quality and quantity of timber.' It also appeared in that case that Lohr had an agreement with Bailey, in the spring of 1883, by which Bailey was to furnish the money to buy timber lands and Lohr was to attend to the buying and selling, the profits to be divided between them, which agreement was carried out. Neither Bailey nor any of the entrymen were produced as witnesses in the case.

The facts on which the decisions in these two cases were based seem to distinguish them from the entries under consideration. In the latter, Willds, who purchased some of the tracts after proof was submitted, and Kreibs, who furnished the money to the parties to pay for the land at the time of submission of proof, taking mortgages thereon, and subsequently purchased some of the tracts, are not shown, either directly or indirectly, to have had any connection with the lands or entrymen prior to the submission of proof. There is no evidence of offers to purchase the lands as an inducement to make entry. McKinley merely said to some of them that, after entry, if they desired to sell, he would try and find a purchaser. In the Bailey case, supra, Lohr's promise to buy and pay $50 each more than any one else [407] would pay, was an inducement for persons to make entries purely for speculation. It was held in that case (syllabus) that—

Timber land entries made for a speculative purpose, and through a collusive arrangement by which the entrymen are induced to make said entries with a view to selling the lands embraced therein to the other party to such agreement, are in violation of the statute and must be canceled.

It is evident, from the reports of Special Agent Stratford, which appear to have been made upon thorough investigation, and examination of many of the entrymen, and from the evidence submitted by him, that a hearing in the cases under consideration would not disclose sufficient evidence of fraud to warrant the cancellation of the entries. Certainly, under the showing, no stronger case could be made respecting these entries than was made in the case of United States v. Budd, supra, wherein the court held that there was no violation shown of the timber and stone act of June 3, 1878, and probably not so strong.

You are therefore directed to relieve said entries from suspension, that the lands covered thereby may, in the absence of any further and good reason to the contrary go to patent.

Regarding the entries in the Oregon City district, referred to in Mr. Greene's report, your letter states that all lands embraced therein have already been patented, except in the case of two of the commuted homestead entries. These entries were not reported on by Mr. Stratford, but there is no showing made in the report of Mr. Greene, as to the 14 timber entries and 10 commuted homestead entries in that district, that would seem to warrant the pursuance of a different course in relation to them from that directed herein with [408] reference to the foregoing timber and stone entries in the Roseburg district. In the case of these homestead entries it appears, from you letter, that final certificates were not issued until several days after the proofs were made, and that the lands were mortgaged by the entrymen after the submission of final proof, but before the certificates were issued. Under departmental decision in the case of Eberhard Querbach (10 L. D., 142), this would not defeat the right to patent. You are therefore also directed to relieve these entries in the Oregon City district from suspension.

As to the lands in the ceded Siletz Indian Reservation, which have recently been surveyed and are reported by Mr. Greene to be chiefly valuable for timber, it appears that the area is not large, and many settlers are already on said lands, some of whom have made entries since survey. The Department concurs in your recommendation that said lands should remain as at present, to be disposed of under the town-site and homestead laws, as provided by section 15 of the act of August 15, 1894 (28 Stat., 326). Under this act, as modified by the act of May 17, 1900 (31 Stat., 179), and the act of January 26, 1901 (31 Stat. 740), the lands will not be as likely to fall into the hands of speculators as if disposed of under the timber and stone act.

The papers are herewith returned.

Very respectfully,

E. A. HITCHCOCK,

Secretary, [409]

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer in evidence the direction of W. D. Harlan, Chief of Division “P” of the General Land Office, to Chief of Division “C” of the same office, bearing date May 28, 1902, in which Division “P” notifies Division “C” that the entries involved in this case have been relieved from suspension under Departmental Instructions of May 19, 1902.

Mr. LIND.—Which is the direction of the Secretary of the Interior last introduced and referred to.

COURT.—I understand this correspondence shows that Stratford was directed to investigate these claims and made reports to the General Land Office and that the entries were subsequently called for by the Secretary and transmitted to the Secretary and then the Secretary of the Interior directed that the suspension be removed.

Mr. LIND.—And directed the issuance of patent.

Mr. McCOURT.—I don't know that he specifically authorized patent, but it would follow.

Mr. LIND.—I call the attention of the Court, however, to the fact, that in the Secretary's direction—the last document offered but one—it is quite lengthy and the several reports are reviewed and reference is made to a report of Special Agent Green which is reviewed and commented upon, as well as the Stratford report, and it is the Green report that we are planning to secure later.

Mr. McCOURT.—We endeavored to get that from the General Land Office, I believe, also from the Secretary of the Interior, but somehow it was not forwarded. Last evening I saw a press copy and it really is an adverse report, but made in such a general way and without any specific direction, that I thought it would be immaterial to this investigation, forgetting for the moment that Governor Lind [410] had called for it, or I should have kept it. I will have it brought back within the next couple days.

Mr. LIND.—We would have obtained copies of some of these documents, or perhaps all of them ourselves, but for the fact of a rule in the Interior Department that any matters pending in Division "P"—that is, for investigation—are not subject to inspection by the public, and certified copies will not be issued upon request, except at the instance of the Attorney General or an order of the court. I will volunteer the statement, however, in connection with what the District Attorney has said, that the review of the contents of the Green report and the Secretary's decision is so complete that the whole matter can be before the Court whether we succeed in getting the Green report or not. That is accurate, is it not?

Mr. McCOURT.—I think so, though I have not as carefully examined it as I might.

2 P. M.

Mr. UELAND.—May it please the Court before adjourning when the District Attorney asked for the production of any contract between the defendants Smith and Kribs concerning the acquisition of lands affected by this suit, the statement was made by counsel for the defense that there was no written contract, and in the colloquy which ensued there was a divergence of statement on the part of counsel as to the date of the first written contract. In order that the record may not show any different statements on the part of the attorneys for the defendants, I now produce for the inspection of the District Attorney two original contracts between the defendants Smith and Kribs, the first dated, as I said this morning, December 21, 1901, and the other attached to it December 5, 1902; and in presenting this for his inspection I want to amend a statement I made this morning as to there not being any written contract covering the period then referred to, to this extent. I observe, which I was not aware of when I made that statement, that the contract of December 21, 1901, contains an adjustment of accounts between those two defendants as to lands previously acquired and thus might be said to be a written contract covering that period, although of a later date. If that is in conflict with my statement, I must amend my statement.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer the contracts themselves. They may be deemed read into the record and I will not offer them as exhibits. [413]

MEMORANDUM OF SETTLEMENT AND ACCOUNTING

Between C. A. Smith and Fred A. Kribs, made the 21st day of December, 1901.

Said Kribs having devoted much time and incurred considerable expense during the years 1900 and 1901 in locating and purchasing timber lands in California and Oregon for said Smith, the land so located or purchased aggregating about 94022 acres, the sum of $26,107.37 is hereby agreed upon by said parties as the amount to be paid said Kribs for all such services rendered and all such expenses incurred by him prior to this date.

Said Kribs has received divers sums of money from time to time from said Smith, and stands charged this day on the books of C. A. Smith Lumber Co. for the sum of $2601.87. For this sum he shall now receive full credit on account of the $26,107.37 aforesaid. The remaining $23,505.50 shall be paid and liquidated as follows. Said Kribs shall be paid as it may be demanded by him from time to time not to exceed $20,000, with 4 per cent interest on the portion of said sum which shall remain unpaid after the date hereof.

The lands located and purchased, as aforesaid, include several thousand acres in Lynn County, Oregon, conveyed by divers parties to one John A. Willd, and several thousand acres in Oregon and California located and claimed by Forest Reserve and other scrip for which patents have not yet been issued by the United States.

Said Kribs shall, without any additional compensation for his services or personal expenses, exert his best endeavors to perfect the title to all the lands located and purchased through him, and first herein referred to, as to which perfect title is not yet acquired, but all expense [414] thereby incurred, except for his services and personal expenses, shall be paid by said Smith.

When patents have issued by the United States to the lands last mentioned to such an extent that title to 80,000 acres of the 94,022 acres aforesaid is perfect, the remaining $3505.50 of the compensation for said Kribs, above agreed upon, shall be paid from time to time when demanded by him as fast as patents are issued for the remaining lands the amount to be paid from time to time to be upon the basis of 25 cents per acre of the remaining lands so patented until said sum of $3505.50 is fully paid.

It is further hereby agreed, that if timber lands in either of said states, other than the lands hereinbefore referred to, shall hereafter be acquired by said Smith through the efforts of said Kribs, the compensation for his services and personal expenses shall be at the rate of 50 cents per acre for all lands so acquired, unless otherwise expressly agreed upon between the parties. This includes about 520 acres in Sections 18 and 20, Township 30 North of Range 9 West, in Douglas County, Oregon, and three claims in Sections 20, 22 and 34, in Township 30 North of Range 10 West, in Coos County, Oregon, which have lately been bargained for.

[415]

SUPPLEMENTARY AGREEMENT.

As a further and supplementary to the memorandum of settlement and accounting between C. A. Smith and Fred A. Kribs, made December 21st, 1901, it is hereby agreed and understood:

Referring to the last clause of said agreement, there has been paid to said Kribs by said Smith under said clause, in full for all services rendered thereunder, and also for any and all other services, both in securing lands and otherwise, since the date of said referred to agreement and up to the present time, the sum of five thousand, five hundred, fifty and 60/100 ($5,550.60) Dollars.

It is hereby further agreed and understood that in and for the consideration so paid, said Kribs shall prosecute, at his own expense so far as his personal expenses are concerned, to perfect title, as far as possible, any and all lands so entered or secured since the date of said agreement until the present time, with the understanding, however, that said Smith shall pay any and all other necessary expenses for attorney fees that may be thought necessary by said Kribs.

It is also further understood and agreed that for any lands already entered, but not reported on and for any and all lands which may be entered or purchased during the next twelve months, said Kribs shall receive a compensation of thirty (30¢) cents per acre for all lands so secured and title perfected by him, being intended to cover all services similar to the above.

This supplementary agreement is not intended to cover any other portion of said agreement of Dec. 21st, 1901, except the last clause thereof. [416]

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this fifth day of December, 1902, at Minneapolis, Minn.

Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill taken in case No. 3320 and stipulated to be used in this case as if taken herein.

[Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill, for the Government.]

RALPH P. COWGILL, a witness called on behalf of the Government, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Where do you live? A. Medford, Oregon.

Q. What is your business?

A. Civil engineer.

Q. In what capacity were you employed during the year 1908?

A. I was a Special Agent of the General Land Office.

Q. How long were you employed in that capacity?

A. June 1st to about the 1st of December—somewhere along there.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

Q. What had you been doing prior to that?

A. Engineering work.

Q. State whether or not you had occasion to go to Albany in Linn County, about the 10th day of September, 1908.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the purpose of that visit there?

A. It was to examine some deeds in connection with C. A. Smith's suit.

Q. I hand you what purports to be a deed of Charles Smith and Johanna A. Smith to the Linn and Lane Timber Company, bearing date the 4th day of June, 1906, and ask you whether or not that was one of the deeds you examined there at that time?

A. I believe this is one of the deeds. I can identify it absolutely by some notes that I took at that time and turned in. [418]

Q. (Handing witness paper.) Are those the notes that you refer to?

A. Yes, sir. That is the deed. (After examining deed and notes.)

Q. For what purpose did you examine the deed?

A. Well, I examined it—

Q. What sort of an examination did you make?

A. I read it over carefully and I examined the signatures and made a special examination of the date when this was put on record and the date of when these instruments were made before the Notary Public—signed.

Q. There was a number of other deeds relating to the same case there at the same time?

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

A. Yes, sir. 7, 8 or 9, I think, altogether. 7 I have a record of.

Q. Now, what was the appearance of that deed there at that time as to its—as to how recently it had been executed?

A. The deed at that time—this particular deed, looked to be very recent to me; in fact, some of the typewriting when I put my fingers on it would rub over and smudge, and even the signatures showed to me that, in my estimation, it was very, very recent.

Q. Did you make comparison between that deed and other deeds there purporting to have been made about the same time?

A. Yes, sir. Here is the notes that I made at the time.

Mr. UELAND.—I would prefer that you testify without your notes, if you remember.

A. Well, of course, I prefer to refer to my notes, because they were made at the time. I can testify, however, without the notes.

Q. If you can testify without the notes, don't use them.

Q. (Read.)

A. Yes, sir. This— [419]

Q. How did it compare with the other deeds apparently bearing the same date?

Mr. UELAND.—I object to the comparison. I object to the question as incompetent—to make comparison with something that is not here upon which we cannot cross-examine the witness.

Q. Well, have you got the other deeds here that he did compare them with; for instance, the deed purporting to have been made October 27, 1906, by John A. Willd and Ida Willd to Charles A. Smith, for one-eighth interest in the lands in Linn County?

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

Mr. UELAND.—Those are ancient documents that you refer to.

A. No, they are more recent than this (Smith deed); October 27, 1906, is somewhat younger than June 4, 1906.

Mr. UELAND.—Well, be that as it may, there can be no value in comparing the age of one document with the age of another document, the age of which is not known.

Mr. McCOURT.—Have you those other deeds?

Mr. LIND.—They don't pertain to this case.

Mr. McCOURT.—They refer to matters in controversy in this same series of cases. John A. Willd and Ida Willd to Charles A. Smith for the one-eighth interest to parcels of land in Linn County.

Mr. LIND.—I have not.

Mr. McCOURT.—B. F. Nelson and Mary Nelson to Charles A. Smith of one-fortieth interest in lands mentioned in these timber cases. Charles J. Swanson and Christine Swanson to the Linn and Lane Timber Company for a one-fourth interest in the lands in the other cases.

Mr. UELAND.—I have them. [420]

Mr. McCOURT.—That purports to have been made May 28, 1906.

Deed of Charles L. Trabert and Harriet A. Trabert to Charles A. Smith for a one-tenth interest in the lands in Linn County.

Mr. UELAND.—Here it is.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

Mr. McCOURT.—Deed of J. E. Holmberg and Minnie Holmberg October 26, 1906, to an undivided one-fourth interest—I presume that deed was made to Smith.

Mr. UELAND.—You said from Holmberg to Smith—we have that.

Q. I hand you deed of the 26th day of October, purporting to be from J. E. Holmberg and Minnie Holmberg to Charles A. Smith; a deed bearing date May 28, 1907, Charles J. Swanson and Christine Swanson; and deed of Charles L. Trabert and Harriet A. Trabert, bearing date the 23d day of October, 1906, the lands in the Swanson deed being conveyed to the Linn and Lane Timber Company and in the Trabert deed to Charles A. Smith, and ask you if those were among the deeds you examined there that day in connection with that other deed?

A. This corresponds very much with the—the deed from J. E. and Minnie Holmberg corresponds with the one as far as I remember. There were several changes in it. As, for instance, “1905” and the “5” is scratched out and made “6.”

Mr. UELAND.—I object. That is not responsive to any question.

COURT.—Identify the deed. That is all you were asked to do—as to whether it is the one you examined at that time.

A. May I see the notes in question? I copied—took an abstract. (Examines notes.) This is not the deed that I examined. [421]

Q. That Holmberg deed?

A. It is the Holmberg deed, but I would like to examine this number a little more to find the number that corresponds here. Here it is, I guess. It may be that I am wrong. Here is the right number—7933. This is—that is the deed.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

Q. Is it one of them? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Look at the other two there and see if they were there at that time.

A. I think this is one also—and this one of Swanson's.

Q. Now, examine the Trabert deed.

Mr. UELAND.—I am mistaken in saying that I did not have the deed from Nelson. Here is that deed. I was misled by it having been recorded in another county at another date.

A. So far as I am able to tell, that is the same deed.

Q. That is one of the deeds that were there?

A. Yes, sir.

Mr. LIND.—Which one is that?

Mr. McCOURT.—That is the Trabert deed.

Q. I call your attention to deed of B. F. Nelson and Mary Nelson, bearing date the 10th of August, 1907, to Charles A. Smith, and ask if that is one of the deeds that were there, with which you made comparison?

A. This corresponds also, yes, sir.

Mr. UELAND.—Mr. District Attorney, does that cover all you inquired for?

Mr. McCOURT.—All but the Willd deed. There was a Willd deed filed there at that time. Not lands in this case, but lands in another case.

Mr. UELAND.—I have that too. I was misled by the county and the date. Here it is.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

Q. I ask you to examine a deed bearing date the 27th day of [422] October, 1906, purporting to be executed by J. A. Willd and Ida Willd, his wife, to Charles A. Smith, and ask you if that was among the deeds you examined there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I also call your attention to deed purporting to be made the 15th day of August, 1907, by Nils O. Werner and Eva C. Werner, his wife, to the Linn and Lane Timber Company, and ask you if you examined that at the same time?

A. To the best of my knowledge it is.

Q. In your examination of those deeds at that time, did you call anyone to your assistance?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. For the purpose of determining their order in which they had been made? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who?

A. The County Recorder and his assistant, the Deputy Recorder. I also—

Q. What was the Recorder's name—Frohman?

A. Crum— I could not tell you the name now unless I would hear it. It was a Miss—a Mrs. something; a woman there, but I don't remember her name right now. It has slipped by memory.

Q. Miss Francis?

A. Yes, Miss Francis, I believe.

Q. And the other party was the recorder himself?

A. The recorder himself.

Q. Who else did you call?

A. I called an abstracter at the same place.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

Q. Mr. Curl?

A. Curl, that is the name. [423]

Mr. UELAND.—What is the name?

A. Curl.

Q. Now, then, I think I asked you as compared with these other deeds—I don't know but what he answered that once—as compared with those other deeds, what was the appearance of the deed of C. A. Smith to the Linn and Lane Timber Company?

Mr. LINN.—That is incompetent. No base is laid for expressing an expert opinion. He can describe the instrument.

COURT.—He can tell in what way they differed, if they did differ, what he saw in fact.

Q. How did they differ there? How did that deed differ from the others in appearance?

A. It was much newer. It was very fresh. The typewriting in the pages here would blur it a little bit when you touched with with your fingers, and the signatures when held to the light were very plain as if they had just been written. You could see the ink with this lustre, not like ink after it has been dried for any length of time.

COURT.—Speaking of the deeds to the Linn and Lane Timber Company now? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is the deed you had in your hand just now?

A. Yes, sir. (Referring to Smith deed to L. & L. T. Co.)

Q. And what was—what do you have to say about that deed of Nils O. Werner to the Linn and Lane Timber Company? A. That likewise was—

Mr. UELAND.—Wait a minute. We object because no averment in the bill that that deed was not executed at the time it purports to be.

COURT.—He is offering this for the purpose of comparison only, I suppose. [424]

Mr. McCOURT.—My recollection was that there was a similar allegation in there, but I can't recall now.

Mr. UELAND.—You are mistaken about that.

Mr. McCOURT.—I think the bill charges both these were executed later. No, it is not charged in the bill that it was antedated, but I offer it with the others for comparison.

Deed Smith & wife to L. & L. Timber Co. marked "U. S. Exhibit 155."

Deed Holmberg and wife to Smith, marked "U. S. Exhibit 156."

Deed Swanson and wife to L. & L. T. Co. marked "U. S. Exhibit 157."

Deed Trabert and wife to Smith, marked "U. S. Exhibit 158."

Deed Nelson and wife, to Smith, marked "U. S. Exhibit 159."

Deed Willd and wife to Smith, marked "U. S. Exhibit 160."

Deed Werner and wife to L. & T. Co., marked "U. S. Exhibit 161."

McCOURT.—I may want to identify further the Werner deed.

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. UELAND.)

In the questions which I shall put to you now on

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

cross-examination, I am going to speak of the fading of the ink and the fading of writing, whether it is by pen and ink or by typewriter, in the sense of its losing its freshness, not in the sense of it becoming indistinct.

A. I understand that, all right.

Q. Do you claim to have expert knowledge upon the subject of the fading of ink or of writing?
[425]

A. I do not claim to be an expert, but I have had considerable experience in that line of work.

Q. You don't claim to have expert knowledge on that subject?

A. Not expert; I have considerable knowledge, though.

Q. Have you had occasion to give special study to any case of the fading of ink, except in this instance? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Please state the case.

A. Well, my first experience began at a business college way back in 1898 at Spokane, Washington, and I followed it up ever since, and in the use of the typewriter—I have used one for several years, and I have kept track of that in a way, to see—to learn.

Q. Well, that would be the same experience then, that any one connected with typewriting would have upon that subject, wouldn't it?

A. Well, to a certain extent, yes.

Q. My question is whether you have had occasion in the past to study any special case where the age of a document was in question.

A. Yes, sir, I have had several—in pursuance of

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

that I was in Washington some years ago, and I had a chance to go back and find the Declaration of Independence and just used that—

Q. That is, you studied the Declaration of Independence?

A. I just studied the writing just to see what effect it would have.

Q. You studied to see how old the ink would be upon the Declaration of Independence. Is that the idea?

A. Yes, just to see the effect—how it faded, the impression the ink left. [426]

Q. What was your conclusion in inspecting the ink on the Declaration of Independence as to how old it was?

A. Well, that is hardly a fair question, inasmuch as we know the age of it.

Q. Referring to the deed from C. A. Smith and wife to the Linn and Lane Timber Company of June 4, 1906, that you have identified, was it the whole instrument that seemed to you to be new and fresh, or was it only particular parts of it?

A. Which instrument was that, please?

Q. (Read.)

A. The signatures in particular seemed to be fresh and the typewriting was fresher than the other instruments with the exception of that of the Holmberg.

Q. Was there, in your judgment, any difference in the age of the typewriting and in the signatures?

A. That would be—there was in my judgment, there was a little difference, but I would not—but I wouldn't attempt to give any definite time.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

Q. You would not be—you don't feel that you could conscientiously state it as your opinion that as a matter of fact, there was a difference in the age of the typewriting and the age of the signature?

A. No, I wouldn't at this time without referring to my notes—could not say that there was very much difference in the two. This is two years since I examined that.

Q. In your judgment was there any difference in the age of the signatures of Mr. Smith and Mrs. Smith and in the signatures of the subscribing witness and the Notary?

A. I don't remember that now. It seems to me that there—I wouldn't say; I don't remember about those. It seems to me, just as I remember it, that the signatures of Smith [427] himself, and wife were newer, but I could not say. I would not swear to that until I looked at my notes.

Q. You have now examined that deed and certain other deeds which you examined at the same time at the Recorder's office, have you not?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you think that you are able, at this time, in looking at these different deeds, to say which is the older without looking at the dates?

A. I think so, yes, sir.

Q. Well, we will try you on one and see. I show you document marked for identification Defendants' Exhibit "C" and ask you to look at it except—and ask you not to look at the first page where the date is, and not to look at the date of the acknowledgments.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

A. Well, it will be necessary for me to look at the signatures, too. They go with it.

Q. Yes, you may look at that. That is the second page, and there is the third page. Now, you may take Plaintiff's Exhibit 155, and make comparison and then state which you think is the older instrument.

A. On the face of it this shows to be the older instrument, but that ink—it might have been made at the same time.

Q. The fact is, you cannot tell which is.

A. You cannot tell right down to within a short period of time, of course.

Q. Within how short a period of time do you think you could tell?

A. Within six months or a year—something that way, with such a little lustre.

Q. Within six months or within a year?

A. That is a little bit newer. [428]

Q. You say that "Defendants' Exhibit 'C' for Identification" as shown you, is newer, or do you?

A. It looks to be a little newer there—probably is about the same time. The difference in the ink there would make some difference. There is a little difference in that ink. This is a newer piece of work than this.

Q. How much?

A. I would not say exactly how much. It might have been made within a month—probably somewhere near that time.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

Q. However, for all you can tell "Defendants' Exhibit 'C' for Identification" might have been made within a month or two?

A. So far as that part, not the signatures—that typewriting would not change so very much in a short time.

Q. As to those signatures, how recent might those have been made, for all you can tell?

A. Well, for all I can tell, they might have been made—they was evidently made—I want to hold it up to the light so I can tell.

Q. Don't look at the dates.

A. I won't look at the dates. I will be honest with you in that.

Q. You might see the certificate on the other side.

A. No, I won't. That appears to me to have been made about the same time—I examined the other deed.

Q. Now, what is your best judgment on that subject, whether it is the same age or a different age?

Mr. McCOURT.—Let him compare the signatures.

Q. Yes, indeed.

A. If you will hide the dates I want to hold them up to the light.

Q. All right.

A. I can't see it. Well, these appear to me to have been [429] made about the same time, yes, sir.

Q. Now, you keep that. (U. S. Ex. 155.)

A. This is the same age you just had here.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

Q. I now show you the second page of a document marked "Defendant's Exhibit 'D' for Identification," and ask you to state how old, in your opinion, that document is—typewriting and the signatures. There is the certificate again that I don't want you to examine.

Q. You are trying to get me into trouble.

Q. No, not at all.

A. Let me see that. Well, I can't tell any difference in that one. I can tell the difference in this one, but not the one you handed me previous.

Mr. LIND.—Which does he refer to by "this"?

Mr. UELAND.—My question will cover.

A. Let me have those two again, please. That ink shows a plainer signature—a more recent signature than this one.

Q. Is it your judgment that the signature on "Defendants' Exhibit 'D' for Identification" is more recent than it is on "Plaintiff's Exhibit 155"?

A. Yes, sir, but I would not swear it is very much, but it is some.

Q. How much would you say, in your opinion, it would be more recent? Give your best opinion.

A. Well, it might be a year. I should hate—I would not swear it would be, but it may be. It makes some difference where it has been kept. So many things enter into this writing proposition. It is very hard for even the best of us to tell.

Q. I show you two documents—one marked "Defendant's Exhibit 'E' for Identification" and the other marked "Defendant's Exhibit 'F' for Identification." I just hand you the [430] typewriting part of those two documents. Can you tell which is the older or whether they are the same age?

A. I—it is hard to tell on these. It is different—different kind of ink. The black looks to be the older, but I can't tell. The change in them—they are not the same. The change—the black—you ought to have two of the same kind of ink to compare them. I could compare them better.

Q. But your judgment is that the black—the one in black typewriting—is older than the one in blue typewriting?

A. It looks that way from here. I hate to compare that way. It is pretty hard to do.

Q. Indeed, you can't tell the difference in age.

A. You can—you can tell. My testimony in this case covers the deeds in question, and I would like to have those to answer from, if it is fair. My knowledge comes from these. No one can say from looking at them—the paper and the ink—

Q. Well, typewriting is typewriting, whether in a deed or any other documents, isn't it?

A. Oh, certainly; certainly.

Q. Now, would you please state where the typewriting, in your judgment, is the older in these two documents—if you can state, and if you can't please say so.

A. Let me take it. My judgment is that is the older one.

Mr. McCOURT.—The black one?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How much older, would you say?

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

A. I would not state how much older. It is on account of the difference in ink. It may not be any older so far as that goes, but it looks that way.

Q. Might not be any older?

A. Might not be. As a matter of fact, after I look at six [431] or eight or ten of those, a fellow—he is hardly capable of passing judgment on the age of it. You can get so many different shades and they all blend together.

Q. On the two documents that I just have shown you, I show you the signatures of John McCourt, the District Attorney. Which, in your judgment, is the older signature?

A. Turn it up to the light. I can't do anything without the light.

Q. Well, I don't want to show you the date.

A. Well, you have to take it so I can hold it to the light.

Q. Well, we will take it to the window.

A. Well, I have to have the light show through.

Q. I can't do that without showing the date underneath. That is the trouble.

A. I would not attempt—

Q. Can't you get the light this way?

A. You can't get the light so it will shine through the paper.

Q. Can't you get it this way?

A. No, I want it to shine through the paper. You can cut that out if you want to.

Q. No, the Court would not let me do that.

A. If I claimed to be an expert, it would be a different proposition. I might jump right at it and tell you, but I am not pretending to be an expert.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

Q. But you are no expert?

A. I just have some knowledge of it, as I testified.

Q. Well, please take and hold "Defendant's Exhibit 'E' for Identification" up to the light. Then, keeping the paper that way—that is, "Defendant's Exhibit 'E' for Identification."

A. Now hold the other up there.

Q. That is "Defendant's Exhibit 'F' for Identification." [432]

A. Let me see this other one. I believe the other is the older—the signature. It shows the older. It looks to me that way, holding it up here in the dark.

Mr. UELAND.—May it be stated that the instrument which the witness thinks is the older as to the signature is the amended bill, and the one which he thinks is the more recent is the original bill.

Mr. GEARIN.—How much time elapsed between the two?

Mr. UELAND.—About six months.

A. I only got one chance to get out of that. I told him the names showed the other way. That was my testimony.

Q. I show you the typewritten matter on "Defendant's Exhibit 'G' for Identification" without showing you the signature and the date at the foot of it. How old, in your judgment, is that typewriting?

A. I don't think that is over six months.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

Q. Tell as near as you can how old.

A. Let me have it just a minute, please. I don't think it is over six months. I would not say under that. I would not make any estimate under six months as to the age of the thing.

Q. Is that as near as you can tell the age of it?

A. Yes, sir, that is as near as I can tell.

Q. Well, you notice, now you see the signature, it is dated the 21st day of April, 1910, don't you?

A. Well, that has been made—that is as near as anyone probably could tell—six months.

Mr. UELAND.—May the record show that this is the complainant's amendment to the bill filed the 21st of April, 1910.

A. A good thing I don't claim as an expert.

Mr. LIND.—He used the term "smudge."

Q. What do you mean by the term "smudge"? I think you used [433] that.

A. I term a smudge when I want to make a copy, or anything, I take a piece of paper and rub my pencil over it and I copy it.

Q. Will you say whether the typewriting on Plaintiff's Exhibit 155 won't smudge any at this time?

A. That one does not. That does not.

Q. Look carefully and see if it does not smudge.

A. No, sir, not the way it did the day I examined it there.

Q. That is not the question. Does it smudge now?

A. No. It may smudge a little, but not so plainly as when I examined it.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

Q. So your answer is it smudges a little now, but does not smudge as much as it did?

A. I will not answer it smudges now at all. It did smudge when I examined it—

Q. Doesn't it depend a little upon—

A. —that is not smudging there. That is nothing but dirt off his fingers. That is dirt. That is not smudging.

Q. Isn't that smudging? Is that dirt?

A. That seems to be a smudge there, but your finger is damp, isn't it? A little moist? That is a smudge there, I would call it.

Q. Without spending much time on it, you notice, do you not, that the typewriting of Plaintiff's Exhibit 155 does smudge some, even now?

A. It does with continued rubbing, but you simply didn't have to touch it when I examined it before; just barely touch your fingers to it.

Q. You can tell, can you not, from the appearance of typewriting on Exhibit 155, that it must have been letter-press [434] copy?

A. What was that again? Read that over again.

Q. (Read.)

A. I could not tell whether—I am not up on any letter-press copying; have not done any of it.

Q. Do you mean to say that you cannot even tell whether carbon copies have been taken from typewriting after you inspect it?

A. What is that again?

Q. (Read.) I mean, press copy.

A. Well, this looks to me like original. I could not say. It might have been one copy. It might not; not more than one—looks like the original.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

Q. But can you tell or can you not tell whether a press copy has been taken from the typewriter of Plaintiff's Exhibit 155?

A. From this there might have been several taken under that.

Mr. McCOURT.—You understand he means copied in a book with water? Pressed in a letter press?

A. I have not used any, so I would not say. I have not used any at all.

Q. So you cannot tell that? A. No.

Mr. LIND.—You have never used a letter-press copy?

A. No, sir, not of the typewriter. I am not a bookkeeper nor a clerk.

Mr. LIND.—Did you ever operate a copying press— A. No, sir.

Q. For copying typewriting? A. Never.

Redirect Examination.

Q. You say, Mr. Cowgill, you can't tell by looking at the writing, within six months of the age, at any time, of the [435] writing—the typewriting?

A. Will you read that again, please?

Q. (Read.)

A. Did I testify to that? I testified that I couldn't tell in that case, didn't I?

Q. I understood you to say that you were not able to tell at any time within six months of the age of a document by merely inspecting it.

A. I didn't intend to testify that. Maybe I did. If it is there I would like to change that, because there is times when you can, you know.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

Q. There are times? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When are they?

A. For instance, in that last instrument where I examined there, where it was only made recently. It showed that—the signature showed recently, but he had two kinds of ink up before me. One ink confused me. Which is the older—I told him the name on the other was the older. I was right in that case, but the confusion of inks put me off.

Q. I invite your attention to Government's Exhibit 155, and ask you to compare the signatures of Charles A. Smith and Johanna A. Smith and state whether or not they were signed at the same time, in your opinion.

Mr. LIND.—That is objected to. The witness has not shown himself to be competent.

Mr. McCOURT.—I withdraw the question. I don't think it is important. A. It was.

Q. You think it was.

Mr. UELAND.—I move to strike that out.

COURT.—I don't think that is competent. [436]

Mr. McCOURT.—I withdrew the question before he answered it.

COURT.—You can strike that out.

Mr. McCOURT.—Did you put those exhibits in evidence?

Mr. UELAND.—I have no objection to my offers going in evidence, if you wish. I have identified them. You can offer them as your evidence. I don't care to offer any evidence just at this time.

(Testimony of Ralph P. Cowgill.)

You are at liberty to have them.

Mr. McCOURT.—You can keep them and offer them when you get ready.

WITNESS.—There is one thing I wish you would insert in there. That is, my answer to those names on those two papers.

Q. What names?

A. Those last two that I identified the signatures, you know, but not the typewriting, identified right, but when he told her to put the answer down, that was left out of it.

Q. It is not important.

A. I am not testifying as an expert.

Mr. UELAND.—May the records show that “Defendant’s Exhibit ‘G’ for Identification” is—

Mr. McCOURT—Shows amendment of date the 21st day of April, 1910.

Mr. UELAND.—Rather, it is the copy we received with the District Attorney’s signature and made at that time.

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, made at that date.

Witness excused. [437]

Testimony of Louis R. Glavis, taken in Case No. 3320, and stipulated to be used in this case as if taken herein.

[Testimony of Louis R. Glavis, for the Government.]

LOUIS R. GLAVIS, a witness called on behalf of the Government, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Where do you live, Mr. Glavis?

(Testimony of Louis R. Glavis.)

A. White Salmon, Washington.

Q. What official position, if any, did you occupy in the years 1908 and 1909?

A. I was Chief of Field Division of the General Land Office with headquarters at Portland part of the time, and part of the time at Seattle, Washington.

Q. Over what did your district extend?

A. It included the State of Oregon, and at a later date, it included Alaska and Western Washington.

Q. Do you recall—you are not in the service now? A. No.

Q. Do you recall, Mr. Glavis, the matter of bringing suits against C. A. Smith and others relative to a large tract of land in Linn County, on behalf of the Government? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You recall that those suits were brought about May 25, 1908? A. Yes.

Q. When was the matter of these lands brought to your attention prior to bringing the suit?

A. During the first part of May, 1908, as I recall, and certain papers were turned over to me as Chief of the [438] Field Division by Mr. Neuhausen; and it was found then that suits had not been barred against a large number of entries, among which were these entries.

Q. What did you do towards ascertaining the condition of the title to those lands, and when, relative to the commencement of the suit, and under whose direction— A. Why—

Q. —or at whose request?

A. —I—about a week, I think, prior to the bringing of the suits, an examination was made of the county records.

(Testimony of Louis R. Glavis.)

Q. What examination was made of the county records?

A. Why, I directed Special Agents to go to the county seats and examine all the records there to ascertain just what transfers had been made, mortgages and everything that the records would disclose; in other words, to make an abstract of the title.

Q. How many agents did you send to Albany for that purpose?

A. Well, I can't recall exactly because we—we investigated the title of a large number of cases, among which were these entries, but as I recall at this time, there were three or four agents that investigated the titles at certain periods.

Q. And did those agents report to you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And what did you do with the material which they furnished you?

A. I referred them to the United States Attorney.

Q. Did you yourself make any personal examination of the record in Linn County?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you remember the name of the agent who had the matter in charge, of the abstracts? [439]

A. The one—the first examination of the county records was made by Special Agent Barton, as I recall, and I am sure that there were other agents, but

(Testimony of Louis R. Glavis.)

I can't recall their names now.

Q. You intimate that there was more than one examination? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What were the subsequent examinations made for?

A. After I submitted the abstracts of title to you, you called my attention to a statement made by somebody that there were other transfers—other transfers that had been made, and you suggested that I have another investigation made. And it was at that period that I sent another agent there to check up the first agent.

Q. Now, when was the—when was it brought to your attention that the Linn and Lane Timber Company claimed any interest in these lands?

Mr. UELAND.—Objected to as immaterial.

Mr. McCOURT.—I want to show diligence in ascertaining whether or not there was any claim on the part of the Linn and Lane Timber Company or anyone else that we did not make parties.

COURT.—He may answer.

A. I first heard of the Linn and Lane Timber Company's connection with these entries after the filing of the suits.

Q. Do you remember the date?

A. Why, it was—no, I can't recall the date. I remember sending Special Agent Cowgill down the day after I heard, or the same day I heard, I think I gave him instructions to go down.

Q. I hand you a memorandum which purports to be a letter from Mr. Cowgill; state if that refreshes your memory as to the date when you had your attention drawn to the Linn [440] and Lane Timber Company's claim. A. Yes, sir.

(Testimony of Louis R. Glavis.)

Q. What was that date?

A. September 19, 1908.

Q. What did you do pursuant to that notice?

A. What is that?

Q. (Read.)

Mr. UELAND.—Objected to as immaterial.

Mr. McCOURT.—I don't know as it has any materiality, except that he went immediately.

Q. Did Mr. Cowgill go and make an examination of the records which he has testified to here, pursuant to your instructions?

A. Yes, sir, I directed him to do that.

Mr. McCOURT.—If the Court please, under the counsel's attitude in this case, it seems to me it will become necessary for me to have the officials of Linn County to come down here with their records to demonstrate there was nothing on them to show that the Linn and Lane Timber Company ever claimed anything so far as the records show. I don't believe that is necessary. We have had a careful examination made and the records disclose nothing.

Mr. GEARIN.—It isn't necessary.

Mr. McCOURT.—I understand that counsel will not concede that unless I can show it. If there is anything in the record and you know about it—

Mr. UELAND.—Have we denied what you have stated in the bill about that? I think our answer is perfectly truthful, and if you examine our answer

(Testimony of Louis R. Glavis.)

I think you will find that there is no denial of that that I know of, [441] but it seems to me to come in here and put on record an admission that is so wide in its scope on the spur of the moment, it might contain admissions that we don't intend to make.

COURT.—If the counsel can't agree, you will have to make your case by proof.

Q. Did I ask you, Mr. Glavis, whether or not you made a personal examination yourself?

A. Yes.

Q. You answered you did not? A. Yes.

No cross-examination.

Witness excused. [442]

Testimony of L. M. Curl, taken in Case No. 3320, and stipulated to be used in this case as if taken herein.

[Testimony of L. M. Curl, for the Government.]

L. M. CURL, a witness called on behalf of the Government, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Where do you live, Mr. Curl?

A. I live in Albany.

Q. How long have you lived in Albany?

A. 25 years.

Q. What is your business, Mr. Curl?

A. I am an attorney at law.

Q. Do you conduct any business in connection with your law business?

(Testimony of L. M. Curl.)

A. I am principal owner and manager of Albany Abstract Company.

Q. In connection with that Abstract Company, have you yourself performed any of the labor of searching the records of Linn County?

A. I have.

Q. Are you familiar with those records?

A. I think so.

Q. And in such search, have you had occasion to examine documents in typewriting, and written in ink, frequently?

A. I have some knowledge of typewriting.

Q. Was your attention called to a deed from Charles A. Smith to the Linn & Lane Timber Company about the 11th of September, 1908, by Mr. Cowgill, special agent of the Government? [443]

A. My attention was called to such a deed. I am unable to state the exact date.

Q. Where was the deed at the time you saw it?

A. It had just been filed with the recorder of conveyances of Linn County.

Q. And was in his possession? A. It was.

Q. Were there a number of other deeds there at the same time, delivered there to the recorder by the same people, or do you recall?

A. I do not remember but the one deed.

Q. Would you know that deed if you saw it?

A. I think so.

Q. I hand you Government's Exhibit 155, and ask you if that is the deed that you refer to, which you saw there at that time?

(Testimony of L. M. Curl.)

A. That is the deed.

Q. What was the condition of that deed at that time, or rather what was the appearance of that deed at that time, as to being a recently made document, or one of some age?

A. My attention was directed especially to the signatures of the grantors, and as I remember it, it presented a strikingly fresh appearance, while the deed bore date something like two years previous to that time.

Q. Did you have occasion to examine the deed some time later, while it was still in the hands of the recorder? A. I did.

Q. How much later?

A. Well, I could not state exactly; probably two or three weeks or a month after that time. It remained in [444] the office some time.

Q. What was its appearance then, at this later examination, as compared with your first examination of it, especially the signatures?

A. Well, I think it was very much the same. possibly the signatures appeared to be a little drier, if anything, than they had before.

Q. You speak of them appearing to be a little drier. What was the condition of the signatures as to dampness, that is, the ink?

A. It appeared to be quite fresh.

Q. Would you make any statement as to how recently the signatures appeared to have been placed there?

(Testimony of L. M. Curl.)

A. Well, I could not tell as to that. The character of the ink might have a good deal to do with that, and I am not sufficiently expert to determine those matters.

Q. I will ask you, Mr. Curl, if you, as manager of the Albany Abstract Company, have made an examination of the records of Linn County?

A. I have.

Q. Especially the offices of recorder of conveyances, county clerk, sheriff's office, assessor's office, with a view to determining when the Linn & Lane Timber Company first appears upon those records as having any interest in these lands in controversy in this suit, or any other lands?

A. I have examined the records for the purpose stated so far as the recorder's office, the clerk's office, and the sheriff's office are concerned. I also examined the assessment-rolls of the county, which rolls are in possession of the sheriff and the clerk.

[445]

Q. When does the Linn & Lane Timber Company first appear there upon those records in any capacity?

A. There are three deeds by which they obtained title to lands in Linn County. They were recorded on the 9th of September, 1908, as I recall it. One was from Smith and wife; another was from Swanson; and another was from Nels O. Werner. Those are the only conveyances making title to the Linn & Lane Timber Company in the county.

Q. Does the name of the company appear anywhere else prior to that on the record?

(Testimony of L. M. Curl.)

A. I did not find it in the assessment-rolls except for the year 1909, and I did not find it anywhere else in the records.

Q. Except as you have indicated?

A. Except as I have stated.

Q. In any of those offices you have mentioned?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your attention called to other deeds there at that time purporting to have been made at the same time, and if so, did you make any comparison between the signatures upon them, and the signatures upon this?

A. I do not remember that my attention was called to any deed except the one concerning which I have testified.

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. UELAND.)

Mr. Curl, do I understand you to say that the typewriting on this deed, No. 155, looked to be older than the signatures?

A. I do not remember that my attention was directed [446] to the typewriting.

Q. You made the statement that the typewriting looked something like two years old, in your direct examination.

A. If I did, it was an oversight.

Q. You do not mean to be so understood?

A. I do not.

Q. Your attention was merely called to the signatures?

A. My attention was called to the deed. I say,

(Testimony of L. M. Curl.)

my attention was directed to the deed, especially to the signatures.

Q. When you refer to the signatures looking at that time as of recent date, do you refer to all the signatures on the deed—those of the grantors, those of the subscribing witnesses, and that of the notary?

A. I do not have a distinct recollection that any of them bore such a resemblance except the signatures of the grantors.

Q. You have no recollection as to the other signatures, mainly, those of the witnesses, and of the notary looking fresh? A. I do not.

Q. Are you familiar, Mr. Curl, with the different inks in use in this country?

A. No, I am not especially skilled in that line.

Q. You are aware that different inks are in common use, are you not? A. Certainly.

Q. Ink of different qualities, some black, some bluish, some of other use?

A. I find various kinds on the records there.
[447]

Q. I now come to use the term “fading of ink,” or of writing, in the sense that it is losing its freshness and becoming older in appearance, so you would understand my use of the terms in that sense, Mr. Curl, do you not? A. I have made no special study.

Q. In examining you from now on, I am going to speak of the fading of ink, and of writing, in the sense of its losing its freshness and becoming older in appearance. You will please understand my use of the terms in that sense, will you not? A. I will.

Q. Have you ever observed, or had occasion to observe, whether the different inks fade equally fast?

(Testimony of L. M. Curl.)

A. According to my observation, they do not.

Q. They do not? Which ink with which you may be familiar fades quicker than other inks with which you may be familiar?

A. Well, the different grades of black ink will fade quicker than blue or green.

Q. The black fades quicker, you say?

A. Yes.

Q. And what is bluish fades slower?

A. That is my understanding.

Q. Have you had occasion to observe, Mr. Curl, whether writing by a pen with fine point, from which but little ink flows, fades quicker or slower, than writing with a stub pen, from which ink flows more freely?

A. I am not very well skilled in those matters. I could only draw a conclusion, which might be right or wrong. [448]

Q. What would your opinion be about that?

A. My opinion is that the heavier stroke would fade more slowly.

Q. Will you now take that exhibit, and tell the Court whether the signatures of the grantors are not in bluish ink, while the signatures of the witnesses and notary are in black?

A. The signatures of the grantors at the time I examined the deed.

Q. Just excuse me. I wish you would just answer the question.

(Question read.)

(Testimony of L. M. Curl.)

A. That was what I intended to state.

Q. That is a fact, is it not?

A. The signatures of the grantors were in blue, a bright blue, or almost a green color. But I do not remember distinctly about the signatures of the witnesses.

Q. Mr. Curl, you have the instrument now before you. Can't you state, from what you see of the instrument now, that the signatures of the grantors are in bluish ink, while the signatures of the subscribing witnesses and the notary are in black ink?

A. The signatures of the witnesses are apparently in black ink, while the signatures of the grantors seem to be considerably faded from what it was before and yet in blue ink.

Q. Do you want to be understood, Mr. Curl, that the signatures on that instrument of the grantors and the signatures of the subscribing witnesses and the notary are in the same ink? [449]

A. I do not so understand it.

Q. You can see even now that they are in different ink, can you not?

A. They appear to be different, yes.

Q. You have no doubt about that, have you?

A. My judgment is it is in different ink.

Q. Yes, they are in different ink, and the difference is that the signatures of the witnesses and the notary are in black, and the signatures of the grantors in bluish ink? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Please look at those signatures again, Mr. Curl, and tell the Court, if you can, whether the signatures of the witnesses and of the notary are not by a fine pointed pen, while the signatures of the grantors are made by a stub pen?

(Testimony of L. M. Curl.)

A. The signatures of the witnesses are apparently made with a finer pointed pen than the signatures of the grantors.

Mr. UELAND.—Will you now please hand the instrument up to the Court, so the Court may see the instrument. (Witness does so.)

Q. From what you have stated, Mr. Curl, you would expect the signatures of the grantors to look fresher and newer than the signatures of the subscribing witnesses and the signature of the notary, would you not?

A. Green ink or blue ink of the kind that was on that deed—

Q. Well, just as you find it on this instrument.

A. Yes, it will last much longer than black ink.

Witness excused. [450]

Testimony of Grant Froman, taken in Case No. 3320, and stipulated to be used in this case as if taken herein.

[Testimony of Grant Froman, for the Government.]

GRANT FROMAN, a witness called on behalf of the Government, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Where do you live, Mr. Froman?

A. Albany.

Q. How long have you lived there?

A. I lived in Albany about 25 years.

(Testimony of Grant Froman.)

Q. What official position do you occupy in Linn County?

A. I hold the office of recorder of conveyances for Linn County.

Q. Linn County, Oregon?

A. Linn County, Oregon.

Q. How long have you occupied that office?

A. I was elected in 1906, June 1st.

Q. Held the office continuously since that time?

A. Continuously during this time.

Q. You were recorder there in September, 1908?

A. I was.

Q. Were you there personally during that month?

A. Yes, it is my recollection that I was.

Q. I hand you Government's Exhibit 155, and ask you if you were there at the time that was offered for filing, or recording, rather?

A. Yes, sir. I filed that personally. My signature is to it.

Q. Of the date it bears upon its back there, the 9th [451] of September, 1908?

A. 9th of September, 1908.

Q. Do you remember, about the 10th day of September, or the 11th, of that same year 1908, Mr. Cowgill, a special agent of the Government, calling your attention specially to that deed and the signatures thereon?

A. My recollection is there was someone—I don't remember his name—that called my attention to the signature, yes.

Q. You recall that event? A. I do.

Q. What appearance did the instrument have at that time, the signatures thereon especially, as to being placed there recently, or having some age, etc.?

(Testimony of Grant Froman.)

A. Well, I don't know as I am expert in that line, to testify in behalf as to the age.

Q. I don't ask you to testify as to its age. I ask you to testify as to its appearance.

A. I would say it had a rather fresh look, the signature of the grantor.

Q. Do you recall whether or not you examined the signatures of the witnesses at that time?

A. I do not.

Q. You don't remember that?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Your office, or yourself, furnished me, the United States Attorney, with copies of a large number of mortgages and deeds recently, which have been offered in evidence in this case? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Does the face of the records from which you made copies of mortgages, show satisfactions thereof, if [452] they have been satisfied?

A. All that has been satisfied, shows on the face of the original of the copy as it shows of record. And it would also show on those certified copies as it appears of record.

Q. Now, aside from the record of those mortgages, have you made any special examination of your records to determine whether or not any of the mortgages which have been offered in evidence in this case were ever satisfied of record in your county?

A. Yes, I have.

Q. Have any of those mortgages ever been satisfied?

(Testimony of Grant Froman.)

A. None, other than what the certified copies show of record that I have made here.

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. UELAND.)

I understand you to say, Mr. Froman, that the special agent called your attention to the signatures of the grantor on this deed to which you have referred?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. But that you do not remember your attention being called to the other parts of the document?

A. No, I don't. I don't remember.

Q. You say that at that time the signatures of the grantors looked to you as being fresh? I think that is the expression that you used?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you feel, or did you at that time, feel, able to determine how fresh?

A. No. As I stated, I do not feel as I am expert [453] enough to testify to how long, or anything in that respect, to the age, no.

Q. For aught you could tell at that time, those signatures having not been exposed to the light, they might have been two years old, for all you could tell, might they not?

A. I wouldn't say as to that. Only it looked, as I have stated, it looked as though it had been freshly written.

Q. Yes, but from your experience, you do not feel that you could tell within a couple of years, as to when those signatures had actually been made, do you?

A. Well, it looked to me as though it had been freshly written, as I have stated.

(Testimony of Grant Froman.)

Q. What do you mean by freshly written?

A. Well, I mean within a reasonable time.

Q. And what do you mean by a reasonable time?

A. It looked similar to a signature that had been made with a fountain-pen ink.

Q. Yes, but I want the Court to understand what you mean by fresh, or a reasonable time.

A. Well, I should say something like five or six months—something similar to that.

Q. About five or six months. Have you had occasion to observe that signatures made by a stub pen, from which the ink flows freely so as to make heavy writing—

A. No, I have not.

Q. I had not completed the question. You do not know whether writing from a stub-pen, from which the ink flows freely, retains its freshness longer than writing from a pen with a fine point, from which the ink flows sparsely? [454]

A. I am unable to say in regard to that.

Q. You cannot say? A. No, I cannot say.

Q. Look at the signatures to the document that you have now in your hand, to which you have testified. Is it not a fact, Mr. Froman, that the signatures of the grantors, to which you have referred, appear to have been written by a stub-pen, or fountain-pen, with heavier ink than the signatures of the witnesses?

A. I am not expert enough to distinguish the difference whether it was written with a stub fountain-pen or not.

Q. You cannot tell that? A. No, sir.

(Testimony of Grant Froman.)

Q. Can you tell that the signatures of the grantors are made with different ink than the signatures of the witnesses?

A. It looks to be with different ink.

Q. Isn't it a fact that, being in a different ink, the signature of the grantors looks comparatively fresher even now than the signatures of the witnesses?

A. Well, there are so many different inks it is hard to determine on that matter.

Q. Well, you can tell that the signatures of the grantors are in different ink, can you not?

A. It looks to be different ink, yes, sir.

Q. A bluish ink, or bluish tint?

A. It is more of a bluish tint.

Q. While the signatures of the witnesses are in black ink?

A. The signatures of the witnesses are more of a black, yes, sir.

Q. You never had occasion to observe whether bluish ink retains its freshness longer than black ink?

A. No, sir, I could not testify as to that. [455]

[Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse, for the Government.]

IRVINE RITTENHOUSE, a witness called on behalf of the Government, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

(Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse.)

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Q. Where do you live, Mr. Rittenhouse?

A. Washington, D. C.

Q. What official capacity do you occupy there, or serve?

A. I am at present Chief of the Division of Accounts in the General Land Office.

Q. What were you doing in January and February, 1905, and prior to that time?

A. I was detailed out here to Oregon with Mr. Burns and Mr. Heney as a clerk in the General Land Office.

Q. Who did you work with while you were here in January, 1905?

A. I worked with both Mr. Burns and Mr. Heney.

Q. Are you a stenographer? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Shorthand reporter? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you at that time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I hand you a check of March 8, 1901, drawn upon the First National Bank of Roseburg for $400, payable to "Yourselves," signed Fred A. Kribs, this check being marked "Government's Exhibit 171 for Identification" in case 3320, and ask you if you have seen that instrument before?

A. Yes, sir, I have seen this check before.

Q. What was the occasion of your first seeing that check?

A. It was in January or February, 1905, in connection with the taking of some affidavits from Fred A. Kribs that I first saw the check with some others.

(Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse.)

Q. Was it delivered to Mr. Burns by Mr. Kribs in your presence?

A. Yes, sir, I think it was with some other checks that Mr. [456] Kribs delivered.

Q. Did Mr. Kribs make any statement to Mr. Burns in your presence, and which you made note of at the time of delivering that check, as to—in explanation of the check?

Mr. LIND.—That may be answered by yes or no.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you—what did you do in regard to that statement or explanation that Mr. Kribs made?

A. I took it down in shorthand.

Q. And after you had taken it in shorthand, what did you do with it?

A. Immediately transcribed it.

Q. Did you make an accurate transcription of it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it submitted to Mr. Kribs when you made it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And what did he do with it?

A. He read over it and signed it, swore to the affidavit—in the form of an affidavit it was gotten up.

Q. Delivered it to you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I hand you what purports to be an affidavit of Fred A. Kribs, dated the 16th day of January, 1905, and ask you whether or not that is the statement or affidavit which you refer to?

A. This is the statement that he made in connection with this check.

(Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse.)

Q. Were you present when Mr. Kribs signed it?

A. Yes sir, I saw Mr. Kribs sign that.

Q. Did he sign it on the date it purports?

A. Yes, sir, he signed it on that date.

Q. And how did that date accord with the date at which he [457] delivered you the check, or delivered Mr. Burns the check in your presence?

A. It was the same date, as my recollection is now.

Q. Do you recall, without this statement which you reduced to writing, what Mr. Kribs said at the time, or does reading it refresh your memory as to what he said?

A. Well, the reading of it would refresh my memory, but I recall Mr. Kribs' statement even without the affidavit, as to this check, that is, the general statement. His accurate statement, of course, is in that affidavit.

Q. What did Mr. Kribs say about that—

Mr. LIND.—One moment.

Mr. McCOURT.—Just wait a moment. I will put a little more to it.

Q. I show you what purports to be a stub of a check and ask you if that was delivered with the check?

A. Yes, sir, this stub was delivered with the check.

Q. I will now renew the former question. (Question read as follows: What did Mr. Kribs say about that?)

Mr. LIND.—That, your Honor, is objected to, first

(Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse.)

as hearsay. The objection is made by the defendants whom we represent. Secondly, any statement made by anyone in anywise connected with the title to this land subsequent to his conveyance of that title and subsequent to the issuance of the patents by the Government on which that title was based, is incompetent and irrelevant. And generally in addition to the other objections, evidence of this character is not responsive to any issue in the case. I repeat again that the evidence is clearly hearsay. What Mr. Kribs or any other person may have said before the Government inquisitor in 1905 is not evidence in this case against our clients. [458]

COURT.—Mr. Kribs is a party to this suit, I understand. It will be evidence against him in case he has any interest, but I don't think it is evidence against your clients. I don't think any declaration that any grantor might have made after parting with the title could bind the objecting defendants; nor is the declaration of a conspirator after the conspiracy is consummated, evidence against anyone except himself. It will be admitted as against Mr. Kribs.

Mr. TANNER.—I would like to make the same objection for my client.

COURT.—If Mr. Kribs has any interest in this controversy this will be competent against him.

Mr. LIND.—Of course, there is no allegation he has any interest in the title.

COURT.—The Government is asking in this suit to recover damages from some of these people for fraud, and for that purpose it will be admitted.

(Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse.)

Q. (Read as follows: What did Mr. Kribs say about that?)

A. In connection with that check, Mr. Kribs explained that he gave it to Mr. Stratford, or rather, he drew the money on the check for Mr. Stratford—Mr. E. D. Stratford, a Special Agent of the General Land Office, who at the time was investigating some Timber and Stone entries here in Oregon, and gave the money to Mr. Stratford for some land which he owned—he, Mr. Stratford owned—and paid for the land in excess of what Mr. Kribs thought its real value was. In addition to that check Mr. Kribs also stated at the same time that he had paid Mr. Stratford some other money without any consideration outside of—at a time when he was financially embarrassed in some way or other. That, in a general way, is the statement that Mr. Kribs made at that time. [459]

Q. Did Mr. Kribs in that conversation or in that explanation state how much in excess of the value of the land he had paid Mr. Stratford?

A. Yes, sir, he said that he considered the land worth about $6.00 an acre and paid him $10.00 an acre for it.

Q. How much of a tract did he say it was?

A. Forty acres.

Q. Forty acres. Do you recall, without looking at this memorandum, the amounts that he had paid Mr. Stratford besides the check?

A. Paid him $300 on two different occasions—$175 one time and $125 another.

Q. Did he make any statement in that connection as to how the—when the payments related, or how they related as to dates, in connection with taking a number of affidavits in connection with land entries?

(Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse.)

A. Well, my recollection is that it was at the time Mr. Stratford was investigating these timber and stone entries, or shortly prior to that time, and as to whether the payments were made before or after, I don't recall exactly. Those are about the time Mr. Kribs found out that Mr. Stratford was to make investigation of the claims.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer the check in evidence.

Mr. LIND.—Same objection so far as the defendants we represent are concerned.

COURT.—Same ruling.

Check marked "Government's Exhibit 66."

Q. Do you remember anything about the exact dates of any of these payments aside from an examination of the memorandum?

A. No, I could not say I would remember the exact date of payments. [460]

Q. Will you look at the memorandum and see if that refreshes your memory as to the dates? If it does not, don't answer it.

A. Yes, this memorandum would refresh my memory as to the dates, as stated by Mr. Kribs, of the payments.

Q. Well, aside from the memorandum do you recall the date that he mentioned?

A. No, I could not say that I would recall it without this memorandum.

Q. (Mr. McCOURT.) I offer the memorandum in evidence, if the Court please, in connection with the witness's testimony, to more accurately fix the date of these payments.

(Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse.)

COURT.—Is the statement signed by Mr. Kribs?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, your Honor.

Mr. LIND.—We make the same objection, your Honor, that we did.

Mr. TANNER.—I desire to object for Mr. Kribs as irrelevant and immaterial.

COURT.—It will be admitted as to Kribs.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 67."

COURT.—What is the date of the patent of the Government in this case?

Mr. UELAND.—As to the 17 claims in controversy in this suit, as I remember it, 8 of the patents are dated July 9, 1902, and the remainder August 12, 1902.

Mr. McCOURT.—I have some letters here from Mr. Kribs to Mr. Tanner relative to the taking of the affidavits in this case especially, which I would like to introduce in evidence to show the connection of Mr. Kribs with the taking of the affidavit.

Mr. TANNER.—I desire to note an objection to these letters and telegrams as privileged communications, passing [461] between attorney and client, with reference to these matters, also as being immaterial and irrelevant. I don't object particularly except as they encumber the record. They are privileged communications as between attorney and client with reference to these matters.

Mr. McCOURT.—These letters were delivered

(Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse.)

into the hands of the Government, as I understand it, by Mr. Tanner, and I don't know that I am prepared to say that that objection that they are privileged communication, is not well taken. They are letters to Mr. Tanner showing the progress of the taking of the affidavits and the—

Mr. LIND.—Is that a proper statement? If they are not properly in the records we don't want them there by way of the District Attorney.

COURT.—You might submit them to me and I will reserve my ruling.

Mr. LIND.—I ask to have that statement stricken out, for the time being.

COURT.—The statement will be stricken out. If it is a privileged communication it should not be in the record.

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. LIND.)

Mr. Rittenhouse, how long were you here in January or February of 1905?

A. I was here the whole month of January and I was here until the 18th day of February. I think that was the date that I left Portland.

Q. What was your—what was the general character of the work—your work, during that period?

A. I was taking charge of the evidence as it was collected in connection with the land fraud cases that were being put [462] before the Grand Jury at that time. Was taking affidavits of various people in connection with the investigations, and acting as stenographer for both Mr. Hency and Mr. Burns; had charge of all the documents and records.

(Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse.)

Q. Were you present when a great many timber and stone entrymen were examined?

A. Yes, sir, I took all the affidavits.

Q. You took all the affidavits?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you present when other witnesses were examined?

A. Yes—not in the grand-jury room, though.

Q. In whose office did you hold forth?

A. In Mr. Heney's room over here in the hotel—in the Portland Hotel.

Q. He was the representative of the Attorney General's Office for the Government here, was he?

A. Yes, sir, he was Special Assistant to the Attorney General at that time, I think. No, no; at that time, he was United States Attorney. He was appointed to succeed Mr. Hall.

Q. He was the United States—acting United States Attorney of this district at that time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who else participated in the work in which you and he were engaged?

A. William J. Burns and—

Q. Who was William J. Burns?

A. Who is he?

Q. Yes. A. Well—

Q. He is on the way here we were told by the District Attorney the other day, and we want to know who he is—what manner of man.

A. I think he is now—he runs a private detective agency in New York or Chicago. [463]

Q. What was his capacity, official capacity at that time, if he had any?

(Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse.)

A. He was a Special Agent of the General Land Office at that time.

Q. For what purpose?

A. Why in connection with these land fraud investigations here.

Q. He was a detective? He was the detective—chief of detectives for the Government, was he?

A. He was appointed a Special Agent for the General Land Office.

Q. What did he do? What was the character of his work?

A. What was the character of his work here?

Q. Yes.

A. He had—he supervised various other Special Agents and would interview entrymen, gather evidence, one thing and another.

Q. For what purpose did he interview the entrymen?

A. Why, to determine whether or not there was any fraud committed, and present such evidence as was secured before the Grand Jury.

Q. What was the object of taking the affidavits? Why were the affidavits taken?

A. I suppose for the same purpose that they keep books in business houses; so they will know what their business is.

Q. Couldn't that have been served by taking a statement of the witnesses.

A. You mean without having them swear to it?

Q. Yes. A. Why, I suppose it could.

Q. Were the witnesses sworn before they were

(Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse.)

examined or afterwards? [464]

A. Afterwards; that is—

Q. Who prepared the affidavits?

A. I would take their statements down in shorthand and they were sworn before they made the statement and then they were sworn to the affidavit when it was written out.

Q. You took the statement down in shorthand?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. By way of question and answer?

A. Well, sometimes that way, and then some made general statement.

Q. And you reduced, when questions and answers, when that was the course pursued, you reduced the questions and answers to a narrative form?

A. No, not necessarily in narrative form. If questions and answers, I would take it that way, but the entryman was asked to make a statement of his connection with what was being investigated, and he would make it and I would take it and transcribe it.

Q. Then, the affidavits are your version of the statement?

A. Oh, no; no, indeed. They are the statement of the affiants, the people who made the statements; not my version.

Q. Do you say that the affiants dictated the statements the same as I would dictate a letter to my stenographer?

A. Well, not exactly that way. They would— they wouldn't start off like you would start off dictating a letter, but they would make a statement concerning their connection and I would take the statement down.

(Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse.)

Q. And then you would reduce that to writing, which is your version of their statement, rather than haec verba statement of the affiant, isn't it?

A. No, it wasn't my version, because I took down what they said, and they would always read it over themselves before [465] they would sign it and swear to it. It was their own statement. I didn't twist their language around.

COURT.—Let me see that affidavit.

Q. Now, the grand jury was in session at this time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were—was there any talk between W. J. Burns or Heney in your presence to these affiants, what the effect would be if they did not make statements or sign affidavits?

A. No, I don't recall any statements as to that effect.

Q. Do you recall of either Burns or Heney using violent language to any of these affiants?

A. No, sir.

Q. Never? A. No, sir.

Q. Never anything said by either about their being sent to State's prison?

A. No, sir, nothing at all like that. That is—that was—they never said anything about State prison. That was all in the minds of the entrymen themselves.

Q. Anything said about their cases being taken before the grand jury? A. No, sir.

(Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse.)

Q. Nothing? How did these affiants come to be there? A. They were subpoenaed.

Q. By whom?

A. By the court to appear before the grand jury.

COURT.—By whom?

A. By the court.

COURT.—What do you mean by the court?

A. Well, I don't know—the court. The Clerk of the Court would issue a subpoena on the request of the United States Attorney.

Q. Were they brought before the grand jury, any of them? [466]

A. I think they were all before the grand jury—all those whose testimony was needed before the grand jury.

Q. All those who signed affidavits—were they taken before the grand jury?

A. I don't know that all were. There may have been a preponderance of evidence, to take all before the grand jury. All that was needed was taken before it, and the others were supposed to be used at the trials.

Q. Now, as a matter of fact, Mr. Rittenhouse, didn't you hear statements made by Mr. Burns to the effect that unless affidavits were subscribed and signed by affiants their cases would be taken before the grand jury?

A. No, sir, I never heard Mr. Burns nor Mr. Heney make any such statement. I have heard lots of talk accusing them of doing it, but I never heard them make any such statements.

(Testimony of Irvine Rittenhouse.)

Q. None were made before you?

A. No, none before me and I will state that I was always with Mr. Burns, as a rule, when he was with these people.

Redirect Examination.

Q. That affidavit of Mr. Kribs there, did he dictate that? A. Mr. Kribs?

Q. Yes. A. Yes, sir.

COURT.—What do you mean, Mr. Rittenhouse, by dictating? Is that Kribs' language?

A. This is Mr. Kribs' language all except this first part there.

COURT.—Did he make that dictation the same as he would dictate a letter to you, or was that prepared and then signed by him afterwards?

A. No, sir, I took this down in shorthand as Mr. Kribs' statement. [467]

COURT.—That is Mr. Kribs' language?

A. Yes, sir, this is Mr. Kribs' language.

Q. Did you take any other affidavit there from Mr. Kribs about that time?

A. Yes, sir, I took quite a number. I think two or three or four.

Q. Did he exercise considerable care before signing them?

A. He did. He would read over them two or three times and have some changes made or something added. He didn't want it just the way it appeared.

Witness excused. [468]

Portland, Oregon, Tuesday, May 3, 1910,
2 P. M.

[Testimony of T. R. Sheridan, for the Government.]

T. R. SHERIDAN, a witness called on behalf of the Government, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Where do you live, Mr. Sheridan?

A. Roseburg.

Q. Where did you say you live?

A. Roseburg.

Q. How long have you lived there?

A. Forty-seven years.

Q. What has been your business for the past several years?

A. The last 19 I have been President of the First National Bank.

Q. Of Roseburg? A. Roseburg.

Q. In the years 1899 on up to the present time, have you been actively engaged in conducting the business of the bank? A. More or less.

Q. And what capacity were you serving in in 1900 and 1901?

A. Well, as President and receiving and paying.

Q. You stood at the window—

A. Yes, in case—

Q. —and had general control of all the business of the bank? A. I did.

Q. Do you know Fred A. Kribs? A. I do.

Q. When did you become acquainted with him?

A. About 1900, I think.

Q. And he had an account there in your bank?

A. He did.

(Testimony of T. R. Sheridan.)

Q. You have recently gone over that account, have you not?

A. In a way, yes. [469]

Q. Yes?

A. With my cashier—bookkeeper.

Q. And have you made a transcript of the account of Mr. Kribs, and the transactions of Mr. Kribs with that bank from the time he opened the account down to 1904, or such a matter?

A. Well, we have partially checked up the list that was furnished us.

Q. Do you recall whether or not you were the man who attended to the business so far as Mr. Kribs' account was concerned, in 1900?

A. Please read that.

Q. (Read.) A. Not individually.

Q. I want to call your attention to a couple of checks—memorandum checks—and ask you—being Government's Exhibits 2 and 3—in whose handwriting in the first place, the memorandum of check, is that? A. My own.

Q. In your handwriting? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What part of it is in your handwriting?

A. All of it.

Q. Well, those endorsements across the face there I refer to?

A. Oh, in lead pencil, in dark, is all my own.

Q. Now, from whom did you secure the authority to—or what was—what charge was made of those sums of money? Against whose account were they charged? A. Mr. Kribs'.

(Testimony of T. R. Sheridan.)

Q. Now, from whom did you receive authority, if from anybody, to draw these checks for the purposes indicated on them? [470]

A. Mr. Kribs.

Q. Prior to the time that you made the payments? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you recall the incident itself?

A. I do not.

Q. Except as you see it upon them?

A. As I see it there.

Q. The figures there, the words, "On bank's acct." and "On new bank ledger." Did you make those writings upon them? A. No, sir.

Q. And the words there "Cop. on C. A. S. deal."

A. That is not my writing.

Q. I last referred to Government's Exhibit 3. Now, the words "Cop. in C. A. S. acct.," and "On bank's acct.," and "On new bank ledger." State whether or not those were made in the bank.

A. They were not.

Q. Were they upon the checks when delivered to Mr. Kribs by you?

A. I couldn't swear to that; I think not.

Q. Was there anyone in your office who wrote in a handwriting similar to this?

A. I don't recognize it.

Q. Do you know Mr. Kribs' handwriting?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. State—have you often seen him write?

A. Very often.

Q. Can you state whether or not the words "Cop. in C. A. S. acct." are in his handwriting?

(Testimony of T. R. Sheridan.)

A. I couldn't swear that it was.

Q. You don't know? A. No. [471]

Q. The words upon Government's Exhibit No. 2, "Paid Land Office for 10 claims." Does that recall to your mind the circumstances or the direction that was given you as to that purchase?

A. It does not.

Q. To whom was this money paid, or to what account was this money paid that is represented by these checks, if you know?

A. Well, other than they appear on the face, I couldn't say. The face shows that I paid it to the Land Office.

Q. Do you remember whether or not that payment to the Land Office was made by mere transfer of that sum of money to the account of the receiver, or whether or not the coin was paid to the receiver?

A. I couldn't swear.

Q. What would have been the ordinary method of complying with Mr. Kribs' direction there?

A. I imagine that the money was paid.

Q. Did the receiver carry an account in your bank at that time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you recall how frequently you delivered to Mr. Kribs his cancelled checks, or rather, how often you balanced his deposit book?

A. No; the bookkeepers did that. I had nothing to do with that part of it.

Q. That was done at the—

A. In the usual course.

Q. —request of the depositor, or was his book called for and—

(Testimony of T. R. Sheridan.)

A. No, I am under the impression that it was statements, and the bookkeeper made the statement up whenever a sufficient [472] number of checks were on hand. Sometimes once a month, sometimes twice; sometimes oftener.

Q. But in—the intervals would not be further than a month apart in Mr. Kribs' case?

A. Well, I couldn't swear to that because we often let them run longer than that. That is quite a while ago.

Q. Your bankbook, does it have any memorandum upon it which would indicate the dates at which balances were struck? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is, the deposit books were balanced?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You can tell then by looking at the—

A. Book.

Mr. McCOURT.—The testimony of this witness can be used in both cases, can it not; that is to say, as far as it applies?

Mr. LIND.—Yes.

Q. The certificate, or rather, the checking of which you spoke—I hand you a typewritten memorandum here and ask you if that is the paper you used to check your books with?

A. Well, yesterday afternoon we went over this partially. We did not have the time after I returned home, to go over it, but so far as we went it is all right.

Q. It was correct? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How far over it did you get?

A. I think we got to the second page only, Mr. McCourt.

(Testimony of T. R. Sheridan.)

Mr. LIND.—What was the answer?

A. I think it was the bottom of the second page or thereabouts. It might have been—

Mr. McCOURT.—I may state that that instrument was [473] made up from the checking of the accounts which we made, and that it was sent to Mr. Sheridan to make a more complete check, but he was out of town and did not get back until yesterday morning, and I urged him by telephone to come back here before he could get through the thing. I don't know whether counsel want to take our checking for it or not.

Mr. LIND.—Are the books here from which you did the checking?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, they are all here.

Q. Before offering this, do you recall that Mr. Kribs kept an account which was designated No. 1 and No. 2 in your book?

A. I do when I look in the book. I can't remember other than that.

Q. Do you recall that the checks which were drawn—or do you recall how the checks were—how you determined whether or not the check was on No. 2 or No. 1?

A. Not at this time; it is too long. I cannot recall.

Q. Well, let me try to refresh your memory. Do you recall that the way you determined that was that checks on account No. 2 were marked No. 2 and no designation marked upon those on account No. 1?

A. Possibly that may be, but I can't remember at this time.

(Testimony of T. R. Sheridan.)

Mr. McCOURT.—Is Mr. Kribs here?

Mr. LIND.—No, but we will find out.

Mr. McCOURT.—Find out whether or not that is a fact.

Q. Now, will you look at this ledger here and tell the Court when the book, Mr. Kribs' deposit book, was balanced subsequent to October 10, 1900? [474]

Mr. LIND.—Which account was that you are inquiring about?

Mr. McCOURT.—That is No. 1, the C. A. Smith account.

A. Account No. 2? What was the question?

Q. Account No. 1? A. No. 1.

Q. After October?

A. The first balance seems to be the 11th day of July, 1900.

Q. I want the date of balances subsequent to October 10th? A. For that year?

Q. Yes.

A. Just subsequent or all of them?

Q. Just subsequent to October 10th. Well, you might as well give them all while you are at it.

A. The 14th of July, and the 13th of August, and the 17th of August; on the 11th of September. That is all until December.

Q. Well, give the next one.

A. December 8th. More?

Q. One more. A. And December 28th.

Q. I guess that ought to be enough. All 1900?

A. 1900.

(Testimony of T. R. Sheridan.)

Q. At the time such balances were struck in the deposit book, were the cancelled checks delivered?

A. Yes.

Q. To the depositor? A. Yes.

Mr. McCOURT.—Now, I understand that counsel will admit that drafts forming the source of account No. 1 were from C. A. Smith?

Mr. LIND.—I will admit the facts in regard to that. [475] If that is so it will be admitted, and we can find out whether it is so, but I don't know now. I don't question for a moment but that the drafts were sent by C. A. Smith to Mr. Kribs, or probably the C. A. Smith Lumber Company, but what the particular drafts were, I don't know.

Mr. McCOURT.—I understand you to admit that whether they were from the C. A. Smith Lumber Company or upon the Bank of Minneapolis, they were C. A. Smith's money.

Mr. LIND.—Yes, but what particular draft we don't know.

Mr. McCOURT.—You admit that C. A. Smith was a party in interest and that he was furnishing the money?

Mr. LIND.—Yes, he was a party in interest.

Mr. McCOURT.—Now this certificate—what do you desire in relation to that? Do you want to check the book itself before it is put in?

Mr. LIND.—Or check with Mr. Kribs or someone who knows.

Mr. McCOURT.—That may be done this evening. We will put this certificate in now, until you get a chance to check it.

(Testimony of A. R. Greene.)

McCOURT.—It is possible if we do it to-night, we may get Mr. Sheridan's assistance.

No cross-examination.

Witness excused. [476]

[Testimony of A. R. Greene, for the Government.]

A. R. GREENE, a witness called on behalf of the Government, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Where do you live, Mr. Greene?

A. My home is in Portland.

Q. Were you formerly acting in an official capacity with the Government of the United States?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. During what period was that?

A. Well, I was in the employ of the Government covering several periods.

Q. Well, give us the period—you were in the Government service from 1900 on up till 1905?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And later? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And during the period between 1901, or 1900, say, and 1904, in what capacity were you acting?

A. I was a Special Inspector for the Secretary of the Interior.

Q. In that respect, you were a sort of confidential adviser of the Secretary, were you not?

A. Yes, sir, in regard to the matters of which I had charge.

(Testimony of A. R. Greene.)

Q. You were the only man occupying the position, were you not, at that time?

A. No, sir. There were four. The law provided for four. I was one of the four.

Mr. LIND.—In this field—in this same field?

A. I was the only one in this field.

Mr. McCOURT.—He was the only one in this field.
[477] There were four in the United States.

Q. During what period were you interested, or looking after matters in Oregon?

A. From January or February, 1902, until the fall of 1905, I think.

Q. Did you have any special assignment during that time, or any special cases?

A. Yes, sir. I had a number of special assignments.

Q. Were you ever assigned to investigate the cases in controversy in this case and the case which is being tried along with it?

A. Well, I don't know that I know what case is being tried along with this. I don't know which two cases you refer to exactly, Mr. McCourt.

Q. Well, I refer to the entries known as the McKinley entries up in Linn County, and entries made by the Mealey boys up there.

A. The Sweet Home entries?

Q. Yes, the Sweet Home entries.

A. No, sir, I was never specially assigned to that.

Q. Did you, on or about the 10th day of March, 1902, make any report to the Secretary in which you referred to those claims?

(Testimony of A. R. Greene.)

A. I wrote a letter to the Secretary on, I think it was the 10th of March, 1902, in which, among other things, I called his attention to conditions as I understood they were prevailing up there with reference to those entries.

Q. What was the purpose of that report; that is, the general purpose of it?

A. Well, it was to give the Secretary a general idea of conditions in regard to the public land entries in the State of Oregon. The letter related to a number of [478] cases.

Q. Had you any personal information at that time relating to these claims—the Sweet Home claims? That is, had you made any investigation of them?

A. No, sir. At the time I wrote this letter, I had made an examination of the records at Albany and Oregon City, I think it was.

Q. And your report was made entirely from the records as they appear, or practically entirely from them?

A. Almost altogether from the records, yes, sir.

Mr. McCOURT.—What parts of this report did you wish to have introduced? There is some of it does not refer to this at all.

Mr. LIND.—That portion of it which the witness marked in our presence the other day might be read into the record, and also the portion of the abstract containing these entries, if that is your pleasure.

COURT.—I suggest that the District Attorney read it, and let the stenographer take it, and not let that book go in evidence.

(Testimony of A. R. Greene.)

MR. McCOURT.—Yes. Mr. Greene does not want it to go in evidence, because there are some private matters in it.

COURT.—Very well. Read to the stenographer that portion you desire to have in.

MR. McCOURT.—(Reading:)

“DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Oregon City, Oregon, March 10, 1902.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior,

Washington, D. C.

Sir:—

I have the honor to state that owing to excessive and [479] long continued rains which have rendered the roads in the Siletz country practically impassable, I have not been able to make the contemplated examination of entries in that part of the State and have devoted my time to a study of conditions in more accessible localities. Hence this report will be somewhat of a general character.

The following facts have been elicited in regard to the entry of a valuable body of fir timber in the extreme eastern part of Linn county, adjoining the Cascade Forest Reserve and situated partly in the Oregon City and partly in the Roseburg land district: About two years ago a man named John A. Willd, representing a lumber company of Minnesota, had these lands ‘cruised’ and through his instrumentality they were entered, principally under the Timber and Stone Act. The financial agent of this man was Frederick A. Kribs of Portland, Oregon. The cruiser was Horace G. McKinley, who was also the locator and induced the entrymen to take up the lands, representing to them that a mill company stood ready to take them off their hands as soon as final proof could be made and that he wanted only such applicants as would be ready to sell when the time came. Pursuing this policy, McKinley secured a number of men and women from among the class whose living is precarious, largely from the saloons and rooming houses and around the depots and wharves of the towns along the valley and the lands were entered, McKinley appearing in a number of cases as a witness.

In 28 of the 67 cases referred to in this connection, the lands were mortgaged to Kribs on the day of final proof; eight tracts were mortgaged to him one day after proof and one tract three days after proof. Twelve tracts were deeded straight to Kribs on the day of proof and 28 tracts were [480] deeded to Willd within five days after proof. One entryman, James H. Scott of Albany, Oregon, mortgaged to M. E. Watson on the day of final proof.

Ten commuted homesteads situated in the vicinity and chiefly valuable for their timber (as are all homesteaded lands west of the Cascade Range at this time) have an interesting history when the records in the office of County Recorder are placed in juxtaposition to the records of the local land office. Every one of these entrymen had mortgaged his homestead before the day of final proof and the mortgages were matters of record at that time: One, four days before; two, five days before; three, eight days before; two, eleven days before and two thirteen days before final proof.

Attached to this report are three sheets containing correct transcripts from the records of the local land offices at Oregon City and Roseburg, and the office of the County Recorder of Linn County, Oregon. These will enable you to trace the history of any given tract of land from the time of its final entry to the time of its mortgage or sale. Only a few tracts have been presented in this case for the reason, that as it might be desired to institute action against the parties, it would be important to do so before the issuance of patent. In this connection I desire to call your attention to the fact that patents were issued seven months after final proof for 13 of the tracts herein, whereas for 49 tracts herein, which were passed to final proof from 18 to 23 months ago, the patents have not yet been issued. However, they may have been held up to await the conclusion of proceedings to test the validity of title.

Referring again to the cases where Kribs became mortgagee and Willd purchaser, immediately after final proof, a strong presumption of collusion is raised. Take the entry of [481] John Harrison of Brownsville, for example. His final proof certificate is numbered 8235 and dated May 16, 1900. On the same day he mortgaged to Kribs for $600 and the day following he deeded to Willd for $1.00. An isolated case of this kind might occur in good faith and honesty possibly, but when it comes to a great number of cases of precisely similar facts, it is quite another matter. Kribs paid out on mortgages in three weeks in April and two weeks in May, 1900 the sum of $18,600.00 for lands passed to final proof immediately preceding the date of the mortgages and immediately following these dates the same lands were deeded to Willd for $31.00, just enough to comply with the law regarding transfers of realty. The fact that the consideration was merely nominal in the cases of the sales, ought it seems to me, to have weight in a judicial consideration of the matter. Also, the fact that public opinion has become debauched to the extent of hostility to an honest enforcement of the land laws in this part of the country should not deter our local officers from a vigorous effort to punish offenders.

There ought to be less difficulty in proceeding against the homesteaders herein named who mortgaged their claims prior to final proof. These are matters, however, for Departmental determination."

I think that is all.

Mr. LIND.—Is there any recommendation at the end?

Q. Is that the only reference to those claims?

A. I don't remember. I have not read the letter for years, or for some time, and I don't remember whether there was any recommendation with reference to those entries or not. The recommendation, if there was one, would be right at the end of the letter.

Mr. McCOURT.—There seems to be a little more that wants to go in here. (Continues reading.)

[482]

“The foregoing are not isolated and exceptional cases as will be seen from the consecutive numbers of the final certificates, but comprise nearly every entry for the dates given. This is significant as showing the extent of the questionable practices before these land offices.

A complete remedy is not to be hoped for but the evils might be checked if our land officers and special agents would be more alert to the frauds. It cannot be denied that at present the Government is held in contempt by the land grabbers. This is largely in consequence of a failure on the part of the land officers to comply with the law and regulations. For example, the oath is administered in a slighting and careless manner as though it was an obsolete formality; the statute for the punishment of perjury—Sec. 5392—printed, at the foot of the application blanks under the Timber and Stone law, is seldom read to the entryman; tracts other than those applied for originally, are substituted on the spot by the applicant, for tracts ascertained to be taken, and the land officer says with a smiling assent, ‘Of course you have been over that tract also,’ when it may be in fact true that he never set foot in the State until that morning when he came across the Columbia from Washington. When I have called the attention of the officers to these things they have said to me, ‘Life is too short to run down all the facts in these little cases; I have long ago ceased to have any confidence in human nature.' In other cases the Receiver has accepted a lump sum of money for a number of timber entries which he had every reason to believe were being made in the interest of a lumber syndicate. When I called his attention to what I had heard in regard to this case, he said, 'No sir, we made him separate it right there and have every man pay his share.' [483] It is a common thing to hear the Receiver advise entrymen that 'if they discover that their lands are more valuable for timber than for agriculture they can relinquish and take it under the timber and stone act, which is simply an encouragement for these men to hold it as a homestead until they can find a purchaser for the timber and make arrangements for the purchase money.' "

Mr. McCOURT.—Now, I don't catch any formal recommendation.

Mr. LIND.—I think the Secretary says, in commenting on it, that there was.

Mr. McCOURT.—That there was a recommendation?

Mr. LIND.—Yes. Perhaps Col. Greene remembers, or can find it.

Q. Do you recall, Colonel? Look at it and see if you can get it.

A. I don't think there was any recommendation with reference to the cases now under consideration.

Mr. McCOURT.—Are you sure the Secretary's decision states it?

(Testimony of A. R. Greene.)

Mr. LIND.—I am not sure, but that is my recollection.

Mr. McCOURT.—I have a memorandum here, made by you, Colonel, in which you said your recommendations were in relation to township 8 South of 9 West.

A. Well, that is over in the Siletz country, isn't it?

Q. Yes.

A. I find here I made a specific recommendation with reference to some lands in the Siletz country. I was just reading it. I do not find anything further as applying to the cases involved in this suit. I went from there to several other cases, and wound up in the string of alleged fraudulent surveys in the Siletz country.

Q. Is this a copy, or the sheet that you sent with it describing [484] the lands?

A. Yes, sir. Yes, this is a blank I had prepared for the purpose, and contains a list of the entrymen and the record, as I took them from the books at the County Recorder's Office at Albany.

Mr. McCOURT.—Do you want that to go in with it?

Mr. LIND.—It encumbers the record.

Mr. McCOURT.—The record may show that the list mentioned as sent in by Colonel Greene is list of names of entrymen, number of entrymen, date made, and date when proof was made, and the date of the conveyances, both mortgages and deeds.

Mr. LIND.—In this suit and in the other?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, in this suit and in 3319.

(Testimony of A. R. Greene.)

And also other lands not involved.

Mr. LIND.—And it is the same report that is referred to in the Secretary's decision later on.

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. LIND.)

Colonel, you reported direct to the Secretary of the Interior? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Not by way of the General Land Office?

A. No, sir.

Q. You were in a sense the personal representative of Secretary Hitchcock? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you get your data for the statements contained in the report just read into the record? I mean aside from those that you obtained from the county records?

A. A part of the information was obtained from officers [485] in the courthouse, and a part from citizens of Albany, and a part from citizens in Roseburg and Oregon City.

Q. Did you at that time know Mr. Stratford, a Special Agent in the field here?

A. Only by reputation. I think I never had met him. Afterwards I met him, and he said he knew me, but I didn't recall when I had ever met him.

Witness excused. [486]

Mr. UELAND.—I offer in evidence the minutes of the meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Linn and Lane Timber Company in both cases. I offer it with special reference to the first meeting of Directors held the 9th day of June, 1906; with special reference to the meeting of incorporators held on the same date, and with special reference to the special meeting of stockholders held October 31, 1908.

Mr. McCOURT.—I object to anything that the minutes purports to show subsequent to the making of the Linn and Lane Timber Company a party to this suit.

Mr. UELAND.—That was November 16.

Mr. McCOURT.—That would include it, but I want to make the statement as applying to anything in these minutes subsequent to the filing of the amended bill making the defendant Linn and Lane Timber Company a party, which amended bill was filed November 16, 1908.

Objection overruled; exception taken.

Minutes read into the record as follows: [536]

[Minutes of Board of Directors' Meeting of Linn and Lane Timber Co.]

The undersigned being the incorporators and first Board of Directors of the Linn and Lane Timber Company and being also the subscribers to all the stock of said corporation, which has been subscribed, each of us having this day subscribed for one share, do hereby mutually agree that the first meeting of the Board of Directors of said corporation shall be held at this time and place, to-wit: At the office of the C. A. Smith Timber Company in the Andrus Building in the City of Minneapolis, on this the 9th day of June, 1906, at the hour of 4 o'clock P. (Seal) On motion of Mr. Smith it was voted that the Secretary of the Company should receive as compensation for his services the sum of $10.00 for each meeting of the Board.

Smith and John Lind, to be issued to him, and the two shares subscribed by Johanna A. Smith and John Lind to be issued to them, respectively as fully paid. On motion of Mr. Lind, seconded by Johanna A. Smith, the proposition was accepted by unanimous vote, and the President and Secretary were directed to issue and deliver certificates for the entire authorized capital stock of the Company in accordance with the terms thereof.

Special Stockholders' meeting Oct. 31, 1908.

A special meeting of the stockholders of the company was this day held pursuant to notice duly given, with all the stockholders of the Company present, each stockholder present holding shares in the Company as follows:

C. A. Smith 984 shares (300 held in pledge by the Swedish American National Bank of Minneapolis, and 10 by C. J. Swanson.)

C. J. Johnson..... 15 shares.

Johanna A. Smith..... 1 share

[541]

C. A. Smith, the president of the Company, presided at the meeting. Vernon A. Smith, having ceased to be a stockholder and having presented his resignation as Secretary. C. L. Trabert was elected to act as Secretary. On motion of C. J. Johnson, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Whereas C. A. Smith is under obligation to the Swedish American National Bank as maker, endorser or surety upon promissory notes amounting in the aggregate to $337,240.45 and accrued interest; and

Whereas C. J. Johnson is under obligation to said Bank as maker, endorser or surety upon promissory notes amounting in the aggregate to $56,450, the notes upon which said Smith and Johnson are so severally liable to said Bank being identical, however to the extent of $12,500; and

Whereas said Bank as collateral security for the notes upon which said Smith is liable to said Bank now holds bonds of the C. A. Smith Lumber Company of Marshfield, Oregon, of the face value of $400,000, and also 300 shares of the stock of said Smith in this Company; and

Whereas C. A. Smith desires by a partial payment upon one or more notes upon which he is liable as aforesaid, and by substituting the security hereinafter mentioned, to procure from said Bank a release and surrender of the said bonds of the C. A. Smith Lumber Company of Marshfield, so as to use the same or the proceeds thereof in payment of other obligations on his part; and

Whereas said Bank is not willing to surrender said bonds unless more than a majority of the capital stock of this company is pledged to it as security for the payment to it of the notes on which said Smith and Johnson are respectively [542] liable as aforesaid, in such manner and upon such terms that the stock so pledged may be voted at all the meetings of this company upon all matters pertaining to the business of this Company, and so that the stock so pledged may be represented by a majority of the Board of Directors of this Company and by the executive officers of said Board until the indebtedness for which such stock is pledged is fully paid and satisfied.

Now, Therefore, the consent of the stockholders of this Company is hereby given to said C. A. Smith and said C. J. Johnson assigning and transferring directly to said Bank, or to some person or persons in trust for said Bank, as much of their stock in this Company as they may see fit, as security for their several, aforesaid obligations to said Bank, and the stockholders of this Company further consent, that such transfer may be made upon such terms that said Bank, or the trustee or trustees holding the same for said Bank, may vote the same at any and all meetings of this Company in any and all matters pertaining to the business of this Company, including the business of selling any property of this Company; and these stockholders hereby further consent that until the indebtedness to secure which any of such stock is or may hereafter be so pledged by said C. A. Smith or C. J. Johnson, is fully paid, the stock securing said indebtedness may be represented upon the Board of Directors of this Company by a majority of the Directors of said Board and by any or all the executive officers of this Company and of said Board, to the end that no indebtedness or liability may be incurred by this Company until the indebtedness for which such stock is or may be pledged is fully paid; and the stockholders of this Company hereby consent to any extension of the payment of said indebtedness, and to the taking [543] of any renewal note or notes for the same.

And to induce said Bank to accept such stock of C. A. Smith and C. J. Johnson in lieu of the aforesaid bonds of C. A. Smith Lumber Company of Marshfield, Oregon, as security for the aforesaid notes and any renewal note or notes for the same,

We, the Stockholders of said Linn and Lane Timber Company, do hereby represent to said Bank that this Company is now without indebtedness or liability of any kind or nature whatsoever.

Mr. LIND.—Will the District Attorney admit that the Linn and Lane Timber Company complied with the laws of the State of Oregon and paid its corporate fee during the years of its existence, up to and including 1909?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, I will admit that.

Mr. UELAND.—The defendants offer in evidence this document dated October 31, 1908, it being a document showing a pledge of a majority of the stock of the Linn and Lane Timber Company to the Swedish-American National Bank of Minneapolis, to secure certain large indebtedness on the part of the stockholders.

Mr. McCOURT.—Objected to as immaterial for the same reasons as given with reference to the objection to the admission of stock certificates. That it is shown by the pleadings and the records themselves, that at the organization of this corporation or shortly thereafter there were subscribed and issued all of the capital stock of the company, one share to John Lind, one to Johanna A. Smith, and 998 shares to C. A. Smith. Any subsequent division or transfer of the stock could in no way affect the notice that might be brought to this corporation of prior fraud relating to the title to the lands which it secured, and on account of which it is made a defendant here now.

Objection overruled; exception saved.

Marked Defendants' Exhibit "B."

Mr. McCOURT.—While I don't wish to require any identification for these signatures upon this instrument, I don't want to admit it without an opportunity to ascertain further whether it was actually made when it purports to be. If you tell me that it was executed the 31st day of October—

Mr. UELAND.—If you will take my word for it; I don't ask you to do that.

Mr. McCOURT.—You say it was executed October 31st?

Mr. UELAND.—I do. [553]

Mr. McCOURT.—Then it can be admitted subject to the objections previously made?

In relation to the minutes of the corporation that you have introduced, I want to make a similar statement in regard to that same date—October 31st, to know whether or not they were made at that time.

Mr. UELAND.—I give my word as to that, if that satisfies you.

Mr. McCOURT.—I am satisfied.

Mr. UELAND.—Before I offer this next document in evidence, I want to state to the Court that in the answers it is averred that after a majority of the stock of this company had been pledged as shown by the minutes and by the documents just received, the Northwestern Bank of Minneapolis, acquired by purchase the note secured and the property pledged. The fact of it was that in November, 1908, the Swedish-American National Bank consolidated in a manner with the Northwestern National Bank, so that all of its assets went from the Swedish-American to the Northwestern. This document is offered for the purpose of showing such transfer and that the Northwestern National Bank now holds the stock and is the owner of the indebtedness for which the stock was pledged. This document is dated subsequent to the commencement of this suit.

Mr. McCOURT.—The same objection is urged to this as was made to the admission of stock, occurring subsequent to the formation of the corporation.

You know this to have been made when it purports to have been made?

Mr. UELAND.—I know of the transfer I speak of, but I was not present when that document was made and I didn't make it. [554]

Mr. McCOURT.—You know it was made about that time?

Mr. UELAND.—I have no moral doubt about it.

Mr. McCOURT.—No requirement to be made of the proof of its execution beyond what it shows on its face.

Marked Defendants' Exhibit "C."

Mr. UELAND.—May it please the Court, "Defendants' Exhibits 'C' and 'D' for Identification" in case No. 3320, purport to be two deeds from C. A. Smith and wife to the Linn and Lane Timber Company, one for lands in Linn County, and one for lands in Douglas County in this State. Both bear date the 4th day of June, 1906. The same as the deed as to which some inquiry has been made. At some time or other we will offer these two deeds to show that they, together with the deed of June 4, 1906, already in evidence, constitute the conveyance for which the stock of the company was issued under the resolution of the stockholders of June 9, 1906.

Mr. LIND.—Not as substantive evidence, only as showing the entire transaction recorded in the minutes of the corporation.

Mr. UELAND.—But whether counsel is willing to have these admitted at this time without further proof, of course, will be for him to say.

Mr. McCOURT.—I would not feel justified in admitting them at this time. They purport to be made the same date as the deed which we question bears, at the same time and under similar circumstances.

Mr. UELAND.—Well, we will wait.

Mr. LIND.—It is understood that the evidence just offered and received is equally applicable in either suit.

COURT.—It might be well that counsel should enter into a general stipulation that all the evidence applicable might be transferred.

Mr. GEARIN.—It is understood that anything that is [555] applicable may be used in either suit, No. 3319 or No. 3320.

Whereupon proceedings herein adjourned. [556]

WHEREAS the Bank holds bonds of C. A. Smith Timber Company of Marshfield, Oregon, to the amount of $400,000 face value, and 300 shares of the stock of the Linn and Lane Timber Company (said shares being evidenced by certificate No. 5) as security for the notes described in schedule A, and C. A. Smith desires to have these bonds released;

WHEREAS it has been agreed between C. A. Smith and C. J. Johnson on the one hand, and the Bank on the other hand, that the Bank will release these bonds in consideration of 210 shares of C. A. Smith, in addition to the 300 shares above mentioned, and 15 shares of C. J. Johnson in said Timber Company being pledged for the payment of the notes described in schedules A and B;

WHEREAS C. A. Smith has accordingly transferred 208 such additional shares to said Bank as pledgee, and one share to B. F. Nelson, Trustee, and one share to C. C. Wyman, Trustee, the 208 shares being evidenced by certificate No. 13, the other 2 shares by certificates numbered respectively 9 and 10, and C. J. Johnson has also accordingly transferred his said 15 shares to the Bank as pledgee, the same being evidenced by certificate No. 12; [559]

WHEREAS it is intended that the 525 shares thus pledged to the Bank, the same constituting more than a majority of the stock of said Timber Company, shall give the pledgee such control that no indebtedness or liability on the part of the Timber Company should be contracted without the consent of the pledgee, until the indebtedness to the pledgee is fully paid.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the release of said bonds and the extension of payment hereinafter mentioned, and the transfer of said 225 additional shares of said Timber Company, IT IS HEREBY MUTUALLY AGREED between C. A. Smith and C. J. Johnson, hereinafter designated as pledgors, and The Swedish American National Bank, hereinafter designated as pledgee, as follows:

1. The 525 shares of stock in the Linn and Lane Timber Company transferred by the pledgors to the pledgee, the same including the 2 shares transferred to B. F. Nelson and C. C. Wyman, herein designated as trustees, shall be held by the pledgee and trustees respectively as security for the payment of the notes described in schedules A and B, and for the payment of any renewal note or notes which may hereafter be taken for the same.

2. The 523 shares which have been transferred to the pledgee the secretary of the Linn and Lane Timber Company is hereby authorized and directed, whenever requested by the pledgee, to transfer on the books of the Company to the trustees, or either of them, to the end that the right of the trustees, or either of them, to vote these shares at all meetings of the corporation may not be questioned.

3. The pledgors hereby constitute and appoint each of the trustees their true and lawful attorney and proxy, irrevocable as long as the aforesaid shares remain pledged, to vote said shares or any of them, at any and all meetings of the corporation, in any and all matters pertaining to the business of the corporation, [560] including the selling of its property, and the election of directors and officers, and as long as said shares, or any of them, remain pledged, the pledgors will not question the right of either of said trustees to hold and exercise the offices of director, president, secretary or treasurer of said corporation.

4. Except as to $50,000 which C. A. Smith has paid on the indebtedness for which the bonds were pledged (the notes described in schedule A representing his obligations after such payment) and except as to $100,000 additional which he will pay, if possible, within 60 days, he shall be entitled to an extension until one year from the date hereof, for the payment of the notes described in schedule A.

5. The pledgors hereby waive demand, protest and notice of dishonor as to the notes described in schedules A and B, and as to any renewal note or notes for the same, and consent hereby to the extension or renewal of any of said notes, and of any such renewal note or notes, and hereby agree that no omission or laches on the part of the pledgee, or its assigns, in fixing or enforcing the liability of any person or party other than the pledgors, upon any of said notes, or renewal note or notes, shall release or discharge the pledgors from liability on such notes or renewal note or notes.

6. In case of default in the payment of the notes, or any renewal note or notes, for which said 525 shares are pledged, the pledgee or trustees, or either of them, may sell a sufficient number of said shares to pay what may then be past due and payable on such notes, together with the expenses of the sale, and if such sale is made at any broker's board, or at public sale, the pledgee and trustees, may become purchasers, but no such sale shall be made on less than 30 days' notice to the pledgors.

7. If either of the trustees shall at any time be unable or unwilling to act as contemplated by this agreement, the pledgee [561] may appoint another person in his place, and the person so appointed shall have all the rights, powers and privileges of his predecessor.

8. In case of sale by the pledgee or trustees of any of said shares, the 510 shares pledged by C. A. Smith shall first be sold to pay the notes described in schedule A and the 15 shares pledged by Johnson shall first be sold to pay the notes described in schedule B, except that as to the notes which are included in both said schedules, the pledgee or trustees may elect which of said shares to sell first.

9. When the notes described in schedules A and B and the renewal note or notes which may be taken for the same are paid, the pledgee and trustees respectively shall transfer back to C. A. Smith the shares pledged by him then remaining unsold, and to C. J. Johnson the shares pledged by him and then unsold, and shall account to each for any surplus remaining of the proceeds after applying such proceeds upon the indebtedness for which said stock is pledged.

10. This agreement shall be binding on the heirs, executors and administrators of the pledgors and on the successors and assigns of the pledgee, and on the successors in trust of each of the trustees.

Defendants' Exhibit "C."

(Defts. Exhibit "J.")

WHEREAS, By a contract in writing made in triplicate at Minneapolis, Minnesota, and dated October 31st, 1908, by and between C. A. Smith, C. J. Johnson and the Swedish-American National Bank of Minneapolis, one of said triplicate contracts being hereto attached, made a part hereof and marked Exhibit "A," the said C. A. Smith and C. J. Johnson assigned and transferred to said Swedish-American National Bank five hundred and twenty-three (523) shares, and to C. C. Wyman and B. F. Nelson, as Trustees for said Swedish-American National Bank, one (1) share each, of the capital stock of Linn & Lane Timber Company, a corporation of the State of Minnesota, as collateral security for the payment of certain promissory notes or other obligations owned by said Swedish-American National Bank, and upon which said Smith and

Johnson, or one of them, were liable as makers, endorsers, guarantors or in some other capacity, schedules of which said notes, marked Schedule "A" and Schedule "B," were included in and formed a part of said agreement; and

WHEREAS, Said B. F. Nelson and said C. C. Wyman accepted the trust in said agreement specified and received each one share of said capital stock, and the said five hundred and twenty-three (523) shares of said capital stock were issued to and received by said Swedish-American National Bank, a part of which agreement was that said B. F. Nelson and C. C. Wyman should become directors and officers of said Linn & Lane Timber Company, and that all of said stock so transferred to them and to said Swedish-American National Bank should be voted by said Trustees at all meetings of the stockholders of said Company so long as said agreement remained in force, and at the request of said bank said stock should all be [563] issued to said Trustees so as to secure their right to vote the same at any meeting of the stockholders of said Company, and that said Trustees should also, upon request of said Bank, act as executive officers of said Company, all of which stipulations and agreements were authorized, ratified and approved by all of the stockholders of said Linn & Lane Timber Company at a meeting thereof duly held on the 31st day of October, 1908; and

WHEREAS, Since the making of said agreement and the transfer of said stock as security for said indebtedness, said indebtedness mentioned in said Schedules "A" and "B" has been sold, assigned and transferred to the Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis, Minnesota, and the said stock in said Linn & Lane Timber Company, so pledged as security for the payment of said indebtedness, has also been assigned and transferred for the same purpose to said Northwestern National Bank, which said last named Bank has assumed and does hereby assume the obligations of said Swedish-American National Bank in said agreement specified, relating to the extension and carrying of the notes and indebtedness in said Schedules "A" and "B" mentioned:

NOW THEREFORE, In consideration of the premises, and of the sum of one dollar each to the other in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, it is mutually covenanted and agreed by and between C. A. Smith, C. J. Johnson, the Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis, and B. F. Nelson and C. C. Wyman, as Trustees, that the said five hundred and twenty-five (525) shares of the capital stock of said Linn & Lane Timber Company are held and shall be held by said Northwestern National Bank and by said Trustees as security to said Northwestern National Bank, its successors and assigns, for the payment of the notes and indebtedness mentioned in said Schedules "A" and "B," and for any renewals thereof, or any new notes already given or hereafter to be given in place of any [564] of the indebtedness mentioned in said Schedules "A" and "B" or either of them, and as security for the payment of all notes now held by said Northwestern National Bank upon which said C. A. Smith and C. J. Johnson, or either of them, are in any way responsible or liable either as makers, endorsers, guarantors or otherwise, and for the payment of any note or notes hereafter given to said Northwestern National Bank, its successors or assigns, in renewal or in place of any of said notes, schedules of which said notes so held by said Northwestern National Bank, marked, respectively, Schedule "A-2" and Schedule "B-2," are hereto attached and made a part hereof.

And it is hereby agreed that the said B. F. Nelson and C. C. Wyman, Trustees, shall continue to act as Trustees for said Northwestern National Bank, and agree to so act by their consent thereto endorsed hereon and signed by each of them.

Filed May 10, 1910. G. H. Marsh, Clerk. [568]

[Proceedings Had May 5, 1910, 9 A. M.]

Portland, Ore., May 5, 1910, 9 A. M.

Mr. UELAND.—May it please the Court, in case 3319 I would like to make a similar motion to what we made yesterday in 3320. So we move, on behalf of the defendants whom we represent, that the evidence be stricken out that has been introduced in the case on the theory of a conspiracy as charged in the bill. The evidence would be hearsay and incompetent, but for the alleged conspiracy on the ground that it appears from the evidence, introduced in the case, in connection with the statement of the District Attorney that he does not intend to introduce further evidence to sustain the charges of conspiracy, that there was no conspiracy on the part of any of the defendants whom we represent in the entries attacked in this suit.

COURT.—Same ruling. (I would not want as at present advised, to sustain the motion to strike this from the record, because it is a negative proceeding, and ought to be submitted when the case is submitted, and your objection will save that question for you until the final hearing.)

Exception saved.

Mr. McCOURT.—I don't know whether counsel understood that I intended to introduce a little more evidence in 3319.

Mr. UELAND.—I may renew the motion later on, then. [569]

[Testimony of John Van Zante, for Defendants.]

JOHN VAN ZANTE, a witness called on behalf of the defense, being first sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. LIND.)

Where do you reside? A. In the city.

Q. Portland? How long have you resided here?

A. 22 years.

Q. What is your profession?

A. I am practicing law.

Q. How long have you practiced law?

A. Since the fall of 1897.

Q. During that period have you held any public office?

A. I was Municipal Judge of the city from June, 1908, to June, 1909—July, 1908, to July, 1908.

Q. It has appeared on the testimony in this case that you were present at some examinations conducted by a special agent of the Interior Department by the name of Stratford in connection with the investigation of the claims—entries involved in this suit. Will you kindly state at whose instance and under what circumstances you were present at that examination and what you did and observed in connection with it.

A. I was there at the instance of Mr. Kribs. This examination was held by Mr. Stratford.

Q. At what time?

A. At Wodtli's farm. He has a farm just west of Foster, I think it is. I think it is west about half a mile, and I don't remember the year, but it must be eight or nine [570] years ago.

(Testimony of John Van Zante.)

Q. Who first suggested the matter to you to attend that examination?

A. I was employed by Mr. Kribs, but I think Judge Tanner asked me whether I was so I could make a short trip. But I was employed by Mr. Kribs.

Q. What did you do?

A. Why, I went up there and I attended the examination of those applicants and brought home copies of the affidavits that they made.

Q. Where did you meet Mr. Stratford?

A. I think at Foster.

Q. Had you known him previously?

A. I am not sure about that, whether I met him at Foster or whether I met him here at Portland. I am not sure about that.

Q. What did you do in connection with the work?

A. Well, I just listened to what they had to say about their filings, and after the affidavits were drawn up I read them over to the party making the affidavit and if there were any corrections to be made in them, as will show in the originals—some of them, I think, were corrected, by pen probably—and then they were sworn to by the applicant, or were signed by the applicant, rather.

Q. Now, who conducted the examination?

A. Mr. Stratford.

Q. Was there a stenographer or typewriter present who took down the questions and answers?

(Testimony of John Van Zante.)

A. Yes, a Miss Harkness from Albany was the stenographer, and it was taken down on the machine, rather slow work.

Q. Did you conduct any part of the examination? Did you [571] ask any questions?

A. I don't think I asked a question. I made a suggestion one time; I remember that Mr. Stratford referred to it as "fraudulent entries," and I think I made a suggestion that it would be better I thought, if they were referred to as the "alleged fraudulent entries." I have no other recollection of asking any questions or making suggestions.

Q. Who asked the questions?

A. Mr. Stratford.

Q. Were the answers taken down as given by the witness? A. They were.

Q. Did you observe anybody framing or suggesting answers?

A. There was nothing like that done there at all—not in the room, not where we were.

Q. Did you observe anything outside the room of that character?

A. Well, there were a number of people there, There were six or eight or maybe ten of them there at times, and they would stand around outside. We couldn't accommodate all of them inside.

Q. Well, did you hear anything in the way of framing or suggesting on the outside?

A. No, not a thing.

Q. Now, in regard to that examination generally—first, I will ask you how many days did you participate in the examination of those entrymen?

(Testimony of John Van Zante.)

A. I don't remember. When I got there—we were there without a stenographer, and I telephoned I think, to the County Clerk at Albany to send out a stenographer and a machine. Inasmuch as it would take so long to take them down in long hand and I wanted copies of them. I don't [572] remember the number of days I was out there. Possibly a week.

Q. Now, during the time that these affidavits were taken, did you observe any improper conduct on the part of anyone connected with the work? If so, I wish you would state frankly.

A. No; everything was conducted there in a quiet, orderly manner as far as I could see.

Q. Well, the questions that appear in the affidavits were actually put to the witnesses?

A. Every question that appeared in those affidavits were put to the witnesses and the answers were given by them, and they were read over to them, or read by them. I am not sure that I read all of them to them; and then they were signed and each applicant was sworn before he gave any testimony.

Q. You kept duplicates? A. How?

Q. You kept duplicates?

A. I kept a carbon copy.

Q. Carbon copies? A. Carbon copies.

Q. What did you do with them?

A. I turned those over to Judge Tanner.

Q. Do you recall what instructions, if any, Judge Tanner gave you before you started out?

A. I think I got my instructions from Mr. Kribs.

Q. Well, what did Mr. Kribs tell you?

(Testimony of John Van Zante.)

A. He wanted carbon copies and wanted me to attend that investigation up there; that there was some questions about the entries and there was a Special Agent going up there and he wanted me to be there and attend that. [573]

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Were you in the office of Mitchell and Tanner at that time? A. No.

Q. That is, a member of the firm?

A. No, I was on the same floor with them—a few doors away from them.

Q. Who introduced you to Mr. Stratford?

A. I didn't hear that.

Q. I say, who introduced you to Mr. Stratford?

A. I don't remember how I met him. It may be I met him at the hotel at Stratford—or at Foster.

Q. Well, I understood you to say you possibly met him here in Portland.

A. Well, yes, I am not sure as to where I met him.

Q. You preceded Mr. Stratford out there to Foster, didn't you? Didn't you go out there before he got there?

A. Yes, I was there at the hotel maybe a day before. I am not sure about that.

Q. And didn't Miss Harkness go out there with him?

A. No, I think she came afterward. I am quite sure she came afterwards, for there was no stenographer there, and I think I telephoned to the County Clerk after Mr. Stratford was there. I am quite sure I did.

Q. Who else was there? Was the Mealey boys there? A. Who—yes.

Q. John A. Thompson?

A. Yes, Thompson was there and Malone—

Q. That is the entryman Malone?

A. —and Wodtli. [574]

Q. The entrymen were all there who made affidavits?

A. Not the first day—the first day of the examination. They were brought in from time to time.

Q. And the Mealey boys were busy, were they not, getting the entrymen in to make affidavits?

A. Yes, they were around there most of the time—possibly all the time.

Q. They were quite active in— A. Yes.

Q. —seeing that the thing was expedited?

A. Yes, they had the men there right along, and so was Thompson about the same, I suppose.

Q. Who was in the room while the affidavits were being taken?

A. Well, at times I suppose there were six or seven of them in there. There would be Mr. Stratford, Miss Harkness, myself, I think were there all the time, and the Mealeys were in there at times; Thompson and some of the entrymen.

Q. Usually only one entryman at a time was there?

A. No, I think there would be different ones—sometimes there would be probably two or three of them, or four.

Q. At a time? A. Yes, I think so.

(Testimony of John Van Zante.)

Q. Well, is your mind clear upon that question?

A. Quite clear, because the room was crowded.

Q. Well, wasn't it apparent that Mealey, either Will R. or O. Judd Mealey, was very active in helping the witness remember facts?

A. Not in the room.

Q. Not in the room?

A. No, there was nothing of that kind in the room at any time [575]

Q. Whenever a witness was wanted one of the Mealey boys went out and brought him in?

A. Well, I am sure I can't say that. I don't know whether—I think Mr. Stratford would call for someone, and I don't know—

Q. Now, when those affidavits were corrected, wasn't it Mealey who made the suggestion as to the proper corrections?

A. No; I think I heard all the testimony, and when there was something in there that I thought wasn't the way he intended to say it, his attention was called to that.

Q. The witness' attention? A. Yes.

Q. And he always accommodated himself to what you thought the fact ought to be?

A. No, I don't know about that. I don't remember that part at all. The affidavits will show all corrections that were made—the changes.

Q. Well, did you have any knowledge of the facts yourself? A. Not a bit.

Q. Did you know that none of these entrymen had paid any location fees?

A. No, I didn't know anything about that.

(Testimony of John Van Zante.)

Q. You recall, however, that they all testified that they had? A. That they had, yes, they told me.

Q. And that they paid it to Mealey?

A. That I don't remember.

Q. Who was right there at the examination?

A. I don't remember what they testified about—I remember—whatever the affidavits show is what they testified to.

Q. Who made the changes in the affidavits? In whose handwriting were they made when they were made? [576]

A. I think they are all in my handwriting. I could tell if I saw one of them.

Q. Look at that now. I call your attention to Government's Exhibit 4, and ask you who it was made those pen corrections?

A. That is my handwriting.

Q. You did that?

A. That is, the one on page 1.

Q. Now, what did you know about the fellow—how he went across section 18 there?

A. Must have heard him say it.

Q. What? A. Must have heard him say so.

Q. Well.

A. It was rather slow work, the stenographer taking it down on the machine, and sometimes we didn't get the answers down correctly, and then the changes were made.

Q. Well, now, I call your attention to Government's Exhibit 5 there, and ask you if you made the changes down there in the last answer on the page. If that is your handwriting? A. Yes.

(Testimony of John Van Zante.)

Q. You notice there that the fellow said that he—that is, John J. Gilliland—that he said that he paid Mealey $50 for locating him some time before he was located, and the change is sometime before he “made final proof.” You had no knowledge of that fact yourself, did you?

A. No, I didn’t know anything about that except he testified to it. All I knew is what he testified to.

Q. He testified he paid him before he was located?

A. Yes.

Q. And what occasioned you to have that change inserted there made before final proof? [577]

A. This probably was read over to him and he suggested that was such a time. That is the only way I know about it.

Q. You think he suggested that instead of you?

A. I suppose so. They were read over to him or by him.

Q. Weren’t those corrections suggested by Mealey who was sitting there?

A. Not that I know of.

Q. What? A. Not that I know of.

Q. You remember that Mealey was very officious in the matter, don’t you? A. He was there.

Q. Yes.

A. One of the Mealeys was there nearly all the time, and Mr. Thompson was there too about as much as the Mealeys.

Q. Now, I will call your attention to Government’s Exhibit 6, the testimony or the affidavit of W. J. Lawrence. You will notice there is a whole lot of changes in that one. Just examine them there and see if you made them all.

(Testimony of John Van Zante.)

A. That is all in my handwriting except the two signatures.

Q. Yes. Well, now, what about this—the witness is made—is asked this question: “Then as I understand you, you don’t know who you sold the land to nor how much you received for it, is that correct? A. I know what I received. I got Mr. Mealey to sell it for me. I got $50.” Now, there is added to that in pen “over amount of mortgage.” Do you have any recollection of how that came to be put in there?

A. No, I put it in there; I know that.

Q. Now, a little further down “What was the amount and from whom did you borrow it?”—speaking of the final proof money—“A. From Mr. O. J. Mealey, he furnished the money [578] and I don’t know what the amount was.” Then there is added to that, “But think it was $700.”

A. That is my handwriting. I don’t know how—it is in there; I know that. I don’t remember how it got there.

Q. Then next, further down, “When and where did you give him the mortgage? A. I don’t know without it was in Roseburg.” That is changed to scratch out the indefiniteness altogether, and the word “at” added and made to read, “At Roseburg.”

A. Yes. That was done at the suggestion of the fellow making the affidavit.

Q. You think it was?

A. Yes, I am quite sure of that.

Q. Wasn’t it done at the suggestion of Mr. Mealey?

(Testimony of John Van Zante.)

A. I don't remember that Mealey suggested anything. Now, if he suggested it it was not in my presence. It wasn't in the room where the affidavits were made.

Q. Didn't it occur to you in that examination that these parties didn't know to whom they had deeded that land at all, and that they didn't know to whom they had mortgaged the land at all, and some of them didn't know that they had mortgaged it at all?

A. If I was going through an examination of that kind now I would see things in it that I didn't at that time, and I remember Mr. Stratford saying the evening or in the morning before there was an examination—he said, “These fellows have gone through this three times,” I think he said, “And they know about what I am going to ask.” But to me it didn't occur that it was a farce, if it was a farce.

Q. You didn't know that they had gone through it three times, did you?

A. I didn't know they had ever been called upon by the Government before. [579]

Q. And they didn't appear as if they had been called upon, did they, when they came in there?

A. Well, they were quite free in their manner. They weren't disturbed.

Q. So far as you were able to ascertain, there never had been any other examination?

A. I didn't know anything about any other examination.

Q. You never heard of any in your connection with the case?

A. Not until Mr. Stratford told me.

(Testimony of John Van Zante.)

Q. Now, the question on the last page: "How much money was paid to you by Mr. Mealey for Mr. Kribs at the time you made the deed and gave it to Mr. Mealey? A. I don't know." Now, that is changed to "$50" in figures.

A. That change is made in my handwriting.

Q. That is your handwriting? You can't state any more definitely how that happened?

A. No, I can't.

Q. Now, the next question is: "How much money did you borrow on the land? A. I believe it was $600. I don't know." Changed to $700. Is that "7" in your handwriting?

A. That is all in my handwriting except the two signatures and the date of the money.

Q. Now, the very last answer when he is asked if he has got anything further to state and he states, "I have nothing further to state." Then there is an explanation made to that. That must have been made by you—

A. It is in my handwriting.

Q. —altogether, because this witness, W. J. Lawrence, probably wouldn't think of this, considering his former testimony: "Except that Mr. Mealey acted as agent only in assisting me to procure the money for final proof and in the sale of the land." [580]

A. That is all in my handwriting. It was there before he signed it.

Q. That was suggested by you rather than the witness, don't you think?

A. No, I don't know about that, Mr. McCourt. His attention was called to his whole affidavit; it was read over by him or read to him, and these matters came up that way.

Q. Now, here is John Thomas Parker, in Government's Exhibit 10. That change there is the last where he answers: "I had part of the money of my own, and I sold cattle and hogs to the amount of $411." And you have added in there "Which together amounted" to the amount of $411. That was a mere grammatical correction you were making there?

A. I made that. I made the change there. That is my handwriting and my signature.

Q. Well, wherever those changes were made they were made by you and you have no present recollection of them now beyond what you have stated here?

A. No.

Q. You were not familiar with the land business at that time? A. No.

Q. Not educated in it as much as people have become in recent years.

A. I just had a general knowledge of it—not particular.

Q. Your instructions from Mr. Kribs up there were to the effect that you were to—or rather, you gathered from what he said that it was the desire to have it appear that the transaction had been regular and that if there was any intervention by Mr. Kribs or the Mealey boys there that would appear on its face to be a little irregular, the intention [581] was to explain all that and make it appear regular.

A. My instructions were to attend that investigation and to bring back copies of the affidavits with me. He never intimated that he wanted them to say this or that.

(Testimony of John Van Zante.)

Q. Did you receive your compensation direct from Mr. Kribs or through Mr. Tanner?

A. From Mr. Tanner.

Q. Who paid Miss Harkness? A. I did.

Q. You also took some affidavits there in Albany, did you not? A. No.

Q. How? A. No.

Q. At the Revere House? A. No.

Q. Do you remember Rozell—a man by the name of Rozell and a man by the name of Maynard?

A. No, never heard of them. It seems to me as if Stratford went to Brownsville from—

Q. You didn't go to Brownsville with him?

A. No.

Q. Did Mr. Stratford appear to have a pretty thorough acquaintance with Mr. Kribs at the time?

A. Well, I don't know. I never saw Mr. Stratford and Mr. Kribs together, and he didn't say anything about it that I recollect.

COURT.—Did I understand you to say that after these statements had been prepared, some of them were read to the entrymen by you, and other instruments the entrymen read themselves before signing them?

A. They were either read to the entrymen by me or read themselves.

COURT.—Do you remember those who read them, whether [582] that was done in the examining room or whether they took them outside?

A. Well, yes—it may be that some of them were taken outside. I am not sure about that. That may be, that some were taken outside.

(Testimony of John Van Zante.)

Mr. McCOURT.—What is that?

A. It may be that some of them were taken outside. I am not sure about that.

Q. (By Mr. McCOURT.) Well, Mr. Mealey went out with them whenever they were; if they were, he went out with them?

A. That may be; I don't know about that. I think as a matter of fact—that hadn't occurred to me until just now—I think some of them—I know some of them were taken outside.

COURT.—Read outside; I mean taken out and read before they were signed. A. Yes.

COURT.—Do you remember whether any of the statements that were taken outside were corrected before signing?

A. No, I could not state as to that.

Witness excused. [583]

Taken in case 3320, stipulated to be used in 3319.

[Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs, for Defendants.]

FREDERICK A. KRIBS, a witness called on behalf of the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. LIND.)

A. There were 14 claims, eight of which averaged about 171 acres, making a total of 1525.44 acres, at $5.25, is $12,208.56.

Mr. McCOURT.—How many dollars?

A. $12,208.56. Now, I gave him May 8th a check of $3,500, practically on account. I know there was some money coming on some of these claims, but there were either some school sections in that same vicinity that were fully closed for, or there were certificates out. At any rate, I gave him $3,500 on account. May 16th I gave him $5,962.60, which represented the land office fee in the proofs of May 16th. May 22, 1900, he came to me in Roseburg, and stated he was on his way to California, that he had some options on redwood, that for me to give him all the money that I could spare on this transaction, as he was going to prove up a large tract of land, and it would take money to do it. I wrote him a check for $9,000. The money, the consideration, the way I figured it out of the lands, of the 1,525 acres at $5.50 an acre, was $12,208.56. On the school lands, $6,400, making $18,608.56, of the checks that I gave him, amounting to $18,462.60. Well, I have no records or anything that I can go to to verify and find out about all of these things, and I notice there is about $140 difference in the account, which probably might have been adjudicated or adjusted in some other way, or there might have been some cash or something paid into the Land Office. I don't know. That is all I can say.

Q. Now, as a matter of fact, those lands were all paid for by you in full, during the months of April and May, 1900? [584]

A. Yes, sir. Practically speaking, all of the people that took these lands, with the exception of two or three, were strangers. They all scattered out. I didn't see so very much of Mr. Puter after that, from that day to this day. We took a trip into California, all of us, for a few weeks in the redwoods. Then after that trip, from that time to this, I have only occasionally seen him, and have had but a very little or any business dealings with him. The principal deal was our 11-7 business, that we tried out here a few weeks ago.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Mr. UELAND.—I think we have to just take the testimony right along, because otherwise we would have to cover the relation between the witness and Mr. Smith. I think we will have to take it right along, and then separate it by Mr. Smith.

COURT.—Very well. That will be satisfactory. Mr. Kribs' entire testimony can go into each branch of it.

Mr. UELAND.—Yes.

Q. Mr. Kribs, I now desire to inquire of you in regard to the lands involved in the other suit. I think, in conversation with you heretofore I have referred to those lands as the Mealey claims.

A. Yes.

Q. When did you first learn about those claims?

A. Some time prior, a short time prior to the proof of O. J. Mealey, William R. Mealey, John A. Thompson, and another name—I have looked up—a man named Steingrandt. Shortly before they proved up, Mr. O. J. Mealey met me and stated that they were going to prove up, and would like to borrow money to make their final proofs, [585] and stated they had some money, but they could use that in case they concluded not to sell at once. I told him that I would loan him the money. And I told him beside that that “when you make your proof, instead of making a loan, I would a great deal rather buy your land than have a mortgage proposition.”

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. Well, what was done subsequently?

A. Well, I have some abstracts here, partially from the records in the Land Office, which would state.

Q. By the way, before I forget it. I want to ask you a question in the other case before I overlook it. Recurring to the other case, which you have just testified in regard to, were you present at the Land Office when the second lot of proofs were taken in May, 1900, May 16, 1900?

A. I am not sure whether I was in Roseburg or not. I have no way of swearing to that positively. Now, I might have been there, because on that date there was a thousand dollars check, I believe, given to Mr. Puter, and that I don't know—you have the checks—so I don't know whether it was paid there or in Portland. If it was paid right there in Roseburg and deposited.

Q. Whether you were there or not, who attended to your interest on that occasion?

A. I think it was Mr. Shupe.

Q. He had full charge of the matter of making the loans and taking the conveyances, did he?

A. I instructed him to do that. Now, whether he took them all or not, I cannot tell without looking up.

Q. Did you take any? A. No.

Q. Well, now, we will recur to the matter in evidence. After this transaction with Mealey, O. J. Mealey, with [586] reference to furnishing money for proving up on those claims, that you named, the two Mealeys and Thompson and Steingrandt, what was done? A. After the proof?

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. No, after this conversation with O. J. Mealey.

Mr. McCOURT.—Just a moment. What are you looking at?

A. Come on. Look it over before I go to talking. You have got the stuff that I expected to have and refer to, and I have given it to you, so I have made a memorandum for myself.

Mr. McCOURT.—Well, this is the amounts of the checks.

A. And I have my data and dates, and some abstracts that I have.

Q. As long as it is a list of checks. You have some other memorandum there. I want to know where you got it before you testify about it.

Mr. McCOURT.—That is just a list of checks. I don't have any objection to that. We have the list of checks. I was going to put them in evidence.

A. I gave you the checks when I made these memorandums.

Mr. UELAND.—He is not testifying from the memorandum now, anyway.

Mr. McCOURT.—He was looking at it.

Mr. LIND.—It is simply to guide him as to the dates of the instrument.

Mr. McCOURT.—Well, if he has any use for these.

Mr. LIND.—No, I don't think so.

(Question read.)

Q. After that, what occurred, what did you do?

A. Well, from my memorandum, August 16.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

1900, they made [587] their proof at the Land Office, and the check for $1,642.04 was paid into the Land Office as their Land Office fees.

Q. Yes. Did you buy their claims from them at that time or subsequently?

A. I practically purchased the claims from them at that time, though I know that August 16th, I paid W. R. Mealey a balance on his claim by check $429.52. The same date there was a check for Steingrandt, which must have paid for his. Now, on the same dates were two checks of $100 each which I gave Thompson and O. J. Mealey. The only way that I can explain that is this. As I remember, they gave me some notes—they gave me some notes. Now, they have to go home and have their wives sign those deeds, and when those deeds came back again, August 27th, I gave them checks of $329.51, $329.49, and that transaction was closed.

Q. That together with the $100 made their equity?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did you pay for those four claims?

A. I think it was about $5.00 an acre. No, I think it was $5.25—$5.50 an acre.

COURT.—Whom were the checks made payable to, Mr. Kribs?

A. One check is W. R. Mealey, and on the Steingrandt, I think that was made to O. J. Mealey, and the other checks to O. J. Mealey and J. A. Thompson.

Q. Now, tell us all about that bargain and the transaction.

A. Well, about all there was to it they had filed on these lands, and shortly before proof, they came down to see me, and I said that I would furnish the money and just whenever their proofs were completed, they had the privilege [588] of giving a mortgage or they could sell out if they wanted to. And I made a bargain and gave them $5.25 for their lands, and got the title as soon as I could.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. Had you ever had any conversation with them or any of them in regard to these entries prior to that time?

A. No. Till a short time before proof was made I have no recollection of knowing that they had filed on any pieces of lands.

Q. You had met them before?

A. I met them by staying all night at their house when we went into the mountains going and coming.

Q. That was about the 20th of May?

A. The first trip.

Q. I mean the first of April.

A. The first of April, and then I was there again, I think it was for one night or possibly two in May, 1900, and then I was not up there again for about eight years.

Q. Prior to the purchase of these lands, had you ever talked with them about making entries?

A. No.

Q. Had they ever told you that they had or intended to take timber claims?

A. They never said anything about timber claims at all.

Q. Prior to the conversation you refer to?

A. Prior to the time that I saw them there in Roseburg, whenever that was.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. Now, when you met them in Roseburg and bought these claims, did you buy them in good faith?

A. I did.

Q. Believing that they had full right and could lawfully sell them to you? [589] A. Yes.

Q. Had you any suspicion of any wrong being intended on the Government, or anybody else?

A. No.

Q. You later bought and took, I think, took mortgages in some instances, of some of the remaining of the claims involved in that suit. Now, proceed and tell us.

A. About the time that this proof was made of these four pieces that we just mentioned—two Mealeys, Thompson, Steingrandt—I had a talk with O. J. Mealey, possibly William R. Mealey was there—I am not so sure—that they were going in there and going to locate a lot of their friends in the Sweet Home country on lands. They thought that they could get money at either Brownsville or Albany; in case that they wanted to get money, would I advance it. I told them if these people took good lands that were not burned, good, virgin timber, that I would advance money; that I would take a mortgage on the lands, whenever they had anything for sale, if it was good stuff, I would be very glad to buy it, and made it good and plain.

Q. When was that conversation?

A. That was not a great while, as I recollect, after this first transaction. I think it was about that time.

Q. Well, what occurred later?

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. Well, there were nine people, I find from the abstracts and the Land Office book by the name of Billings, S. Pickens, Andrew Wiley, Ericksen, Joe Steingrandt, Joseph Mickalson, John T. Barker, Charles Wiley, George Pickens. There was about 1,440 acres of land. They proved up August 27th, and there was a check paid [590] into the Land Office for the nine claims, amounting to $3,696.46.

Q. What other conversation did you have with reference to these claims, and with whom, and what was done?

A. Well, on this list of claims of 1,440 acres, I talked with them about this land after their proofs were made, or about that time—1,440 acres—said it was not as good lands as the other, and I told them that I would give them $4.75 an acre for that.

Q. Well, then what?

A. Well, about the time of proof, or shortly thereafter, at the time they proved up, I always took a note or mortgage or both, as my own protection, and I know the lands. Shortly after that, they all deeded their lands. That is, I have some abstracts here. Here is the receipt of August 27th.

Mr. McCOURT.—Now, what is that you are referring to—that memorandum you made?

A. This is from the County Recorder of Albany and of an abstract of each piece. The abstract of the record, and also some data as to when they proved up.

Mr. McCOURT.—When was that made?

A. In the last few days—last few weeks.

Mr. McCOURT.—This abstract was?

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. Yes. Part of it is from Land Office records, and part from Albany.

Mr. McCOURT.—I would like to have the witness testify from his recollection.

COURT.—I suppose that is an abstract of what is already in evidence?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes. [591]

COURT.—Well, if he makes mistakes in dates it can be corrected by the record.

Mr. McCOURT.—I understand. But I want to see whether his recollection is good.

A. I was told I could use this, or I would try to charge my memory. And that is why I have not done it.

Mr. McCOURT.—I want to see how far his memory is charged with these past transactions, rather than from the record aiding his memory to the record.

COURT.—Let him state what he remembers about it.

A. I think some of them sold the same day, and some very shortly thereafter—sold the lands.

Q. Now, you said a moment ago you took a mortgage for your own protection. What did you mean by that?

A. In case they would go home and wanted to change their mind and didn't want to sell, and didn't sell, I would have something to show for the money that I had advanced.

Q. To the Land Office? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Well, how many claims did you buy in the aggregate through the Mealeys?

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. Well, in this transaction there is, four and nine is thirteen—I think it is 24 claims involved, 24 claims in the proofs of August 16th, August 27th I think there were eleven, and October, making 24 claims in those three lots.

Q. Were you present at the Land Office when the proofs were made in these cases?

A. I think that I was present in August.

Q. Were you present at the subsequent times?

A. I was not present in October.

Q. Had you anything to do with the proofs?

A. No. [592]

Q. When did you pay for these claims—to whom and how? Who brought you the deeds?

A. The deeds were either brought to me or sent to me, either by O. J. Mealey, W. R. Mealey, or possibly Thompson. That I cannot tell. It is one or the other of them. The three of them were working and locating and such a price as I made, whenever these lands were ready for sale, I says, "I will pay so much for them" whenever the deeds were presented.

Q. And you paid for them. State how you paid for those 24 claims that you refer to.

A. On the first nine claims, August 27th, I paid $1,000 to Mealey brothers and Thompson, in three checks $333.33, one check $333.34, the other two $333.33, making one thousand dollars. On September 16th I gave Thompson a check for $542.33, W. R. Mealey, $542.53, O. J. Mealey, $542.53 and that left a balance on these lands of $516.15 of that payment paid to date. Now, the third claims, there was a check to the Land Office of $4155.68. That must have been looked after possibly by Mr. Shupe. I was not there at that time. October 17th there was a check of $410.61 which was for the Watkins claim. November 1st, I paid O. J. Mealey $300. December 13th, I gave him $638.32; December 13th, J. A. Thompson, $940.82; December 13th, W. R. Mealey, $940.82. Now, that left a balance on these claims of a little over $1500. There was a little over $500 on the lot of nine claims, on October 17, 1902. The only way I can get at it was from some check stubs which stated—stubs of the checks I gave Mr. McCourt when patents were issued on Rock Creek lands. I gave [593] them one check of $772.04, $632.54, $632.54, making a total of $2037.12. For that account there is about a difference of $6.00 somewhere, which I cannot account for. Now, in one of these lists of lands, there was a piece of land taken by a man named Fred Wodtli. I found the stub of that check, dated December 13, 1900, for $850 for the Wodtli claim. Yet in looking up my abstract, I find that Watkins October made a deed, I think, to one of the Mealeys and the Mealey deeded it to me.

Q. Did you know anything about these entries or the entrymen?

A. The entrymen, as I recollect—Q. except the Mealeys and Mr. Thompson—

A. They were all strangers to me.

Q. Did you have any conversation with them at all or dealings with them? A. I did not.

Q. Did you have any conversation with Wodtli?

A. No, I did not.

Q. You made a check to him direct, did you?

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. No, I think it went to one of the Mealey boys or Thompson. I am not sure. I think they got it. I made some inquiries—I gave $850 for the land, and my recollection is Wodtli received $750 or something like that. It might have been $800. I know I gave $850 for it.

Q. At the time you bought these claims, did you pay the current market price? A. I did.

Q. Or higher?

A. I paid the market price right through that lands were selling for in that vicinity. [594]

Q. Did you buy them in good faith?

A. I did.

Q. Did you believe that these parties who sold to you—Thompson and the Mealeys you bought from—some of the claims were bought from the Thompsons and the Mealeys, were they?

A. Practically the deeds and the transactions with these people were with the Mealeys. I was not up in that country, and did not know these people, and I looked to Mealeys and Thompson—they were given a good reputation. I stated I would pay so much per acre, and my impression from them was this, that they were going practically themselves for a locating fee, or make a commission or something out of it—make what they had a mind to.

Q. Now, in buying those claims and taking those conveyances did you believe that the parties who made the sales and made the conveyances had the right to do so lawfully and rightfully?

A. Yes.

Q. Was there any doubt in your mind on that question?

A. I asked two, all three of them one time, I says: "How are you locating these people, and who are they"? "They are our neighbors; they have lived here for years; some of them born and raised in these mountains. We are locating them." I says: "Are you hiring them to go on there, anything of that kind"? They says, "Nothing of that kind." They says they can go on there, and after they get their land, they can do with it just as they please. They put it up to me as a straight, legitimate proposition.

Q. Well, did you have any reason to doubt their statement?

A. I did not. There was no holler through the country [595] about land frauds or mix-ups or anything of the kind. I was up there in April, or May. At that time I did not even talk to them about any of these lands or anybody else. And I never went up there again for about eight years and a half after. I was very busy off in Coos and Douglas and California, sometimes in Idaho. And I took their word for what they said.

Q. How did you come to take these conveyances to yourself in this instance? They eventually became the property of C. A. Smith, did they not?

A. Yes.

Q. And Swanson?

A. I didn't think anything particular about that, because either they might have been deeded to Willd or any other name he suggested, or to myself, and at the same time, I know I had one idea of buying up quite a bit. I was a stranger here. They would find

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

I was practically located and staying here, and it was my name, they would hunt me up, perhaps there might be propositions presented all over the country or territories, and the people would come right directly to me. I would cut out just as many third and fourth men as possible.

Q. Intermediaries? A. Yes.

Q. The money used for paying for these conveyances, was that your own or was it Smith's?

A. That was practically all Smith's land—Smith's money.

Q. In regard to these lands, had you submitted these purchases to Smith before they were made, or did you not submit them until after they were made?

A. I practically told him about them after they were made, as I recollect. But I had talked about that country, certain streams in that country, and the slopeage of [596] that country would be a good territory to group up a tract of land without presenting any particular quarter sections of land.

Q. What were you paid for purchasing these lands for Mr. C. A. Smith?

A. Well, we had quite a argument in settling, about compensation. That was some time in December, 1900, I guess, we made our first settlement, something like about twenty-seven and a half cents an acre or something like that.

Q. Were you buying for other people at the same time? A. Yes.

Q. Who?

A. I grouped up quite a lot of land for Governor Pillsbury, some for John and Charles Pillsbury, picked up quite good interests for myself, and then I had interests for Gale, Snyder and had other names, I would have to look up to fresh up my mind.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. Now, were you paid the like amount of commission on the lands in the Puter suit?

A. I got for everything prior to December, 1900, I think it was all $.27½ an acre.

Q. After that you received?

A. Well, about a year afterward, there was not so much scripping and so much business. and there was a contract about one year after that, December, 1901, at $.50 an acre.

Q. Now, did you have any other relation with C. A. Smith than to look up lands, submit them to him and buy them at a compensation of $.27½ an acre?

A. No, I could submit lands to whomever I pleased, and whenever I pleased, and that is about what I did, what [597] I have been doing ever since I have been here. I did a great deal of business for him, for the reason that the territories that he selected covered a large expanse of country. The country suited him, and I would show all this up to him, and he would take it. Of course I would take all the money I could get to make investments.

Q. Now, if he had been dissatisfied with these purchases from the Mealeys, or through the Mealeys, for instance, what would have been the result? Would you have kept the lands?

Mr. McCOURT.—Objected to as immaterial, calling for stating a hypothetical case.

Mr. LIND.—It may be indifferently suggestive of the idea, but the idea that I wish to bring out was whether or not he would have kept the lands himself if his transaction had not been approved, as bearing—I want to place before the Court fully the actual relations between C. A. Smith and Mr. Kribs. And it is to that end that I ask that question.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

COURT.—You can show whether he had authority from Smith to buy this, or whether he bought it on chances of Smith taking it afterwards?

A. Now, had you any instructions from Smith to buy these Mealey claims? A. No.

Q. Did you act entirely on your own judgment in buying them? A. I did.

Mr. McCOURT.—Well, now, if the Court please, I move to strike it out because it is leading. The witness already said he talked to Smith before he bought those claims, about that territory up there, and they concluded that it would be advisable, in the interests of Smith, to [598] group a lot of claims up there, and that was the authority he bought them on. Now, they want to show he bought them on his own hook and submitted them later.

Mr. LIND.—No, I don't say that. I don't pretend that they were bought on his own hook except in this way.

Mr. McCOURT.—Well, that was not the case that arose at all. He might have refused to give them to Smith and Smith might have refused to take them, but he did not.

COURT.—I think he may testify as to the circumstances surrounding this transaction. His opinion is probably not binding on the Court.

Q. Now, during this period, what was the status of the account, if you know between you and C. A. Smith? A. How?

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. Yes, whether he was in your debt, or you in his debt, or how?

A. Well, he was largely in my debt. He owed me quite a little money on former transactions—land matters—before I come here. And I did a great deal of business for him. I accounted for everything I received from him. Consequently by going and demanding a settlement by most any old time, he would be owing me quite a little money.

Q. Now, when he sent you remittances, were they sent for any particular tract, or purchased as a rule, or were they sent simply because you called for money for investment?

A. Well, generally it was because I called for money for investment, and I would probably give him some idea. If I was going way off into a brand new territory or something, he knew nothing about, why I should feel that I should tell him about it; but it would be for lands [599] that I thought he should acquire to group up with what perhaps he already owned.

Q. Now, the moneys sent to you here on the coast, were they charged to you in the accounts of C. A. Smith? Were you charged as a debtor by him for moneys that were sent to you? A. Yes.

Q. And that is the way your account has always stood?

A. Yes. I used to just simply—had at one time a Smith account—would give him credit for whatever he sent to me, and charge him for whatever lands I purchased, or any other expenses that should go to that account.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. Now, did he always take lands that you purchased that you may have intended to turn over to him, during this period of 1901 and 1902?

Mr. McCOURT.—Objected to as immaterial.

A. Yes. I on my own responsibility selected with scrip between 2,000 and 3,000 acres. He saw the location, and he asked me why I took it. I told him it was very heavy, and it was very nice. He says: "I haven't anything in that part of the territory, and you should have submitted it to me." I says: "All right." I went out and fixed my account over, about two hours afterwards, and come back and I says: "How does this statement suit you?" He says: "Where is the land?" I says: "Other people have got it." I says: "I am going to keep a quarter of it myself, and other people will take it." Well, he asked me some more questions about it, and he says: "You have been in a considerable rush about this." "Well," I says, "any other territories I will see that you know all about it before I go into it." He didn't [600] get it.

Q. How?

A. He never got it, and he has not got it yet.

Q. Well, who has got those lands?

A. It is Pillsbury and Kribs have got it.

Q. Well, the point that I want to get at, when did this occur?

Mr. McCOURT.—Now, just a moment. I move to strike all that out as immaterial.

A. That was some time in the summer of 1900.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

I think it was July or August, 1900.

Mr. LIND.—I wish to be frank with the Court, that I wish to show by this witness the facts as they actually exist, whether the relation as it existed in fact, and as it will be developed here, and by evidence taken in Minneapolis, whether it constitutes an agency. I don't know—that is a question of law for the Court to determine in the final analysis. And it is with the view of placing the actual relations between the parties, in evidence, that I have asked these questions.

COURT.—Very well. You may proceed with the examination upon that theory. I understood Mr. Kribs to testify that Smith visited this section of the country before he made any contract for the purchase of this land, and that he acted on Smith's direction as to this particular locality.

Mr. LIND.—That is true, yes.

COURT.—You may develop the other side of that suggestion.

Mr. LIND.—Yes. You may take the witness.

[601]

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

Now, then, in these Mealey claims up there, you say that you did not know anything about those till about the time Mealey went to prove up?

A. It wasn't a great while before.

Q. And that after he did prove up, or the Mealey boys proved up, and one fellow by the name of Antone L. Steingrandt, that Mealey proposed to you that he would get a number of his neighbors to locate on lands, and try to buy them from them after they located.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. Well, I don't know whether he had reference to these particular lands, or some other lands that he intended to locate, or not, because most of the lands involved in these suits were filed on before he came down to ask me whether I would furnish him money in those first four cases.

Q. Well, you didn't say anything about that this morning, did you? A. What say?

Q. You stated this morning you did not—

A. I don't know. I spoke in a general way that he wanted money for some of his friends.

Q. Yes, he was going to get them to locate afterwards. Well now, he never located those fellows until after you and Smith had been up there to look at the land, did he?

A. Prior to that time such lands as he had he turned over, I assumed, to Puter and McKinley, and they did the locating.

Q. You knew that he was one of the men who located the land, or picked it out, for McKinley and Puter?

A. That is what I understood. [602]

Q. You understood that, when you went up there first?

A. I heard it, I think, at the time I was up there, or shortly after.

Q. Mealey was there, and did he go over the ground with you, with McKinley?

A. Yes. William Mealey, I think was with us, and I am not sure about Judd.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. And the next time you went out, when you and Smith went out to look at the lands?

A. I think they both were along.

Q. Both the Mealeys were along?

A. I think so.

Q. And you and Smith expressed yourselves as kind of desirous of acquiring that timber?

A. There wasn't much of anything said. I know the impression I had, that probably Puter and McKinley had selected nearly everything that was worth anything. The odd sections belonged to the Wagon Road Company. I didn't have much of any reason to believe there would be much of anything left in there. I don't think the subject came up at all.

Q. At any rate, all the money that was furnished was furnished by you?

A. Yes; excepting I didn't furnish the money for Wodtli, I think.

Q. No, you didn't furnish the money for Wodtli. He furnished his own money?

A. There might be some more of them, but I cannot tell.

Q. Now, the checks you were speaking of this morning, I will ask you if a mutilated check which I hand you, is one of the checks you mentioned there? I think per- [603]

A. I think it was of August 16, $1642. This is $1642, and here is some other parts. I don't know how it got torn. I tried to put it together.

Q. Yes. Now, you got your deeds immediately, or practically immediately after you made proof?

A. I think I took two deeds. The fact of the case in those four claims I really bargained for them the same day they proved up. I took two deeds that day, and two, two or three days later.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer that check in evidence. Marked "Government's Exhibit 75."

Q. And you took some mortgages there too, didn't you, the same as you did in the Puter case?

A. I think I took two mortgages and two notes. I cannot tell that now. But I know two had to go to Sweet Home to get their wives to join the deed. And then, if I did, why those papers were no doubt returned to the people who made them.

Q. Did you talk to these entrymen?

A. I had my talk principally, I think, it is with Judd Mealey, but perhaps in these particular cases—I do not remember Antonio Steingrandt—but I talked with Mr. Mealey, the two Mealey boys, and Thompson. I am sure, because I felt I had some acquaintance with them; but this other man I don't recollect of.

Q. You were down there when those fellows were locating, weren't you?

A. I do not recollect when they filed on the land. I do not recollect of seeing them.

Q. You remember helping put old man Billings on the proper [604] piece of land? You got him on the wrong piece.

A. No, sir, nothing like that happened.

Q. Didn't do it? A. No, sir.

Q. Do you remember working the rush act on old man Tuthill down there, and getting a deed out of him right quick?

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. No, I don't. That is imagination.

Q. He just imagines that?

A. Someone does.

Q. What? A. Somebody imagines that.

Q. He stated it here on the stand. Didn't you hear him?

A. I don't think I was here when he testified.

Q. Now, what day was it you paid the Mealey brothers and Thompson for their lands?

A. I paid August 16th, William R. Mealey a check for the balance of his land.

Q. When had you paid him any before that?

A. It is the money I let him have, that I was going to take a mortgage for, the money paid into the Land Office.

Q. Oh, I see. And that was the very day he made proof, wasn't it?

A. Yes. And I paid for the Steingrandt piece, and one of the Mealeys, or Mealey brothers—I don't know—$389.44, August 16th.

Q. Yes, the same day.

A. Now then, August 16th, Mealey wanted some money, and Thompson, and I gave them $100 each.

Q. What was that for?

A. They had agreed, as I recollect, to sell their lands, and they wanted some money. I suppose for personal [605] expenses, or something. I didn't ask them what they wanted it for.

Q. Well, you had already paid them money for their land that same day?

A. No—that is, William R. Mealey and Steingrandt. Now then, this is to O. J. Mealey and J. A.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Thompson. August 27th, when their deeds came, each one of them got a check for about 329 dollars and odd cents, which closed that account.

Q. Well, they didn't give any mortgage then?

A. I may not have taken a mortgage; I may have taken notes from those two; because they didn't close up at the time.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer in evidence the checks just described. (August 16, $389.44, $429.52, $100, $100.)

Marked "Government's Exhibit 76."

Q. How long was it after they made proof that day, that you finally agreed to buy the land from them?

A. That I cannot state.

Q. You are sure it was after proof?

A. Yes.

Q. What makes you think it was not in the morning, about half-past eight, before they went to make proof?

A. Of course, naturally, they would make their proof, and if their proof was all right, the money acceptable to the Land Office, I would have the payment made to the Land Office to complete their proof, and then it would be time enough to take a deed after that, or a mortgage.

Q. You still had in mind the deed proposition there. You thought it would be necessary to take a mortgage out of Mealey's, so you would be sure to get a deed?

A. Not necessarily. If he wanted to go and sell it to [606] somebody else, I would have something to show for the money put into the Land Office.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. Well now, what payments did you make August 27th?

A. August 27th I gave a check into the Land Office for $3696.46.

Q. Now, that is in evidence here?

A. I think so.

Q. What else did you pay that day?

A. August 27th, I paid $1,000 to the two Mealeys and Thompson.

Q. In separate checks? A. Yes.

Q. What did that represent?

A. I do not know just what they did with that particular money.

Q. Don't you know why you paid it to them?

A. Yes, I made a bargain, I know,—I am sure—for some of these pieces.

Q. Well, how much later in the day did you draw those checks than the check that you paid the Land Office?

A. Oh, it might have been a few hours; something like that; I don't know.

Q. Well, did you really draw any check? Wasn't that one of those memorandum checks you had authorized the bank to draw, about a week before, for you?

A. I cannot tell. I gave you what I have got, so that you probably can tell. You have got that there. I am pretty sure it was a check that I drew myself. I cannot say. I guess you will find that it is a check that I drew myself—the three of them.

Q. Yes, that is a check for the three of them that you drew? A. Yes. [607]

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. But I am talking about the Land Office check, for the payments for proofs.

A. Let's see. I don't know that I have any data here. I cannot tell.

Q. Well, the record will show.

A. I gave you what I had.

Q. Well now, what else did you draw that day?

A. I don't think I drew any checks on August 27th.

Q. Well, you drew those checks?

A. I drew the three checks.

Q. To Judd Mealey and J. A. Thompson that same day? A. I told you about those.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer that bunch of checks in evidence. (August 27, $333.33, $333.33, $333.34, $329.49, $329.51.)

Marked "Government's Exhibit 77."

Q. Now, what is the next check you gave in connection with the Mealeys?

A. September 16th I gave a check to J. A. Thompson; also one to W. R. Mealey, also one to O. J. Mealey, amounting to about 542 dollars and some cents—$542.33, $542.53, $542.53.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 78."

Q. Didn't you make any other payment that day?

A. I can't find that I did.

Q. What were they for?

A. That was, I had it here, these sums of money, total amount paid on the nine claims, $6323.85. They come to $6840, or there was $516.15 due them on the nine claims on September 16th.

Q. That was nine claims that were proved up that

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

day? [608]

A. For the nine that proved up at that time.

Q. Yes, and you made a Land Office payment that day, didn't you?

A. This $3696.46 is included in this $6323.85.

Q. What $6323.85?

A. I am sum totalling all these checks that I have given as to these nine entries here.

Q. Well, how did it happen that you were dividing up these moneys equally among O. J. Mealey, J. A. Thompson and William R. Mealey?

A. I made a price, as near as I can get at it,—I had no records to get it exactly; I consulted it recently; and they stated, the Mealeys and Thompson, that this list of lands was $4.75 per acre. Now, after I had furnished, these people made up their mind to sell, I fixed the price at $4.75 per acre. They could go and buy these lands. And as I thought at the time, in 1900, they were protecting themselves for a locating fee, or they were buying for less than the purchase price that I made. And whenever they would come and want any money—at that time they seemed to be equal partners,—if they all happened to be together, and they wanted a certain sum of money, or something like that, why, they generally all asked for the same amount, or something like that: that they would need in their locating business $1,000, or $1200—to divide it up in three equal parts: something like that. It was at their request.

Q. That was based upon the amount of land you were getting, whatever they were paid?

A. Well, not necessarily. They might ask for

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

some given sum of money, they might want to use for a land transaction, or something like that. [609]

Q. Now, October 9th is the next one?

A. Yes.

Q. How much was that?

A. We paid the Land Office $4155.68, that, as I recollect, was a memorandum check.

Q. What else did you pay that day?

A. Well, I have October 17th, paying a check, a memorandum check, I think it was, $410.61.

Q. And what else?

A. November 1st to O. J. Mealey.

Q. How about October 17th? Haven't you got some more there? Oh, no, that is another year. November 1st, what?

A. November 1st I paid O. J. Mealey $300. December 13th, O. J. Mealey, $638.32; December 13th, J. A. Thompson, $940.82; December 13th, W. R. Mealey, $940.82.

Q. What were they for?

A. In this list of lands were 1780.23 acres at $5.00 per acre, was 8901.15. I paid them $7386.25, which includes the two memorandum checks, I think it is; that is, the two checks into the United States Land Office at Roseburg, on these two claims, would make about $1514.90, that would be due on this transaction. On the first lot was $516.15, or making a total balance of $2031.05. Now, October 17, 1902, about two years after, I paid J. A. Thompson this amount on these patents that were issued. Also I see I paid him $772.04. I paid O. J. Mealey $632.54, W. R. Mealey $632.54, making $2037.12, or practically over paying them about $6.07 on both transactions; that is, of August and of October, 1900; and the other check, as near as I can explain it, of December 13, 1900, of $850, was for the [610] Fred Wodtli claim.

Q. That last check you refer to is the one I hand you here now? A. I think that is it, yes.

Mr. UELAND.—Mr. District Attorney, in the paper which I handed you yesterday if you show them to Mr. Kribs. I think you will find a memorandum of taxes, figured in there, which probably accounts for the $6.00 he speaks about.

Mr. McCOURT.—I don't know.

Mr. UELAND—It is not very serious; but I am sure I saw it.

Mr. McCOURT.—This Wodtli transaction is not involved in the case, but I might let it go in.

Mr. LIND.—Yes.

Mr. McCOURT.—I introduce the check of December 13, 1901, in explanation of testimony regarding the Wodtli claim.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 79."

Q. Now, did you explain the checks to William R. and O. J. Mealey for $300?

A. All I can tell now is a question of memory. I have nothing that I can find. Simply it was $300 on account.

Q. Does it relate to this transaction?

A. It does, to the best I can get at it.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer it in evidence. Marked "Government's Exhibit 80."

Q. Your check of July 15, 1901, $250 to Thompson.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. July 15, 1901. I don't have that here. I don't see that.

Q. Look at the check.

A. I don't think that this check had anything to do with this transaction. I don't find this $250 check here.

Mr. McCOURT.—I want the record to show in evidence t [611] checks of December 13, 1900, mentioned by the witness. It may be marked as one exhibit ($940.82, $940.82, $638.32).

Marked "Government's Exhibit 81."

Q. How about the check for October 19, 1901? Does that belong in this case?

A. October 19, 1901. No, that is not in this case.

Mr. McCOURT.—I offer in evidence checks of October 17, 1902, to J. A. Thompson, $772.04, William R. Mealey, $632.54; O. J. Mealey, $632.54.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 82."

Q. Now, what kind of arrangement did you have, Mr. Kribs, by which it was held back till after patent some $2,000?

A. It was a large list of land, and I bought at times a piece of land not patented; and I always make it a rule to hold back money until the patent is issued, in most cases. Even a small technical error, if there isn't anything coming to them, they don't care whether they fix it up or not. If there is something coming to them, they will get out and get busy. [612]

Q. Now, isn't this the proposition instead of the story you have been telling us; that the Mealey boys—that the Mealey boys and Thompson took up those three claims with the others with an agreement with you to give them $5.25 an acre for them when they proved up? A. No.

Q. And with the further understanding that all the other people they could locate and secure the lands for, that you were to pay them $4.75 an acre for? A. No.

Q. It wasn't? A. No.

Q. And that this story that you have got fixed up now is one that you fixed up since there became a question as to these lands?

A. It is not a fixed-up story.

Q. No, it isn't a fixed-up story. A. No.

Q. And that the Mealey boys under that arrangement were to get the claims at whatever price they could, and you were to pay them—

A. Whenever anything was for sale, that I would pay a certain price for the lands; and I figured that they would either get a commission out of it or else buy the land and make what they could.

Q. And you knew there was not a single one of those fellows that had made an entry there at the time you and Smith was there—there wasn't any unperfected entries in that country when you fellows were there? A. In May, you mean?

Q. Yes.

A. No, I think they filed afterward.

Q. And they come up in batches; brought down to Roseburg [613] there by the Mealey boys—you know that—on the same date to file?

A. I don't know as I was there at different times when they were filing or not.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. You knew they all filed at the same time—or all proved up at the same time?

A. I knew they were proving up about the same time.

Q. And that they were deeding just as quick as they could get their signatures on paper after they proved up? A. Nothing—

Q. You knew that? A. Yes.

Q. Never called that—that didn't arouse your suspicion at all?

A. Nothing strange about it at all.

Q. Did you ask those fellows if Mealey had hired them?

A. No, I didn't see but a few—never talked to them.

Q. Didn't want to see them?

A. Had no business with them.

Q. No. You knew the Mealeys were taking care of them—bringing them down there?

A. That I had no proof of, whether they were bringing them down.

Q. You know they came down when a lot of fellows came to file?

A. I knew the Mealey brothers and Thompson located them.

Q. And you knew that they came with them every time they filed—or every time they came to Roseburg? A. Yes.

Q. Now, is that the regular course of business for a locator to be so solicitous of his—the party he locates as to go around with them in bunches to take care of them?

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. It would be all right in this case where they all had [614] to borrow money and someone had to look after their interest. If they didn't come they would have to send somebody else.

Q. Didn't the very fact that the fellows didn't have a cent of money, not even to pay their railroad fare, indicate to your mind something wrong with the transaction?

A. Well, I didn't know they were as destitute as that.

Q. You didn't? A. No.

Q. You knew these people had agreed to pay all the expenses, didn't you?

A. They never said anything to me about paying expenses. What they wanted was the money to pay the entrance fee in the Land Office when they proved up.

Q. And you were to pay for making proof—the publishing notices?

A. Well, I don't recall. I paid whatever the Land Office called for—whether Land Office fees or notices for the paper, I don't know; I don't recollect.

Q. What were you paying that for?

A. For the Government fee at the Land Office.

Q. What was your purpose in making payment?

A. Paying for the land.

Q. Yes. A. So they could prove up.

Q. Well, what was your purpose though? What was the object that you had to attain in the matter?

A. Whenever they would get title I would try and get the land.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. Now, how did you try to get that land? How were you getting that land there?

A. I had my dealings with the Mealey brothers and Thompson.

Q. You had an understanding with the Mealey brothers they should get the land for you? [615]

A. Well, whenever—that I would furnish the money. I had made no bargain with them.

Q. No, that was the understanding you had with the Mealeys—they were to get the land for you—before they took the fellows down to make proof, you had that understanding?

A. I told them I would furnish the money—the entrance money.

Q. Yes.

A. And that I would take a note and mortgage as my security; that whenever it was proved up, that I would buy it; would buy it just as soon as it was proved up.

Q. And you asked them to look after it and so they got it for you just as quick as they could after it was proved up?

A. They probably could buy it at a less price, but I understood they made a commission on it and would be right there to look after their own interest.

Q. And you had Mr. Shupe down there at Roseburg employed to draw deeds, and whenever Mealey brought in a man, to make a deed for it?

A. He was my attorney.

Q. Was he? A. Yes.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. You gave him instructions whenever the Mealeys brought a man in there, to make a deed for him or any other old instrument that was necessary?

A. I don't recollect giving him any general instructions like that at all.

Q. You did know that you got most of your deeds, or half of them at least, on the day proof was made?

A. Well, they might be half; I don't know. I haven't looked that up. I didn't consider it was any difference whether I bought the same day they proved up or a hundred [616] days afterward if they weren't hired to go on that land.

Q. Yes, and if you didn't hire them yourself there was no state of facts that could make you understand or believe or suspect that anybody else hired them, was there?

A. The question wasn't in my mind to look it up to find out whether anybody was hiring them.

Q. You didn't want to know that; didn't care about it so long as you didn't actually do it yourself?

A. You don't understand one thing. In passing through on the train from Roseburg to Portland at Albany I should think that would be about 100 miles from the land. That would be about the nearest I would be to the property. I was at Roseburg then, on the coast and California, looking after large crews of men examining lands. I wasn't making a specialty—laying awake or thinking a terrible lot about a handful of claims up in Linn County. Had no occasion to go up there or look into it.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. You had been there and there was nobody located there and pretty soon along comes the very fellow that had piloted you through the timber up there offering you a lot of claims newly and freshly located on—

A. Well, what of it?

Q. And that didn't arouse any notion in your mind that he might have had some prior arrangement with these parties he located on the land?

A. I looked up the Mealey boys and Thompson in several places. They were given fine and honest reputations.

Q. Where did you look them up?

A. At Albany; at Brownsville; I asked parties in Lebanon about them. They all said they were responsible people—people of some means and men of their word. Further than that I was never up in that country until about eight and a half years after nearly all those transactions. [617]

Q. Yes, I know you didn't go back there any more. You relied upon Mealey for that absolutely.

A. I had confidence in whatever they might do.

Q. If they told you there was so much timber on a claim you believed it because you had been there and knew generally it was about so much?

A. I had got ideas from the examination I made.

Q. The claims secured were in good position with reference to other claims you had?

A. They laid first rate in that connection.

Q. And just as though you had picked them out yourself to own along with the balance of your claims?

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. Yes, and then I took as a precautionary measure—occasionally I sent a man from time to time just simply to go out and check up our estimates—some cruiser.

Q. How many cruisers did you have?

A. I had altogether that summer in round numbers, I should think, 15 or 16.

Q. Who all were they?

A. Well, there was a Mr. Davis, a Mr. Norster, Charles and John Thom, McMullen, a fellow named McVicker—some work from John Givens. I would have to look it up to catch all of them.

Q. How long did they work for you?

A. Some of them worked all through 1900, 1901, and 1902 and one of them is working yet.

Q. How did they work—on salary?

A. Principally.

Q. They were in the locating business too, weren't they? A. Not my men.

Q. How about Givens and McMullen?

A. They may—in one location. I think Givens and McMullen [618] and one other fellow made some locations, but they were merely cruising by the day.

A. And this man Thom, didn't he do some locating too?

A. Not after he hired out to work for me and not until after he had quit working for me.

Q. What this Givens and McMullen located you got too? A. No, not all of them.

Q. You got most of them?

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. I got some of them.

Q. Those you turned over to the Pillsburys?

A. Yes, well, the Pillsbury Lumber Company—to them.

Q. Did they locate those people on their own hook, or on yours? A. What?

Q. Did they locate these people on their own responsibility or on your responsibility?

A. On their own responsibility.

Q. You had nothing to do with that?

A. No, sir.

Q. But you got the land?

A. I got part of the lands they located and some I did not get.

Q. Do you remember what proportion of the amount of money the Mealeys were to have there that you retained? A. In what money?

Q. Of the money that they were to get as the profits of this transaction of locating the people up there?

A. I didn't know at that time how much they were making.

Q. Wasn't it actually understood between you that you were holding back one-third of what would approximately be their profit in the transaction?

A. I thought you asked how much money they had made—about [619] how much they made the quarter. I don't know. I think it was different amounts in different deals. I don't know what it would be in this without figuring it up.

Q. Didn't you understand as an average that you were holding a third of what would be their profit in the transaction?

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. Well, I don't know that.

Q. That is, this one transaction here. You had several transactions with them?

A. Yes, I did.

Q. They located lands in the Oregon City district that you got? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Both homestead and timber entries?

A. I don't know so much about homesteads.

Q. Those were matters that went to patent earlier than these— A. Yes.

Q. —and not involved in this case. You did this—generally on your transactions wasn't it a fact that in your dealings with the Mealeys that you understood with them you were to retain one-third of the money until the patents issued—one-third of the profits?

A. Well now, the transaction of October 17th amounts to $8900; about two thousand was held back, and that would be—it probably—about a little better than two-ninths or probably twenty per cent—something like that.

Q. How long was that held for?

A. What say?

Q. How long was that held for?

A. They received their pay October 17, 1902—

Q. Well now—

A. That would be about two years—something like that.

Q. Well, you had more. How much was held back on the other [620] claims now?

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. On the first lot I think it was five—let's see—$516 was held back and that deal amounted to about $6800.

Q. Well, how long was that held back?

A. Well, I think that $515—I think that $515 or $516 was December 13, 1900. There was fifteen hundred and some odd dollars due and this $515 on the first lot was due in September. Now, the next three payments and October 17th practically balanced that, so it would be from December 13th to October in one case and the other case from September 16, 1900, to October 1902.

Q. Yes, but you only paid $2000, October 17, 1902, didn't you?

A. October 17, 1902, I paid—

Q. Three checks?

A. Three checks, making $2037.12.

Q. Well, that is all you had held back, wasn't it?

A. That would be all on the—

Q. On those 17 claims or 18, whatever they are.

A. Yes, on the two lists that would be the 20 claims.

Q. 20 claims? A. Yes.

Q. Well, that would be about $100 a claim you held back?

A. Somewhere about that. There was no regular stated sum as I recollect.

Q. Now, in these cases you made much the same sort of a report to Mr. Smith as you made in the other cases?

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. I made reports from time to time and just when I made them I can't tell, but generally about every eight or nine months I would make some kind of a statement.

Q. And you reported the troubles that you were having in getting them expedited to patent?

A. I don't recollect so much about it. [621]

Q. Same as in the other case?

A. I don't know as there was any trouble that ever came about these particularly to cause any worryment. I don't remember.

Q. You had a great deal of correspondence with Stratford or with your attorney about it and getting Van Zante and Stratford started out taking affidavits, and writing to the Mealey boys about it and getting affidavits taken, didn't you?

A. There wasn't a very great amount of trouble.

Q. What?

A. There wasn't a very great amount of trouble.

Q. Well, they were held up two years, just the same as the others, weren't they?

A. No—let's see. I think they were issued in June, 1902.

Q. July—August. July 9th part of them, and August 12, part of them.

Q. I don't know the year, but they proved up.

Q. Held up practically two years?

A. Perhaps so.

Q. Yes, just the same as the others. Busy taking affidavits in them with Stratford, weren't you?

A. The affidavits didn't take a very long time.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. And you paid—you paid Mitchell and Tanner $25 apiece for those entries the same as you had in the others? A. I did.

Q. Then you didn't have Pierce Mays employed?

A. I don't think he had anything to do with those.

Q. No, and you—did you have any correspondence with the Mealeys about those affidavits?

A. I can't recall any correspondence. I remember—I think I talked the matter over with them, probably I did.

Q. They came down here to Portland frequently about it?

A. They have been here. I have met them at Albany. [622]

Q. Did you have any—how many of those affidavits did you take in that case or help take—assist in taking?

A. I was up at Brownsville and there were not very many of the people there and I think I took two affidavits up there—possibly three; I don't recollect.

Q. That is this case?

A. That is the first case.

Q. Didn't you help take the affidavit of Rozell and one or two more in this case?

A. I don't remember those people at all.

Q. You had Mr. Van Zante and Mr. Tanner look after that?

A. At the time Mr. Van Zante went up to Sweet Home, I was not there at all.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

Q. The Mealey boys were there?

A. That is their home.

Q. And you hadn't—you didn't talk to any of those fellows up there personally?

A. No, sir, I was not up there at Sweet Home until about seven or eight years after. Those affidavits were taken in—

Q. You saw the affidavits when taken up there by Mr. Van Zante?

A. Some time after; I had copies of them.

Q. And when those fellows said they had transacted the matters personally with you, you knew that wasn't so?

A. Well, I wasn't there and the Agent took them. They made their own affidavits and he sent them off. I simply filed the affidavits away.

Q. I say, you saw there that the parties had made false statements as to their transactions with you?

A. I may have read it all over at the time. I don't recollect much about it. [623]

Q. Didn't make any impression on you then as being false at all?

A. I didn't look at it anyway. That where they had their mortgage—that it was to be for $600 or thereabouts and that would be covering the money that would be coming, as I understood it at that time, the idea I had, to the Mealey brothers and Thompson.

Q. You hadn't paid any money on a mortgage?

A. I paid the entrance fee.

Q. Yes.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. And then took a note for enough, to cover enough more to protect them in case the lands were not deeded, and I don't claim I did pay it.

Q. And you didn't pay another cent until you got deeds?

A. And when the deeds came down the mortgages and notes were returned to whoever had made them; and whenever the deeds came then the payment was made.

Q. In most instances, there wasn't any mortgage at all. Got deed the very same day.

A. I don't know as it is in most. Probably one-third of the cases that—I could tell that by looking up the data here. I never looked it up.

Q. Well, anyhow, whenever there was a mortgage, you never paid anything over, above the filing fees, or proof fees, until you got a deed?

A. No, whenever I got a deed I paid on those patents what I paid in the Land Office and the price that I had agreed to give for the land.

Q. The mortgage, instead of being security for a loan, was a bar to beating you out of getting the land? A. Well, not exactly.

Q. That was its purpose? [624]

A. It was not.

Q. What was its purpose?

A. In case they sold to anyone else I could put it of record and be protected for the money that I paid into the Land Office.

Q. That is, if you did not get the land that you started out to get? If the fellow violated his implied or expressed agreement with you people, then you would force him to pay the money that he had actually got of you—keep yourself whole?

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. There was no implied, around-behind-the-door business at all.

Q. You knew at that time that on proof—the final proof, in timber and stone entries required a man to testify he had not agreed to sell the land to anybody, didn't you?

A. He didn't have to do that. No claim—he had borrowed it and gave a mortgage on it.

Q. You knew that question was asked—whether or not you had agreed to sell your land to anybody since you entered it up to the present time?

A. Up to the time of proof?

Q. Yes.

A. Certainly, and the way they put it to me, they could answer no.

Q. Yes, and it was in order to evade that proposition that you fellows framed up that mortgage business? A. Nothing of the kind.

Q. So that you could pretend to be making a bona fide loan when you actually had an agreement and understanding with the fellow that you were going to get the land?

A. Nothing of the kind.

Q. You knew you were going to get the land in every case— [625] expected to?

A. I hoped to and expected to, but didn't know until I got it.

Q. You were so dead sure of getting it, you wasn't taking much chance.

(Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs.)

A. You take chances on everything and on every proposition, you go into.

Q. And the purpose of the mortgage was to evade that proposition that you thought was being required by the law at that time? A. No, sir.

Q. It wasn't?

A. No, sir. I have answered that a dozen times and will keep answering it the same way as long as you ask.

Redirect examination of Mr. Kribs applies wholly to case No. 3320. [626]

[Testimony of Irvin Rittenhouse, for the Government (Recalled in Rebuttal).]

IRVIN RITTENHOUSE, recalled in rebuttal.

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

I think Mr. Rittenhouse has been called on this same case. He has testified in relation to some statements and affidavits that were taken before him. I show you, Mr. Rittenhouse, an affidavit or a statement, whatever you are a mind to call it, of J. A. Thompson, William R. Mealey and O. J. Mealey, dated the 13th day of January, 1905, and ask you whether or not you took that statement down in shorthand or transcribed it on the typewriter?

A. I took it down in shorthand and then transcribed it as the statement of O. J. Mealey and W. R. Mealey and J. A. Thompson.

Q. Who else was present there at the time besides yourself and the parties?

A. Well, Mr. Burnus was present and probably

(Testimony of Irvin Rittenhouse.)

Mr. Heney. I don't know. It was taken in a room over here at the Portland Hotel—Mr. Heney's room.

Q. Yes. Was that a voluntary statement of those parties at the time?

Mr. LIND.—That is objected to as leading and calling for a conclusion.

Mr. McCOURT.—I will let you people ask the circumstances under which it was made.

Q. Was that correctly transcribed at the time?

A. Yes, sir. It was transcribed as taken.

Q. Did the parties read it at the time?

A. They read over it before they signed it.

Q. Understood it?

A. I suppose they did. Read over it before they signed it— [627] was sworn to it.

Mr. McCOURT.—I will ask to introduce the statement in evidence so far as it may be applicable against the defendants J. A. Thompson, William R. Mealey and O. J. Mealey.

COURT.—They are all parties?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, all parties.

Mr. UELAND.—It is understood it is not offered as against our clients.

Mr. McCOURT.—No.

Marked "Government's Exhibit 83."

[Government's Exhibit No. 83.]

"AFFIDAVIT.

O. Judd Mealey, William Mealey and John A. Thompson, being first duly sworn, depose and say:

We took up three timber claims in Linn County with the understanding that they were to be sold to F. A. Kribs at the top price, $5.25 an acre, and after making final proof we deeded the claims to Kribs or some party who he designated as his agents. We then had an understanding with Kribs that whatever other claims we got for him were to be at a much less price. We had an understanding with Kribs that he was to furnish the money to make final proof. We secured about 23 claims under this arrangement, paying the claimants $50.00 each in the transaction, and all their expenses. After locating these men we took them to the Roseburg land office and had them make their filings, and when the time came for making final proof we again took them to Roseburg to prove up. We took them at two different times, and on the first occasion Kribs himself was at Roseburg and attended to paying the final proof money; on the second occasion Kribs was not at Roseburg, but Mr. Kribs had advised us by letter [628] that he had made arrangements at Roseburg to have the final proof payments made. After we took the men to the land office to make final proof and at the time said proof was made, Judd Mealey signified to the officials by a nod or a look that they were Kribs' men, and walked out, not paying any final proof money, but understanding as we had been informed by Kribs that he had attended to the matter. We then had the men sign certain notes, mortgages, and deeds, conveying the lands to Kribs through his agents. We then paid the men $50.00 apiece, and we received from Kribs two-thirds of the amount we were to receive, the other third being retained by him until patents were issued. Our profits on each claim amounted to about $92.00 each, or about $275.00 on each claim, which we divided between us.

(Testimony of Irvin Rittenhouse.)

This is the general plan under which we worked for Kribs in this deal.

J. A. THOMPSON.

WILLIAM R. MEALEY.

O. J. MEALEY.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 13th day of January, 1905.

WILLIAM J. BURNS.

Special Agent G. L. O."

Q. You notice, Mr. Rittenhouse—you work in the General Land Office, don't you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you been in the General Land Office? A. Since December 1, 1899.

Q. Have you noticed what is commonly called the Stratford reports in this 3320 case?

A. Yes, sir, I am familiar with those entry papers in these cases. [629]

Q. Is there any way by which those affidavits that are printed might be printed through the authority of the Land Office? A. No.

Mr. LIND.—That is objected to as incompetent. The witness not having shown himself competent to give an opinion on that question.

Q. Well, are you familiar with that?

A. Thoroughly familiar; in fact, I have charge of the preparation of blanks in the General Land Office and records. I am supervisor and have charge of the records of the General Land Office in addition to my duties in the Accounts Division. I am as familiar as anybody in the General Land Office with all papers that are prepared there and have been prepared for the last eight or ten years.

(Testimony of Irvin Rittenhouse.)

Q. Well, is there any way by which printed matter of that kind is made up under the authority of the Land Office?

A. Never under authority of the General Land Office.

Cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. LIND.)

When did you first observe these printed copies?

A. In December or January—December, 1904, or January, 1905.

Q. Were you at any time connected with Division "P" or examination of entries under suspension for one purpose or another—prior to that time?

A. No, sir.

Q. You say that the presence of these printed copies of affidavits were something unheard of, unusual, unknown? A. Very unusual.

Q. Unknown, uncommon?

A. Uncommon. [630]

Q. Wouldn't that fact, if so, have excited unusual suspicion in the General Land Office and in the Secretary's office?

A. No doubt did. It would and it did.

Q. It is a suspicious fact in itself, was it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. A badge of fraud?

A. Well, not necessarily a badge of fraud, but a circumstance that would warrant further investigation when they find a batch like this in contiguous tracts.

Q. Was there any further investigation on that score?

(Testimony of Irvin Rittenhouse.)

A. Well, that may have had something to do with further investigation—with the holding up of those claims in addition to the protest filed there in 1900. As a matter of fact, since I come to think of it, the clerk who had charge of those cases, Ogden, if I am not mistaken, said that was one fact in connection with them that aroused his suspicion—those printed affidavits.

Q. That aroused the suspicion of the Commissioner's office or of the Secretary's office?

A. I don't know anything about the Secretary's office.

Q. That was what caused the thorough sifting and investigation of these cases before they went to patent, was it? A. One of the circumstances.

Q. Now, at the time that statement received in evidence was taken, do you remember the date?

A. Well, Mr. McCourt's statement of it—I wouldn't have remembered it independently. I knew it was January some time. It is January 13, 1905.

Q. How soon was it after you came here?

A. About a month after I came here. I got here in December, 1904. [631]

Q. At the time that that statement was signed by the parties named, did you know them personally?

A. Only from seeing them occasionally around the rooms over there at the hotel.

Q. How many times do you think you had seen them around those rooms at the hotel prior to the time of that signing?

A. Well, I think they were around there several times before we finally took their statement. There were so many; there were probably fifty or a hundred entrymen around there at the time. I could not state definitely.

(Testimony of Irvin Rittenhouse.)

Q. Well, these men had been around two or three weeks, had they not?

A. They had been in town for quite a while, I think.

Q. Under subpoena? A. Under subpoena.

Q. Interviewed from time to time?

A. No, they weren't interviewed by us from time to time. By "us" I mean by Mr. Burns and Mr. Heney, so far as I know.

Q. Were you with Mr. Burns all the time?

A. A good deal of the time.

Q. Were you with Mr. Heney all the time?

A. Off and on. I worked for both of them.

Q. How many times had these men been interviewed, to your knowledge?

A. Well, my recollection is that they hadn't been interviewed more than once or twice before their statement was taken. I know they were around the hotel.

Q. How did they come to make this statement? Did they volunteer it?

A. Yes, they volunteered it.

Q. Why did they volunteer it?

A. You will have to ask them. I don't know. They probably [632] were scared after those others came in. The entrymen came in and were giving statements as had been reported, and why they volunteered, I don't know.

(Testimony of Irvin Rittenhouse.)

Q. Was Puter there a good share of the time?

A. Yes, sir, Puter was around a good deal.

Q. Constantly in those rooms?

A. Not constantly, no, sir.

Q. Well, I mean every day?

A. No, not necessarily every day. Mr. Heney and Mr. Burns didn't have Puter around there all the time, because Mr. Puter just came over to the Government, as it were, and they weren't willing to have him around and know everything that was going on.

Q. Well, he interviewed all those men, did he not?

A. No, sir, not all of them.

Q. I mean, most of them?

A. He would get leaders to us.

Q. You heard him testify on the stand yesterday?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You noticed,—you heard him say that he made statements to the parties that they must confess—admit some wrongdoing in order to be permitted to make a statement and be excused and go home. Did you hear those statements made?

A. I heard—Mr. Puter's statement or the statements that he says?

Q. Did you hear the statement on the stand?

A. I heard Mr. Puter's statement, yes, sir.

Q. Did you hear statements of that character made in those rooms? A. No, sir, I did not.

Q. Will you swear that those statements were not made to those parties who signed statements of this character? [633]

A. Oh, I don't know what Mr. Puter said to those parties. I don't know. Of course I wouldn't swear to that.

(Testimony of Irvin Rittenhouse.)

Q. But now, Mr. Rittenhouse, speaking as an officer of the Government, and knowing the situation as you do, is it your judgment that statements of that kind were not made? I will take your judgment upon it.

A. Yes, sir. It is my judgment that statements of that kind were not made.

Q. By whom?

A. By Mr. Burns or by Mr. Heney. As to what Mr. Puter said to these men, I don't know.

Q. He was commissioned by Mr. Burns to round these fellows up, was he not?

A. I don't think he was, no sir.

Q. He did as a matter of fact, did he not?

A. He may have helped to get them around there.

Q. Don't you know that he did?

A. I don't know that he did. I think Andy Nicholls was the man that did most of the work.

Redirect Examination.

Mr. McCOURT.—I have a letter written by Mr. O. J. Mealey that I would like to introduce in connection with that affidavit.

Mr. LIND.—No objection. Of course, not as against any of our clients.

Letter marked "Government's Exhibit No. 84," and read as follows:

[Government's Exhibit No. 84]

“Foster, Oregon, Jan. 18, 1905.

Mr. W. J. Burns,
Portland, Oregon.

Dear Sir:—

Knowing that you were very busy I thought best [634] not to intrude on your time at Portland. In regard to those two men (Pickens and Gilliland) who failed to give affidavits, if it is your desire you may forward them with instructions and I will do as instructed by you and will gladly assist you in any manner possible. These men's cases are similar like the rest that made proof at Roseburg. Mr. Pickens if you remember was sick, consequently was not able to return to Portland this last time, while Mr. Gilliland was excused to come home to attend to his sick wife, and has never been discharged and has instructed me to write you regarding his case and wishes to sign the affidavit and be discharged, but does not know what to do regarding his mileage on his subpoena. Trusting that you will instruct me in this matter, will close.

Yours respectfully,

O. J. MEALEY.”

Mr. McCOURT.—Here are a couple of deeds. Deed of O. J. Mealey and wife to Frederick A. Kribs; deed of John A. Thompson and wife to Frederick A. Kribs. I think that perfects the deed part of the record.

Mealey deed marked “Government's Exhibit 85.”

Thompson deed marked “Government's Exhibit 86.”

Witness excused. [635]

[Testimony of Fred Wodtli, for the Government (in Rebuttal).]

FRED WODTLI, a witness called in rebuttal, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

You live at Sweet Home?

A. At Foster.

Q. And where do you live with relation to the store of Watkins?

A. About half a mile at that time, away from the store. I lived with my father at that time, but at present I am living at Foster.

Q. Well, I want to ask you about certain persons that you have talked with up there. During the year 1900 do you recall Joseph O. Mickalson, Joseph Steingrandt, Oliver Errickson, John Gilliland, Alexander Gould, and Richard Watkins, taking up timber claims in that part of the country? A. Yes.

Q. Did you have any conversations with those persons or any of them up to the time they made their entries or proofs, as to what they had received for their claims, or the circumstances under which they had taken them? A. Why, it was open talk—

Mr. UELAND.—Just answer yes or no. Don't say what was said. Did you have such talk with them? Just say yes or no. A. Yes.

Q. And where did you talk to Joseph Mickalson?

A. In the post office Sweet Home.

Q. Was he alone there? A. Yes.

Q. What did he state to you about his claim?

Mr. UELAND.—Objected to as hearsay and in-

(Testimony of Fred Wodtli.)

competent [636] against the defendants we represent.

COURT.—Was Mickalson a party to this suit?

Mr. McCOURT.—Yes, sir, and it was at a time when the conspiracy, so far as anybody was related to it, was in active consummation.

COURT.—You can ask as against Mickalson, as he is charged in this bill as one of the conspirators.

Mr. McCOURT.—We want to except to the limitation if the Court please, so that if the Court should find we should be allowed a little more leeway later, we are entitled to our right.

Q. What did Mickalson say there?

A. He told me he was getting $50 like the rest of them.

Q. From whom did he say he was getting it?

A. From the Mealeys.

Q. Was that before he made proof or afterwards, or do you recall?

A. I couldn't—I couldn't say whether it was before or after.

Q. How near was it to the time at which he had made his proof—that is, relatively; it is a long time ago.

A. It was somewhere there close to proof or after.

Q. And Joseph Steingrandt—where did you talk to him? A. At the mill.

Q. At the mill that you were operating there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And did he talk to you about this timber claim? A. Oh, yes.

Q. Was that before he had filed or before he proved up afterward?

(Testimony of Fred Wodtli.)

A. I would judge it was before he made proof.

[637]

Q. What did he say?

A. He was getting $50.

Mr. UELAND.—We want the same objection.

Mr. McCOURT.—The same objection will follow.

Q. Did he say who he was getting that from?

A. Yes, from the Mealeys.

Q. Oliver Errickson—did you talk to him?

A. Yes.

Q. Where did you have your conversation with him? A. Right here in Foster.

Q. Was he alone or in a crowd?

A. Well, I couldn't say as to that, whether he was alone or not, but I had talked to him there in Foster in regard to this.

Q. What statement did he make in relation to his timber claim? A. He was getting $50.

Q. Was that before he had made proof?

A. I couldn't say as to that. It was about that time—close to that time.

Q. And John Gilliland?

A. I couldn't recall just the exact time that I had talked to him, but then I knew that he was—he had taken up a claim.

Q. Where did you talk to him?

A. I believe it was in Foster.

Q. Alone there or in a gathering?

A. I couldn't state now exactly that it was in a gathering, or whether it was just by himself.

Q. Well, what did John say about it?

(Testimony of Fred Wodtli.)

A. He was getting $50.

Mr. UELAND.—Same objection. [638]

Q. Whom did he say that was from?

A. From the Mealeys.

Q. Alexander Gould?

A. Yes, I talked to him at Foster too.

Q. Was that before or after he had made his proof?

A. I couldn't say as to that, but I think it was after.

Q. How long after?

A. Oh, it might have been a week or ten days—maybe two weeks. When he got back.

Q. And what did Alex say? A. He got $50.

Q. Did you talk to Richard Watkinds?

A. Yes.

Q. Where did you talk to him?

A. In the store.

Q. Was that before he had made proof?

A. I couldn't say as to that, whether it was before or after. He got—

Q. How near the vicinity of proof time was it?

A. It might have been two weeks either before or after. I couldn't say just the day. It is kind of faint in my memory.

Q. What did Richard Watkinds say?

A. He told me he got $50.

Q. From the same parties? A. Yes.

No cross-examination.

Witness excused. [639]

[Testimony of Frederick A. Kribs (Recalled for Further Cross-examination—in Rebuttal).]

FREDERICK A. KRIBS, recalled for further cross-examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

While on the claim of Richard Watkins, Mr. Kribs, do you recall the postponement of his proof?

A. I do not.

Q. That it was postponed beyond the time, beyond October 9th, until a week later—ten days later?

A. I recall a check of $410.75, I think was for his portion, but for what reason—why it was later, I do not know.

Q. Don't you recall that it was discovered about the time that Watkins was to start for Roseburg, there was a judgment against him up there in Linn County, and they couldn't permit him to make proof until that was gotten out of the way?

A. That is the first time I have heard of it—was right now.

Q. You don't know—didn't see that—didn't know anything about it? A. No, sir.

Mr. McCOURT.—May the record show that there was such a judgment? Something like $80 against Mr. Watkins in Linn County, and that it was satisfied on October 16th?

Mr. LIND.—If you know it to be a fact, just state that fact, but we don't want any inference to be stated in the record.

Mr. McCOURT.—I can't recall now who the judgment was in favor of.

Mr. LIND.—It is immaterial.

(Testimony of C. J. Reed.)

Mr. McCOURT.—It is understood that the question asked by counsel for the Government of counsel for the defendants may stand as a statement in the record and it is agreed that such was the fact. [640]

Mr. LIND.—Subject, of course, to the objection as to competency and relevancy.

Witness excused. [641]

[Testimony of C. J. Reed, for the Government (in Rebuttal).]

C. J. REED, a witness called on behalf of the Government in rebuttal, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

(Questions by Mr. McCOURT.)

You are the Marshal? A. I am.

Q. United States Marshal? You were such Marshal in 1908? A. I was.

Q. Do you recall the lodging in your hands of the subpoena ad respondendum in this case?

A. For whom?

Q. Against the defendant C. A. Smith?

A. Yes.

Q. In fact, against all the defendants?

A. Yes, all of them.

Q. State what information you had at that time, or secured at that time, as to the presence of Mr. Smith in Oregon and what effort you made to serve Mr. Smith personally in Oregon.

Mr. LIND.—That is objected to as immaterial.

Mr. McCOURT.—I think, if the Court please, it is material. Counsel has indicated an intention of claiming here that because a regular subpoena ad respondendum was issued followed by an application for substituted service rather than an original application for substituted service, that the statute as to eight of these claims, ran before a proper process was issued, and I want to show that as far as the defendant C. A. Smith was concerned, the Government understood he was in Oregon, and made an effort to serve him in Oregon. [642]

Mr. LIND.—Counsel entirely misapprehends our position. We do not criticize the form of the process by which these defendants were brought into court. He directed that and that is his privilege and pleasure, but we say that as to a nonresident defendant there is no service against him until a proper process be issued against him as a nonresident defendant. That is our position.

COURT.—I suppose the Government can show what they did under this process, for the purpose of making up the record.

Q. Go ahead.

A. Well, my records show and the accounts of the deputies who served this process, which are all a matter of record, that about May 30, 1908—

Mr. UELAND.—We don't think that is competent evidence.

COURT.—I suppose the Government wants to show what diligence he made to attempt to serve Mr. Smith.

Mr. UELAND.—Would a record in the Marshal's office prove that?

COURT.—The Marshal testifies from his records.

(Testimony of C. J. Reed.)

Mr. McCOURT.—He will supplement that by recollection.

A. My record shows the dates only,—the dates of the accounts. About that time—

Mr. UELAND.—Have you any personal recollection of those things you are testifying about?

A. Absolutely—so far as the facts are concerned, but not of the dates without looking up the accounts. I have a personal recollection of the facts, because they were all in my hands and these men did this work by my instructions absolutely.

COURT.—You may testify to what you know.

A. I was told in my office—Mr. Puter came to my office [643] and notified me Mr. Kribs was in town—or Mr. Smith was in town—was staying at Mr. Kribs' house. Mr. Puter was very anxious that Mr. Smith should be served, and I sent men to Mr. Smith's house about that—Mr. Kribs' house about that time. They called there and asked for Mr. Smith, and also went to Mr. Kribs' office, and were told in every case that Mr. Smith was not here, although Mr. Puter said that he saw him here in town with Kribs, and I made no service at that time. We didn't succeed in finding Mr. Smith. Then later Mr. Smith was reported to be up in the 11-7 country, around Sweet Home; had been seen at Brownsville, and I had a man go up there and make careful search and he couldn't find him; didn't find him.

Then later in August of that same year we heard that he was at Marshfield, and I had a man go down to Marshfield, and we didn't succeed in serving, although the report was that he had been there and gone. Then later, in February, we found him at Marshfield at the mill, and that was when he was served.

Q. Did they serve him twice?

A. Once.

Q. I had him served in Minnesota on August 11th.

A. Yes, but I didn't serve him in Minnesota. This is a record of my office. I served him here and as soon as—

Q. Must have been an alias subpoena ad respondendum issued.

A. Possibly—I didn't look that up.

Affidavit of W. W. Billings in Government's Exhibit
No. 4.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

GENERAL LAND OFFICE.

In the Matter of the Fraudulent Entry of WM. W. BILLINGS to the N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec. 17, and the N. $\frac{1}{2}$ of the N. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ and the S. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the N. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec. 18, Tp. 14 S., R. 3 E.

WM. W. BILLINGS, being first duly sworn according to law, testifies as follows:

Q. State your name, age, occupation and place of residence.

A. William W. Billings; age, 63; occupation, a farmer; place of residence, Foster or vicinity.

Q. Are you the same person who made a timber entry of the land above described? A. Yes.

Q. Who, if anyone, first suggested to you the advisability of taking up this land?

A. No one in particular, it was generally spoken of through the country.

Q. How far do you reside from this land?

A. About five or six miles.

Q. Who, if anyone, selected this land for you or located you on the land?

A. Mr. John Thompson.

Q. How much, if anything, did you pay him for his services?

A. About $40.00 or $50.00. He was owing me at the time.

Q. How thorough an examination, if any, did you make of the land before you applied to enter it?

A. We started at the N. E. corner section 18, and went clear across the quarter sec. by pacing, then we went west at least two or three [648] hundred paces, and came back through the land the whole length of it by compass, so that I pretty thoroughly understood the land. I had a general knowledge of the land before that time.

Q. How did you identify its land by its numbers as being the land on which you afterwards filed?

A. We went to and examined the witness trees at the N. E. corner of Sec. 18.

Q. What was your intention at the time you made this entry as to the use you intended to make of this land, after you had obtained the title thereto?

A. I, like the many of the people in here, was looking for big interest in lumberings. I have a family of three large boys that were interested very much in obtaining steady work; I didn't know but that I might lumber it myself. I was in hopes that the wheel of fortune would turn to my advantage.

Q. What disposition did you make of the land after you had obtained the title?

A. I was too poor to retain it. I sold it to Frederick A. Kribs for $800.00.

Q. On what date did you make your final proof?

A. It was tolerable well in August; I don't remember the date exactly.

Q. How long was it after you made your final proof before you sold the land to Mr. Kribs?

A. About a week, I think.

Q. Did you have the transaction with Mr. Kribs personally, or did someone act as his agent in making the sale.

A. Knowing from the advertisements in the paper that I could borrow money for the paying out on this land, I obtained temporarily from Mr. O. J. Mealey money sufficient to pay out on the land. He told me that Mr. Kribs would advance me the money on mortgage. I being a married man, I had to secure him a little better than some others. [649]

Q. I understand you to say that Mr. Mealey acted as the agent of Mr. Kribs?

A. Not at all only so far that he introduced me to Mrs. Kribs; if he had a any further interest as an agent I don't know.

Q. Did you borrow the money or any part thereof with which you paid the Government for this land and the other expenses, and if so of whom?

A. I borrowed a most of the money from Mr. O. J. Mealey; I had little myself. I am a Government dependent, myself.

Q. If you borrowed the money of Mr. Mealey, $600.00, why did you give Mr. Frederick A. Kribs a mortgage for the amount?

A. It was a temporary—to O. J. Mealey which had to be met. I knew nothing of Mr. Kribs until I received it of Mr. Mealey; of course, I had seen Mr. McKinley's advertisement in the Brownsville papers that he would would furnish money for men to making final proof.

Q. When did you first make arrangements with Mr. Kribs to get the money of him to pay Mr. Mealey?

A. Late in the afternoon of the day that I made final proof of the land at Roseburg. I believe it was the only time I ever saw Mr. Frederick Kribs.

Q. Did you at the same time and place make arrangements with Mr. Kribs to let him have the land for $800.00? A. No, sir.

Q. When and with whom did you make the agreement to let Mr. Kribs have the land for $800.00?

A. I can't tell the date; it well in the latter part of August, the last day, perhaps. It was through Mr. O. J. Mealey.

Q. Is it not a fact that you made your final proof about the 26th or 27th of August, and that the deed was made the 1st of September following that?

[650]

A. It might have been, but I was thinking it was the last of August, although it may be the 1st of Sept.

Q. How did you come to make the sale of the land to Mr. Kribs through Mr. Mealey?

A. Because I was virtually obliged to; I felt that I could not hold it in any way, and indebtedness had to be met.

Q. Who paid you for the land Mr. Kribs or Mr. Mealey?

A. Mr. Kribs paid me for the land; it came through Mr. Mealey.

Q. Where did you receive the money?

A. I received the money at home. Mr. Mealey brought it down to me.

Q. Where was the mortgage drawn to Mr. Kribs?

A. I couldn't tell you that.

Q. Where did you sign it yourself?

A. I signed it at home, I think, but am not certain; my wife and I both signed it together.

Q. You may state anything further which you desire in regard to this transaction.

A. Nothing more that I can think of now.

A. No.

Q. What caused you to change your plans in regard to the matter? A. I needed the money.

Q. Did you need it any worse a day or two afterwards than the day you made your proof?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the occasion of your needing it at that time? A. I was in debt.

Q. Did you borrow the money or any part thereof with which you paid the Government for the land or the expense incident to the entry? A. Yes.

Q. Who of and what amount did you borrow?

A. $700.00 of Mr. Frederick A. Kribs.

Q. When did you receive the money of him?

A. At Roseburg.

A. Directly after I proved up. The evening of the same day.

Q. Who was the conversation with?

A. O. J. Mealey.

Q. State what was said as near as you can.

A. I told him I wanted to sell the land and he said he would buy it.

Q. Did he say he would buy it for himself or for Mr. Kribs?

A. I don't know as he said. We just talked over about selling the land, agreed on the price that evening.

Q. Was the deed made out then and there and brought home by you to be signed by you and your wife? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you personally acquainted with Mr. Kribs? A. No, sir.

Q. Well, as I understand you, both the transactions of your borrowing the money of Mr. Kribs to pay for the land, and the sale of the land to him was through Mr. O. J. Mealey as his agent, is that correct? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You may state whether or not prior to your having made your final proof you had any contract or agreement, either expressed or implied, with Mr. Mealey, Mr. Kribs or anyone else that you would sell the land or any part thereof or any of the timber thereon to anyone after you had obtained the title to the same. address of witnesses; their reliability; abstract of their testimony: I attach hereto the testimony of the entryman.

15. Have any legal proceedings been instituted? No. [632]

16. Action recommended by agent: I recommend that the entry be held for cancellation for reasons set out more fully on attached sheets.

16. Continued: This entry is on of a list of 21, which were made at the Roseburg, Oregon, land office, of lands in the Eastern portion of Linn Co., Oregon, being in Tp. 14 S., Ranges, 2, 3 and 4 E. The entries being as follows:

R. C. Wadkinds,	John J. Gilliland,
John A. Thompson,	Sidney Scanlan,
W. W. Billings,	Joseph O. Mickalson,
Joseph Steingrandt,	Charles Wiley,
Richard F. Malone,	J. W. Rozell,
Samuel D. Pickens,	O. J. Mealey,
W. J. Lawrence,	Fred Wodtlic,
Cornelius N. Tuthill,	Louis Maynard,
Thomas Parker,	Oliver Erickson,
Geo. W. Pickens,	Alexander Gould,
Andrew Wiley,

All those entries were made by parties, who at the time, at least that the entries were made, lived in the county in which the land is located. In each case the land was sold shortly after final proof was made, to Frederick A. Kribs of Minneapolis, Minnesota. The transfer of the land appears, with one or two exceptions, to have been made within from one to three days after proof was made. The longest period between proof and sale, being in the case of Fred Wodtli, where proof was made on August 16th, 1900, and the sale on the 24th day of September, 1900.

In many of the cases, the said Frederick A. Kribs loaned the entryman the money with which he paid the Government for the land and the expense incident to the entry. In no case except that of Fred Wodtli does the entryman offer any reasonable cause for the sale so soon after proof, and in no other case is there offered any reason for the entry, except for pure speculation.

It appears to me that the statements of the entrymen, when considered in connection with the sale so soon after final proof, makes a good prima facie case of fraud in connection with the entry [663] in each case above mentioned except that of Fred Wodtli, under the construction placed by the Department upon the provisions of the Timber and Stone Act requiring that entries of this kind shall be made only for the exclusive use and benefit of the entryman, as laid down in the case of U. S. vs. Bailey et al. (17 L. D., 468), and U. S. vs. Searles et al. (19 L. D., 258), to which my attention is called, in Honorable Commissioner's letter of April 15th, 1901.

I have been unable to obtain the deposition or testimony, by cross-examination, of Frederick A. Kribs, for the reason that from the time I began the investigation, of this list of entries up to the present time, he has been absent from the State of Oregon.

I desire to say further that I have no hopes that at a contest, if one should be ordered, in these cases, I would be able to procure any additional testimony than that herewith offered, in support of my contention that these entries were made in the interest of the said Frederick A. Kribs, and for speculative purposes. Believing as I do that the facts shown make a good prima facie case of fraud in connection with each of said entries, with the exception of that of Fred Wodtli, I recommend that each of said entries be held for cancellation, excepting that of Fred Wodtli, for the reaso that they and each of them were not made for the exclusive use and benefit of the entryman, but were made for speculative purposes, and for the benefit of the said Frederick A. Kribs.

A. No, sir, I never saw him. [666]

Affidavit of Sidney Scanlan, in Government's Exhibit
No. 13.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

GENERAL LAND OFFICE.

In the Matter of the Alleged Fraudulent Entry of SIDNEY SCANLAN, to the W. $\frac{1}{2}$ of the
NE. $\frac{1}{4}$ and NE. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the NE. $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec. 28, and the NW. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the NW. $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec. 27, Tp.
14 S., R. 4 E.

SIDNEY SCANLAN, being first duly sworn according to law, testifies as follows:

Q. State your name, age, occupation and residence.

A. Sidney H. Scanlan; rancher, in vicinity of Foster; 39 years.

Q. Are you the same person who made a timber entry on the land above described? A. I am.

Q. Who, if anyone, suggested to you the advisability of your taking a timber claim?

A. No one.

Q. Who, if anyone, located you or selected the land for you? A. Wm. Mealey.

Q. How did you happen to get him to locate you?

A. Knowing he had been living in the country a good while and knowing that he helped survey that portion of the country, I asked him if he would locate me on a quarter section of timber.

Q. How much, if anything, did you pay him for his services? A. $50.00?

Q. When did you pay him that amount?

A. When I made the entry.

Q. Had you ever been on this land or in the immediate vicinity of it before you was shown the land by Mr. Mealey?

A. Not on the land exactly, but in probably three miles of it before he showed it to me. [690]

Q. How far do you reside from the land in question? And how long have you lived there?

A. I should judge it is about 12 miles, lived in my present residence two years.

Q. How thoroughly did you examine the land at the time you went with Mr. Mealey to locate it.

A. I put in some two or three hours looking over the quarter section.

Q. How did you identify the land which you examined as the land on which you afterwards filed?

A. By the Sec. corner, the bearing trees, the inscriptions thereon.

Q. You may describe the land.

A. It is the head of what is known as Canyon Creek; the land slopes and drains to the north, very mountainous and rough. There is no tillable land on it at all; as a rough estimate I should judge there is from 50 to 60,000 ft. of saw-timber to the acre.

Q. Did you make this estimate yourself from your own experience as a woodman? A. I did.

Q. What disposition have you made of the land since you made your final proof?

A. I sold it to F. A. Kribs.

Q. When did you make your final proof?

A. Oct. 9th, 1900.

Q. When did you sell the land?

A. On the same day, Oct. 9th.

Q. How did it happen that you sold the land so soon after having made your final proof?

A. A gentlemen met me on the street and asked me if I had been making proof on a timber claim; I told him I had. He asked me if I would sell it and I told him providing I could make more out of it by selling it than handling the timber myself. And he offered me $850.00 for it, and thinking that was more than I could realize out of it at the present time, I took him up at his offer. [691]

Q. Who was the gentleman you refer to?

A. I couldn't say. I didn't ask the man his name.

Q. Was it the man that you sold to?

A. I don't know whether it was him or his agent; I couldn't say.

Q. Do you know Frederick A. Kribs?

A. Not personally; I don't know that I ever saw the man.

Q. Where did you go to make the papers out?

A. I don't recollect now; it was some lawyer or N. P., but what his name was I don't remember.

Q. Is it not a fact that the same man who made out your final proof papers also made the deed to the land and that the papers were all made out at the same time and in the same office?

A. They were not.

Q. Did not the same man who made your final proof papers make the deed for the land?

A. He did not.

Q. Who made your final proof papers?

A. I forgotten the man's name. It was made out in the land office in Roseburg, by the officers.

Q. In what part of the town or what building was the deed made out?

A. I don't know what the building was, it was about 3 or 4 blocks from the Land Office.

Q. How long was it after you left the Land Office after making your proof before you met this man and made the agreement to sell the land?

A. About two hours, I should judge.

Q. Is it not a fact that after the Land Office opened at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 9th of October, you made your final proof, made a deed to the land, received your pay for it and left the town on the train which goes north about 11 o'clock in the forenoon of the same day? A. No, sir.

Q. Who, if anyone, furnished you with the money or any part thereof [692] with which you paid the Government for this land and the expense incident to this entry? A. No one.

Q. Did you take the money with you to Roseburg to pay for this land when you went there?

A. I did.

Q. Did you have any agreement or understanding either expressed or implied with Mr. Mealey, Mr. Kribs or anyone else prior to your having made final proof to sell or dispose of this land or any part thereof or any of the timber thereon to anyone.

A. I did not.

Q. Was the money for the land paid you in cash or by a check? A. Paid in cash.

Q. How much cash was actually passed to you at the time the sale was consummated?

A. $850.00.

Q. Do you own any real estate in the neighborhood in which you live or in which this land is situated?

A. I have a Homestead Entry but not proven up on yet.

Q. Do you live on the Homestead? A. I do.

Q. Have you ever give a mortgage on your timber claim, if so, to whom? A. I gave none.

Q. You may state anything further which may occur to you as being relative and proper testimony in this investigation.

A. Why, I think the ground is all covered.

A. I sold it to F. A. Kribs.

Q. How much did you receive for it?

A. $840.00.

A. I think the 18th of August.

Q. How long was that after you made your final proof?

A. I think it was two days; I proved up on it the 16th.

A. I think it was the afternoon after I proved up or the next morning; I don't know which. About the 16th.

Q. State the substance of this conversation as near as you can.

A. Something was said in regard to its being proved up, and if I wanted to dispose of my land. Well, I asked him how much he would give me for it and he told me. I told him that I would take it. I said Mr. Wodtli, Mr. Mealey and myself all took together and I said I would sell if the other boys would. I talked to Mr. Mealey and Mr. Wodtli said he wouldn't sell, and so we come to the conclusion that we would sell—that is, me and Mr. Mealey.

A. They were not; they were made out after I came home.

Q. Did you give a mortgage on the land at any time? A. No, sir.

person prior to having made your final proof to sell said land or any part thereof or any of the timber thereon [708] to anyone after you should have obtained the title thereto? A. I did not.

Q. Are you a practical woodsman? Are you conversant with the timber so as to be able to estimate the timber on a tract of land? A. I think I am.

Q. What is your estimate of the amount of timber on this tract?

A. I think I estimated it at 50,000 to the acre.

Q. You may describe this land.

A. It's on the S. hill slope, on the N. side of Big Rock Creek. There is not two acres of level land on it that is level enough to cultivate as near as I can judge, in one place, I mean.

Q. What was your intention in regard to the disposition you would make of this land at the time you filed on it?

A. Why, I calculated to keep it, until I thought there was going to be a R. R. here when I took it. I just wanted a piece of land and thought it would be either a benefit to me or my family.

Q. You may state what property you have where you live.

A. I have 120 acres of land in the Tp. and an interest in 160 acres of land.

Q. How did Mr. Kribs pay you for this land—in cash or by a check on a bank?

A. He gave me one or two checks for it.

Q. Was the check or checks given to you at Roseburg at the time you had a conversation above referred to or was it sent to you afterwards?

A. It was not give to me there. Well, after I made out the papers then he gave me a check or checks.

Q. What was the amount of the check or checks?

A. I know the amount was paid but don't remember whether it was paid in one check or two checks.

Q. You may state anything further which may occur to you as being competent and proper testimony in this investigation. [709]

A. Well, I told no one that I intended taking this claim until I was ready to take it. I located myself; and Mr. Wodtli and Mr. Mealey were with me.

Affidavit of O. J. Mealey in Government's Exhibit
No. 19.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

GENERAL LAND OFFICE.

In the Matter of the Alleged Fraudulent Entry of
O. J. MEALEY, of the SW. $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec. 26, Tp.
14, S. R. 2 E.

O. J. MEALEY, being first duly sworn, according to law, deposes and says:

Q. State your name, age, occupation and place of residence.

A. O. J. Mealey; occupation, ranchman; farmer; I live near Foster; age 34; Foster, Linn County, Oregon.

Q. Are you the same party who made a timber entry for the land above described? A. I am.

Q. At whose suggestion, if anyone, did you enter this land?

A. No one; my own intention to secure a good piece of timber land.

Q. How far do you live from this land?

A. About three miles.

Q. Were you well acquainted with this land before you made your application? A. Yes.

Q. You may describe this land by its smaller subdivisions having reference to the nature and quality of the land, amount of timber thereon as to whether it is hilly or smooth, the number and course of the streams, the direction in which it floats, and the other natural characteristics, describe it fully.

A. Well, I should say that the timber is about 4,000 per acre, and it's on the Big Rock Creek, it goes west there, and the country is mountainous. The SW. $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec. 26. [711]

Q. Who, if anyone, furnished you with money to pay for this land, or the expense incident of said entry? A. No one.

Q. What disposition, if any, have you made of this land, since you proved up on this land?

A. Sold it to F. A. Kribs.

Q. How long was it after you made your final proof that you sold the land?

A. I think it was about two days; proved up on it the 16th of August and sold it on the 18th, 1900.

Q. Why did you sell the land so soon after you had obtained title thereto?

A. Well, I thought I got what the land is worth, and found a place where I could use the money to a better advantage.

Q. Did you have the transaction with Mr. Kribs personally or did someone act as his agent in purchasing the land for you?

A. I had transaction personally with Mr. Kribs.

Q. When and where was the first conversation had with Mr. Kribs relative to sale of the land to him?

A. I seen Mr. Kribs at Roseburg after proving up.

Q. The same day?

A. Yes, after I proved up.

Q. Give the substance of that first conversation.

A. Well, he said, "I see that you boys have been proving up in that territory"; that he had already purchased some claims, so I understood, and he asked us if we desired to dispose of our land, and I told him yes, sir, that I did. Then, of course—well, he says, of course I couldn't sell until I had come home and seen my wife; then I came home and sold, and he sent a check for the same.

Q. What did you receive for the land?

A. $840.00. [712]

Q. You may state whether or not you had any agreement or understanding with Mr. Kribs, either expressed or implied, before you proved up on your land that you would transfer the same or any part thereof or any of the timber thereon to him after you should have obtained the title thereto?

A. I had not.

Q. How long had you been acquainted with Mr. Kribs prior to selling him this land?

A. I seen the gentlemen up here before that; I don't know how long—in May, I think, or June; about a month or two before.

Q. It's a fact, is it not, that he stayed at your house for some time while he was examining land in the neighborhood of the land which you afterwards located?

A. Yes, yes, yes; he stayed at our place.

Q. Was there anything said between you and him while he was at your place or at any other time in regard to your taking up a timber claim and his purchase thereof after you should have obtained title thereto?

A. No; I did not even know his business up there, at the time he was there I didn't; that's a fact.

Q. What was your intention to do with this land at the time you entered it?

A. To hold it indefinitely; I expected to sell the logs off of it.

Q. Are you a practical woodman?

A. I ought to be; I've been raised here. I say I am.

Q. Have you acted as a locator of parties on timber lands in this vicinity? A. Yes, sir.

Q. State what, if anything, you had to do with locating Andrew Wiley, Cornelius M. Tuttle.

A. Well, I took them back and showed them the land. [713]

Q. State, if you know, whether or not these two parties who you claim you located were shown the identical land on which they afterward filed.

A. Yes. They seen the land.

Q. How did you identify the land as the land on which they afterwards filed?

A. By the corner posts and bearing trees.

Q. Did you ever give a mortgage on the land that you entered? A. No, sir.

Q. What, if any, land do you own in the vicinity of the land you entered?

A. Only an interest in Sec. 4; that is, that's a part of my property, Sec. 4, R. 2. I've got a small interest there. Half interest in 40 acres.

Q. You may state anything further which may occur to you as having a proper connection with this transaction.

A. Of, well, it was taken in good faith. I believe I've covered the ground pretty well; although I took a timber claim up, after due consideration I thought it might be years before I would have an opportunity to sell the logs. I was also afraid of timber fires. I believe that's all.

O. J. MEALEY.
